#BYTHENUMBERS

+84
In 2013, ASU is outscoring its opponents 136-52 (+84 points) on points off turnovers while posting a +13 takeaway number. ASU has put points on the board following 76.7 percent of opponent turnovers (23-of-30) compared to just the 35.3 (6-of-17) percent clip ASU opponents are scoring off of Sun Devil turnovers. ASU has 17 touchdowns this season on 30 opponent turnovers, aided by five interception returns for touchdowns. In two years under Todd Graham, ASU has outscored opponents 275-110 in points of turnovers.

7-0
ASU is 7-0 at home in Sun Devil Stadium/Frank Kush Field in 2013. The last time ASU went undefeated at home was in 2004 when the Sun Devils went 6-0. ASU went 7-0 at home in 1996, 7-0 in 1981, 7-0 in 1975, 6-0 in 1973, 6-0 in 1971, 6-0 in 1970, 6-0 in 1968, 7-0 in 1964 and 7-0 in 1959. ASU has scored 20 or more in 20 consecutive games while playing at home, dating back to 2010. ASU also has outscored opponents 198-51 in the first half at home this season. ASU's 49.1 points per game at home this season are currently sixth in the nation.

18
Placekicker Zane Gonzalez had three field goals against Arizona to extend his streak of made field goals to 18, setting a new school record in the process. With 22 field goals this season, Gonzalez is creeping up on the NCAA freshman record of 25 that was set by UCLA's Kai Forbath in 2007 (25-30). Gonzalez has 125 points on the season, second in ASU history only to Wilford White's 136 in 1950. Gonzalez is No. 8 in the nation in scoring and leads the Pac-12 in kick scoring (10.4) by a wide margin.

6
ASU has eclipsed 50 points six times in games this season, breaking the school record held by the 1973 team. The team has accomplished the feat five times in Pac-12 Conference games following a 58-point effort against Arizona - a new record for either team during the Pac-10/12 era. ASU six games this season of 50 or more points surpasses its total from the previous four seasons combined (5).

#25 Arizona State, 28

LAST TIME OUT

September 21, 2013

#5 Stanford, 42

PALO ALTO, Calif. (AP) - What seemed like Stanford's coming out party this season - and it still might have been - ended with players feeling distraught and disappointed in the locker room.

Tyler Gaffney ran for 95 yards and two touchdowns, Anthony Wilkerson added 68 yards and another score, and No. 5 Stanford started strong and struggled late in a 42-28 victory over No. 23 Arizona State on Saturday night in the Pac-12 opener for both teams.

The defending conference champions controlled every facet of the game to turn the only matchup between ranked opponents this week into a lead of 29-0 at halftime and 39-7 through three quarters. The Cardinal (3-0, 1-0) scored twice in the air and three times on the ground, forced two interceptions, blocked two punts, tallied 10 tackles for loss and recorded three sacks.

Arizona State outgained Stanford 417 to 391 yards but looked overmatched until the fourth quarter.

Taylor Kelly threw for 367 yards, including three touchdown passes in the fourth, and Jaalen Strong caught 12 passes for 168 yards and a score in an otherwise disappointing showing for the Sun Devils (2-1, 0-1) after beating Big Ten champion Wisconsin in a controversial finish last week.

Kevin Hogan completed 11 of 17 passes for 151 yards and two touchdowns to Ty Montgomery to lift Stanford to its 11th straight victory. Montgomery, held without a touchdown last season after being slowed by a nagging knee injury, finished with four catches for 62 yards. He has at least one touchdown in every game.

#SUNDEVIL FOOTBALL NOTES

The No. 11 Arizona State University football program (No. 11 BCS/No. 12 Coaches) will face No. 7 Stanford on Saturday in the 2013 Pac-12 Football Championship Game. The Sun Devils are playing host this weekend and the game will take place at Sun Devil Stadium in Tempe, Ariz. Kickoff is slated for 5:45 p.m. MT and the game will be broadcast on ESPN.

The Sun Devil football program is currently in its 101st season of competition in 2013. The Sun Devils are 578-364-24 (.610) all-time and have appeared in 26 bowl games, compiling a 13-12-1 record in such contests.

Arizona State kicked off the 2013 campaign with a rout over Sacramento State, knocking off the Hornets 55-0 at Sun Devil Stadium, followed by a dramatic 32-30 victory over No. 20 Wisconsin. Following a loss to Stanford, ASU dispatched of USC, 62-41, before wrapping up their non-conference slate with a tough 37-34 loss to Notre Dame in Arlington, Texas. ASU rebounded with a 54-13 dismantling of Colorado at home before picking up its second win over a top-25 ranked program against No. 20 Washington on Homecoming, blitzing the Huskies in a 53-24 victory. ASU then two straight road victories, knocking off Washington State, 55-21, before edging Utah, 20-19, in a thriller in Salt Lake City. The Sun Devils followed that with a 30-17 victory at home over Oregon State. ASU dropped then-No. 14 UCLA in Pasadena to clinch the Pac-12 South Championship before wrapping up the regular season with a 58-21 rout over Arizona for the Territorial Cup. Complete game recaps from all games are located on Page 11.

ON THE AIR The MidFirst Bank Sun Devil-IMG Sports Network will carry all 12 of ASU's football games live on its 10-station radio network, including flagship station Sports 620 KTAR AM. Tim Healey (play-by-play) and former Sun Devil quarterback Jeff Van Raaphorst (color analyst) will call the action with Doug Franz reporting from the sidelines. This week's game will be broadcast on 620 KTAR AM. Weekly radio coverage begins two hours prior to kickoff with the "Talking Stick Resort Sun Devil Tailgate Show," hosted by Doug Franz. The game will also be broadcast on Sirius Channel 113 and XM Channel 194.

LIGHTS, CAMERA, ACTION Saturday's contest will mark the fourth appearance for ASU on the ESPN Family of Networks this season. ASU is currently 3-0 on games played on the ESPN channels this season with victories over #20 Wisconsin and USC. The Sun Devils will kick off at approximately 5:45 p.m. Arizona time. ON THE CARDINAL Arizona State is 16-12 all-time against Stanford and is 10-4 against the Cardinal at home. ASU has dropped the last three contests to the Cardinal, including a 42-28 loss earlier this season in Palo Alto. Stanford enters the game ranked No. 7 in the nation in both the AP and BCS Rankings. The winner of Saturday's contest will earn a spot in the 100th playing of the Rose Bowl. This will be Arizona State's first appearance in the Pac-12 Championship Game, which is now in its third season of existence. Saturday's game also pits the 2013 Pac-12 Coach of the Year against the 2011 and 2012 honoree, David Shaw. The Cardinal come in with one of the nation's stingiest run defenses, allowing just 87.3 yards per game on the ground. ASU is averaging 229.1 yards per game in its last seven games but only had 50 yards the last time these two teams played.

GAME NOTES FROM ARIZONA VICTORY

-Arizona's lead in the all-time series with Arizona State has slimmed to 47-39-1. Coming into the game, the last four games had been decided by less than a touchdown, as well as seven of the last nine, but the Sun Devils' 37-point winning margin was the most in the matchup between the two teams since 1996, when ASU beat UA, 56-14. ASU has won back-to-back Territorial Cup games for the first time since it won three-straight from 2005-07. The Wildcats won back-to-back matchups in 2008-09.

-ASU's 58 points is the most scored in a Territorial Cup game in the Pac-12 era (1978-present). The previous high came in 1996 when the Sun Devils put up 56 against Arizona in Tucson.

-Before Arizona State's home victory, the visiting team had won the past four Territorial Cup matchups, and five of the last seven between the two teams.

-Taylor Kelly became Arizona State's record-holder for total points responsible for, breaking Mike Pagen's record of 198 set all the way back in 1981. Kelly has been responsible for a total of 210 points so far this season on 27 passing touchdowns and eight rushing touchdowns.

-The attendance for Saturday night's Territorial Cup was 72,542; it was the 12-largest crowd in Sun Devil Stadium history.

-Arizona's season-low for points is six when they faced Washington earlier this season. The Sun Devils held UA to only seven points through the first half Saturday night.

#SUNDEVIL FOOTBALL NOTES

NOTABLE NUMBERS

—The Sun Devils have forced an opponent turnover in 25 consecutive games, the third-longest active streak among all FBS institutions behind only Stanford and Missouri.

—ASU's victory over Arizona was the Sun Devils' eighth conference victory of the season, matching the school record set in 1996 (8-0). Additionally, all eight of ASU's victories came consecutively and capped a streak that marked just the 13th time in history the Sun Devils won five or more conference games in a row (Border and WAC years included). Prior to this season, ASU had won five or more conference games in a row just three times ('96, '97, '07) since 1987.

—The Arizona State defense has had an interception return for a touchdown five times this season and once in each of the last three games. The team accomplished the feat three times in 2012 for a total of eight during Todd Graham's two years as head coach. The number is notable as ASU had just four interception returns for a touchdown in the three previous seasons prior to Todd Graham's arrival at ASU.

—ASU is 7-0 at home in Sun Devil Stadium/Frank Kush Field in 2013. The last time ASU went undefeated at home was in 2004 when the Sun Devils went 6-0. ASU went 7-0 at home in 1996, 7-0 in 1981, 7-0 in 1975, 6-0 in 1973, 6-0 in 1971, 6-0 in 1970, 6-0 in 1968, 7-0 in 1964 and 7-0 in 1959.

—Placekicker Zane Gonzalez has 124 points on the season, second in ASU history only to Wilford White's 136 in 1950. Gonzalez's 124 points also puts him first in points by kicking in a single season for a Sun Devil, breaking the previous record of 118 set by Thomas Weber (2007) and Mike Barth (2002). Gonzalez has made 22 field goals and 58 extra points thus far this season.

—With the 58 points scored against Arizona, ASU now has six games of scoring more than 50 points in 2013. The six games posting 50 points or more is the most in a single-season in school history. That had never been accomplished until this year.

STRIKE FIRST With Zane Gonzalez's 38-yard field goal on ASU's first possession against Arizona, Arizona State has scored first in 21 of the 25 games with Todd Graham at the helm, and is 9-1 in such contests this season. The Sun Devils are now 16-5 in the Todd Graham era when getting on the scoreboard first.

STRIKE FAST The quick-hitting offense has become a staple of the Todd Graham-coached Sun Devils, with 106 of ASU's 148 offensive scoring drives under Graham coming in three minutes or less (71.6 percent). That being said, ASU also has 14 scoring drives of four minutes or longer in 12 games this season, compared to having three such drives in the entirety of 2012. ASU's high-powered offense still resonates with the high number of quick scoring drives this season, though, scoring in three minutes or less on 56 of the team's 82 scoring drives to date (68.3 percent). There has been a direct correlation between the time of ASU's scoring drives this season and the points per scoring drive as well. When ASU scores in three minutes or less, it averages 6.2 points per drive. When the drive lasts longer than three minutes, ASU's average drops to 5.4 points per drive. In ASU's 14 drives this season lasting longer than four minutes, the team is averaging just 4.1 points per score.

START STRONG...FINISH STRONG The Sun Devils have now outscored their opposition 265-112 in the first quarter under Todd Graham and are outscoring opponents 117-43 in the first this season. The Sun Devils are 13-1 under Graham when holding their opposition scoreless in the first and have done so in six of the team's 10 wins this season. ASU improved to 16-0 when leading at halftime with Graham as coach following the Arizona contest. ASU also knows how to close out games, outscoring teams 255-134 in the fourth quarter of games under Graham. ASU has outscored its opponent in nine of 13 games in the fourth quarter this season, with two exceptions coming in games that were well in hand against USC and Colorado.

WINNING BY WAY OF TKO (TAYLOR KELLY OFFENSE) The school record holder in completion percentage and efficiency after last season, Taylor Kelly has thrown for 27 touchdowns with 11 interceptions this season (one coming on a Hail Mary against Stanford). Through 12 games, Kelly already has 3,337 passing yards and is averaging 278.1 yards per game and is on pace to challenge the school records in both categories. He is just the second Sun Devil to have multiple seasons with 3,000+ passing yards behind only Andrew Walter (3). This season, Kelly has moved into the top five in seven single season school record lists including: passing yards, passing yards per game, completions, attempts, total offense, total offense, yards per game, and points responsible for. Statistically, the team relies heavily on Kelly's ball protection, as ASU is 6-7 with Kelly as the starter when he throws an interception, compared to an unblemished 12-0 record when he doesn't. That being said, all six of those victories have come this season, showing ASU's improved ability to overcome adversity at the hands of turnovers. Kelly had been on a bit of a hot streak of late as he currently ranks 13th nationally in points responsible for with 210, breaking the previous school record in the category of 198 previously set by Mike Pagel in 1981. Kelly has 27 passing touchdowns and eight rushing touchdowns on the season.

HE'S GOT LEGS, AND HE KNOWS HOW TO USE THEM Taylor Kelly's ability to extend plays was exceptional last season, as demonstrated by his 516 net rushing yards on 134 attempts on the year - a mark skewed by the fact that sacks count against his rushing total. If you take out sacks, Kelly would have led the team in yardage and yards per carry with 690 net rushing yards last season on 103 carries (6.7 ypc). Sacks aside in 2013, Kelly has 596 rushing yards on 96 attempts (6.2 ypc) and has been on fire in the last seven games with eight rushing touchdowns while rushing for 390 yards (sacks excluded) on 68 carries (5.7 yards per rush). Those eight touchdowns are notable as Kelly had just one rushing touchdown in 18 games prior to the current streak. Kelly is second on the team with 33 rushes for first down, trailing only Marion Grice (45). He is also second on the team in "explosive plays" on the ground (rushes of 12 or more yards) with 15 this season, trailing only Marion Grice's 19. Additionally, Kelly has now punted 14 times in his career, with 10 of those being downed inside of the 20-yard line. Kelly had a season-long 50-yarder against Oregon State.

TAYLOR MADE ON THIRD DOWN Third down is Taylor Kelly down. The junior quarterback leads the team in third down rushes this season with 20. Eleven of those have gone for a first down and five have gone for a touchdown, more than the entire team has combined on third down this season, rushing or receiving (3). Kelly averages a team leading 6.8 yards per rush on third down and is currently tied for sixth nationally in touchdown rushes on third down with five.

#DYNAMICDUO Marion Grice and D.J. Foster are two of just five FBS players that returned this season that had both 400 yards on the ground AND through the air last year and are back at it again this season. The pair duo has combined for 2,291 yards of total offense and 27 touchdowns, representing 40.3 percent of ASU's 5,679 yards for scrimmage this season and 45.0 percent of the team's offensive touchdowns. The duo has been instrumental in moving the chains as well, accounting for 107 of the team's 280 non-penalty induced first downs this season (38.2 percent). Foster and Grice are ranked first and third, respectively, this season in receiving yards by a running back (550 and 438).

TWO IS BETTER THAN ONE Grice and Foster return 2,130 combined yards from last season (1,172 rushing, 958 receiving) and 25 touchdowns. Among Pac-12 programs returning dual backs where one back didn't take over 75 percent of the touches between the two, only the Oregon squads returned numbers that came close to stacking up. Oregon State returns Storm Woods and Terron Ward, who combined for 1,747 yards (1,355 rushing, 392 receiving) and 19 touchdowns. Oregon, which lost Kenjon Barner to graduation, returns a tandem of De'Anthony Thomas and Byron Marshall, who put up a combined 1,607 yards (1,148 rushing, 459 receiving) and 20 touchdowns.

FOSTER THE PEOPLE D.J. Foster was second on the team in all-purpose yardage with 1,026 yards last year (493 on the ground and 533 by air). He has 19 explosive plays this season (11 receiving, eight rushing), currently third on the team. Foster has made his mark in the receiving game this season with 54 grabs for 550 yards (10.2 ypc), ranking second on the team in both categories. He posted his first career multi-touchdown game against Washington State, logging two receiving touchdowns in the contest. He also has a knack for getting to the first down marker as he is currently tied for second on the team with 41 first downs on 119 touches this season (34.4 percent). Foster had a career day on the ground against Arizona with career highs in carries (23), yards (124) and touchdowns (2).

A STRONG START All told, 23 Sun Devils have made their debuts this season, but few are turning as many heads as Jaelen Strong. The junior college transfer leads the team in receptions and yards with 63 grabs for 1,067 yards (5.9 rpg/83.4 ypg) and five touchdowns this season. In his first four games, Strong made his mark by posting the best four starts of any receiver in term of yards and receptions in school history. Prior to Strong, no Sun Devil wide receiver in history had posted more than one 100+ yard game in their first four starts. Strong accomplished the feat three times in that span and currently has seven 100+ yard games through his first 12 games at ASU. Despite it being his first season, Strong is on pace to leave his name in the record books. With 69 receptions this season, Strong is already fourth on ASU's all-time single season receptions list while his current clip of 5.8 receptions per game would finish third for a Sun Devil in a single season.

#SUNDEVIL FOOTBALL NOTES

THE FORCE IS STRONG Just as impressive as Jaelen Strong's statistics are, his ability to make catches when they count can't be overlooked. A total of 45 of his receptions have gone for first downs while he has also drawn nine pass interference penalties against opposing defenses (five of which resulted in first downs, four were declined as they were all still caught for either a first down, touchdown or two-point conversion), thus playing a role in 50 of ASU's 305 total first downs this season (17.7 percent). Putting that in perspective, ASU's leading wide receiver last season has just 28 first downs in the entirety of 2012. His 11 receptions for a first down when the team is facing third or fourth down currently lead the team and two of his four touchdown grabs this season have come on fourth down. His 105 receiving yards on fourth down this season lead the nation while his two touchdowns and four receptions when facing fourth down are second nationally. Additionally, Strong is second on the team in explosive plays (rushes over 12 yards and receptions over 16 yards) with 28 this season. The leading receiver for the Sun Devils over the entire 13 games last season in the category had 18 explosive receiving plays, a figure Strong took just six games to break.

HOLD 'EM BACK ASU prided itself on its aggressive defense last season, forcing 117 tackles for a loss of 497 total yards - a 9.00 TFL per game mark that led the nation. As a whole, ASU had a combined 155 defensive plays that went for a loss or no gain out of 953 offensive plays the opposition ran and if you tack on incomplete passes to the mix, then ASU forced 341 plays that did not result in positive yardage (35.8 percent of opponent's plays from scrimmage). ASU had eight tackles for loss against Arizona and four stops at the line of scrimmage along with 15 incomplete passes (27 negative or zero-yardage plays out of 79 or 34.2 percent of plays from scrimmage). To date this season, the ASU defense has held offenses to 305 plays (out of 805 by the opposition) that have not earned positive yardage (includes incomplete passes) - a 37.9 percentage rate of plays run from the line of scrimmage. The Sun Devils are currently 22nd nationally and second in the conference in tackles for loss per game (7.2).

BETTER SUITED FOR HANDKERCHIEFS The Sun Devils don't give referees much reason to reach for their pockets under Todd Graham. Fourteen of ASU's 18 least penalized games since 2006 have come under Todd Graham, including eight of the 12 games played this season. Since Todd Graham arrived at Arizona State, the Sun Devils have had just 99 penalties in 25 games (under 4.0 penalties per game). The team only has 44 penalties to date this season, on pace to stay below last year's mark of 55.

MORE ON PENALTIES Todd Graham has had a knack for having some of the most disciplined teams in the nation when it comes to penalty yards. In each of his seven seasons as a head coach, Graham's teams have been consistently ranked among in the top half of the least penalized teams in the country in both yards and penalties per game. In 2012, the Sun Devils finished 10th in fewest penalties (4.23) and eighth in fewest penalty yards per game (34.9). In 2013, ASU ranks fifth nationally in penalties per game (3.7) and is third in penalty yards per game at (28.5), leading the Pac-12 in both categories.

AIR RAID In 2012, the Sun Devil offense averaged 32.8 passing attempts per game in games amongst FBS opponents, a tally that ranked 68th nationally. Thus far in 2013 against FBS teams, ASU is averaging 36.7 passing attempts per game - a figure that sits 25th in the country. The number is also notable as ASU is also averaging 22.6 completions per game this season against FBS opponents, and is 25th nationally in the statistic. While some might look at that as a bad statistic or a reflection of a weak running game, but ASU is still moving the ball admirably, averaging 473.2 yards of total offense per game this season - over 20 more yards than it averaged per game in 2012.

