#35 Women's Tennis Looks to Rebound Against #29 San Diego on Saturday

TEMPE – No. 35 Sun Devil Women's Tennis will wrap up its non-conference slate this weekend featuring a matchup against No. 29 San Diego to face the Toros. The match is slated to begin at 1 p.m. with live stats being available and can be seen on track tennis.

The team is aiming to rebound after falling to Washington last Sunday, but defeated Oregon 4-1 with four straight-set victories in singles play to get the victory. The team has won the doubles point five of the last seven matches to start the season.

Three Sun Devils have at least four wins this season in singles (Patricija Spaka, Sara Svetac and Karin Altori) and have a combined doubles record of 13-6 this season.

SUN DEVIL OUTLOOK

– The team has won 17 of the last 18 matches against San Diego historically. The Sun Devils are aiming to avenge last year's 1-4 defeat to the Toros.

– Spaka is 5-0 to begin her spring season in doubles and singles, marking the second time she's started the year unbeaten through five matches, her first coming in her freshman season in 2021.

–(Started Doubles 5-0, Started singles play 11-0 as a freshman)

–Spaka also leads the team with five singles wins and five doubles wins.

–The senior is three wins away from her 60th career singles win. In her collegiate career she has a singles record of 57-29.

–Sara Svetac is currently 3-0 this season when playing from the #2 spot in singles. The team is also 4-0 this season when she wins her single's match.

In addition, the team is 4-1 this year when freshman Karin Altori wins her singles match.

–The Sun Devils are currently 4-1 in the #2 spot in singles this year.

LAST TIME OUT:

The Sun Devils split their two matches this past weekend in the Pacific Northwest, beating Oregon 4-1 after dropping the doubles point. However the team fell to Washington two days later, 0-4.

IN THE RANKINGS:

The Sun Devils boast two players in the top-50 in the latest ITA Rankings which were updated on February 5. Emilija Tverijonaite is ranked 34th in the country after an NCAA tournament appearance and is currently 3-2 on the year. Sara Svetac entered the top-50 at the end of the fall and is currently No. 40. The Sun Devils are one of two teams (Oklahoma State) in the Big 12 to have at least two players ranked in the top-50 in the latest ITA rankings.

The Sun Devils have played a rigorous schedule thus far before starting conference play. The team has played five teams currently ranked in the top-30 (including San Diego) of the ITA rankings with four Big 12 opponents currently residing in the top-25 as of February 20th.

SUPERIOR SPARKY:

Spaka has been lights out to start things off in her senior year. Spaka is currently 5-0 in singles, with all of her victories coming in straight sets. Additionally, she has racked up a 5-0 record in doubles alongside partner Lily Taylor. Spaka currently sits at 57 career wins in singles as she continues her climb for 60+ singles wins. She cemented herself as the 46th different Sun Devil in program history to win 50+ singles matches.

SUPER SARA

The Sophomore is currently 4-2 this season and has split time between the #1 and #2 spots in singles, and was named Big 12 Player of the Week and earning a top-15 victory over Savannah Broadus of Pepperdine in the beginning of the month. Svetac came off a successful fall season where she went 8-4, and is also 4-3 in doubles when paired with Karin Altori.

NEW CONFERENCE, WHO THIS?

The Sun Devils were picked to finish fourth in the Big 12 Conference in the preseason poll announced on Jan. 7. The maroon and gold also picked up a first-place vote. In the first season competing in the Big 12, the Sun Devils boast a 98-23 record against current Big 12 competition. In the latest batch of ITA rankings on Feb. 20 the Sun Devils are currently ranked 35th in the country and are one of 10 teams ranked in the top-75 in the conference.

JAMEA JACKSON

Head Coach

Record at ASU.....4-3

Career Coaching Record.....37-17

Hometown Atlanta, G.A.

Education..... Oklahoma State

Bachelor's..... University Studies

- Announced has the third head coach in program history since 1954, head coach Jamea Jackson was hired on June 4, 2024 announced by Athletic Director Graham Rossini and taking over for legendary head coach Sheila McInerney who announced her retirement last May after leading the Sun Devils to the round of 32 in 2024. Coach Jackson comes to Tempe after being at the helm of the Princeton Tigers for two seasons, leading them to back-to-back NCAA Tournament appearances and was awarded the 2024 Ivy League Coach of the year and led the Tigers to as high as No. 30 in the ITA team rankings last season. In two seasons she has a 33-14 record in addition to a 13-1 conference record.
- During her time at Princeton, she has coached five All-Ivy selections which includes Daria Freeman who reached No. 2 in the ITA singles rankings and earned Ivy League player of the year, All-American honors and was named ITA Northwest Region player of the year.
- This fall, Jackson assisted sophomore Emilija Tverijonaite to the NCAA Singles Tournament, who became the first Sun Devil since 2021 to take part in the championships.
- Jackson is a former professional tennis player and has sought out talent at the national and collegiate level. Prior to coaching at Princeton, Jackson served as a national coach for nine years from 2013-2022 with the United States Tennis Association (USTA) to recruit top American talent and developing the nation's best junior and pro tennis players.
- Before becoming a coach with the USTA, Jackson served as an assistant coach at Oklahoma State from 2009 to 2013 at Oklahoma State University. In her four years she helped the Cowgirls go from unranked to a top-25 program and managed to recruit the No. 4 recruiting class in 2011, whereas led to the Cowgirls playing in their first Big 12 Championship in more than a decade in 2013.
- Jackson played professionally on the Women's Tennis Association (WTA) Tour from March 2003 to August 2009 and achieved a career-high ranking of No. 43 in 2006. She competed in all four grand slams and represented the red, white and blue in the Fed cup competition in 2006. During her professional career she notched top-20 wins over grand slam winner Maria Sharapova, Marion Bertoli, Amy Frazier, Maria Kirilenko and Jelena Jankovic.

ERIK KORTLAND

Associate Head Coach

Education..... LMU

- Erik Kortland begins his first season with the Sun Devils after being hired by Jamea Jackson on Aug. 5, 2024 as the associate head coach. Kortland founded the RKT3 group to help promote a new innovated approach to the tennis industry and joined the player services and sports marketing team on Yonex USA to help recruit and take care of US Juniors.
- In 2017 in Carson, California at Training Center West, Kortland was promoted to lead national coach for men's and women's tennis and was in charge of all women's and junior boys' programming. He played a key part in recapturing the Junior Fed Cup title in back-to-back years in 2017 and 2018 in Budapest, Hungary. The 2017 team consisted of current world No. 3 Coco Gauff, Alexa Noel and Connie Ma. In 2016, Kortland coached Amanda Anisimova to her first junior French Open final and first WTA Grand Slam win at the U.S. Open.
- Kortland was hired as a player development coach in 2013 by the USTA in junior development with the primary responsibility to develop the best prospects and creating programming for all juniors at the USTA Billie Jean King National Tennis Center, the site of the US Open. While working as a coach at Riviera Country Club, he served as a volunteer assistant coach at Pepperdine in 2012.
- Kortland began his coaching career as an assistant coach at LMU in 2001, after graduating from his alma mater with a bachelor's of Communication.
