ASU SOCCER GAME NOTES

QUICK KICKS...

• Arizona State will return home this weekend to continue Pac-12 play against Colorado and Utah, Thursday and Sunday afternoon. Action will get underway at Sun Devil Soccer Stadium with a 2 p.m. match against the Buffaloes on Thursday, before closing out the weekend with a 1 p.m. match against the Utes on Sunday.

• The Sun Devils will look to continue their four match unbeaten streak, following a weekend that saw ASU complete a come from behind win on the road at Cal this past weekend.

• The pair of home matches this weekend will mark the first time the Sun Devils will play back-to-back home contests since hosting New Hampshire and SEMO in back-to-back home matches on August 31st and September 2nd.

• The Sun Devils enter this weekend's slate as one of six teams who won matches on the opening weekend of Pac-12 play. Of the six teams to claim wins last weekend, ASU was one of only three teams to claim a road win, and the only team in the conference to successfully come-back to win their match.

• This week's slate of games will provide a stiff challenge for the Sun Devils, who will look to slow down the Pac-12's top offense in Colorado on Thursday, before taking on Utah, a team that ranks fifth in the Pac-12 in saves, on Sunday afternoon.

• Arizona State has been remarkable on defense this season, allowing just five total goals on the year. When Cal scored their lone goal in Saturday's match, it broke a streak of three shutouts for the Sun Devils, and marked the first goal scored on ASU since September 7.

• A win at Cal would mark the Sun Devils' first road win over the Golden Bears since 2006. Last season, ASU snapped their six match losing streak against Cal with a 1-1 draw.

CONFERENCE OF CHAMPIONS SITS ATOP THE COLLEGE SOCCER WORLD...

Five Pac-12 teams earned a spot in the United Soccer Coaches poll, the most ranked teams for the Conference this season. With Stanford at No. 1 and USC at No. 2, this is the fourth week the Pac-12 has claimed the top-two spots in the nation. No other conference in the nation has claimed the top-two spots this season and the Pac-12 is the only conference in the nation to have two teams ranked in the top-five every week of the season. The Cardinal extended its program-record unbeaten streak to 31 games after defeating Arizona 2-0. Stanford has not lost a game since Aug. 25, 2017, the 10th-longest run in Division I history and the longest since UCLA went 44 games unbeaten from 2013-14.

SCOUTING THE BUFFALOES...

Colorado enters Thursday's match with a ton of confidence following a great showing through the first half of the 2018 season. The Buffaloes boast one of the most potent offenses in the country, enter the week as the nation's third highest scoring teams (32 goals) and second in points per game (10.2). The Sun Devils will have their hands full trying to slow down two of the top scoring threats in the Pac-12 in Tatum Barton, who lead the league with 11 goals and Jorian Baucom who ranks second with seven goals already this season.

SCOUTING THE UTES...

Utah will begin their weekend with a Thursday match in Tucson, before heading to Tempe to close out their trip to the Grand Canyon State at Sun Devil Soccer Stadium on Sunday. The Utes enter this weekend following a heartbreaking loss to Oregon in their Pac-12 opener. Utah has struggled early in the season, but have found their footing on the road, battling to a 2-2-1 record away from home. The Utes have been supported by a balanced attack, that has seen five different players score goals. Paola van der Veen and Hailey Skolmoski have led the team with four goals each so far this season. In goal, Carly Nelson has anchored the Utah defense, already accounting for 31 saves this season.

DEFENSE DEFINING SUN DEVIL...

Arizona State has prided themselves on their defensive effort through the first half of the season. Entering Pac-12 play, ASU had recorded three consecutive shutouts, the first time the team had done that since the 2014 season. In that stretch of games, Arizona State had only had to make four total saves. Although the streak of shutouts ended this past weekend at Cal, Arizona State still did a phenomenal job holding the high-powered Golden Bear offense at bay. In the win, ASU allowed just five shots on goal, with keeper Nikki Panas getting a hand on four of those attempts. Conversely, ASU fired in 13 total shots, leading to the 2-1 victory.

BREAKING THE MOLD...

Prior to ASU's win on the road at Cal., the Sun Devils had not defeated Cal since the 2006 season. Last season, the Sun Devils fought a full 110 minutes and left the Bay with a draw, but this season, the Sun Devils used a pair of second half goals to escape Berkley with a 2-1 win. The pair of goals against the Golden Bears represents the first multi-goal game from ASU against Cal since 2009 (3-2 overtime loss) and stands as the fifth multi-goal performance by the Sun Devils against Cal in program history.

W-L-T PERCENTAGE PROVIDING ASU POSSIBILITIES...

Although the remaining Pac-12 schedule looms as a daunting challenge for the Sun Devils, ASU enters the week with a .75 win percentage on the season, a mark that is tied for 42nd in the nation entering Thursday's contest. Each year, the NCAA tournament unveils a bracket featuring 64 teams that compete for a chance to win a National Title.

NICOLE KEEPS SCORING GOALS...

Freshman forward Nicole Douglas continued her climb in goals scored this past weekend, netting the equalizer in Arizona State's 2-1 win over the Golden Bears. With her goal this past weekend, Douglas has scored an impressive six goals on the season, in just seven games played in her collegiate career. Douglas needs just four more goals to crack into a tie for 8th place on the single season goal scoring leaders list in Sun Devil soccer history. the last player to reach a double digit mark in goals scored was Cali Farquhar in 2015.