LIGHT 'EM UP Putting points on the scoreboard won't typically be a problem with Mike Norvell heading the offense, as ASU has eclipsed 50 points six times in games this season, breaking the school record held by the 1973 team. ASU's 265 points at the midway point this season (six games) were the second-most in program history through the first six games of a season, trailing only the 278 posted by Frank Kush's Fiesta Bowl winning team in 1972, which holds the school record for points per game (46.8) and total points (562). ASU's 62 points against USC tied for the most any team has ever scored against the Trojans and marked the first time ASU had dropped 50+ on its Pac-12 South rival. It was the second most points ASU has ever scored in a conference matchup behind only the 65 scored against Stanford in 2002. ASU went 86 games without scoring 60 from 2005-2011. Under Coach Graham it has scored 60 three times (63 NAU, 62 Navy, 62 USC). The Sun Devils currently rank 8th nationally at 43.3 points per game. ASU has scored 519 points in 2013 through 12 games for a per-game average of 43.2 ppg. The 519 points scored in a single-season is tied for second-most in history with the 1973 team. The 1972 team scored 562 points. ASU's per-game average of 43.2 points ranks No. 3 on the all-time single-season list behind No. 2 1973 (43.3) and No. 1 1972 (46.8).

DROPPIN' A 50 SPOT ASU posted its fourth consecutive game scoring over 50 points against a Pac-12 opponent with 55 against Washington State has accomplished the feat six times this year. ASU's four straight 50+ games against Pac-12 opponents were notable because prior to this season, the Sun Devils had only ever scored 40+ against consecutive Pac-10/12 foes once before in 1996 when the squad put up 45, 48, 42, 48 and 41 against UW, UO, UCLA, USC and Stanford, respectively, in 1996. The team only has managed to score 30+ in four straight games in just three seasons during the Pac-10/12 era: 1993, 1996 and this season. ASU's 55 points against Washington State were the most it had ever scored against the Cougars and the most the team had scored in an away conference matchup since scoring 56 against Arizona in 1996 and was the third-highest tally for a Pac-10/12 road game in history behind the 62 scored against Stanford in 1981. The Sun Devils also set a Territorial Cup record as far as Pac-10/12 era games (58) in the victory over Arizona. ASU six games this season of 50 or more points surpasses its total from the previous four seasons combined (5).

MAKE 'EM PAY ASU isn't in the habit of leaving points on the board following turnovers. In 2013, ASU is outscoring its opponents 136-52 on points off turnovers while posting a +13 takeaway number. ASU has put points on the board following 76.7 percent of opponent turnovers (23-of-30) compared to just the 35.3 (6-of-17) percent clip ASU opponents are scoring off of Sun Devil turnovers. ASU has 17 touchdowns this season on 30 opponent turnovers, aided by five interception returns for touchdowns. Last season, the Sun Devil offense put points in the bank on 70.0 of its conversion opportunities, scoring 18 touchdowns off of 30 turnovers forced. ASU outscored opponents 139-58 in points off turnovers over the course of last season, despite posting just a middling +6 number in the takeaway category. Much of that came by way of the defense, which did an admirable job of limiting opponents following turnovers by the offense. Last year, ASU's opponents scored on just 41.7 percent of their drives following an ASU turnover and scored just seven touchdowns in that span on 24 turnovers. In two years under Todd Graham, ASU has outscored opponents 275-110 in points of turnovers.

TURNOVER FACTORY The Sun Devils have forced a turnover in 26 consecutive games (including every game of the Todd Graham era), an active streak that currently ranks tied for third among FBS institutions behind Missouri and Stanford. ASU leads the Pac-12 with 30 takeaways this season and is sixth nationally this year. The team is ninth nationally with a 1.1 turnover margin. The squad has 60 turnovers under Todd Graham in the last two seasons, tied for second most among FBS institutions with TCU behind only Houston (31).

#SUNDEVIL FOOTBALL NOTES

THE ALTERNATIVE DEFINITION OF "SCORING DEFENSE" Scoring defense is an official statistic credited to defenses based on how many points they allow per game. The ASU defense is working to re-write that definition with a defense that finds a way to directly lead to points on the board. The Sun Devils have five interception returns for touchdowns this season and one safety, making the ASU defense directly responsible for 37 of ASU's points this season. Last year, ASU had three interceptions returned for touchdowns on the year. Considering points off turnovers that the ASU offense scored, the ASU defense had a hand in 165 of the 499 points (33.1 percent) scored for the Sun Devils last season and have placed their stamp on 138 of ASU's 519 points (26.6 percent) scored this year. The icing on the cake for this statistic game on a goaline touchdown pass to defensive tackle Davon Coleman against Colorado, technically increasing ASU's defensive total to 145 points.

#NOFLYZONE The Sun Devil defense has been up to task in the recent six-game winning streak though, holding opponents to an average of 68.7 fewer passing yards than teams were averaging prior to the ASU tilt and no team in that time has thrown for more than their average coming in. ASU ranks third in the conference in passing yards allowed (217.2 per game) and fourth in pass efficiency defense (116.2). Against Arizona, the Sun Devils had three interceptions - notable as B.J. Denker had thrown four all season coming into the game. ASU now has eight interception returns for touchdowns under Graham, compared to posting just four total in the previous three seasons prior to 2012. The total is tied for second with Baylor behind only SMU (9) for the most in the past two seasons. ASU has 21 interceptions this season, ranked first in the conference and third nationally, and has 57 passes defended, ranked 43rd nationally. ASU's five interception returns for touchdowns this season are currently tied for first nationally with Florida State and Baylor. The Sun Devils have 42 interceptions in the last two seasons, tied for the most among FBS schools with Houston. The secondary has been especially impressive at home, holding opponents to an average quarterback efficiency rating of 108.94 in seven home games this season with 15 interceptions

GOLD ZONE One area that has seen improvement this season for the Sun Devils is red zone offense, with ASU putting points on the board 95.2 percent of the time against FBS opponents, ranking fifth nationally in the category, as per TeamRankings.com (and outside of mercy kneel to run out the clock inside the red zone against CU and OSU, is a perfect 100 percent in the last nine games). With exception of the mercy kneel vs. CU/OSU, ASU has now scored on 58-straight red zone drives. Last season, ASU scored on just 76.1 percent of their drives inside the 20 and ranked a lowly 93rd in the nation against FBS opponents. On the flip side, ASU is allowing its FBS opponents to score 86.5 percent of the time this season when entering the red zone (ranked 94th nationally), compared to an 80.5 percent figure last season that was 51st in the nation. That being said, the Sun Devils don't let opponents into the red zone often, doing so just 38 times this season, ranked 28th nationally for fewest opponent red zone drives (compared to 63 trips for the Sun Devil offense, fifth nationally).

WINNING THE BATTLE FOR FIELD POSITION The Sun Devils were largely exceptional when it came to starting field position last season, and continue to resonate a point Todd Graham habitually makes about being successful in the field position battle to win games. The Sun Devils didn't allow a single Oregon State drive to start in Sun Devil territory. Under Todd Graham, ASU has had an average starting yard line of its own 36.8 in 18 victories compared to a starting yard line of the 25.1 for their opponents in such contests. Conversely, opponents have an average starting field position of their own 34.8 yard line compared to ASU starting at its own 28.7 in ASU's eight losses under Graham. Last season, ASU posted an average starting spot of their own 33-yard line that ranked 10th in the nation. The Sun Devils also held their opponents to an average starting line of their own 28-yard-line, a total that ranked 24th nationally. All that being said, even facing bad field position this season, the Sun Devils haven't necessarily fared badly. ASU has 10 scoring drives of 80 yards or longer through this season (including the game-winning drive against Utah), a notable feat as ASU had six such drives in the entirety of the 2013 season.

CLOSING THINGS OUT ASU is outscoring opponents 129-72 in the fourth quarter of this year's contests. As whole, ASU has outscored other teams 255-134 in the fourth quarter under Todd Graham. ASU is fourth in the nation in points per fourth quarter this season against FBS opposition (11.5) after finishing the 2012 season with 9.3 points per fourth quarter, which was good for eighth nationally. ASU's 18.9 second-half points per game against FBS squads this season is currently 12th nationally. The team is currently 39th nationally in allowing 15.3 second-half points per game. The team's victory over Utah marked the second fourth-quarter comeback of the Todd Graham era and the first of the 2013 campaign. All these numbers are made more impressive by the fact that ASU had played in three consecutive blowouts prior to the Utah game and spent much of those second halves running out the clock against their opposition.

HALFTIME MOMENTUM The Sun Devils have done a good job of building some cushion heading into halftime this season, currently ranked fourth nationally in second quarter points per game at 13.6. The Sun Devils have scored 20 or more points in five of the second quarters this season and are outscoring the opposition 178-87 this season in the second quarter of games - the highest point discrepancy between ASU and its opponent in any quarter this year.

USE THEM WISELY Todd Graham doesn't hesitate to use his allotted three timeouts per half when his squad is on defense, a coaching technique that has plenty of detractors. A closer look at the result of the play following those timeouts might quiet some, however. ASU has used 14 timeouts this season with its opponents facing third down. The Sun Devil defense has forced a fourth down on 10 of those occasions (71.4 percent).

THE STREAK GROWS Seniors Evan Finkenberg and Osahon Irabor began 2013 as two of the most seasoned starters in the Pac-12. Only Oregon State's Michael Philipp (47) has more starts than Finkenberg and Irabor, who each have 45. Irabor's statistic is particularly notable as he has started all 45 of his games consecutively - a mark that paces the Pac-12 Conference ahead of Washington State's John Fullington, who has 42.

DON'T FORGET BRADFORD With the incredible season posted by Will Sutton last year, it was almost easy to forget the phenomenal year put forth by Carl Bradford. Playing out of the Devilbacker position, Bradford finished the year with 81 tackles (fourth on team), 20.5 tackles for loss (second on team and 10th-most in school history) and 11.5 sacks. His three forced fumbles tied Sutton for most on the team and his two fumble recoveries tied Deveron Carr for the team lead as well. He also added an interception for good measure. Since sacks started being recording in 1978, only four sophomores in Sun Devil history have amassed 10 or more sacks and Bradford's 11.5 were more than all of them - a list that includes Shante Carver (11/1991), Dexter Davis (10.5/2007) and Terrell Suggs (10/2001). Bradford was one of just five FBS players last season to total 80+ tackles, 20+ TFLs AND 10+ sacks on the year. Despite being held statless in two games this season, Bradford has 49 tackles (sixth on the team) with 16.0 coming for loss and 7.5 sacks in the process, both numbers leading the team. Additionally, Bradford has three forced fumbles while having five passes defended, including his first career pick-six against UCLA. He had a career high four tackles for loss against Arizona.

A SUTTON IMPACT ASU's consensus All-American, senior Will Sutton, finally got an opportunity to leave his mark against USC, finishing the game with 2.0 tackles for loss and his first sack of the season on USC's first snap of the game. Despite facing double teams nearly every snap this season, Sutton has 42 tackles, 10.5 tackles for loss and 3.0 sacks with a fumble recovery, an interception and three passes defended. Sutton was stellar against Utah, posting a career-high nine tackles while also adding his first career interception to seal the game against the Utes. While quarterback hurries aren't an officially kept stat, a look through the game tapes would show Sutton having his nose in more than a couple plays despite the lack of eye-popping numbers. Sutton posted 23.5 tackles for loss last season (fourth-most in ASU history) and 13.0 sacks (fourth in ASU history). Sutton now has 42.5 tackles for loss in his career, good for ninth in ASU history.

#DYNAMICDUOPARTDEUX Between Bradford and Sutton, the Sun Devils have as formidable a defense duo as any in the nation. Only 10 returning FBS players posted 10+ sacks in 2012. Sutton and Bradford are the only teammates on that list. There were a total of 51 FBS teams that had fewer sacks in 2012 than Sutton and Bradford had combined (24.5). Not since 1978 has ASU had a pair of players post 20+ TFLs and 10+ sacks in the same season (Al Harris 22 TFL/19 sacks and Bob Kohrs 20 TFL/14 sacks). As a team, Boston College only had one more TFL in 2012 than Sutton and Bradford had combined (44.0 TFL for Sutton and Bradford). Only 10 returning FBS players posted 10+ sacks in 2012. Sutton and Bradford are the only teammates on that list. 51 FBS teams had fewer sacks in 2012 than Sutton and Bradford had combined (24.5). Thus far this season, the tandem has combined for 26.5 tackles for loss, 10.5 sacks, eight PBU's, three fumbles forced, one fumble recovered and two interceptions.

NO LUMP OF COLE It's tough to get love in the media as a defensive lineman with guys like Carl Bradford and Will Sutton on your squad, but senior Davon Coleman is quietly putting up one of the most impressive numbers in recent memory. Coleman is tied for the team lead with 7.5 sacks this season and is second with 14.0 tackles for loss. Despite being a lineman, Coleman is fifth on the team with 51 tackles this season while adding one blocked field goal, one pass defended and even throwing in an offensive touchdown reception on the year for good measure.

#NOFIRSTDOWNFORYOU The ASU defense has forced opponents to 75 three-and-outs on 161 drives (46.2 percent), leading the nation in the category. Washington entered the Homecoming contest ranked third-best in the FBS in not allowing teams to force them to three-and-outs, only having nine of them in 77 total drives. The Sun Devils held the Huskies to six in the first half alone, and forced them to surpass their season total in one game, holding the potent Husky offense to 10 three-and-outs in the contest. ASU held Utah to four straight fourth-quarter drives that resulted in three-and-outs out of its eight on the day to help pave the way for the team's comeback. ASU has held the opposition to an average of 6.3 three-and-outs per game and the 75 three-and-outs forced this season are among the top five among all FBS institutions.

NELSON ISLE Cornerback Robert Nelson, who collected two interceptions in the victory over Oregon State, now has six interceptions on the season. That is the most since Troy Nolan had six in 2007. The most prior to that was six by Nathan LaDuke in 1989. Eric Allen had eight in 1987. Both Nolan and LaDuke were safeties so Nelson has the most interceptions in a season by a cornerback since Allen. Nelson has an interception in four of the last six games and five total interceptions in that time, returning his first for a touchdown against Oregon State. His 0.5 interception per game mark is fifth nationally and leaders the conference and his six total interceptions also pace the Pac-12.

NOT IN IRABOR'S HOUSE Defensive back Osahon Irabor was a force last year with 14 passes defended on the season to lead the team. The 14 pass breakups in 2012 were the most by a Sun Devil since Justin Tryon had 16 in 2007. Irabor was arguably the defensive player of the game against Wisconsin, leading the team with seven tackles and 2.5 TFLs along with a sack. Irabor currently is eighth on the team with 47 tackles this season. He already has 5.5 tackles for loss this season, an impressive statistic considering he had ZERO in the previous two seasons. Irabor recorded his first interception of the season against USC and followed that up with his first career pick-six against Notre Dame - a 37-yard march to the house which was notable as it was Irabor's fifth career interception but just the first to result in positive yardage after his return against USC was negated by a penalty. He is third on the team with five passes defended this season.

DON'T LEAVE POINTS ON THE BOARD Every team's offense hits the field hoping to score a touchdown on every drive, but few have been at successful at the task as ASU. ASU has now scored touchdowns on 63 of 159 drives this season (39.6 percent) and is ninth nationally in the category and second among Pac-12 institutions (Oregon is third nationally with 72 TDs on 154 drives). Ohio State leads the nation with 76 touchdowns on 142 drives (53.5 percent).

NOT PLAYING COY Chris Coyle put up one of the best seasons in tight end history at ASU in 2012. Coyle finished third in the nation in tight end receptions per game with 4.38. His 57 receptions led the Sun Devils and were a new single-season best all-time for ASU tight ends. Coyle finished with five touchdown catches on the year, one shy of the single-season tight end record set by Miller and Joe Petty. Coyle has 28 catches for 413 yards and four touchdowns to date this season, averaging a solid 14.8 yards per catch. Coyle now has 91 career receptions, holding sole possession of third on ASU's all-time tight end receptions list. His nine touchdowns rank tied for fourth in ASU history among tight ends with Jamaal Lewis.

INTERCEPTION DARBY Alden Darby has made a reputation as a ball-hawking safety during his four years at Arizona State, logging his seventh and eighth interception of his career against USC and recording his second pick-six in the process. He added his ninth career interception against OSU and one more against Arizona for his 10th. He now has 253 all-time career interception return yards, which is the third-most interception return yards all-time and is slowly sneaking up on the all-time record of 324 career interception return yards, set by Nathan LaDuke back in 1987-90. Darby, a Lott IMPACT Trophy Quarterfinalist, was named the Lott IMPACT Player of the Week for the performance and was also honored as the Pac-12 Defensive Player of the Week as well for the effort. Darby leads the team this season with 12 passes defended, currently tied for fifth in the Pac-12.

NO RUSH After holding Washington to -5 yards rushing on Oct. 19, the Sun Devils then took a step back and allowed Washington State to run wild for...two yards. Those two numbers are both top-five marks in the past 18 seasons. After struggling against the run through the first five games of the season (allowing opponents an average of 182.8 yards per game and ranking 86th in the FBS in the category at the time), the Sun Devil defense had found its groove in the recent seven-game winning streak in holding opponents to a lowly 98.8 yards per game in that span despite facing one of the top-ranked rushing programs in the country in Arizona. Even then, Arizona was held under their seasons average with 249 rushing yards in the contest. ASU has held five opponents under 100 rushing yards this season, a feat that hadn't been accomplished since 2009 when the team had six such games. The Sun Devils are currently fourth in the conference and 27th nationally this season, allowing opponents to average just 133.8 yards per game on the ground.

GOLD RUSH ASU finished the 2012 season averaging 205.5 yards per game on the ground, which was the second-best mark in the past 25 seasons (since 1988). Only the 234.1 yards per game put up by the 1996 Sun Devils were better. It was a little bit of a slow start for the Sun Devils in 2013 but the team appears to have found its running legs, now averaging 187.8 yards per game and ranked 44th nationally. For as much ado as has been made about ASU's struggles in the run game compared to last year, if the season were to end today, ASU would still have the fourth-highest single season rushing mark of the last 25 seasons. ASU had rushed for over 200 yards in three straight contests prior to Utah, a feat the team accomplished over the course of the last three games last season. Prior to that however, the Sun Devils had not accomplished the feat since - well, most of you can predict the pattern by now - 1996. In the recent seven game winning streak, ASU is averaging 229.1 yards per game on the ground compared to just 98.8 yards per game that opponents have posted.

ROAD WARRIORS Winning away from home in college football is difficult, especially in conference games. Coach Todd Graham ASU is beginning to assemble a pretty good resume of road/neutral site victories, collecting four in 2012 (at California, Colorado, Arizona and vs. Navy at the Kraft Fight Hunger Bowl). In 2013, ASU has garnered three straight road wins (at Washington State, at Utah and at #14 UCLA) and are winners of four of the last five road games under Graham. That is seven road wins in the past 12 road games for ASU, including six Pac-12 Conference road wins in the past nine Pac-12 road games. ASU also has had two very close losses on the road under Graham, a four point loss at Missouri and a three-point loss to Notre Dame in Dallas.

FOREVER YOUNG Senior linebacker Chris Young lead the team in tackles for the sixth game this season, including his third straight, with 13 in the game against UCLA - the second highest tally of his career. Young had a career-high three sacks in the process. Young currently leads the team by a wide margin with 95 tackles this season (Alden Darby is second with 60). Young has 12.5 tackles for loss on the season and 6.5 sacks. His is currently 23rd nationally and third in the conference with 67 solo tackles this season.

RECORD NOTABLES ASU reached six Pac-10/12 wins for just the fourth time in 36 seasons since it joined the league in 1978. It was 8-0 in 1996, 6-2 in 1997 and 7-2 in 2007. Keep in mind the league only played seven league games in 1978 and 1979, played eight in 1980, then went to a seven-game slate from 1981-90. The league went to eight-game slate in 1991 and then a nine-game slate in 2006. The team's eight wins match the 1996 school record for the most conference wins in Sun Devil history (including Border and WAC schedules). With the Territorial Cup win, ASU now has 10 wins on the 2013 season and that is the first time since the 2007 season. In fact, in the history of Sun Devil football ASU has reached the 10-win plateau on 12 times. Additionally, all eight of ASU's conference victories came consecutively and capped a streak that marked just the 13th time in history the Sun Devils won five or more conference games in a row (Border and WAC years included). Prior to this season, ASU had won five or more conference games in a row just three times ('96, '97, '07) since 1987.

