This Week

- Oregon State concludes action in the month of January when visiting Arizona State Sunday at Desert Financial Arena in Tempe, Ariz. The dual is slated for a 1 p.m. PT start (2 p.m. in Arizona).
- The match will be televised live on Pac-12 Arizona, the Pac-12 Now app and Pac-12.com.
- Daron Sutton will call the match.
- Arizona State leads the all-time series, 23-19. The Sun Devils have won five consecutive duals, but the teams did not compete last season due to Covid-19 protocols.

Pendleton At ASU

- Head coach Chris Pendleton returns to Tempe for the first time since arriving in Corvallis prior to last season.
- Pendleton spent six seasons as an assistant coach at Arizona State, helping the Sun Devils to three Pac-12 titles.
- Pendleton also spent time as an assistant coach at Wyoming. He made his return to Laramie this past weekend when the Beavers defeated the Cowboys, 22-12.

Pac-12 Wrestler Of The Week

- Hunter Willits was named the Pac-12's Wrestler of the Week on Tuesday.
- Willits went 2-0 against Northern Colorado and Wyoming, defeating No. 11 Jacob Wright on Saturday.
- He is the third Beaver recognized this season, joining Mateo Olmos and Devan Turner.

Grant Willits Pushes To 18

- Grant Willits, at 141 pounds, is aiming to become the first Beaver to 20 victories this season. At 18-4, he is two ahead of Devan Turner.
- Willits would become the first Beaver to hit the 20-win plateau since Turner in 2019-20. He and his brother, Hunter Willits, led the Beavers with 11 apiece during the shortened 2021 season.

Turner To 80

- Speaking of Devan Turner, the redshirt senior won his 80th career bout in the Beavers' victory over Wyoming. He now stands in 44th place all-time in the Oregon State record books.
- Turner is one of 15 Beavers to compete exclusively this century who have reached the 80-win mark.

CHRIS PENDLETON

HEAD COACH

Second season at Oregon State
@ChrisPendleton9

Chris Pendleton, one of the most successful collegiate wrestlers in the history of the sport, was selected to lead the Oregon State program on March 29, 2020. He enters his second season as head coach in 2021-22.

In Pendleton's first season at the helm in 2020-21, Oregon State went 4-5 in duals that included wins over Pac-12 foes Cal Poly and Little Rock. OSU finished second at the Pac-12 Championships with 123.0 team points, just 15 points behind first-place Arizona State. Pendleton coached Devan Turner (133) and Grant Willits (141) to their second individual Pac-12 Championship titles. He led Hunter Willits (157), Ryan Reyes (184), and J.J. Dixon (197) all to a runner-up finish at the Pac-12 Championships. Brandon Kaylor (125) also earned a top-three finish, third-place, at the Pac-12 Championships.

Six wrestlers -- Kaylor, Turner, Grant Willits, Hunter Willits, Reyes, and Dixon -- qualified for the 2021 NCAA Wrestling Championships in the first season under Pendleton. Beaver wrestlers posted a combined overall record of 88-80 (.524) and 44-46 (.489) in duals. In 2021, OSU went 51-45 in matches decided by decision and 23-16 in major decision matches.

Pendleton arrives at Oregon State after spending the last six seasons as an assistant coach at Arizona State. The Sun Devils won three of the last four Pac-12 titles, including scoring 141.5 points (most by ASU since 1993) on its way to the conference crown in 2020. ASU finished the shortened season ranked No. 6 in the country and defeated seven top 20 teams, including snapping No. 1 Penn State's 60-match win streak.

During his six-year campaign in Tempe, he solidified himself as one of the premier coaches in the country.

Pendleton represented the United States as one of the USA Wrestling Freestyle Junior Team assistant coaches in Finland in August 2017.

During his time at Wyoming, the Cowboys made great strides, guiding his wrestlers to back-to-back West Regional titles, two-straight All-American honors and multiple conference championships. Pendleton also earned the Cowboys their fourth regular-season Mountain West dual title in six years.

In his time as a student-athlete at Oklahoma State, Pendleton was considered one of the top athletes in the sport. A two-time NCAA Champion and three-time All-American selection at 174 pounds, Pendleton led Oklahoma State to three-straight NCAA Team Championships in 2003, 2004 and 2004, while accumulating an overall collegiate record of 118-12. Pendleton was also the Big 12 champion in his weight class in both 2003 and 2005. In 2012, InterMat tabbed him one of the 10 Best College Wrestlers of the 2000s.

Pendleton is a key figure for Team USA. He was a three-time national team member as a competitor and has since served as a coach.

Pendleton is still active in the U.S. freestyle scene and wrestles in various competitions throughout the world. In April 2014, he competed in the ASICS Las Vegas/Open Wrestling Championships at 97 kilograms (213 pounds). Pendleton was also a three-time member of the U.S. National Team under Arizona State head coach Zeke Jones.

Coach Pendleton was the California prep champion at 145 pounds at Lemoore High School. He is a 2006 graduate of Oklahoma State with a bachelor's degree in sociology.
