ASU SOCCER GAME NOTES

QUICK KICKS...

• Arizona State will hit the road for the first time this season with a neutral site match up against Baylor Friday, and then their first true road contest slated for Monday evening in South Dakota. Friday's match up against the Bears is scheduled for a 4 p.m. kickoff, while Monday's match is slated for a 5 p.m. start.

• Arizona State enters the weekend in seventh place in the conference standings after finishing 1-1 in last weekend's Sun Devil Desert Classic. Despite controlling possession and nearly every statistical category in Friday's match, ASU dropped their first game of the season to New Hampshire 2-1. The Sun Devils bounced back in a big way on Sunday, getting past Southeast Missouri State, 4-0, in their Sunday match.

• When Winkworth arrived on campus he set to work on instilling a new brand of Sun Devil soccer, a style that would be built with a focus on possessing the ball and making smart clean passes. So far this season, the Devils have excelled at this, completing nearly 80 percent of their total passes this year. Defensively, the Sun Devils have done a great job of limiting teams ability to attack, holding opposing teams to under an under 75 percent pass completion rate.

• Despite the season being so young, the Sun Devils have brought a balanced attack in terms of both starters and reserves. In Sunday's 4-0 shutout victory, 19 players saw quality minutes, with just two players playing a full 90 minutes. This depth even extends into the keeper position which has seen both Nikki Panas and Sydney Day pick up wins, and play crucial minutes for the Sun Devils.

• This weekend brings yet another challenge for the Sun Devils, starting with a match against NCAA Elite Eight competitor Baylor on Friday evening. The Bears, 4-2, enter Friday's contest off a dominant 6-0 win over Nebraska on Sunday. BU has been led this season by junior Camryn Wendlandt who has scored three goals and carded one assist in her 330 minutes played.

• Monday's match against the Jackrabbits will stand as the first true road contest for the Sun Devils as they face South Dakota State. Boasting a 3-3 record, the Jackrabbits have proven themselves as a tough team to score on, ranking near the top-50 with a .500 shutout percentage on the year. Last weekend, SDSU shutout Greenbay, 2-0, before falling to Creighton, 1-0 Sunday afternoon.

CONFERENCE OF CHAMPIONS LEAD THE WAY IN SOCCER...

Four Pac-12 teams remain ranked in the top-25, including three in the top-10, in the latest United Soccer Coaches poll. Stanford secured a program-record 26 straight wins and claims the No. 1 spot for the third week in a row. The Cardinal received 33 of 35 first place votes, with the other two first place votes going to No. 4 USC, who moves up three spots in the poll after a 0-0 tie against No. 3 Florida State and a 3-0 victory over then-No. 22 Florida. UCLA falls to the No. 7, not fairsing as well as the Trojans on the road trip to Florida with a 0-0 tie with the Gators and a 4-1 loss to the Seminoles. Still undefeated Washington State moves up a spot to No. 17 after a comeback 2-1 victory on the road against Nebraska. Arizona, Colorado, Oregon and California all received votes.

NEW LOOK SUN DEVILS...

Arizona State welcomed an incredible 18-player signing class during the offseason. The impressive class includes seven players from Arizona, six from out of state, as well as five from overseas. Entering the third week of the regular season, Arizona State's five-highest point leaders are new to the roster in 2018. Nicole Douglas, a freshman from Staines, Middlesex, England, has scored three goals, and leads the team with six points on the year. Just behind her, fellow freshman Cori Sullivan has amassed five points with two goals and two assists already through just three games this season.

POSESSION PARAMOUNT FOR SUN DEVIL SUCCESS...

Winkworth has made it his mission to play possession soccer here at ASU, and the squad has done just that through the first three games of the season. Entering this weekend's matches, the Sun Devils have completed nearly 80 percent of passes on the season. Individually, freshman Alexia Delgado has done a great job protecting the ball, completing nearly 90 percent of her passes in Friday's game against New Hampshire. On defense, ASU has held opposing teams to under 75 percent of their passes. All this has added up to ASU leading time of possession in all three games this season.

WINKWORTH WORKS FOR FORMIDABLE FORMATION...

Looking to get back on track after giving up two early goals against the Wildcats on Friday evening, the Sun Devils moved into a three-back set, challenging the players to find the equalizer while also putting pressure on the back line to keep the opposition at bay. In the aggressive new-look, the Sun Devils out shot New Hampshire, 7-4, while out scoring the visitors, 1-0. Happy with his team's success in the formation, head coach Graham Winkworth has hinted it may be a look he feels comfortable going to in the near future.

FULL SPEED AHEAD FOR (NEARLY)FULL STRENGTH SUN DEVILS...

Although Winkworth welcomed all 18 players to the roster for the start of the 2018 season, a full strength ASU team has yet to hit the field. Last weekend, both Nicole Douglass and senior captain Jemma Purfield were unavailable for Friday's contest against New Hampshire. On Sunday's match against SEMO, Douglas was back, but Purfield remained inactive while competing in Norway. This all came a week removed from the Sun Devils welcoming both Alexia Delgado and Eva Van Deursen to campus after the two talented freshman completed their stints at the U20 World Cup. While Winkworth hopes to have a full-strength team available this weekend, it looks unlikely with Jemma Purfield expected to rejoin the team following her int late this week.

NICOLE FOR GOAL...

Freshman forward Nicole Douglas has made the most of her limited time as a Sun Devil. The talented striker enters the weekend tilt against Baylor and South Dakota State as the leading goal scorer for ASU with three goals already this season, despite missing a game for international duty. The first-year player has played only 114 minutes so far this season, meaning she is scoring a goal once every 38 minutes she is on the pitch.