EXPLOSIVE You'd be hard-pressed to listen to a Todd Graham press conference that didn't involve the word "explosive" at some point as the head coach makes no attempt to hide the fact that that's what he wants his team to be. The Sun Devils have a classification of "explosive plays" that equal a run of 12 or more yards or a passing play of 16 or more yards. ASU has 130 such plays this season (78 passing, 52 rushing), showing a renewed emphasis on the skill of ASU's passing attack after the Sun Devils had a more even 90 passing explosive plays to 75 rushing explosions last season. Jaelen Strong already has 28 explosive plays as a wide receiver, notable for the fact that Rashad Ross and D.J. Foster each had 18 explosive receiving plays all season in 2012, the highest tally on the team. The Sun Devils are currently eighth in the nation in plays longer than 20 yards this season with 80 after having 72 a year ago and finishing 19th in the country in the category.

PROTECT THIS HOUSE With the victory against Arizona, ASU moves to 7-0 at home this year and 11-2 under Todd Graham. This is just the second time ASU has gone undefeated at home in the past 16 seasons (since 1997), when it was 6-0 in 2004. ASU also had a perfect record at home in '59, '64, '68, '70, '71, '73, '75, '81 and '96. After 13 games under Todd Graham, the Sun Devils have averaged 46.1 points per game at home, including a 63-point performance against NAU in 2012 and a 62-point performance this season against USC. The lowest score the Devils have recorded at home under Graham is 21 against Oregon last season and have scored 20 or more in 20 consecutive games while playing at home, dating back to 2010. ASU also has outscored opponents 198-51 in the first half at home this season. ASU's 49.1 points per game at home this season are currently sixth in the nation. The school record for scoring offense at home is 49.2 points, set by the 1972 team.

RUN THE CLOCK One of the biggest areas improvement for the Sun Devils this season has been the clock management side of things. Last season, ASU ranked seventh in the Pac-12 and 80th nationally in time of possession, holding the ball an average of 29:15 per game. In 2013, ASU is averaging 30:46 minutes of possession time per game - a total that ranks fourth in the conference and 42nd nationally. The team has 12 scoring drives over four minutes this season, compared to just three in 2012. "So, ASU's offense scores fast and thus time of possession is irrelevant," you say? Not so fast, my friend. ASU is 11-2 when leading in time of possession under Todd Graham compared to a 7-5 record when trailing in the time of possession category.

IN-ZANE IN THE MEMBRANE True freshman placekicker Zane Gonzalez has been on fire since late September, hitting 18 straight field goals since the USC game on September 28 - tied with Boston College's Nate Freese for the longest active streak. The Deer Park, Texas, product has been making a case to become the first-team all-Pac-12 kicker in 2013 and perhaps even more. Gonzalez now has hit 22 of 25 field goals (88.0 percent) and has booted 59 of 61 extra points. Gonzalez is No. 8 in the nation in scoring and leads the Pac-12 in kick scoring (10.4) by a wide margin. The next kicker on the list is Stanford's Jordan Williamson at 9.0. His 125 points by kick scoring are No. 1 in the Pac-12, far ahead of No. 2 Travis Coons of Colorado (100 points). Gonzalez is No. 1 in the Pac-12 in field goals at 1.8 per game. Gonzalez leads the Pac-12 with 22 field goals, ahead of three who are tied at 17. Gonzalez was named one of 20 semifinalists for the Lou Groza Award, given annually to the nation's top kicker.

FG-ONZAL-EZ Gonzalez has 125 points on the season, second in ASU history only to Wilford White's 136 in 1950. Gonzalez's 125 points also puts him first in points by kicking in a single season for a Sun Devil, breaking the previous record of 118 set by Thomas Weber (2007) and Mike Barth (2002). With 22 field goals this season, Gonzalez is creeping up on the NCAA freshman record of 25 that was set by UCLA's Kai Forbath in 2007 (25-30).

TODD-BITS OF INFO Over his four seasons prior to coming to ASU -- one at Pittsburgh and three at Tulsa -- Todd Graham's teams rushed the ball on at least 53.4 percent of their total plays. In 2008, Tulsa rushed on 61.4 percent of its total plays. The 2012 Sun Devils rushed the ball on 59.1 percent of their total plays. In 2011, ASU rushed 44.5 percent of the time. Over the past seven seasons at Pitt, Tulsa, Rice and now ASU, only one Graham-coached team has ranked outside the top 50 nationally in sacks. In 2011, Pittsburgh averaged 3.31 sacks, which ranked third nationally. The Sun Devils averaged 4.0 sacks per game last year, the second-best mark in the nation. In seven seasons, Graham is 22-20 in true road games. ASU was 3-3 in such games in 2012. In the previous four seasons, ASU was 5-16. In six of the past seven years, Graham's teams have ranked 39th or better nationally in fewest penalty yards per game. In 2008, Tulsa averaged just 37 penalty yards, which ranked 11th in the nation. In 2011, Pitt averaged 39.5, which ranked 18th. The Sun Devils averaged only 34.92 penalty yards per game in 2012 which was good for eighth in the nation.

HANG ON TO YOUR SEATS ASU has played in four games this season decided by seven points or less, going 3-1 in those contests. The total is notable as ASU was just 4-13 in the previous four seasons in games decided by less than a touchdown.

TODD'S WINNING WAYS Now ranked 11th in the AP Poll, Todd Graham has achieved his highest ranking as a head coach in his career. The team is now ranked 11th in the BCS standings, also a new high for Graham. Graham has won 18 games in his first two seasons at Arizona State with two games left to play. To put that into perspective, Frank Kush won 17 games in his first two seasons as head coach. Of all the coaching hires made in prior to the 2012 season, Graham has posted the fourth-best record during his first two years at the helm at 18-7 behind only Urban Meyer (24-0), Kevin Sumlin (19-6) and Tim DeRuyter (19-5).

2011 FBS COACHING HIRES Records In First Two Seasons

24-0: Ohio State (Urban Meyer)
19-6: Texas A&M (Kevin Sumlin)
19-5: Fresno State (Tim DeRuyter)
18-7: Arizona State (Todd Graham)
18-8: UCLA (Jim Mora)
16-9: Toledo (Matt Campbell)

STRENGTH OF SCHEDULE The Sun Devils' 10 wins this season are made even more impressive by the fact that the team holds the nation's eighth toughest schedule based on the winning percentage of opponents played this season. ASU non-FCS opponents this year have posted a 72-42 record this season (63.2). That is the highest opponent winning percentage by any school currently ranked in the AP Top 25 and is the second toughest schedule in the Pac-12 behind only Utah (72-41/63.7).

#LOOKGRICEBEFORECROSSING Despite not scoring in three of the last four games, Marion Grice is still fifth in the nation in scoring this year at 10.9 points per game and he is able to get it into the end zone in a variety of ways. Last season, Grice led the nation's running backs with eight receiving touchdowns. He is on pace for that feat again in 2013 as he leads the nation's running backs again with six receiving TDs this year. Grice is on pace to upend all manners of scoring records for ASU. He now has 39 career touchdowns, ranking him fifth all-time in ASU history, despite playing in just 23 games. It is unlikely Grice will track down the ASU career touchdown record of 48 (held by Woody Green and Wilford White) but at Grice's current rate, Leon Burton's third-place hold with 42 touchdowns is just within sight. White's touchdowns per game for a career record of 1.33 might also be in jeopardy with Grice currently averaging 1.63 per game. Grice's early season tear was impressive as he became one of just four FBS players in the past decade to score 12 touchdowns before October. Michael Crabtree had 14 for Texas Tech in 2007 in five games while MSU's Javon Ringer also had 12 in five games in 2008. Grice joined Tempe's Bernard Pierce (2011) as the only two players to accomplish the feat in just four games.

#NATTYGRICE When it comes to having to convert in clutch opportunities, Marion Grice seems to have ice in his veins, answering the call time and time again. His exceptional touchdown numbers aside, Grice also leads the team in third down conversions this season with 21 of ASU's 67 successful conversion attempts (31.3 percent). The number is worth mentioning as Grice led the team last season as well in the category, but did so with just 14 conversions on ASU's 89 successful attempts. Grice leads the team this season with 66 first down conversions (45 rushing, 21 receiving) on 258 non-penalty induced first downs (25.6 percent). Grice also doesn't put ASU in many loss-of-yardage positions, having posted nearly twice as many touchdowns in his career (39) as negative-yardage plays in his (21). Oh, and he doesn't drop the ball. Grice has toted the ball 406 times in his career (294 rushes, 91 receptions and 21 returns) without losing a single fumble during the span.

#THEPRICEISGRICE Grice became just the 15th conference player in the Pac-10/12 era to notch 20 touchdowns in the past 36 seasons with his two touchdown performance against OSU. It has happened 16 times, with LaMichael James of Oregon doing it twice. Grice is steadily closing in on the Pac-12 record for touchdowns in a season, 28, held by Stanford's Toby Gerhart in 2009. Grice also has eclipsed 100 all-purpose yards in his last 13 games dating back to the season, marking the fourth-longest active streak in the FBS. Only Western Kentucky's Antonio Andrews (24), Arizona's Ka'Deem Carey (15) and Tulsa's Trey Watts (15) have longer streaks.

GRICING ON THE CAKE Thought you were done reading Marion Grice notes? Lucky for you, there's more. Not only has ASU established itself as one of the top red zone teams in the country this season, but Grice is also among the nation's top red zone rushers as well. Arizona State has been inside the red zone 63 times this season, ranked fifth nationally. Grice has carried the football 49 times through 11 games and has scored a touchdown on just over a quarter of those with 13 touchdown rushes - a total that ranks tied for fourth nationally as far as red zone rushing scores. That being said, Grice leads the nation's running backs with nine receptions inside the red zone - ranked 17th nationally among ALL FBS players - with five touchdowns on those nine grabs. All told, Grice has 58 red zone touches this season and 18 touchdowns on those plays, finding paydirt approximately 31 percent of the time. Grice's stability inside the 20 has been beneficial to ASU's pass happy offense as ASU ranks 10th nationally with 59 pass attempts within the red zone but have only completed 32 of those (54.3 percent). This is especially notable as Taylor Kelly has completed 224-of-346 passes (66.7 percent) everywhere else on the field EXCEPT within the red zone.

SCHOLAR-BALLERS The Sun Devil football team has not only showed impressive strides on the field of play, but also in the classroom. The Sun Devils had 51 student-athletes named "Scholar-Ballers" this past season, meaning they earned a 3.0 or higher GPA for the year. That is 21 more student-athletes than the 2010-11 campaign and 13 more than 2011-12.

DEGREE OF DIFFICULTY One of the more impressive numbers the Sun Devils lay claim to this season will be the eight graduates competing on the roster in 2013. Davon Coleman, Chris Coyle, Evan Finkenberg, Alex Garoutte, Osahon Orabor, Kody Koebensky, Shane McCullen and Marlon Pollard will all compete this season with Bachelor degrees in hand as they complete coursework toward their graduate degrees. More impressive, six of those student-athletes were starters or significant reserves in 2012 and will likely play a large role in things this season as well (Coleman, Coyle, Finkenberg, Koebensky, Garoutte and Irabor).

Sacramento State	0

TEMPE, Ariz. (AP) - Taylor Kelly threw for 300 yards and matched a career high with five touchdown passes before sitting out most of the second half, helping Arizona State open its second season under coach Todd Graham with a 55-0 rout over Sacramento State on Thursday night.

The Sun Devils opened with a 63-6 win over Northern Arizona in 2012 and quickly took care of another FCS opponent to start this season, scoring on their first five possessions while building a 42-0 halftime lead.

Marion Grice had a pair of touchdowns and finished with 117 total yards, and Arizona State had its first shutout since 2010 to avoid a letdown before its schedule gets a whole lot tougher.

Despite being one of two FCS teams to beat an FBS opponent each of the previous two seasons, Sacramento State (0-2) never stood much of a chance against the bigger, faster Sun Devils.

The Hornets, who lost 24-0 to San Jose State in their opener, had a good opening drive against Arizona State, but did little else after that, finishing with 167 total yards and three turnovers.

The Sun Devils went into halftime with a 42-0 lead, 340 yards of offense and held the Hornets without a first down after their initial drive.

Kelly was 19 of 24 for 262 yards and matched his career high for touchdown passes by halftime. He played one series of the third quarter before sitting out the rest of the half.

GAME 2

Arizona State.....	32
#20 Wisconsin	30

TEMPE, Ariz. (AP) - TEMPE, Ariz. -- Marion Grice scored two of his four touchdowns in the fourth quarter and Arizona State survived a bizarre ending to beat No. 20 Wisconsin 32-30 on Saturday night.

Grice scored on a 1-yard run in the closing seconds of the third quarter, then on runs of 2 and 12 yards in the fourth to put Arizona State (2-0) up 32-24.

Wisconsin (2-1) used a fake punt to set up a 1-yard touchdown run by Melvin Gordon, but still trailed 32-30 when its 2-point conversion failed.

The Badgers then drove to Arizona State's 13-yard line and Joel Stave took knee to set up a potential winning field goal. He put the ball down as he tried to kneel and left it there, causing confusion as to whether the play was dead. The clock kept running, though, and the Badgers couldn't get another play after scrambling to the line of scrimmage.

Gordon ran for 193 yards on 15 carries, but the game will be remembered for the strange ending.

Arizona State's Taylor Kelly hit 29 of 51 passes -- many of those on back-shoulder throws along the sideline -- for 352 yards and a touchdown. Grice finished with 84 yards on 22 carries to help Arizona State kick off a tough stretch in the schedule with a big non-conference win.

After opening with easy victories, the first real test of the season for both teams generated quite a buzz. Maybe not up there with the Alabama-Texas A&M tilt in College Station, but enough to draw a crowd of 66,155, most of them dressed in black to create a blackout in the desert.

#5 Stanford	42
#23 Arizona State	28

STANFORD, Calif. (AP) -- What seemed like Stanford's coming out party this season -- and it still might have been -- ended with players feeling distraught and disappointed in the locker room.

Tyler Gaffney ran for 95 yards and two touchdowns, Anthony Wilkerson added 68 yards and another score, and No. 5 Stanford started strong and struggled late in a 42-28 victory over No. 23 Arizona State on Saturday night in the Pac-12 opener for both teams.

The defending conference champions controlled every facet of the game to turn the only matchup between ranked opponents this week into a lead of 29-0 at halftime and 39-7 through three quarters. The Cardinal (3-0, 1-0) scored twice in the air and three times on the ground, forced two interceptions, blocked two punts, tallied 10 tackles for loss and recorded three sacks.

Arizona State outgained Stanford 417 to 391 yards but looked over-matched until the fourth quarter.

Taylor Kelly threw for 367 yards, including three touchdown passes in the fourth, and Jaelen Strong caught 12 passes for 168 yards and a score in an otherwise disappointing showing for the Sun Devils (2-1, 0-1) after beating Big Ten champion Wisconsin in a controversial finish last week.

Kevin Hogan completed 11 of 17 passes for 151 yards and two touchdowns to Ty Montgomery to lift Stanford to its 11th straight victory. Montgomery, held without a touchdown last season after being slowed by a nagging knee injury, finished with four catches for 62 yards. He has at least one touchdown in every game.

USC 41

TEMPE, Ariz. (AP) -- Marion Grice scored four touchdowns, two on passes from Taylor Kelly, and Arizona State used consecutive big plays in the third quarter to race past Southern California 62-41 on Saturday night.

The defeat by the Trojans led to the firing of head coach Lane Kiffin, which was announced by the school Sunday morning.

Arizona State (3-1, 1-1 Pac-12) trailed by 1 after USC opened the third quarter with a quick scoring drive.

Kelly orchestrated the first, hitting D.J. Foster in stride for a 74-yard touchdown pass. Alden Darby was next, stepping in front of a pass by Cody Kessler for a 46-yard interception return that put the Sun Devils up 34-21.

Tre Madden and Justin Davis each scored three touchdowns for USC (3-2, 0-2 Pac-12).

It wasn't nearly enough with Arizona State piling up yards while scoring its most points ever against the Trojans and matching the most ever scored against USC.

Notre Dame 34
#22 Arizona State..... 37

ARLINGTON, Texas (AP) -- Tommy Rees and Notre Dame felt right at home during another trip to South Bend South in Texas.

Rees threw for 279 yards and three touchdowns, and Notre Dame made it 5 for 5 in the traveling Shamrock Series with a 37-34 victory against No. 22 Arizona State on Saturday night.

Kyle Brindza kicked three second-half field goals, including the go-ahead kick from 25 yards with 3:03 remaining. He tied a Notre Dame record with a 53-yarder that matched the longest in a college game at the $1.2 billion home of the Dallas Cowboys.

It was the second win in Texas in the five-year Shamrock run of home games on the road for the Irish (4-2), starting with a victory over Washington State in San Antonio in 2009.

Taylor Kelly threw for 362 yards and three scores for the Sun Devils (3-2), who missed on a chance to become the first team to beat Southern California and Notre Dame in consecutive weeks.

Notre Dame's T.J. Jones had eight catches for 135 yards, including a pair of first-down catches on the drive to the winning field goal. Cam McDaniel, who went to school in nearby Coppell, had four straight carries for 32 yards to get Notre Dame in field goal range. McDaniel finished with a game-high 82 yards.

The Irish clinched the win when Dan Fox, who recovered a fumble to set up a touchdown, returned Kelly's second interception 14 yards for a touchdown with 1:08 remaining.

Colorado 13

TEMPE, Ariz. (AP) - Taylor Kelly accounted for three touchdowns and Marion Grice ran for two more in a dominating first half, leading Arizona State to a 54-13 rout over listless Colorado on Saturday night.

Arizona State (4-2, 2-1 Pac-12) wanted to make a statement after a tough stretch in the schedule and did just that, overwhelming the Buffaloes with 25 points in the game's first 11 minutes.

Kelly threw for 233 yards and two touchdowns, ran for another score and Grice pushed his nation-leading touchdown total to 15 as the Sun Devils went up 47-6 at halftime.

Colorado (2-3, 0-3) kept it close against Arizona State in Boulder last season before being outscored 31-0 in the second half.

The Sun Devils nearly matched that in the first quarter and never let up on the Buffaloes, forcing four turnovers while sending them to their 11th straight Pac-12 loss.

Colorado replaced quarterback Connor Wood in the first quarter after an interception and freshman Sefo Liufau wasn't much better, throwing two more interceptions. Colorado also lost a fumble and finished with 268 total yards - Arizona State had 531 - in its third straight lopsided Pac-12 loss.

The Sun Devils raced past the Buffaloes from the start, scoring on a 69-yard pass from Kelly to Jaelen Strong in the first 90 seconds. Grice scored on an 8-yard run three minutes later, Zane Gonzalez kicked a 26-yard field goal and Grice scored again on a 1-yard run after a Colorado interception.

That made it 25-0 after one quarter for Arizona State, which scored 24 points in the opening quarter its first five games combined. It was the Sun Devils' most first-quarter points since 2002, when they had 28 in a rout of Stanford.

GAME 7

Arizona State.....53
#20 Washington.....24

TEMPE, Ariz. (AP) -- Arizona State's run defense was supposed to be weak, unable to stop much of anyone, much less the nation's leading rusher.

Clogging lanes and jumping into the backfield on seemingly every play, Arizona State swarmed Washington's Bishop Sankey while dominating both sides of the ball in a 53-24 victory over the 20th-ranked Huskies on Saturday.

The big knock on Arizona State's defense under coach Todd Graham was that it couldn't stop the run. The Sun Devils had trouble with it for most of the 2012 season and had similar issues in losses this season to power-running programs Stanford and Notre Dame.

Facing Sankey was supposed to be their most daunting task yet. The junior came in leading the nation at nearly 150 yards per game and appears to be well on his way to shattering nearly all of Washington's season rushing records.

The Sun Devils (5-2, 3-1 Pac-12) flipped the tables on Sankey with a dominating defensive performance, holding him to 22 yards on 13 carries.

Arizona State held Washington to minus-5 yards on 25 carries -- matching the second-fewest ASU has allowed since 1996 -- and limited the nation's eighth-best offense to 212 total yards.

The Huskies (4-3, 1-3) were worried about Taylor Kelly's legs as much as his arm and Arizona State's quarterback still hurt them with both. He threw for 268 yards and two touchdowns and ran for 84 yards and two more scores.

Marion Grice did what he does best, scoring three touchdowns -- that's 18 already this season -- while running for 161 yards on 22 carries. The nation's leading scorer had two touchdown runs in the fourth quarter and had a spectacular TD catch that triggered Arizona State's 26-point second quarter.

Arizona State.....55

PULLMAN, Wash. (AP) -- Taylor Kelly tossed five touchdown passes and ran for two more scores in a 55-21 victory against Washington State. The redshirt junior threw for 275 yards and rushed for 66 to help ASU (6-2, 4-1) win its first road game of the season after two losses.

The Sun Devils jumped out to a 42-14 lead in the first half and never let the Cougars back in the game. Arizona State produced 557 yards of total offense and extended its lead in the Pac-12 South to 1½ games.

Connor Halliday had 300 yards passing for Washington State (4-5, 2-4), which has lost four of five. Halliday, who set an FBS record in his previous game with 89 pass attempts in a loss to No. 2 Oregon, was 29 of 54 with two touchdowns.

Marion Grice ran for 94 yards as ASU scored at least 50 points for the fifth time this season. Kelly completed 22 of 31 passes and was intercepted once.

Arizona State scored three times in the first quarter, thanks in part to great field position, and three more times in the second to build a lead the Cougars could not overcome.

Washington State went three-and-out on its first three possessions. After the Sun Devils took over on the Cougars 36 following a short punt, Grice ran the ball five times to get down to the 6. Kelly bootlegged into the end zone for a second time to give ASU a 14-0 lead.

Zane Gonzalez added a pair of field goals for Arizona State in the fourth.

The Sun Devils lead the series 25-13-2, having won nine of the past 10 games.

GAME 9

Utah19
Arizona State.....20

SALT LAKE CITY (AP) -- Near the end of an exhausting game, 305-pound Will Sutton admitted he didn't rush the quarterback hard because he was trying to catch his breath. The decision worked out OK for the All-America defensive lineman.

Sutton was in the right place to reach up and grab the first interception of his career. The pick snuffed Utah's last chance for an upset and secured No. 23 Arizona State's 20-19 comeback victory Saturday.

Stifled by Utah's aggressive defense for most of three quarters, Taylor Kelly helped keep the Sun Devils (7-2, 5-1 Pac-12) in the driver's seat for the Pac-12 South title.

Kelly finished 19-for-31 passing for 144 yards and Marion Grice rushed 20 times for 136 yards. Grice busted through the Utah line and rumbled 38 yards to set up Kelly's 14-yard touchdown pass to Richard Smith with 2:37 to play to make it 20-19. Utah's Trevor Reilly sacked Kelly on the 2-point conversion attempt.

Wilson was 6-for-21 for 121 yards for Utah (4-5, 1-5 Pac-12) and threw interceptions that ended the Utes' last two drives. Wilson hit Sean Fitzgerald for a 12-yard touchdown with 5:19 left in the third quarter to give Utah a 19-7 lead and the Utes looked prime for a second home upset to go along with the one they sprung on Stanford last month.

Utah's defense slowed the Sun Devils' quick-strike offense, which routinely runs more than 80 plays and rolls up more than 515 yards a game. The Utes sacked Kelly six times and allowed only one reception longer than 20 yards but the Sun Devil defense was even better.

When it mattered most in the fourth quarter, ASU held Utah to 17 yards and one first down.

TEMPE, Ariz. (AP) -- Arizona State's offense stagnated, its defense was on its heels.

A blocked field goal turned the momentum back on the Sun Devils' side and Robert Nelson sealed it with another big play in the fourth quarter.

Nelson returned his second interception 23 yards for a touchdown in the fourth quarter and No. 21 Arizona State maintained control of the Pac-12 South with a 30-17 win over Oregon State on Saturday night.

Arizona State (8-2, 6-1 Pac-12) dominated the first half, going up 20-0 on two touchdown runs by Marion Grice, who became the third Sun Devil to score 20 touchdowns in a season after running for 118 yards.

Arizona State halted Oregon State's momentum when Davon Coleman blocked a field goal in the fourth quarter and Nelson, who has a knack for rising up in big moments, put it out of reach by racing into the end zone on Sean Mannion's fourth interception of the game.

The Sun Devils beat Oregon State for the 19th time in 20 games at Sun Devil Stadium and have won five straight games overall, setting up next week's showdown with the Bruins in Southern California.

Oregon State (6-4, 4-3) got off to a difficult start and tried to rally in the third quarter, only to come up short for its third straight loss.

Brandin Cooks had nine catches for 99 yards and has 100 receptions on the season to break the school record of 91 held by James Rodgers and Markus Wheaton.

Mannion threw for 320 yards and two touchdowns, but has seven of his 10 interceptions this season in the past two games.

PASADENA, Calif. (AP) -- From his shoulder pads to his socks, Taylor Kelly's all-white Arizona State uniform was flecked with verdant stains from the Rose Bowl turf.

Kelly could get used to this look. With his impressive first half and his defense's two big late stands against UCLA, the Sun Devils are Pac-12 South champions for the first time.

Kelly passed for 225 yards and a touchdown and rushed for 99 yards and another score, and No. 19 Arizona State hung on in the fourth quarter to clinch the division title with a 38-33 victory over No. 14 UCLA on Saturday night.

Marion Grice had 95 yards rushing and 72 yards receiving for the surging Sun Devils (9-2, 7-1 Pac-12), who will face the vaunted Cardinal in the league title game in two weeks. If Arizona State beats Arizona in the Territorial Cup game next week, the Sun Devils will host Stanford -- a possibility almost nobody anticipated just a couple of weeks ago.

Jaalen Strong had six catches for 91 yards and a score, but Arizona State blew most of a 22-point halftime lead over the Bruins (8-3, 5-3). The Sun Devils scored just three points in the second half, but their defense held UCLA scoreless on its final two drives to wrap up their sixth consecutive victory.

Brett Hundley passed for 253 yards and two touchdowns for UCLA. Myles Jack rushed for 86 yards and a touchdown while the freshman linebacker played almost exclusively on offense.

In the schools' first meeting as two ranked teams since 1986, Arizona State earned the right to play for its first Rose Bowl berth in 17 years -- and the Bruins came up short at home for the first time all season.

Arizona..... 21

TEMPE, Ariz. (AP) -- No. 13 Arizona State dominated rival Arizona with a first-half onslaught and never let up, dismantling the Wildcats 58-21 Saturday night.

Arizona State (10-2, 8-1 Pac-12) won last year's game by scoring 24 points in the fourth quarter and raced out to a 27-point lead by the midpoint of the second this time.

The Sun Devils had no trouble moving the ball without leading scorer and rusher Marion Grice, spreading it around to score the second-most points in Territorial Cup history win their seventh straight game overall.

D.J. Foster carried the load with Grice on crutches, rushing for 124 yards and two touchdowns after spending most of the season primarily as a receiver. De'Marieya Nelson did his part, too, pounding in a pair of scoring runs.

Arizona State's defense was just as good, stuffing Arizona's run game early and forcing four turnovers, including a 64-yard interception return by Damarious Randle in the third quarter.

With another dominating performance at home, where they're 7-0 this season, the Sun Devils get one more game at Sun Devil Stadium, next Saturday against No. 8 Stanford with a chance for their first Rose Bowl since 1997.

Arizona (7-5, 4-5) fell flat in trying to boost its bowl pedigree.

Ka'Deem Carey ran for 157 yards and a touchdown, but the Wildcats couldn't get out of their own way and had no chance of stopping Arizona State's offense.

B.J. Denker had three interceptions after throwing four the first 11 games of the season and Arizona failed on three fourth-down attempts to end the regular season with its most disappointing performance of the season.

WHAT THEY ARE SAYING

WHAT THEY ARE SAYING ABOUT TODD GRAHAM...

"Without question, year one under new coach Todd Graham was a success."
-- Ted Miller, ESPN.com

"I'm encouraged overall. I think Todd [Graham] made great progress laying the foundations for a successful program... Overall, I feel good about where he has gone and where the development of the team is right now." -- Steve Patterson, ASU Vice President for Athletics and Athletic Director

"I've watched this program for almost 25 years. I've seen this guy more dedicated than any other head coach I've been around since the days of Larry Marmie back in the late 80's. Hands on, 24/7, he works hard and harder and hardest." Jude LaCava, Fox 10 Sports Anchor

"And it's pretty clear that Graham has an eye for coaching talent. In just his eighth year as a head coach, he's given rise to an impressive coaching tree that includes several of college football's most well-known coaches and coordinators (Gus Malzahn, Chad Morris, Bill Blankenship, Keith Patterson, David Beaty, Major Applewhite)." -- Kevin Gemmell, ESPN

"Stopping Graham's relentless ambition is like tackling Earl Campbell in the open field, and Patterson appears to be a heavyweight with knockout power."
- Dan Bickley, Arizona Republic

"Todd Graham has brought a winner to Tempe," Doug Franz, KTAR

"Todd Graham has instilled a culture of accountability and belief that seems to have ASU playing at a level more fitting of the talent it has been able to bring in over the past decade or so. The Sun Devils are unlocking their potential and handling success late in the year like past teams could not." -Fox Sports Arizona

WHAT THEY ARE SAYING ABOUT WILL SUTTON...

"Number 90, yeah, he needs to go. He needs to go ahead and start getting paid. He's the best D-lineman I've seen by far in our conference. Love the kid's motor and the passion and he plays the game like you want him to play. Great hands, leverage. He's a very good player and we're going to have to find answers for him. I've only watched a few plays, but he's the guy that consistently jumps out every game as a playmaker." - Jon Embree, Former Colorado Head Coach

"When Sutton was on the field for the Sun Devils, they were a different team. He was that strong, that agile, that good. Arizona State (7-5) improved drastically in the defensive passing game, moving from eighth in the conference in passing efficiency defense and eighth in total defense to first and second, respectively, in those two crucial categories...Why was the Sun Devils' pass defense so much better than last year? Just point to Sutton's pressure up front. He helped occupy blockers, fended them off and, often split right through them for a tackle for loss. The one game he missed? Arizona State allowed a season-high in points in a crucial 45-43 loss to UCLA. Had the Sun Devils won that game, they would have been Pac-12 South Division champs and played Stanford for a Rose Bowl berth." -- Jon Gold, CBSSports.com

"Will Sutton right now is playing as good or better than anybody on defense in the Pac-12...I don't see anybody who can block him on one-on-one situations." -- Adam Archuleta, Pac-12 Network Analyst and Former ASU Pac-12 Defensive Player of the Year

"Rarely was there a quarter he played – much less a game – when he wasn't a disruptive force, spending so much time in the opponent's backfield you'd think he broke the huddle with them...The Sun Devils can state – with conviction – that if Sutton hadn't missed the UCLA game because of a foot injury, they would have defeated the Bruins and eventually captured the Pac-12 South championship." -- Scott Bordow, Arizona Republic

"After opting to stay in school instead of going pro, Sutton is set to evolve into one of the nation's elite defensive tackles in 2013." -- Gil Alcaraz IV, Rant Sports.

"The star defensive lineman for the Sun Devils led the Pac-12 in sacks (13.0) and tackles for a loss (23.5). He was virtually unblockable last season and he was rewarded with Pac-12 Defensive Player of the Year honors. He returns for his senior season and leads what was one of the best defenses west of the Mississippi. If ASU can win the South it will be because of Sutton's play and that could get him some Heisman love." -- Braden Gall, Athlon Sports

WHAT THEY ARE SAYING ABOUT TAYLOR KELLY...

"He made a couple plays that most guys could never make." Gary Pinkel, Missouri Head Coach

"It's kind of funny everybody talks about where he came from and the 'third-string' deal and all that stuff...When we named Taylor the starter, that was something where I knew I could lay my head on the pillow at night and know that we've got a guy who can help us win football games." -- Mike Norvell, ASU Offensive Coordinator

"If Kelly can lead his team to a 5-0 start, which would include wins over Wisconsin, Stanford, USC and Notre Dame, you can bet people are going to take notice. If he does it producing similar numbers to the 2012 season, he'll get the recognition that an efficient and talented quarterback deserves." -- Kevin Gemmell, ESPN.com on Heisman potential.

"But Taylor Kelly is the ideal blend of passing and speed, and he's the engine that makes head coach Todd Graham's high-octane Sun Devil offense run...Kelly's remarkably efficient and productive first year as the Sun Devil signal caller helped vault ASU from the depths of the Pac-12 and back into contention for the South division title, where they finished second to UCLA." -- Byron Kline

WHAT THEY ARE SAYING ABOUT ASU FOOTBALL

"I think they're a favorite. They're as good-a-looking football team as there is in this conference. When you have a quarterback that played as well as Taylor Kelly played last year, you've got a huge head start on a lot of teams. The way they finished gives them a lot of confidence. The win over Arizona in Tucson was huge for their program. And you can hear it in Todd Graham's voice when you talk to him, he believes in this team." -- Rick Neuheisel, as seen in The Arizona Republic by Doug Haller. April 12, 2013

"High expectations for 2013 are based not only on 16 returning starters, but on who's coming back. First, there's Sutton, who led the Pac-12 in tackles for loss and sacks per game. Then there's quarterback Taylor Kelly, who ranked second in the conference in passing efficiency in 2012 in his debut as a starter. Surrounding them is a strong supporting cast. Sutton has LB Carl Bradford (20.5 tackles for a loss), while Kelly has a deep stable at running back, led by D.J. Foster and Marion Grice, and an offensive line that should be much improved." -- Ted Miller, ESPN Pac-12 Blog. April 5, 2013.

"(Carl) Bradford's freakish athletic ability is on display nearly every play, but especially against top competition." -- Kerry Crowley, House of Sparky. April 4, 2013.

"The Sun Devils are poised in 2013 to make a big move in the Pac-12 South and challenge for a spot in the Rose Bowl. (Marion) Grice is a big reason for that. He's quiet by nature. But he knows that when he does speak, he commands the respect of his teammates." -- Kevin Gemmell, ESPN Pac-12 Blog. April 2, 2013.

"I like the offense -- not just the players -- but the ingenuity behind it. I like the multiple ways Mike Norvell uses the running backs in the screen game and split out in the slot. The mismatches are abundant when you get Marion Grice and D.J. Foster in space." -- Kevin Gemmell, ESPN Pac-12 Blog. March 29, 2013.

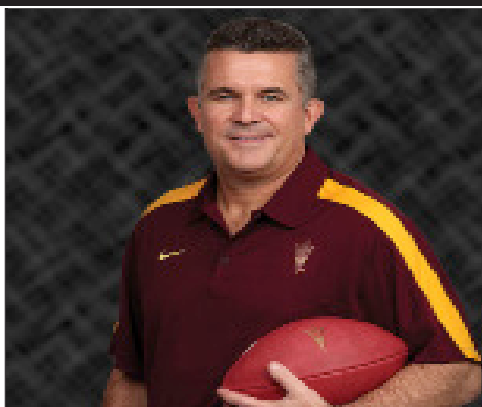

"I will admit I really had the Sun Devils about eighth or ninth on my list, but they were the highest rated of the teams with a second-year head coach in Todd Graham (coming off an 8-5 season), and I wanted to keep with tradition. They do have my No. 4 set of running backs in the country as well as my No. 4 defensive line. While the Sun Devils have to play UCLA and Stanford on the road -- and Notre Dame at a neutral site -- they get USC and Wisconsin at home and could end up with only their third double-digit-win season in the past 25 years." -- Phil Steele on 2013 surprise teams.

"One of the most dramatic changes that Graham and his staff have implemented at ASU since their arrival has been in regards to the culture of the program. While building a contending football team is a prime focus, the staff is dedicated to producing a team of high-character individuals. It's an approach now commonly referred to as "Graham 360" -- Brad Denny, 3TV Sports

"The Sun Devils offense thrived in its first season under Norvell, who came to Tempe with Todd Graham after working under him at Tulsa and Pittsburgh. While he is young, Norvell is on the fast track to getting a head gig. And after the Sun Devils averaged 38.4 points per game last season, they should once again be one of the Pac-12's most exciting offenses with Taylor Kelly returning at quarterback. Another strong year and Norvell could be in consideration for a job in a league such as the Mountain West." -- Dave Miller, National Football Post

"From Marion Grice to Chris Coyle, the Sun Devils have the full support and commitment of the Arizona State fan base. With football season fast approaching, it's almost time to get decked out in maroon and gold and come to Sun Devil Stadium to start shouting, 'I told you so.'" -- Kerry Crowley

"This ASU team is playing with passion, discipline and resilience unfamiliar to a fan base that became accustomed to losses in turning-point games." - Tyler Lockman, Fox Sports

TODD GRAHAM HEAD COACH

CAREER: 57-34 (SEVEN SEASONS)
ASU 8-5 (ONE SEASON)

ASU

Coming off an outstanding inaugural campaign as Sun Devil head football coach, Todd Graham enters his second season looking to continue building on the brilliant transformation he led in 2012.

Among the accomplishments of last year's Sun Devil football team:

- At 8-5, the Sun Devils posted their first winning regular season since going 10-2 in 2007.
- ASU ended the season with three straight wins for the first time since 1978 and just the 14th time in school history.
- ASU beat Arizona in dramatic fashion in Tucson to reclaim the Territorial Cup.
- The Sun Devils won a bowl game for the first time since 2005 and the 13th time in school history.
- ASU was one of just four Pac-12 teams to win at least three conference road games (3-2), doing so for just the fifth time in the program's Pac-10/12 history.
- One year after finishing last (120th) in the FBS in penalties and penalty yards per game, Graham brought immediate discipline to the program as evidenced by the Sun Devils finishing the 2012 season tied for 10th in fewest penalties per game (4.23) and eighth in fewest penalty yards per game (34.92).

Employing an approach that emphasizes excellent fundamentals and hard and disciplined play, the Sun Devils' extraordinary improvement on defense played a paramount role in the team's turnaround last season. After finishing at or near the bottom of the Pac-12 in several defensive categories in 2011, the Sun Devils experienced an amazing reversal last season as they led the conference in tackles for loss (No. 1 in the nation), pass defense (No. 3 in the nation), and pass efficiency defense (No. 10 in the nation) and finished second in the league in sacks (No. 2 in the nation), interceptions (No. 4 in the nation) and total defense.

The duo of defensive tackle Will Sutton (13 sacks – third in the nation/23.5 tackles for loss – second in the nation) and linebacker Carl Bradford (11.5 sacks – 17th in the nation/20.5 tackles for loss – 11th in the nation) combined to give ASU the most dynamic defensive tandem in the country as the two combined for 24.5 sacks and 44.0 tackles for loss. Their collective average of 1.92 sacks per game was the highest in the country by two players on the same team since the 2006 season. Sutton became ASU's sixth winner of the Morris Trophy and the 18th consensus All-American and first since 2007. Sutton also became the fifth player to win the Pac-10/12 conference Defensive Player of the Year award.

In addition to distinguishing himself as an exceptional leader, Graham has also developed a reputation for identifying and hiring some of the nation's top assistant coaches. The teaching and instruction done by Graham and his first Sun Devil staff were responsible for several exceptional achievements in 2012:

- The Sun Devils finished No. 14 in the country in scoring offense (38.3 ppg), scoring 40 or more points seven times.
- In his first season as the full-time starter, quarterback Taylor Kelly set the school single-season record for completion percentage (67.1). Kelly also finished tied for second in single-season school annals with 29 touchdown passes.
- Running back Marion Grice found the end zone 19 times, tying him for third on ASU's all-time single-season touchdown while his 114 points tied him for fifth on ASU's all-time single season scoring list.
- Tight end Chris Coyle set the school's single-season record for receptions by a tight end with 57, one more than Zach Miller had in 2004.

- Punter Josh Hubner finished second in the nation in net punting, helping the Sun Devils finish No. 7 in the nation as a team.

Off the field, the changes were just as obvious. Graham overhauled the football offices, leading a complete facelift that saw new, engaging wallpaper placed throughout the third floor at Carson Center that shows off ASU's rich history as well as the goals and expectations as a program.

The Sun Devils improved immensely in the classroom as well, with football student-athletes missing just 19 total classes in his first year at the helm – down from 141 the previous season. Additionally, the number of "Scholar-Ballers" (student-athletes with a 3.00 GPA or higher) on the team increased from 30 in 2010-11 to 51 this past season (2012-13). That is the highest total in the program history and makes up just under half of the Sun Devil roster.

+84

In 2013, ASU is outscoring its opponents 136-52 (+84 points) on points off turnovers while posting a +13 takeaway number. ASU has put points on the board following 76.7 percent of opponent turnovers (23-of-30) compared to just the 35.3 (6-of-17) percent clip ASU opponents are scoring off of Sun Devil turnovers. ASU has 17 touchdowns this season on 30 opponent turnovers, aided by five interception returns for touchdowns. In two years under Todd Graham, ASU has outscored opponents 275-110 in points of turnovers.

7-0

ASU is 7-0 at home in Sun Devil Stadium/Frank Kush Field in 2013. The last time ASU went undefeated at home was in 2004 when the Sun Devils went 6-0. ASU went 7-0 at home in 1996, 7-0 in 1981, 7-0 in 1975, 6-0 in 1973, 6-0 in 1971, 6-0 in 1970, 6-0 in 1968, 7-0 in 1964 and 7-0 in 1959. ASU has scored 20 or more in 20 consecutive games while playing at home, dating back to 2010. ASU also has outscored opponents 198-51 in the first half at home this season. ASU's 49.1 points per game at home this season are currently sixth in the nation.

18

Placekicker Zane Gonzalez had three field goals against Arizona to extend his streak of made field goals to 18, setting a new school record in the process. With 22 field goals this season, Gonzalez is creeping up on the NCAA freshman record of 25 that was set by UCLA's Kai Forbath in 2007 (25-30). Gonzalez has 125 points on the season, second in ASU history only to Wilford White's 136 in 1950. Gonzalez is No. 8 in the nation in scoring and leads the Pac-12 in kick scoring (10.4) by a wide margin.

ASU has eclipsed 50 points six times in games this season, breaking the school record held by the 1973 team. The team has accomplished the feat five times in Pac-12 Conference games following a 58-point effort against Arizona - a new record for either team during the Pac-10/12 era. ASU six games this season of 50 or more points surpasses its total from the previous four seasons combined (5).

Interviews are conducted at the end of each practice. All other interviews need to be arranged through the Media Relations office. Following home contests, Arizona State will bring several student-athletes to the Dutton Theater for a post-game press conference. Head Coach Todd Graham will follow the student-athletes.

Weekly Press Conference

Head coach Todd Graham will resume his weekly press conference's each Monday prior to game week. The press conference is tentatively scheduled for Noon p.m. Arizona Time each week. When team practices on Mondays, Graham will not be available following practice.

For home games, a photographer work area has been established inside the Carson Student-Athlete Center (first floor). Internet access to transmit files is available in the photography workroom. Credentials must be worn in plain view throughout the game while on the field and all photographers must adhere to painted lines and instructions given by security personnel and/or Arizona State staff members at all times.

#25 Arizona State, 28

LAST TIME OUT

September 21, 2013

#5 Stanford, 42

PALO ALTO, Calif. (AP) - What seemed like Stanford's coming out party this season - and it still might have been - ended with players feeling distraught and disappointed in the locker room.

Tyler Gaffney ran for 95 yards and two touchdowns, Anthony Wilkerson added 68 yards and another score, and No. 5 Stanford started strong and struggled late in a 42-28 victory over No. 23 Arizona State on Saturday night in the Pac-12 opener for both teams.

The defending conference champions controlled every facet of the game to turn the only matchup between ranked opponents this week into a lead of 29-0 at halftime and 39-7 through three quarters. The Cardinal (3-0, 1-0) scored twice in the air and three times on the ground, forced two interceptions, blocked two punts, tallied 10 tackles for loss and recorded three sacks.

Arizona State outgained Stanford 417 to 391 yards but looked overmatched until the fourth quarter.

Taylor Kelly threw for 367 yards, including three touchdown passes in the fourth, and Jaalen Strong caught 12 passes for 168 yards and a score in an otherwise disappointing showing for the Sun Devils (2-1, 0-1) after beating Big Ten champion Wisconsin in a controversial finish last week.

Kevin Hogan completed 11 of 17 passes for 151 yards and two touchdowns to Ty Montgomery to lift Stanford to its 11th straight victory. Montgomery, held without a touchdown last season after being slowed by a nagging knee injury, finished with four catches for 62 yards. He has at least one touchdown in every game.

#SUNDEVIL FOOTBALL NOTES

The No. 11 Arizona State University football program (No. 11 BCS/No. 12 Coaches) will face No. 7 Stanford on Saturday in the 2013 Pac-12 Football Championship Game. The Sun Devils are playing host this weekend and the game will take place at Sun Devil Stadium in Tempe, Ariz. Kickoff is slated for 5:45 p.m. MT and the game will be broadcast on ESPN.

The Sun Devil football program is currently in its 101st season of competition in 2013. The Sun Devils are 578-364-24 (.610) all-time and have appeared in 26 bowl games, compiling a 13-12-1 record in such contests.

Arizona State kicked off the 2013 campaign with a rout over Sacramento State, knocking off the Hornets 55-0 at Sun Devil Stadium, followed by a dramatic 32-30 victory over No. 20 Wisconsin. Following a loss to Stanford, ASU dispatched of USC, 62-41, before wrapping up their non-conference slate with a tough 37-34 loss to Notre Dame in Arlington, Texas. ASU rebounded with a 54-13 dismantling of Colorado at home before picking up its second win over a top-25 ranked program against No. 20 Washington on Homecoming, blitzing the Huskies in a 53-24 victory. ASU then two straight road victories, knocking off Washington State, 55-21, before edging Utah, 20-19, in a thriller in Salt Lake City. The Sun Devils followed that with a 30-17 victory at home over Oregon State. ASU dropped then-No. 14 UCLA in Pasadena to clinch the Pac-12 South Championship before wrapping up the regular season with a 58-21 rout over Arizona for the Territorial Cup. Complete game recaps from all games are located on Page 11.

ON THE AIR The MidFirst Bank Sun Devil-IMG Sports Network will carry all 12 of ASU's football games live on its 10-station radio network, including flagship station Sports 620 KTAR AM. Tim Healey (play-by-play) and former Sun Devil quarterback Jeff Van Raaphorst (color analyst) will call the action with Doug Franz reporting from the sidelines. This week's game will be broadcast on 620 KTAR AM. Weekly radio coverage begins two hours prior to kickoff with the "Talking Stick Resort Sun Devil Tailgate Show," hosted by Doug Franz. The game will also be broadcast on Sirius Channel 113 and XM Channel 194.

LIGHTS, CAMERA, ACTION Saturday's contest will mark the fourth appearance for ASU on the ESPN Family of Networks this season. ASU is currently 3-0 on games played on the ESPN channels this season with victories over #20 Wisconsin and USC. The Sun Devils will kick off at approximately 5:45 p.m. Arizona time. Brad Nessler will provide the call with Todd Blackledge alongside on color while Holly Rowe will provide insight from the sidelines.

ON THE CARDINAL Arizona State is 16-12 all-time against Stanford and is 10-4 against the Cardinal at home. ASU has dropped the last three contests to the Cardinal, including a 42-28 loss earlier this season in Palo Alto. Stanford enters the game ranked No. 7 in the nation in both the AP and BCS Rankings. The winner of Saturday's contest will earn a spot in the 100th playing of the Rose Bowl. This will be Arizona State's first appearance in the Pac-12 Championship Game, which is now in its third season of existence. Saturday's game also pits the 2013 Pac-12 Coach of the Year against the 2011 and 2012 honoree, David Shaw. The Cardinal come in with one of the nation's stingiest run defenses, allowing just 87.3 yards per game on the ground. ASU is averaging 229.1 yards per game in its last seven games but only had 50 yards the last time these two teams played.

GAME NOTES FROM ARIZONA VICTORY

-Arizona's lead in the all-time series with Arizona State has slimmed to 47-39-1. Coming into the game, the last four games had been decided by less than a touchdown, as well as seven of the last nine, but the Sun Devils' 37-point winning margin was the most in the matchup between the two teams since 1996, when ASU beat UA, 56-14. ASU has won back-to-back Territorial Cup games for the first time since it won three-straight from 2005-07. The Wildcats won back-to-back matchups in 2008-09.

-ASU's 58 points is the most scored in a Territorial Cup game in the Pac-12 era (1978-present). The previous high came in 1996 when the Sun Devils put up 56 against Arizona in Tucson.

-Before Arizona State's home victory, the visiting team had won the past four Territorial Cup matchups, and five of the last seven between the two teams.

-Taylor Kelly became Arizona State's record-holder for total points responsible for, breaking Mike Pagen's record of 198 set all the way back in 1981. Kelly has been responsible for a total of 210 points so far this season on 27 passing touchdowns and eight rushing touchdowns.

-The attendance for Saturday night's Territorial Cup was 72,542; it was the 12-largest crowd in Sun Devil Stadium history.

-Arizona's season-low for points is six when they faced Washington earlier this season. The Sun Devils held UA to only seven points through the first half Saturday night.

#SUNDEVIL FOOTBALL NOTES

NOTABLE NUMBERS

—The Sun Devils have forced an opponent turnover in 25 consecutive games, the third-longest active streak among all FBS institutions behind only Stanford and Missouri.

—ASU's victory over Arizona was the Sun Devils' eighth conference victory of the season, matching the school record set in 1996 (8-0). Additionally, all eight of ASU's victories came consecutively and capped a streak that marked just the 13th time in history the Sun Devils won five or more conference games in a row (Border and WAC years included). Prior to this season, ASU had won five or more conference games in a row just three times ('96, '97, '07) since 1987.

—The Arizona State defense has had an interception return for a touchdown five times this season and once in each of the last three games. The team accomplished the feat three times in 2012 for a total of eight during Todd Graham's two years as head coach. The number is notable as ASU had just four interception returns for a touchdown in the three previous seasons prior to Todd Graham's arrival at ASU.

—ASU is 7-0 at home in Sun Devil Stadium/Frank Kush Field in 2013. The last time ASU went undefeated at home was in 2004 when the Sun Devils went 6-0. ASU went 7-0 at home in 1996, 7-0 in 1081, 7-0 in 1975, 6-0 in 1973, 6-0 in 1971, 6-0 in 1970, 6-0 in 1968, 7-0 in 1964 and 7-0 in 1959.

—Placekicker Zane Gonzalez has 124 points on the season, second in ASU history only to Wilford White's 136 in 1950. Gonzalez's 124 points also puts him first in points by kicking in a single season for a Sun Devil, breaking the previous record of 118 set by Thomas Weber (2007) and Mike Barth (2002). Gonzalez has made 22 field goals and 58 extra points thus far this season.

—With the 58 points scored against Arizona, ASU now has six games of scoring more than 50 points in 2013. The six games posting 50 points or more is the most in a single-season in school history. That had never been accomplished until this year.

STRIKE FIRST With Zane Gonzalez's 38-yard field goal on ASU's first possession against Arizona, Arizona State has scored first in 21 of the 25 games with Todd Graham at the helm, and is 9-1 in such contests this season. The Sun Devils are now 16-5 in the Todd Graham era when getting on the scoreboard first.

STRIKE FAST The quick-hitting offense has become a staple of the Todd Graham-coached Sun Devils, with 106 of ASU's 148 offensive scoring drives under Graham coming in three minutes or less (71.6 percent). That being said, ASU also has 14 scoring drives of four minutes or longer in 12 games this season, compared to having three such drives in the entirety of 2012. ASU's high-powered offense still resonates with the high number of quick scoring drives this season, though, scoring in three minutes or less on 56 of the team's 82 scoring drives to date (68.3 percent). There has been a direct correlation between the time of ASU's scoring drives this season and the points per scoring drive as well. When ASU scores in three minutes or less, it averages 6.2 points per drive. When the drive lasts longer than three minutes, ASU's average drops to 5.4 points per drive. In ASU's 14 drives this season lasting longer than four minutes, the team is averaging just 4.1 points per score.

START STRONG...FINISH STRONG The Sun Devils have now outscored their opposition 265-112 in the first quarter under Todd Graham and are outscoring opponents 117-43 in the first this season. The Sun Devils are 13-1 under Graham when holding their opposition scoreless in the first and have done so in six of the team's 10 wins this season. ASU improved to 16-0 when leading at halftime with Graham as coach following the Arizona contest. ASU also knows how to close out games, outscoring teams 255-134 in the fourth quarter of games under Graham. ASU has outscored its opponent in nine of 13 games in the fourth quarter this season, with two exceptions coming in games that were well in hand against USC and Colorado.

WINNING BY WAY OF TKO (TAYLOR KELLY OFFENSE) The school record holder in completion percentage and efficiency after last season, Taylor Kelly has thrown for 27 touchdowns with 11 interceptions this season (one coming on a Hail Mary against Stanford). Through 12 games, Kelly already has 3,337 passing yards and is averaging 278.1 yards per game and is on pace to challenge the school records in both categories. He is just the second Sun Devil to have multiple seasons with 3,000+ passing yards behind only Andrew Walter (3). This season, Kelly has moved into the top five in seven single season school record lists including: passing yards, passing yards per game, completions, attempts, total offense, total offense, yards per game, and points responsible for. Statistically, the team relies heavily on Kelly's ball protection, as ASU is 6-7 with Kelly as the starter when he throws an interception, compared to an unblemished 12-0 record when he doesn't. That being said, all six of those victories have come this season, showing ASU's improved ability to overcome adversity at the hands of turnovers. Kelly had been on a bit of a hot streak of late as he currently ranks 13th nationally in points responsible for with 210, breaking the previous school record in the category of 198 previously set by Mike Pagel in 1981. Kelly has 27 passing touchdowns and eight rushing touchdowns on the season.

HE'S GOT LEGS, AND HE KNOWS HOW TO USE THEM Taylor Kelly's ability to extend plays was exceptional last season, as demonstrated by his 516 net rushing yards on 134 attempts on the year - a mark skewed by the fact that sacks count against his rushing total. If you take out sacks, Kelly would have led the team in yardage and yards per carry with 690 net rushing yards last season on 103 carries (6.7 ypc). Sacks aside in 2013, Kelly has 596 rushing yards on 96 attempts (6.2 ypc) and has been on fire in the last seven games with eight rushing touchdowns while rushing for 390 yards (sacks excluded) on 68 carries (5.7 yards per rush). Those eight touchdowns are notable as Kelly had just one rushing touchdown in 18 games prior to the current streak. Kelly is second on the team with 33 rushes for first down, trailing only Marion Grice (45). He is also second on the team in "explosive plays" on the ground (rushes of 12 or more yards) with 15 this season, trailing only Marion Grice's 19. Additionally, Kelly has now punted 14 times in his career, with 10 of those being downed inside of the 20-yard line. Kelly had a season-long 50-yarder against Oregon State.

TAYLOR MADE ON THIRD DOWN Third down is Taylor Kelly down. The junior quarterback leads the team in third down rushes this season with 20. Eleven of those have gone for a first down and five have gone for a touchdown, more than the entire team has combined on third down this season, rushing or receiving (3). Kelly averages a team leading 6.8 yards per rush on third down and is currently tied for sixth nationally in touchdown rushes on third down with five.

#DYNAMICDUO Marion Grice and D.J. Foster are two of just five FBS players that returned this season that had both 400 yards on the ground AND through the air last year and are back at it again this season. The pair duo has combined for 2,291 yards of total offense and 27 touchdowns, representing 40.3 percent of ASU's 5,679 yards for scrimmage this season and 45.0 percent of the team's offensive touchdowns. The duo has been instrumental in moving the chains as well, accounting for 107 of the team's 280 non-penalty induced first downs this season (38.2 percent). Foster and Grice are ranked first and third, respectively, this season in receiving yards by a running back (550 and 438).

TWO IS BETTER THAN ONE Grice and Foster return 2,130 combined yards from last season (1,172 rushing, 958 receiving) and 25 touchdowns. Among Pac-12 programs returning dual backs where one back didn't take over 75 percent of the touches between the two, only the Oregon squads returned numbers that came close to stacking up. Oregon State returns Storm Woods and Terron Ward, who combined for 1,747 yards (1,355 rushing, 392 receiving) and 19 touchdowns. Oregon, which lost Kenjon Barner to graduation, returns a tandem of De'Anthony Thomas and Byron Marshall, who put up a combined 1,607 yards (1,148 rushing, 459 receiving) and 20 touchdowns.

FOSTER THE PEOPLE D.J. Foster was second on the team in all-purpose yardage with 1,026 yards last year (493 on the ground and 533 by air). He has 19 explosive plays this season (11 receiving, eight rushing), currently third on the team. Foster has made his mark in the receiving game this season with 54 grabs for 550 yards (10.2 ypc), ranking second on the team in both categories. He posted his first career multi-touchdown game against Washington State, logging two receiving touchdowns in the contest. He also has a knack for getting to the first down marker as he is currently tied for second on the team with 41 first downs on 119 touches this season (34.4 percent). Foster had a career day on the ground against Arizona with career highs in carries (23), yards (124) and touchdowns (2).

A STRONG START All told, 23 Sun Devils have made their debuts this season, but few are turning as many heads as Jaelen Strong. The junior college transfer leads the team in receptions and yards with 63 grabs for 1,067 yards (5.9 rpg/83.4 ypg) and five touchdowns this season. In his first four games, Strong made his mark by posting the best four starts of any receiver in term of yards and receptions in school history. Prior to Strong, no Sun Devil wide receiver in history had posted more than one 100+ yard game in their first four starts. Strong accomplished the feat three times in that span and currently has seven 100+ yard games through his first 12 games at ASU. Despite it being his first season, Strong is on pace to leave his name in the record books. With 69 receptions this season, Strong is already fourth on ASU's all-time single season receptions list while his current clip of 5.8 receptions per game would finish third for a Sun Devil in a single season.

HISTORICAL STARTS AMONG ASU WIDE RECEIVERS (FIRST FOUR STARTS)

#SUNDEVIL FOOTBALL NOTES

THE FORCE IS STRONG Just as impressive as Jaelen Strong's statistics are, his ability to make catches when they count can't be overlooked. A total of 45 of his receptions have gone for first downs while he has also drawn nine pass interference penalties against opposing defenses (five of which resulted in first downs, four were declined as they were all still caught for either a first down, touchdown or two-point conversion), thus playing a role in 50 of ASU's 305 total first downs this season (17.7 percent). Putting that in perspective, ASU's leading wide receiver last season has just 28 first downs in the entirety of 2012. His 11 receptions for a first down when the team is facing third or fourth down currently lead the team and two of his four touchdown grabs this season have come on fourth down. His 105 receiving yards on fourth down this season lead the nation while his two touchdowns and four receptions when facing fourth down are second nationally. Additionally, Strong is second on the team in explosive plays (rushes over 12 yards and receptions over 16 yards) with 28 this season. The leading receiver for the Sun Devils over the entire 13 games last season in the category had 18 explosive receiving plays, a figure Strong took just six games to break.

HOLD 'EM BACK ASU prided itself on its aggressive defense last season, forcing 117 tackles for a loss of 497 total yards - a 9.00 TFL per game mark that led the nation. As a whole, ASU had a combined 155 defensive plays that went for a loss or no gain out of 953 offensive plays the opposition ran and if you tack on incomplete passes to the mix, then ASU forced 341 plays that did not result in positive yardage (35.8 percent of opponent's plays from scrimmage). ASU had eight tackles for loss against Arizona and four stops at the line of scrimmage along with 15 incomplete passes (27 negative or zero-yardage plays out of 79 or 34.2 percent of plays from scrimmage). To date this season, the ASU defense has held offenses to 305 plays (out of 805 by the opposition) that have not earned positive yardage (includes incomplete passes) - a 37.9 percentage rate of plays run from the line of scrimmage. The Sun Devils are currently 22nd nationally and second in the conference in tackles for loss per game (7.2).

BETTER SUITED FOR HANDKERCHIEFS The Sun Devils don't give referees much reason to reach for their pockets under Todd Graham. Fourteen of ASU's 18 least penalized games since 2006 have come under Todd Graham, including eight of the 12 games played this season. Since Todd Graham arrived at Arizona State, the Sun Devils have had just 99 penalties in 25 games (under 4.0 penalties per game). The team only has 44 penalties to date this season, on pace to stay below last year's mark of 55.

MORE ON PENALTIES Todd Graham has had a knack for having some of the most disciplined teams in the nation when it comes to penalty yards. In each of his seven seasons as a head coach, Graham's teams have been consistently ranked among in the top half of the least penalized teams in the country in both yards and penalties per game. In 2012, the Sun Devils finished 10th in fewest penalties (4.23) and eighth in fewest penalty yards per game (34.9). In 2013, ASU ranks fifth nationally in penalties per game (3.7) and is third in penalty yards per game at (28.5), leading the Pac-12 in both categories.

AIR RAID In 2012, the Sun Devil offense averaged 32.8 passing attempts per game in games amongst FBS opponents, a tally that ranked 68th nationally. Thus far in 2013 against FBS teams, ASU is averaging 36.7 passing attempts per game - a figure that sits 25th in the country. The number is also notable as ASU is also averaging 22.6 completions per game this season against FBS opponents, and is 25th nationally in the statistic. While some might look at that as a bad statistic or a reflection of a weak running game, but ASU is still moving the ball admirably, averaging 473.2 yards of total offense per game this season - over 20 more yards than it averaged per game in 2012.

LIGHT 'EM UP Putting points on the scoreboard won't typically be a problem with Mike Norvell heading the offense, as ASU has eclipsed 50 points six times in games this season, breaking the school record held by the 1973 team. ASU's 265 points at the midway point this season (six games) were the second-most in program history through the first six games of a season, trailing only the 278 posted by Frank Kush's Fiesta Bowl winning team in 1972, which holds the school record for points per game (46.8) and total points (562). ASU's 62 points against USC tied for the most any team has ever scored against the Trojans and marked the first time ASU had dropped 50+ on its Pac-12 South rival. It was the second most points ASU has ever scored in a conference matchup behind only the 65 scored against Stanford in 2002. ASU went 86 games without scoring 60 from 2005-2011. Under Coach Graham it has scored 60 three times (63 NAU, 62 Navy, 62 USC). The Sun Devils currently rank 8th nationally at 43.3 points per game. ASU has scored 519 points in 2013 through 12 games for a per-game average of 43.2 ppg. The 519 points scored in a single-season is tied for second-most in history with the 1973 team. The 1972 team scored 562 points. ASU's per-game average of 43.2 points ranks No. 3 on the all-time single-season list behind No. 2 1973 (43.3) and No. 1 1972 (46.8).

DROPPIN' A 50 SPOT ASU posted its fourth consecutive game scoring over 50 points against a Pac-12 opponent with 55 against Washington State has accomplished the feat six times this year. ASU's four straight 50+ games against Pac-12 opponents were notable because prior to this season, the Sun Devils had only ever scored 40+ against consecutive Pac-10/12 foes once before in 1996 when the squad put up 45, 48, 42, 48 and 41 against UW, UO, UCLA, USC and Stanford, respectively, in 1996. The team only has managed to score 30+ in four straight games in just three seasons during the Pac-10/12 era: 1993, 1996 and this season. ASU's 55 points against Washington State were the most it had ever scored against the Cougars and the most the team had scored in an away conference matchup since scoring 56 against Arizona in 1996 and was the third-highest tally for a Pac-10/12 road game in history behind the 62 scored against Stanford in 1981. The Sun Devils also set a Territorial Cup record as far as Pac-10/12 era games (58) in the victory over Arizona. ASU six games this season of 50 or more points surpasses its total from the previous four seasons combined (5).

MAKE 'EM PAY ASU isn't in the habit of leaving points on the board following turnovers. In 2013, ASU is outscoring its opponents 136-52 on points off turnovers while posting a +13 takeaway number. ASU has put points on the board following 76.7 percent of opponent turnovers (23-of-30) compared to just the 35.3 (6-of-17) percent clip ASU opponents are scoring off of Sun Devil turnovers. ASU has 17 touchdowns this season on 30 opponent turnovers, aided by five interception returns for touchdowns. Last season, the Sun Devil offense put points in the bank on 70.0 of its conversion opportunities, scoring 18 touchdowns off of 30 turnovers forced. ASU outscored opponents 139-58 in points off turnovers over the course of last season, despite posting just a middling +6 number in the takeaway category. Much of that came by way of the defense, which did an admirable job of limiting opponents following turnovers by the offense. Last year, ASU's opponents scored on just 41.7 percent of their drives following an ASU turnover and scored just seven touchdowns in that span on 24 turnovers. In two years under Todd Graham, ASU has outscored opponents 275-110 in points of turnovers.

TURNOVER FACTORY The Sun Devils have forced a turnover in 26 consecutive games (including every game of the Todd Graham era), an active streak that currently ranks tied for third among FBS institutions behind Missouri and Stanford. ASU leads the Pac-12 with 30 takeaways this season and is sixth nationally this year. The team is ninth nationally with a 1.1 turnover margin. The squad has 60 turnovers under Todd Graham in the last two seasons, tied for second most among FBS institutions with TCU behind only Houston (31).

THE ALTERNATIVE DEFINITION OF "SCORING DEFENSE" Scoring defense is an official statistic credited to defenses based on how many points they allow per game. The ASU defense is working to re-write that definition with a defense that finds a way to directly lead to points on the board. The Sun Devils have five interception returns for touchdowns this season and one safety, making the ASU defense directly responsible for 37 of ASU's points this season. Last year, ASU had three interceptions returned for touchdowns on the year. Considering points off turnovers that the ASU offense scored, the ASU defense had a hand in 165 of the 499 points (33.1 percent) scored for the Sun Devils last season and have placed their stamp on 138 of ASU's 519 points (26.6 percent) scored this year. The icing on the cake for this statistic game on a goaline touchdown pass to defensive tackle Davon Coleman against Colorado, technically increasing ASU's defensive total to 145 points.

#NOFLYZONE The Sun Devil defense has been up to task in the recent six-game winning streak though, holding opponents to an average of 68.7 fewer passing yards than teams were averaging prior to the ASU tilt and no team in that time has thrown for more than their average coming in. ASU ranks third in the conference in passing yards allowed (217.2 per game) and fourth in pass efficiency defense (116.2). Against Arizona, the Sun Devils had three interceptions - notable as B.J. Denker had thrown four all season coming into the game. ASU now has eight interception returns for touchdowns under Graham, compared to posting just four total in the previous three seasons prior to 2012. The total is tied for second with Baylor behind only SMU (9) for the most in the past two seasons. ASU has 21 interceptions this season, ranked first in the conference and third nationally, and has 57 passes defended, ranked 43rd nationally. ASU's five interception returns for touchdowns this season are currently tied for first nationally with Florida State and Baylor. The Sun Devils have 42 interceptions in the last two seasons, tied for the most among FBS schools with Houston. The secondary has been especially impressive at home, holding opponents to an average quarterback efficiency rating of 108.94 in seven home games this season with 15 interceptions

GOLD ZONE One area that has seen improvement this season for the Sun Devils is red zone offense, with ASU putting points on the board 95.2 percent of the time against FBS opponents, ranking fifth nationally in the category, as per TeamRankings.com (and outside of mercy kneel to run out the clock inside the red zone against CU and OSU, is a perfect 100 percent in the last nine games). With exception of the mercy kneel vs. CU/OSU, ASU has now scored on 58-straight red zone drives. Last season, ASU scored on just 76.1 percent of their drives inside the 20 and ranked a lowly 93rd in the nation against FBS opponents. On the flip side, ASU is allowing its FBS opponents to score 86.5 percent of the time this season when entering the red zone (ranked 94th nationally), compared to an 80.5 percent figure last season that was 51st in the nation. That being said, the Sun Devils don't let opponents into the red zone often, doing so just 38 times this season, ranked 28th nationally for fewest opponent red zone drives (compared to 63 trips for the Sun Devil offense, fifth nationally).

WINNING THE BATTLE FOR FIELD POSITION The Sun Devils were largely exceptional when it came to starting field position last season, and continue to resonate a point Todd Graham habitually makes about being successful in the field position battle to win games. The Sun Devils didn't allow a single Oregon State drive to start in Sun Devil territory. Under Todd Graham, ASU has had an average starting yard line of its own 36.8 in 18 victories compared to a starting yard line of the 25.1 for their opponents in such contests. Conversely, opponents have an average starting field position of their own 34.8 yard line compared to ASU starting at its own 28.7 in ASU's eight losses under Graham. Last season, ASU posted an average starting spot of their own 33-yard line that ranked 10th in the nation. The Sun Devils also held their opponents to an average starting line of their own 28-yard-line, a total that ranked 24th nationally. All that being said, even facing bad field position this season, the Sun Devils haven't necessarily fared badly. ASU has 10 scoring drives of 80 yards or longer through this season (including the game-winning drive against Utah), a notable feat as ASU had six such drives in the entirety of the 2013 season.

CLOSING THINGS OUT ASU is outscoring opponents 129-72 in the fourth quarter of this year's contests. As whole, ASU has outscored other teams 255-134 in the fourth quarter under Todd Graham. ASU is fourth in the nation in points per fourth quarter this season against FBS opposition (11.5) after finishing the 2012 season with 9.3 points per fourth quarter, which was good for eighth nationally. ASU's 18.9 second-half points per game against FBS squads this season is currently 12th nationally. The team is currently 39th nationally in allowing 15.3 second-half points per game. The team's victory over Utah marked the second fourth-quarter comeback of the Todd Graham era and the first of the 2013 campaign. All these numbers are made more impressive by the fact that ASU had played in three consecutive blowouts prior to the Utah game and spent much of those second halves running out the clock against their opposition.

HALFTIME MOMENTUM The Sun Devils have done a good job of building some cushion heading into halftime this season, currently ranked fourth nationally in second quarter points per game at 13.6. The Sun Devils have scored 20 or more points in five of the second quarters this season and are outscoring the opposition 178-87 this season in the second quarter of games - the highest point discrepancy between ASU and its opponent in any quarter this year.

USE THEM WISELY Todd Graham doesn't hesitate to use his allotted three timeouts per half when his squad is on defense, a coaching technique that has plenty of detractors. A closer look at the result of the play following those timeouts might quiet some, however. ASU has used 14 timeouts this season with its opponents facing third down. The Sun Devil defense has forced a fourth down on 10 of those occasions (71.4 percent).

THE STREAK GROWS Seniors Evan Finkenberg and Osahon Irabor began 2013 as two of the most seasoned starters in the Pac-12. Only Oregon State's Michael Philipp (47) has more starts than Finkenberg and Irabor, who each have 45. Irabor's statistic is particularly notable as he has started all 45 of his games consecutively - a mark that paces the Pac-12 Conference ahead of Washington State's John Fullington, who has 42.

DON'T FORGET BRADFORD With the incredible season posted by Will Sutton last year, it was almost easy to forget the phenomenal year put forth by Carl Bradford. Playing out of the Devilbacker position, Bradford finished the year with 81 tackles (fourth on team), 20.5 tackles for loss (second on team and 10th-most in school history) and 11.5 sacks. His three forced fumbles tied Sutton for most on the team and his two fumble recoveries tied Deveron Carr for the team lead as well. He also added an interception for good measure. Since sacks started being recording in 1978, only four sophomores in Sun Devil history have amassed 10 or more sacks and Bradford's 11.5 were more than all of them - a list that includes Shante Carver (11/1991), Dexter Davis (10.5/2007) and Terrell Suggs (10/2001). Bradford was one of just five FBS players last season to total 80+ tackles, 20+ TFLs AND 10+ sacks on the year. Despite being held statless in two games this season, Bradford has 49 tackles (sixth on the team) with 16.0 coming for loss and 7.5 sacks in the process, both numbers leading the team. Additionally, Bradford has three forced fumbles while having five passes defended, including his first career pick-six against UCLA. He had a career high four tackles for loss against Arizona.

A SUTTON IMPACT ASU's consensus All-American, senior Will Sutton, finally got an opportunity to leave his mark against USC, finishing the game with 2.0 tackles for loss and his first sack of the season on USC's first snap of the game. Despite facing double teams nearly every snap this season, Sutton has 42 tackles, 10.5 tackles for loss and 3.0 sacks with a fumble recovery, an interception and three passes defended. Sutton was stellar against Utah, posting a career-high nine tackles while also adding his first career interception to seal the game against the Utes. While quarterback hurries aren't an officially kept stat, a look through the game tapes would show Sutton having his nose in more than a couple plays despite the lack of eye-popping numbers. Sutton posted 23.5 tackles for loss last season (fourth-most in ASU history) and 13.0 sacks (fourth in ASU history). Sutton now has 42.5 tackles for loss in his career, good for ninth in ASU history.

#DYNAMICDUOPARTDEUX Between Bradford and Sutton, the Sun Devils have as formidable a defense duo as any in the nation. Only 10 returning FBS players posted 10+ sacks in 2012. Sutton and Bradford are the only teammates on that list. There were a total of 51 FBS teams that had fewer sacks in 2012 than Sutton and Bradford had combined (24.5). Not since 1978 has ASU had a pair of players post 20+ TFLs and 10+ sacks in the same season (Al Harris 22 TFL/19 sacks and Bob Kohrs 20 TFL/14 sacks). As a team, Boston College only had one more TFL in 2012 than Sutton and Bradford had combined (44.0 TFL for Sutton and Bradford). Only 10 returning FBS players posted 10+ sacks in 2012. Sutton and Bradford are the only teammates on that list. 51 FBS teams had fewer sacks in 2012 than Sutton and Bradford had combined (24.5). Thus far this season, the tandem has combined for 26.5 tackles for loss, 10.5 sacks, eight PBU's, three fumbles forced, one fumble recovered and two interceptions.

NO LUMP OF COLE It's tough to get love in the media as a defensive lineman with guys like Carl Bradford and Will Sutton on your squad, but senior Davon Coleman is quietly putting up one of the most impressive numbers in recent memory. Coleman is tied for the team lead with 7.5 sacks this season and is second with 14.0 tackles for loss. Despite being a lineman, Coleman is fifth on the team with 51 tackles this season while adding one blocked field goal, one pass defended and even throwing in an offensive touchdown reception on the year for good measure.

#NOFIRSTDOWNFORYOU The ASU defense has forced opponents to 75 three-and-outs on 161 drives (46.2 percent), leading the nation in the category. Washington entered the Homecoming contest ranked third-best in the FBS in not allowing teams to force them to three-and-outs, only having nine of them in 77 total drives. The Sun Devils held the Huskies to six in the first half alone, and forced them to surpass their season total in one game, holding the potent Husky offense to 10 three-and-outs in the contest. ASU held Utah to four straight fourth-quarter drives that resulted in three-and-outs out of its eight on the day to help pave the way for the team's comeback. ASU has held the opposition to an average of 6.3 three-and-outs per game and the 75 three-and-outs forced this season are among the top five among all FBS institutions.

NELSON ISLE Cornerback Robert Nelson, who collected two interceptions in the victory over Oregon State, now has six interceptions on the season. That is the most since Troy Nolan had six in 2007. The most prior to that was six by Nathan LaDuke in 1989. Eric Allen had eight in 1987. Both Nolan and LaDuke were safeties so Nelson has the most interceptions in a season by a cornerback since Allen. Nelson has an interception in four of the last six games and five total interceptions in that time, returning his first for a touchdown against Oregon State. His 0.5 interception per game mark is fifth nationally and leaders the conference and his six total interceptions also pace the Pac-12.

NOT IN IRABOR'S HOUSE Defensive back Osahon Irabor was a force last year with 14 passes defended on the season to lead the team. The 14 pass breakups in 2012 were the most by a Sun Devil since Justin Tryon had 16 in 2007. Irabor was arguably the defensive player of the game against Wisconsin, leading the team with seven tackles and 2.5 TFLs along with a sack. Irabor currently is eighth on the team with 47 tackles this season. He already has 5.5 tackles for loss this season, an impressive statistic considering he had ZERO in the previous two seasons. Irabor recorded his first interception of the season against USC and followed that up with his first career pick-six against Notre Dame - a 37-yard march to the house which was notable as it was Irabor's fifth career interception but just the first to result in positive yardage after his return against USC was negated by a penalty. He is third on the team with five passes defended this season.

DON'T LEAVE POINTS ON THE BOARD Every team's offense hits the field hoping to score a touchdown on every drive, but few have been at successful at the task as ASU. ASU has now scored touchdowns on 63 of 159 drives this season (39.6 percent) and is ninth nationally in the category and second among Pac-12 institutions (Oregon is third nationally with 72 TDs on 154 drives). Ohio State leads the nation with 76 touchdowns on 142 drives (53.5 percent).

NOT PLAYING COY Chris Coyle put up one of the best seasons in tight end history at ASU in 2012. Coyle finished third in the nation in tight end receptions per game with 4.38. His 57 receptions led the Sun Devils and were a new single-season best all-time for ASU tight ends. Coyle finished with five touchdown catches on the year, one shy of the single-season tight end record set by Miller and Joe Petty. Coyle has 28 catches for 413 yards and four touchdowns to date this season, averaging a solid 14.8 yards per catch. Coyle now has 91 career receptions, holding sole possession of third on ASU's all-time tight end receptions list. His nine touchdowns rank tied for fourth in ASU history among tight ends with Jamaal Lewis.

INTERCEPTION DARBY Alden Darby has made a reputation as a ball-hawking safety during his four years at Arizona State, logging his seventh and eighth interception of his career against USC and recording his second pick-six in the process. He added his ninth career interception against OSU and one more against Arizona for his 10th. He now has 253 all-time career interception return yards, which is the third-most interception return yards all-time and is slowly sneaking up on the all-time record of 324 career interception return yards, set by Nathan LaDuke back in 1987-90. Darby, a Lott IMPACT Trophy Quarterfinalist, was named the Lott IMPACT Player of the Week for the performance and was also honored as the Pac-12 Defensive Player of the Week as well for the effort. Darby leads the team this season with 12 passes defended, currently tied for fifth in the Pac-12.

NO RUSH After holding Washington to -5 yards rushing on Oct. 19, the Sun Devils then took a step back and allowed Washington State to run wild for...two yards. Those two numbers are both top-five marks in the past 18 seasons. After struggling against the run through the first five games of the season (allowing opponents an average of 182.8 yards per game and ranking 86th in the FBS in the category at the time), the Sun Devil defense had found its groove in the recent seven-game winning streak in holding opponents to a lowly 98.8 yards per game in that span despite facing one of the top-ranked rushing programs in the country in Arizona. Even then, Arizona was held under their seasons average with 249 rushing yards in the contest. ASU has held five opponents under 100 rushing yards this season, a feat that hadn't been accomplished since 2009 when the team had six such games. The Sun Devils are currently fourth in the conference and 27th nationally this season, allowing opponents to average just 133.8 yards per game on the ground.

GOLD RUSH ASU finished the 2012 season averaging 205.5 yards per game on the ground, which was the second-best mark in the past 25 seasons (since 1988). Only the 234.1 yards per game put up by the 1996 Sun Devils were better. It was a little bit of a slow start for the Sun Devils in 2013 but the team appears to have found its running legs, now averaging 187.8 yards per game and ranked 44th nationally. For as much ado as has been made about ASU's struggles in the run game compared to last year, if the season were to end today, ASU would still have the fourth-highest single season rushing mark of the last 25 seasons. ASU had rushed for over 200 yards in three straight contests prior to Utah, a feat the team accomplished over the course of the last three games last season. Prior to that however, the Sun Devils had not accomplished the feat since - well, most of you can predict the pattern by now - 1996. In the recent seven game winning streak, ASU is averaging 229.1 yards per game on the ground compared to just 98.8 yards per game that opponents have posted.

ROAD WARRIORS Winning away from home in college football is difficult, especially in conference games. Coach Todd Graham ASU is beginning to assemble a pretty good resume of road/neutral site victories, collecting four in 2012 (at California, Colorado, Arizona and vs. Navy at the Kraft Fight Hunger Bowl). In 2013, ASU has garnered three straight road wins (at Washington State, at Utah and at #14 UCLA) and are winners of four of the last five road games under Graham. That is seven road wins in the past 12 road games for ASU, including six Pac-12 Conference road wins in the past nine Pac-12 road games. ASU also has had two very close losses on the road under Graham, a four point loss at Missouri and a three-point loss to Notre Dame in Dallas.

FOREVER YOUNG Senior linebacker Chris Young lead the team in tackles for the sixth game this season, including his third straight, with 13 in the game against UCLA - the second highest tally of his career. Young had a career-high three sacks in the process. Young currently leads the team by a wide margin with 95 tackles this season (Alden Darby is second with 60). Young has 12.5 tackles for loss on the season and 6.5 sacks. His is currently 23rd nationally and third in the conference with 67 solo tackles this season.

RECORD NOTABLES ASU reached six Pac-10/12 wins for just the fourth time in 36 seasons since it joined the league in 1978. It was 8-0 in 1996, 6-2 in 1997 and 7-2 in 2007. Keep in mind the league only played seven league games in 1978 and 1979, played eight in 1980, then went to a seven-game slate from 1981-90. The league went to eight-game slate in 1991 and then a nine-game slate in 2006. The team's eight wins match the 1996 school record for the most conference wins in Sun Devil history

(including Border and WAC schedules). With the Territorial Cup win, ASU now has 10 wins on the 2013 season and that is the first time since the 2007 season. In fact, in the history of Sun Devil football ASU has reached the 10-win plateau on 12 times. Additionally, all eight of ASU's conference victories came consecutively and capped a streak that marked just the 13th time in history the Sun Devils won five or more conference games in a row (Border and WAC years included). Prior to this season, ASU had won five or more conference games in a row just three times ('96, '97, '07) since 1987.

EXPLOSIVE You'd be hard-pressed to listen to a Todd Graham press conference that didn't involve the word "explosive" at some point as the head coach makes no attempt to hide the fact that that's what he wants his team to be. The Sun Devils have a classification of "explosive plays" that equal a run of 12 or more yards or a passing play of 16 or more yards. ASU has 130 such plays this season (78 passing, 52 rushing), showing a renewed emphasis on the skill of ASU's passing attack after the Sun Devils had a more even 90 passing explosive plays to 75 rushing explosions last season. Jaelen Strong already has 28 explosive plays as a wide receiver, notable for the fact that Rashad Ross and D.J. Foster each had 18 explosive receiving plays all season in 2012, the highest tally on the team. The Sun Devils are currently eighth in the nation in plays longer than 20 yards this season with 80 after having 72 a year ago and finishing 19th in the country in the category.

PROTECT THIS HOUSE With the victory against Arizona, ASU moves to 7-0 at home this year and 11-2 under Todd Graham. This is just the second time ASU has gone undefeated at home in the past 16 seasons (since 1997), when it was 6-0 in 2004. ASU also had a perfect record at home in '59, '64, '68, '70, '71, '73, '75, '81 and '96. After 13 games under Todd Graham, the Sun Devils have averaged 46.1 points per game at home, including a 63-point performance against NAU in 2012 and a 62-point performance this season against USC. The lowest score the Devils have recorded at home under Graham is 21 against Oregon last season and have scored 20 or more in 20 consecutive games while playing at home, dating back to 2010. ASU also has outscored opponents 198-51 in the first half at home this season. ASU's 49.1 points per game at home this season are currently sixth in the nation. The school record for scoring offense at home is 49.2 points, set by the 1972 team.

RUN THE CLOCK One of the biggest areas improvement for the Sun Devils this season has been the clock management side of things. Last season, ASU ranked seventh in the Pac-12 and 80th nationally in time of possession, holding the ball an average of 29:15 per game. In 2013, ASU is averaging 30:46 minutes of possession time per game - a total that ranks fourth in the conference and 42nd nationally. The team has 12 scoring drives over four minutes this season, compared to just three in 2012. "So, ASU's offense scores fast and thus time of possession is irrelevant," you say? Not so fast, my friend. ASU is 11-2 when leading in time of possession under Todd Graham compared to a 7-5 record when trailing in the time of possession category.

IN-ZANE IN THE MEMBRANE True freshman placekicker Zane Gonzalez has been on fire since late September, hitting 18 straight field goals since the USC game on September 28 - tied with Boston College's Nate Freese for the longest active streak. The Deer Park, Texas, product has been making a case to become the first-team all-Pac-12 kicker in 2013 and perhaps even more. Gonzalez now has hit 22 of 25 field goals (88.0 percent) and has booted 59 of 61 extra points. Gonzalez is No. 8 in the nation in scoring and leads the Pac-12 in kick scoring (10.4) by a wide margin. The next kicker on the list is Stanford's Jordan Williamson at 9.0. His 125 points by kick scoring are No. 1 in the Pac-12, far ahead of No. 2 Travis Coons of Colorado (100 points). Gonzalez is No. 1 in the Pac-12 in field goals at 1.8 per game. Gonzalez leads the Pac-12 with 22 field goals, ahead of three who are tied at 17. Gonzalez was named one of 20 semifinalists for the Lou Groza Award, given annually to the nation's top kicker.

FG-ONZAL-EZ Gonzalez has 125 points on the season, second in ASU history only to Wilford White's 136 in 1950. Gonzalez's 125 points also puts him first in points by kicking in a single season for a Sun Devil, breaking the previous record of 118 set by Thomas Weber (2007) and Mike Barth (2002). With 22 field goals this season, Gonzalez is creeping up on the NCAA freshman record of 25 that was set by UCLA's Kai Forbath in 2007 (25-30).

TODD-BITS OF INFO Over his four seasons prior to coming to ASU -- one at Pittsburgh and three at Tulsa -- Todd Graham's teams rushed the ball on at least 53.4 percent of their total plays. In 2008, Tulsa rushed on 61.4 percent of its total plays. The 2012 Sun Devils rushed the ball on 59.1 percent of their total plays. In 2011, ASU rushed 44.5 percent of the time. Over the past seven seasons at Pitt, Tulsa, Rice and now ASU, only one Graham-coached team has ranked outside the top 50 nationally in sacks. In 2011, Pittsburgh averaged 3.31 sacks, which ranked third nationally. The Sun Devils averaged 4.0 sacks per game last year, the second-best mark in the nation. In seven seasons, Graham is 22-20 in true road games. ASU was 3-3 in such games in 2012. In the previous four seasons, ASU was 5-16. In six of the past seven years, Graham's teams have ranked 39th or better nationally in fewest penalty yards per game. In 2008, Tulsa averaged just 37 penalty yards, which ranked 11th in the nation. In 2011, Pitt averaged 39.5, which ranked 18th. The Sun Devils averaged only 34.92 penalty yards per game in 2012 which was good for eighth in the nation.

HANG ON TO YOUR SEATS ASU has played in four games this season decided by seven points or less, going 3-1 in those contests. The total is notable as ASU was just 4-13 in the previous four seasons in games decided by less than a touchdown.

TODD'S WINNING WAYS Now ranked 11th in the AP Poll, Todd Graham has achieved his highest ranking as a head coach in his career. The team is now ranked 11th in the BCS standings, also a new high for Graham. Graham has won 18 games in his first two seasons at Arizona State with two games left to play. To put that into perspective, Frank Kush won 17 games in his first two seasons as head coach. Of all the coaching hires made in prior to the 2012 season, Graham has posted the fourth-best record during his first two years at the helm at 18-7 behind only Urban Meyer (24-0), Kevin Sumlin (19-6) and Tim DeRuyter (19-5).

2011 FBS COACHING HIRES Records In First Two Seasons

24-0: Ohio State (Urban Meyer)
19-6: Texas A&M (Kevin Sumlin)
19-5: Fresno State (Tim DeRuyter)
18-7: Arizona State (Todd Graham)
18-8: UCLA (Jim Mora)
16-9: Toledo (Matt Campbell)

STRENGTH OF SCHEDULE The Sun Devils' 10 wins this season are made even more impressive by the fact that the team holds the nation's eighth toughest schedule based on the winning percentage of opponents played this season. ASU non-FCS opponents this year have posted a 72-42 record this season (63.2). That is the highest opponent winning percentage by any school currently ranked in the AP Top 25 and is the second toughest schedule in the Pac-12 behind only Utah (72-41/63.7).

TAKING DOWN THE TOP ASU is 3-1 this season against team's ranked in the AP Top-25 Poll. ASU defeated No. 20 Wisconsin, No. 20 Washington and No. 14 UCLA this season while losing to No. 5 Stanford. ASU's three victories are the most since 1997 when the team went 3-1 against teams ranked in the AP poll this week. A victory over Stanford would mark just the second time in the history of the poll that ASU eclipsed three wins in a season. The school record is five, set by the 1986 Rose Bowl team.

#LOOKGRICEBEFORECROSSING Despite not scoring in three of the last four games, Marion Grice is still fifth in the nation in scoring this year at 10.9 points per game and he is able to get it into the end zone in a variety of ways. Last season, Grice led the nation's running backs with eight receiving touchdowns. He is on pace for that feat again in 2013 as he leads the nation's running backs again with six receiving TDs this year. Grice is on pace to upend all manners of scoring records for ASU. He now has 39 career touchdowns, ranking him fifth all-time in ASU history, despite playing in just 23 games. It is unlikely Grice will track down the ASU career touchdown record of 48 (held by Woody Green and Wilford White) but at Grice's current rate, Leon Burton's third-place hold with 42 touchdowns is just within sight. White's touchdowns per game for a career record of 1.33 might also be in jeopardy with Grice currently averaging 1.63 per game. Grice's early season tear was impressive as he became one of just four FBS players in the past decade to score 12 touchdowns before October. Michael Crabtree had 14 for Texas Tech in 2007 in five games while MSU's Javon Ringer also had 12 in five games in 2008. Grice joined Tempe's Bernard Pierce (2011) as the only two players to accomplish the feat in just four games.

#NATTYGRICE When it comes to having to convert in clutch opportunities, Marion Grice seems to have ice in his veins, answering the call time and time again. His exceptional touchdown numbers aside, Grice also leads the team in third down conversions this season with 21 of ASU's 67 successful conversion attempts (31.3 percent). The number is worth mentioning as Grice led the team last season as well in the category, but did so with just 14 conversions on ASU's 89 successful attempts. Grice leads the team this season with 66 first down conversions (45 rushing, 21 receiving) on 258 non-penalty induced first downs (25.6 percent). Grice also doesn't put ASU in many loss-of-yardage positions, having posted nearly twice as many touchdowns in his career (39) as negative-yardage plays in his (21). Oh, and he doesn't drop the ball. Grice has toted the ball 406 times in his career (294 rushes, 91 receptions and 21 returns) without losing a single fumble during the span.

RECORD WATCH

#THEPRICEISGRICE Grice became just the just the 15th conference player in the Pac-10/12 era to notch 20 touchdowns in the past 36 seasons with his two touchdown performance against OSU. It has happened 16 times, with LaMichael James of Oregon doing it twice. Grice is steadily closing in on the Pac-12 record for touchdowns in a season, 28, held by Stanford's Toby Gerhart in 2009. Grice also has eclipsed 100 all-purpose yards in his last 13 games dating back to the season, marking the fourth-longest active streak in the FBS. Only Western Kentucky's Antonio Andrews (24), Arizona's Ka'Deem Carey (15) and Tulsa's Trey Watts (15) have longer streaks.

GRICING ON THE CAKE Thought you were done reading Marion Grice notes? Lucky for you, there's more. Not only has ASU established itself as one of the top red zone teams in the country this season, but Grice is also among the nation's top red zone rushers as well. Arizona State has been inside the red zone 63 times this season, ranked fifth nationally. Grice has carried the football 49 times through 11 games and has scored a touchdown on just over a quarter of those with 13 touchdown rushes - a total that ranks tied for fourth nationally as far as red zone rushing scores. That being said, Grice leads the nation's running backs with nine receptions inside the red zone - ranked 17th nationally among ALL FBS players - with five touchdowns on those nine grabs. All told, Grice has 58 red zone touches this season and 18 touchdowns on those plays, finding paydirt approximately 31 percent of the time. Grice's stability inside the 20 has been beneficial to ASU's pass happy offense as ASU ranks 10th nationally with 59 pass attempts within the red zone but have only completed 32 of those (54.3 percent). This is especially notable as Taylor Kelly has completed 224-of-346 passes (66.7 percent) everywhere else on the field EXCEPT within the red zone.

SCHOLAR-BALLERS The Sun Devil football team has not only showed impressive strides on the field of play, but also in the classroom. The Sun Devils had 51 student-athletes named "Scholar-Ballers" this past season, meaning they earned a 3.0 or higher GPA for the year. That is 21 more student-athletes than the 2010-11 campaign and 13 more than 2011-12.

DEGREE OF DIFFICULTY One of the more impressive numbers the Sun Devils lay claim to this season will be the eight graduates competing on the roster in 2013. Davon Coleman, Chris Coyle, Evan Finkenberg, Alex Garoutte, Osahon Orabor, Kody Koebensky, Shane McCullen and Marlon Pollard will all compete this season with Bachelor degrees in hand as they complete coursework toward their graduate degrees. More impressive, six of those student-athletes were starters or significant reserves in 2012 and will likely play a large role in things this season as well (Coleman, Coyle, Finkenberg, Koebensky, Garoutte and Irabor).

Sacramento State	0

TEMPE, Ariz. (AP) - Taylor Kelly threw for 300 yards and matched a career high with five touchdown passes before sitting out most of the second half, helping Arizona State open its second season under coach Todd Graham with a 55-0 rout over Sacramento State on Thursday night.

The Sun Devils opened with a 63-6 win over Northern Arizona in 2012 and quickly took care of another FCS opponent to start this season, scoring on their first five possessions while building a 42-0 halftime lead.

Marion Grice had a pair of touchdowns and finished with 117 total yards, and Arizona State had its first shutout since 2010 to avoid a letdown before its schedule gets a whole lot tougher.

Despite being one of two FCS teams to beat an FBS opponent each of the previous two seasons, Sacramento State (0-2) never stood much of a chance against the bigger, faster Sun Devils.

The Hornets, who lost 24-0 to San Jose State in their opener, had a good opening drive against Arizona State, but did little else after that, finishing with 167 total yards and three turnovers.

The Sun Devils went into halftime with a 42-0 lead, 340 yards of offense and held the Hornets without a first down after their initial drive.

Kelly was 19 of 24 for 262 yards and matched his career high for touchdown passes by halftime. He played one series of the third quarter before sitting out the rest of the half.

GAME 2

Arizona State.....	32
#20 Wisconsin	30

TEMPE, Ariz. (AP) - TEMPE, Ariz. -- Marion Grice scored two of his four touchdowns in the fourth quarter and Arizona State survived a bizarre ending to beat No. 20 Wisconsin 32-30 on Saturday night.

Grice scored on a 1-yard run in the closing seconds of the third quarter, then on runs of 2 and 12 yards in the fourth to put Arizona State (2-0) up 32-24.

Wisconsin (2-1) used a fake punt to set up a 1-yard touchdown run by Melvin Gordon, but still trailed 32-30 when its 2-point conversion failed.

The Badgers then drove to Arizona State's 13-yard line and Joel Stave took knee to set up a potential winning field goal. He put the ball down as he tried to kneel and left it there, causing confusion as to whether the play was dead. The clock kept running, though, and the Badgers couldn't get another play after scrambling to the line of scrimmage.

Gordon ran for 193 yards on 15 carries, but the game will be remembered for the strange ending.

Arizona State's Taylor Kelly hit 29 of 51 passes -- many of those on back-shoulder throws along the sideline -- for 352 yards and a touchdown. Grice finished with 84 yards on 22 carries to help Arizona State kick off a tough stretch in the schedule with a big non-conference win.

After opening with easy victories, the first real test of the season for both teams generated quite a buzz. Maybe not up there with the Alabama-Texas A&M tilt in College Station, but enough to draw a crowd of 66,155, most of them dressed in black to create a blackout in the desert.

#5 Stanford	42
#23 Arizona State	28

STANFORD, Calif. (AP) -- What seemed like Stanford's coming out party this season -- and it still might have been -- ended with players feeling distraught and disappointed in the locker room.

Tyler Gaffney ran for 95 yards and two touchdowns, Anthony Wilkerson added 68 yards and another score, and No. 5 Stanford started strong and struggled late in a 42-28 victory over No. 23 Arizona State on Saturday night in the Pac-12 opener for both teams.

The defending conference champions controlled every facet of the game to turn the only matchup between ranked opponents this week into a lead of 29-0 at halftime and 39-7 through three quarters. The Cardinal (3-0, 1-0) scored twice in the air and three times on the ground, forced two interceptions, blocked two punts, tallied 10 tackles for loss and recorded three sacks.

Arizona State outgained Stanford 417 to 391 yards but looked over-matched until the fourth quarter.

Taylor Kelly threw for 367 yards, including three touchdown passes in the fourth, and Jaelen Strong caught 12 passes for 168 yards and a score in an otherwise disappointing showing for the Sun Devils (2-1, 0-1) after beating Big Ten champion Wisconsin in a controversial finish last week.

Kevin Hogan completed 11 of 17 passes for 151 yards and two touchdowns to Ty Montgomery to lift Stanford to its 11th straight victory. Montgomery, held without a touchdown last season after being slowed by a nagging knee injury, finished with four catches for 62 yards. He has at least one touchdown in every game.

Arizona State..... 62
USC 41

TEMPE, Ariz. (AP) -- Marion Grice scored four touchdowns, two on passes from Taylor Kelly, and Arizona State used consecutive big plays in the third quarter to race past Southern California 62-41 on Saturday night.

The defeat by the Trojans led to the firing of head coach Lane Kiffin, which was announced by the school Sunday morning.

Arizona State (3-1, 1-1 Pac-12) trailed by 1 after USC opened the third quarter with a quick scoring drive.

The Sun Devils ran away from the Trojans after that, scoring a pair of touchdowns 47 seconds apart.

Kelly orchestrated the first, hitting D.J. Foster in stride for a 74-yard touchdown pass. Alden Darby was next, stepping in front of a pass by Cody Kessler for a 46-yard interception return that put the Sun Devils up 34-21.

Tre Madden and Justin Davis each scored three touchdowns for USC (3-2, 0-2 Pac-12).

It wasn't nearly enough with Arizona State piling up yards while scoring its most points ever against the Trojans and matching the most ever scored against USC.

Notre Dame 34
#22 Arizona State..... 37

ARLINGTON, Texas (AP) -- Tommy Rees and Notre Dame felt right at home during another trip to South Bend South in Texas.

Rees threw for 279 yards and three touchdowns, and Notre Dame made it 5 for 5 in the traveling Shamrock Series with a 37-34 victory against No. 22 Arizona State on Saturday night.

Kyle Brindza kicked three second-half field goals, including the go-ahead kick from 25 yards with 3:03 remaining. He tied a Notre Dame record with a 53-yarder that matched the longest in a college game at the $1.2 billion home of the Dallas Cowboys.

It was the second win in Texas in the five-year Shamrock run of home games on the road for the Irish (4-2), starting with a victory over Washington State in San Antonio in 2009.

Taylor Kelly threw for 362 yards and three scores for the Sun Devils (3-2), who missed on a chance to become the first team to beat Southern California and Notre Dame in consecutive weeks.

Notre Dame's T.J. Jones had eight catches for 135 yards, including a pair of first-down catches on the drive to the winning field goal. Cam McDaniel, who went to school in nearby Coppell, had four straight carries for 32 yards to get Notre Dame in field goal range. McDaniel finished with a game-high 82 yards.

The Irish clinched the win when Dan Fox, who recovered a fumble to set up a touchdown, returned Kelly's second interception 14 yards for a touchdown with 1:08 remaining.

Colorado 13

TEMPE, Ariz. (AP) - Taylor Kelly accounted for three touchdowns and Marion Grice ran for two more in a dominating first half, leading Arizona State to a 54-13 rout over listless Colorado on Saturday night.

Arizona State (4-2, 2-1 Pac-12) wanted to make a statement after a tough stretch in the schedule and did just that, overwhelming the Buffaloes with 25 points in the game's first 11 minutes.

Kelly threw for 233 yards and two touchdowns, ran for another score and Grice pushed his nation-leading touchdown total to 15 as the Sun Devils went up 47-6 at halftime.

Colorado (2-3, 0-3) kept it close against Arizona State in Boulder last season before being outscored 31-0 in the second half.

The Sun Devils nearly matched that in the first quarter and never let up on the Buffaloes, forcing four turnovers while sending them to their 11th straight Pac-12 loss.

Colorado replaced quarterback Connor Wood in the first quarter after an interception and freshman Sefo Liufau wasn't much better, throwing two more interceptions. Colorado also lost a fumble and finished with 268 total yards - Arizona State had 531 - in its third straight lopsided Pac-12 loss.

The Sun Devils raced past the Buffaloes from the start, scoring on a 69-yard pass from Kelly to Jaelen Strong in the first 90 seconds. Grice scored on an 8-yard run three minutes later, Zane Gonzalez kicked a 26-yard field goal and Grice scored again on a 1-yard run after a Colorado interception.

That made it 25-0 after one quarter for Arizona State, which scored 24 points in the opening quarter its first five games combined. It was the Sun Devils' most first-quarter points since 2002, when they had 28 in a rout of Stanford.

GAME 7

Arizona State.....53
#20 Washington.....24

TEMPE, Ariz. (AP) -- Arizona State's run defense was supposed to be weak, unable to stop much of anyone, much less the nation's leading rusher.

Clogging lanes and jumping into the backfield on seemingly every play, Arizona State swarmed Washington's Bishop Sankey while dominating both sides of the ball in a 53-24 victory over the 20th-ranked Huskies on Saturday.

The big knock on Arizona State's defense under coach Todd Graham was that it couldn't stop the run. The Sun Devils had trouble with it for most of the 2012 season and had similar issues in losses this season to power-running programs Stanford and Notre Dame.

Facing Sankey was supposed to be their most daunting task yet. The junior came in leading the nation at nearly 150 yards per game and appears to be well on his way to shattering nearly all of Washington's season rushing records.

The Sun Devils (5-2, 3-1 Pac-12) flipped the tables on Sankey with a dominating defensive performance, holding him to 22 yards on 13 carries.

Arizona State held Washington to minus-5 yards on 25 carries -- matching the second-fewest ASU has allowed since 1996 -- and limited the nation's eighth-best offense to 212 total yards.

The Huskies (4-3, 1-3) were worried about Taylor Kelly's legs as much as his arm and Arizona State's quarterback still hurt them with both. He threw for 268 yards and two touchdowns and ran for 84 yards and two more scores.

Marion Grice did what he does best, scoring three touchdowns -- that's 18 already this season -- while running for 161 yards on 22 carries. The nation's leading scorer had two touchdown runs in the fourth quarter and had a spectacular TD catch that triggered Arizona State's 26-point second quarter.

Washington State21
Arizona State.....55

PULLMAN, Wash. (AP) -- Taylor Kelly tossed five touchdown passes and ran for two more scores in a 55-21 victory against Washington State. The redshirt junior threw for 275 yards and rushed for 66 to help ASU (6-2, 4-1) win its first road game of the season after two losses.

The Sun Devils jumped out to a 42-14 lead in the first half and never let the Cougars back in the game. Arizona State produced 557 yards of total offense and extended its lead in the Pac-12 South to 1½ games.

Connor Halliday had 300 yards passing for Washington State (4-5, 2-4), which has lost four of five. Halliday, who set an FBS record in his previous game with 89 pass attempts in a loss to No. 2 Oregon, was 29 of 54 with two touchdowns.

Marion Grice ran for 94 yards as ASU scored at least 50 points for the fifth time this season. Kelly completed 22 of 31 passes and was intercepted once.

Arizona State scored three times in the first quarter, thanks in part to great field position, and three more times in the second to build a lead the Cougars could not overcome.

Washington State went three-and-out on its first three possessions. After the Sun Devils took over on the Cougars 36 following a short punt, Grice ran the ball five times to get down to the 6. Kelly bootlegged into the end zone for a second time to give ASU a 14-0 lead.

Zane Gonzalez added a pair of field goals for Arizona State in the fourth.

The Sun Devils lead the series 25-13-2, having won nine of the past 10 games.

GAME 9

Utah19
Arizona State.....20

SALT LAKE CITY (AP) -- Near the end of an exhausting game, 305-pound Will Sutton admitted he didn't rush the quarterback hard because he was trying to catch his breath. The decision worked out OK for the All-America defensive lineman.

Sutton was in the right place to reach up and grab the first interception of his career. The pick snuffed Utah's last chance for an upset and secured No. 23 Arizona State's 20-19 comeback victory Saturday.

Stifled by Utah's aggressive defense for most of three quarters, Taylor Kelly helped keep the Sun Devils (7-2, 5-1 Pac-12) in the driver's seat for the Pac-12 South title.

Kelly finished 19-for-31 passing for 144 yards and Marion Grice rushed 20 times for 136 yards. Grice busted through the Utah line and rumbled 38 yards to set up Kelly's 14-yard touchdown pass to Richard Smith with 2:37 to play to make it 20-19. Utah's Trevor Reilly sacked Kelly on the 2-point conversion attempt.

Wilson was 6-for-21 for 121 yards for Utah (4-5, 1-5 Pac-12) and threw interceptions that ended the Utes' last two drives. Wilson hit Sean Fitzgerald for a 12-yard touchdown with 5:19 left in the third quarter to give Utah a 19-7 lead and the Utes looked prime for a second home upset to go along with the one they sprung on Stanford last month.

Utah's defense slowed the Sun Devils' quick-strike offense, which routinely runs more than 80 plays and rolls up more than 515 yards a game. The Utes sacked Kelly six times and allowed only one reception longer than 20 yards but the Sun Devil defense was even better.

When it mattered most in the fourth quarter, ASU held Utah to 17 yards and one first down.

GAME 10

#19 Arizona State.....30
Oregon State 17

TEMPE, Ariz. (AP) -- Arizona State's offense stagnated, its defense was on its heels.

A blocked field goal turned the momentum back on the Sun Devils' side and Robert Nelson sealed it with another big play in the fourth quarter.

Nelson returned his second interception 23 yards for a touchdown in the fourth quarter and No. 21 Arizona State maintained control of the Pac-12 South with a 30-17 win over Oregon State on Saturday night.

Arizona State (8-2, 6-1 Pac-12) dominated the first half, going up 20-0 on two touchdown runs by Marion Grice, who became the third Sun Devil to score 20 touchdowns in a season after running for 118 yards.

Arizona State halted Oregon State's momentum when Davon Coleman blocked a field goal in the fourth quarter and Nelson, who has a knack for rising up in big moments, put it out of reach by racing into the end zone on Sean Mannion's fourth interception of the game.

The Sun Devils beat Oregon State for the 19th time in 20 games at Sun Devil Stadium and have won five straight games overall, setting up next week's showdown with the Bruins in Southern California.

Oregon State (6-4, 4-3) got off to a difficult start and tried to rally in the third quarter, only to come up short for its third straight loss.

Brandin Cooks had nine catches for 99 yards and has 100 receptions on the season to break the school record of 91 held by James Rodgers and Markus Wheaton.

Mannion threw for 320 yards and two touchdowns, but has seven of his 10 interceptions this season in the past two games.

#14 UCLA 33
#17 Arizona State 38

PASADENA, Calif. (AP) -- From his shoulder pads to his socks, Taylor Kelly's all-white Arizona State uniform was flecked with verdant stains from the Rose Bowl turf.

Kelly could get used to this look. With his impressive first half and his defense's two big late stands against UCLA, the Sun Devils are Pac-12 South champions for the first time.

Kelly passed for 225 yards and a touchdown and rushed for 99 yards and another score, and No. 19 Arizona State hung on in the fourth quarter to clinch the division title with a 38-33 victory over No. 14 UCLA on Saturday night.

Marion Grice had 95 yards rushing and 72 yards receiving for the surging Sun Devils (9-2, 7-1 Pac-12), who will face the vaunted Cardinal in the league title game in two weeks. If Arizona State beats Arizona in the Territorial Cup game next week, the Sun Devils will host Stanford -- a possibility almost nobody anticipated just a couple of weeks ago.

Jaalen Strong had six catches for 91 yards and a score, but Arizona State blew most of a 22-point halftime lead over the Bruins (8-3, 5-3). The Sun Devils scored just three points in the second half, but their defense held UCLA scoreless on its final two drives to wrap up their sixth consecutive victory.

Brett Hundley passed for 253 yards and two touchdowns for UCLA. Myles Jack rushed for 86 yards and a touchdown while the freshman linebacker played almost exclusively on offense.

In the schools' first meeting as two ranked teams since 1986, Arizona State earned the right to play for its first Rose Bowl berth in 17 years -- and the Bruins came up short at home for the first time all season.

#12 Arizona State 58
Arizona 21

TEMPE, Ariz. (AP) -- No. 13 Arizona State dominated rival Arizona with a first-half onslaught and never let up, dismantling the Wildcats 58-21 Saturday night.

Arizona State (10-2, 8-1 Pac-12) won last year's game by scoring 24 points in the fourth quarter and raced out to a 27-point lead by the midpoint of the second this time.

The Sun Devils had no trouble moving the ball without leading scorer and rusher Marion Grice, spreading it around to score the second-most points in Territorial Cup history win their seventh straight game overall.

D.J. Foster carried the load with Grice on crutches, rushing for 124 yards and two touchdowns after spending most of the season primarily as a receiver. De'Marieya Nelson did his part, too, pounding in a pair of scoring runs.

Arizona State's defense was just as good, stuffing Arizona's run game early and forcing four turnovers, including a 64-yard interception return by Damarious Randle in the third quarter.

With another dominating performance at home, where they're 7-0 this season, the Sun Devils get one more game at Sun Devil Stadium, next Saturday against No. 8 Stanford with a chance for their first Rose Bowl since 1997.

Arizona (7-5, 4-5) fell flat in trying to boost its bowl pedigree.

Ka'Deem Carey ran for 157 yards and a touchdown, but the Wildcats couldn't get out of their own way and had no chance of stopping Arizona State's offense.

B.J. Denker had three interceptions after throwing four the first 11 games of the season and Arizona failed on three fourth-down attempts to end the regular season with its most disappointing performance of the season.

WHAT THEY ARE SAYING

WHAT THEY ARE SAYING ABOUT TODD GRAHAM...

"Without question, year one under new coach Todd Graham was a success."
-- Ted Miller, ESPN.com

"I'm encouraged overall. I think Todd [Graham] made great progress laying the foundations for a successful program... Overall, I feel good about where he has gone and where the development of the team is right now." -- Steve Patterson, ASU Vice President for Athletics and Athletic Director

"I've watched this program for almost 25 years. I've seen this guy more dedicated than any other head coach I've been around since the days of Larry Marmie back in the late 80's. Hands on, 24/7, he works hard and harder and hardest." Jude LaCava, Fox 10 Sports Anchor

"And it's pretty clear that Graham has an eye for coaching talent. In just his eighth year as a head coach, he's given rise to an impressive coaching tree that includes several of college football's most well-known coaches and coordinators (Gus Malzahn, Chad Morris, Bill Blankenship, Keith Patterson, David Beaty, Major Applewhite)." -- Kevin Gemmell, ESPN

"Stopping Graham's relentless ambition is like tackling Earl Campbell in the open field, and Patterson appears to be a heavyweight with knockout power."
- Dan Bickley, Arizona Republic

"Todd Graham has brought a winner to Tempe," Doug Franz, KTAR

"Todd Graham has instilled a culture of accountability and belief that seems to have ASU playing at a level more fitting of the talent it has been able to bring in over the past decade or so. The Sun Devils are unlocking their potential and handling success late in the year like past teams could not." -Fox Sports Arizona

WHAT THEY ARE SAYING ABOUT WILL SUTTON...

"Number 90, yeah, he needs to go. He needs to go ahead and start getting paid. He's the best D-lineman I've seen by far in our conference. Love the kid's motor and the passion and he plays the game like you want him to play. Great hands, leverage. He's a very good player and we're going to have to find answers for him. I've only watched a few plays, but he's the guy that consistently jumps out every game as a playmaker." - Jon Embree, Former Colorado Head Coach

"When Sutton was on the field for the Sun Devils, they were a different team. He was that strong, that agile, that good. Arizona State (7-5) improved drastically in the defensive passing game, moving from eighth in the conference in passing efficiency defense and eighth in total defense to first and second, respectively, in those two crucial categories...Why was the Sun Devils' pass defense so much better than last year? Just point to Sutton's pressure up front. He helped occupy blockers, fended them off and, often split right through them for a tackle for loss. The one game he missed? Arizona State allowed a season-high in points in a crucial 45-43 loss to UCLA. Had the Sun Devils won that game, they would have been Pac-12 South Division champs and played Stanford for a Rose Bowl berth." -- Jon Gold, CBSSports.com

"Will Sutton right now is playing as good or better than anybody on defense in the Pac-12...I don't see anybody who can block him on one-on-one situations." -- Adam Archuleta, Pac-12 Network Analyst and Former ASU Pac-12 Defensive Player of the Year

"Rarely was there a quarter he played – much less a game – when he wasn't a disruptive force, spending so much time in the opponent's backfield you'd think he broke the huddle with them...The Sun Devils can state – with conviction – that if Sutton hadn't missed the UCLA game because of a foot injury, they would have defeated the Bruins and eventually captured the Pac-12 South championship." -- Scott Bordow, Arizona Republic

"After opting to stay in school instead of going pro, Sutton is set to evolve into one of the nation's elite defensive tackles in 2013." -- Gil Alcaraz IV, Rant Sports.

"The star defensive lineman for the Sun Devils led the Pac-12 in sacks (13.0) and tackles for a loss (23.5). He was virtually unblockable last season and he was rewarded with Pac-12 Defensive Player of the Year honors. He returns for his senior season and leads what was one of the best defenses west of the Mississippi. If ASU can win the South it will be because of Sutton's play and that could get him some Heisman love." -- Braden Gall, Athlon Sports

WHAT THEY ARE SAYING ABOUT TAYLOR KELLY...

"He made a couple plays that most guys could never make." Gary Pinkel, Missouri Head Coach

"It's kind of funny everybody talks about where he came from and the 'third-string' deal and all that stuff...When we named Taylor the starter, that was something where I knew I could lay my head on the pillow at night and know that we've got a guy who can help us win football games." -- Mike Norvell, ASU Offensive Coordinator

"If Kelly can lead his team to a 5-0 start, which would include wins over Wisconsin, Stanford, USC and Notre Dame, you can bet people are going to take notice. If he does it producing similar numbers to the 2012 season, he'll get the recognition that an efficient and talented quarterback deserves." -- Kevin Gemmell, ESPN.com on Heisman potential.

"But Taylor Kelly is the ideal blend of passing and speed, and he's the engine that makes head coach Todd Graham's high-octane Sun Devil offense run...Kelly's remarkably efficient and productive first year as the Sun Devil signal caller helped vault ASU from the depths of the Pac-12 and back into contention for the South division title, where they finished second to UCLA." -- Byron Kline

"I think they're a favorite. They're as good-a-looking football team as there is in this conference. When you have a quarterback that played as well as Taylor Kelly played last year, you've got a huge head start on a lot of teams. The way they finished gives them a lot of confidence. The win over Arizona in Tucson was huge for their program. And you can hear it in Todd Graham's voice when you talk to him, he believes in this team." -- Rick Neuheisel, as seen in The Arizona Republic by Doug Haller. April 12, 2013

"High expectations for 2013 are based not only on 16 returning starters, but on who's coming back. First, there's Sutton, who led the Pac-12 in tackles for loss and sacks per game. Then there's quarterback Taylor Kelly, who ranked second in the conference in passing efficiency in 2012 in his debut as a starter. Surrounding them is a strong supporting cast. Sutton has LB Carl Bradford (20.5 tackles for a loss), while Kelly has a deep stable at running back, led by D.J. Foster and Marion Grice, and an offensive line that should be much improved." -- Ted Miller, ESPN Pac-12 Blog. April 5, 2013.

"(Carl) Bradford's freakish athletic ability is on display nearly every play, but especially against top competition." -- Kerry Crowley, House of Sparky. April 4, 2013.

"The Sun Devils are poised in 2013 to make a big move in the Pac-12 South and challenge for a spot in the Rose Bowl. (Marion) Grice is a big reason for that. He's quiet by nature. But he knows that when he does speak, he commands the respect of his teammates." -- Kevin Gemmell, ESPN Pac-12 Blog. April 2, 2013.

"I like the offense -- not just the players -- but the ingenuity behind it. I like the multiple ways Mike Norvell uses the running backs in the screen game and split out in the slot. The mismatches are abundant when you get Marion Grice and D.J. Foster in space." -- Kevin Gemmell, ESPN Pac-12 Blog. March 29, 2013.

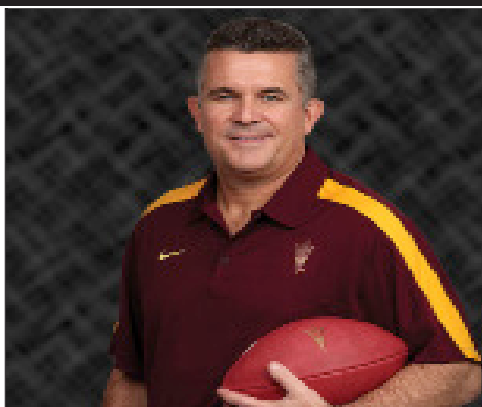

"I will admit I really had the Sun Devils about eighth or ninth on my list, but they were the highest rated of the teams with a second-year head coach in Todd Graham (coming off an 8-5 season), and I wanted to keep with tradition. They do have my No. 4 set of running backs in the country as well as my No. 4 defensive line. While the Sun Devils have to play UCLA and Stanford on the road -- and Notre Dame at a neutral site -- they get USC and Wisconsin at home and could end up with only their third double-digit-win season in the past 25 years." -- Phil Steele on 2013 surprise teams.

"One of the most dramatic changes that Graham and his staff have implemented at ASU since their arrival has been in regards to the culture of the program. While building a contending football team is a prime focus, the staff is dedicated to producing a team of high-character individuals. It's an approach now commonly referred to as "Graham 360" -- Brad Denny, 3TV Sports

"The Sun Devils offense thrived in its first season under Norvell, who came to Tempe with Todd Graham after working under him at Tulsa and Pittsburgh. While he is young, Norvell is on the fast track to getting a head gig. And after the Sun Devils averaged 38.4 points per game last season, they should once again be one of the Pac-12's most exciting offenses with Taylor Kelly returning at quarterback. Another strong year and Norvell could be in consideration for a job in a league such as the Mountain West." -- Dave Miller, National Football Post

"From Marion Grice to Chris Coyle, the Sun Devils have the full support and commitment of the Arizona State fan base. With football season fast approaching, it's almost time to get decked out in maroon and gold and come to Sun Devil Stadium to start shouting, "I told you so." -- Kerry Crowley

"This ASU team is playing with passion, discipline and resilience unfamiliar to a fan base that became accustomed to losses in turning-point games." - Tyler Lockman, Fox Sports

TODD GRAHAM HEAD COACH

CAREER: 57-34 (SEVEN SEASONS)
ASU 8-5 (ONE SEASON)

ASU

Coming off an outstanding inaugural campaign as Sun Devil head football coach, Todd Graham enters his second season looking to continue building on the brilliant transformation he led in 2012.

Among the accomplishments of last year's Sun Devil football team:

- At 8-5, the Sun Devils posted their first winning regular season since going 10-2 in 2007.
- ASU ended the season with three straight wins for the first time since 1978 and just the 14th time in school history.
- ASU beat Arizona in dramatic fashion in Tucson to reclaim the Territorial Cup.
- The Sun Devils won a bowl game for the first time since 2005 and the 13th time in school history.
- ASU was one of just four Pac-12 teams to win at least three conference road games (3-2), doing so for just the fifth time in the program's Pac-10/12 history.
- One year after finishing last (120th) in the FBS in penalties and penalty yards per game, Graham brought immediate discipline to the program as evidenced by the Sun Devils finishing the 2012 season tied for 10th in fewest penalties per game (4.23) and eighth in fewest penalty yards per game (34.92).

Employing an approach that emphasizes excellent fundamentals and hard and disciplined play, the Sun Devils' extraordinary improvement on defense played a paramount role in the team's turnaround last season. After finishing at or near the bottom of the Pac-12 in several defensive categories in 2011, the Sun Devils experienced an amazing reversal last season as they led the conference in tackles for loss (No. 1 in the nation), pass defense (No. 3 in the nation), and pass efficiency defense (No. 10 in the nation) and finished second in the league in sacks (No. 2 in the nation), interceptions (No. 4 in the nation) and total defense.

The duo of defensive tackle Will Sutton (13 sacks – third in the nation/23.5 tackles for loss – second in the nation) and linebacker Carl Bradford (11.5 sacks – 17th in the nation/20.5 tackles for loss – 11th in the nation) combined to give ASU the most dynamic defensive tandem in the country as the two combined for 24.5 sacks and 44.0 tackles for loss. Their collective average of 1.92 sacks per game was the highest in the country by two players on the same team since the 2006 season. Sutton became ASU's sixth winner of the Morris Trophy and the 18th consensus All-American and first since 2007. Sutton also became the fifth player to win the Pac-10/12 conference Defensive Player of the Year award.

In addition to distinguishing himself as an exceptional leader, Graham has also developed a reputation for identifying and hiring some of the nation's top assistant coaches. The teaching and instruction done by Graham and his first Sun Devil staff were responsible for several exceptional achievements in 2012:

- The Sun Devils finished No. 14 in the country in scoring offense (38.3 ppg), scoring 40 or more points seven times.
- In his first season as the full-time starter, quarterback Taylor Kelly set the school single-season record for completion percentage (67.1). Kelly also finished tied for second in single-season school annals with 29 touchdown passes.
- Running back Marion Grice found the end zone 19 times, tying him for third on ASU's all-time single-season touchdown while his 114 points tied him for fifth on ASU's all-time single season scoring list.
- Tight end Chris Coyle set the school's single-season record for receptions by a tight end with 57, one more than Zach Miller had in 2004.

- Punter Josh Hubner finished second in the nation in net punting, helping the Sun Devils finish No. 7 in the nation as a team.

Off the field, the changes were just as obvious. Graham overhauled the football offices, leading a complete facelift that saw new, engaging wallpaper placed throughout the third floor at Carson Center that shows off ASU's rich history as well as the goals and expectations as a program.

The Sun Devils improved immensely in the classroom as well, with football student-athletes missing just 19 total classes in his first year at the helm – down from 141 the previous season. Additionally, the number of "Scholar-Ballers" (student-athletes with a 3.00 GPA or higher) on the team increased from 30 in 2010-11 to 51 this past season (2012-13). That is the highest total in the program history and makes up just under half of the Sun Devil roster.
