The Sun Devil women's basketball team opens the 2024-25 campaign on Monday (6:30 p.m. MST) when it hosts Jacksonville State in the first meeting between the two squads at Desert Financial Arena.

In addition to it being the season opener, Monday's game is also notable from ASU's perspective as it plays its first game as a member of the Big 12 Conference.

Third-year head coach Natasha Adair is excited about ASU playing in the Big 12, expecting it to be as challenging as the Pac-12, arguably the preeminent conference in women's basketball in its final years of existence. Adair also believes the new-look Big 12 will be an important component in recruiting.

"It helps a ton that you're still playing on one of the biggest stages," Adair said. "Eight teams from the Pac-12 went to the tournament and eight teams from the Big-12 went to the tournament and now you add the four corner schools. In my opinion, the BIG 12 got better and that's what attracts our student-athletes to want to play at ASU and want to play on the biggest stage because every night you're playing against a top 25 team.

"If you aspire to play at the next level, those pros will be in the arena, and we had some just in practice the other day. It's more about having that competitive advantage and there's no night off and I don't think you lose anything in the change...I think from a recruiting landscape I can go to Orlando, Fla., and recruit a player I might not have been unable to (before). Now I can go to the Midwest and recruit those kids who might have been hesitant because their parents couldn't see them. I just think it helps the recruiting landscape, more eyeballs are going to be on our games night in and night out. The Big 12 got bigger and better by adding the four corner schools."

- Monday's season opener can be seen on ESPN+. Braiden Bell (play-by-play) and former Sun Devil Arnecia Hawkins (color analyst) will be call.

DYNAMIC DUO DEBUT

The 2023-24 Sun Devils were dealt a serious blow when it was announced a month before the start of the season that superstar guard Tyi Skinner would miss the entire season due to a knee injury.

Skinner, who played her first two seasons at Delaware, joined Natasha Adair in Tempe after Adair was named ASU's head coach. In 2022-23, Skinner (2023 All-Pac-12 honorable mention) scored 20 or more points 15 times, including a career-high 29 points twice. A starter in all 28 games, Skinner averaged 19.3 ppg, the most by a Sun Devil since the 1988-89 season. She concluded her first campaign in the Maroon and Gold among the leaders in the Pac-12 in points per game (19.3/2nd/27th in the nation), 3-pointers per game (2.43 per game/2nd), minutes per game (36.59/3rd/29th in the nation), FTs made (79/3rd) and attempted (91/4th), steals per game (1.71/5th), 3-point FG percentage (34.7/6th) and FT percentage (78.1/8th).

The 2023-24 Sun Devils were left pondering, 'what might have been,' had Skinner been able to share the court with Louisville transfer Jalyn Brown. Much like Skinner did in 2022-23, Brown would emerge as one of the top performers in the Pac-12. In league games, Brown finished 3rd in the Pac-12 in scoring (19.6 ppg), 9th in FT percent (80.6) and tied for 14th in 3-pointers per game (1.56). She scored in double figures 26 times (12 20-point games) including a pair of outings in which she had the two highest-scoring games by a Sun Devil since 2000: 35 vs. Colorado (Jan. 7, 2024) and 34 points at Washington (Jan. 21).

Brown, who earned All-Pac-12 honorable mention honors from the league's coaches and All-Pac-12 recognition from media who cover the league, went on to lead the team in scoring (17.3 ppg) and 3-pointers per game (1.4), was 2nd in FT pct. (76.9), 3-pointers (1.3 per game), minutes (35.54 per game) and FTs made (103) and attempted (134), 3rd in assists (1.6 apg), tied for 3rd in steals (0.9 spg) and 4th in offensive rebounds (1.1 rpg).

With Skinner recovered from her injury, Adair is excited to see what the Sun Devils are capable of with both Skinner and Brown on the court.

"It's poetry in motion; those two have known each other even prior to coming here from the Washington, DC area so they know each other's game, and more importantly it's about every other piece in addition to them," Adair said. I'm excited for our fans to see our size inside, it's going to be hard to guard (us because) who are you going to sag off on and who are you going to double?

"Watching us work on that every day you can see it coming together. I'm excited about every piece because as much as they are talented there are so many other players and parts. I want to know how opponents are going to stop us."

THIS ISN'T A BAKERY

In Adair's first two seasons, opposing teams looking for turnovers have had, relatively speaking, little luck when their opposition is ASU. In Adair's 59 games as ASU's head coach, the Sun Devils averaged only 12.3 turnovers per game. As far as individual seasons are concerned, only one ASU squad did a better job (the 2017-18 squad averaged 11.7) than Adair's first two ASU teams: 12.3 in 2022-23 and 12.4 in 2023-24.

MEET THE NEWCOMERS

Half the players on 2024-25 Sun Devil Squad will be making their debut in the Maroon and Gold this season. Read on for a thumbnail summary of each player along with head coach Natasha Adair's comments on each player from earlier this year.

2024-25 SUN DEVIL WBB GAME NOTES

#0 /// Kennedy Basham /// F /// 6-7 /// Jr. /// Phoenix, Ariz.

- Kennedy Basham will be returning home after playing two seasons at the University of Oregon.
- Played in 47 games with 24 starting assignments (all 24 starts came sophomore season).
- Led team with 48 blocks and led or tied for team lead in 13 games, finishing with multiple blocks 15 times.
- Scored a season-high 15 points at Washington (Feb. 23) and followed that up with 14 points at Washington State (Feb. 25) for her first career games in double figures.

Coach A's comments: "I'm thrilled to welcome home local PHH star Kennedy "KB" Basham to our Sun Devil family. A hometown favorite and a player with national recognition, Kennedy is no stranger to playing on the biggest stages in NCAA women's basketball. Kennedy has a pro frame and versatility at 6'7. With her size, range, athleticism and defensive presence, she will be an immediate game changer for us. She's coming off a season in which she recorded 48 blocks. KB has NCAA Tournament experience and is a missing piece to our success. She is ready to get to work!"

#4 /// Jyah LoVett /// G /// 5-8 /// So. /// San Gabriel, Calif.

- LoVett is coming to ASU from San Jose State where she earned Mountain West All-Freshman Team honors for a season in which she played and started in 17 games as the team's primary point guard.
- Earned Mountain West Freshman of the Week honors three times.
- Averaged 18 ppg in her six Mountain West appearances.
- Scored a career-high 26 points twice: against Fresno State in the Mountain West opener (Jan. 3) and again at UNLV (Jan. 10).

Coach A's comments: "Jyah "Big 4" Lovett is bringing the heat to Tempe. She's a gym rat and a student of the game who can flat out play. She can. She's a strong guard who can score on every level, finish at the rim and has great change of speed and direction. Jyah is a competitor and a winner and is coming off a stellar freshman campaign where she scored in double figures in more than half of her games. She plays with energy and enthusiasm. I'm excited for Sun Devil fans to see Jyah in action. Off-season works starts now!"

#7 /// Jazion Jackson /// G /// 5-9 /// Grad. /// Dallas, Texas

- Jackson will be bringing an abundance of experience to Tempe.
- Transferred to ASU from Texas Tech. Unfortunately, Jackson didn't play after a season-ending injury prior to the season.
- Played her first three seasons for North Texas where she started 72 of 81 games. Raised her scoring average each season while playing for North Texas: 5.9 ppg, 8.6 ppg, 9.2 ppg.
- Had the best season of her career playing for UTEP in 2022-23. Earned First-Team All-Conference USA honors after she started all 32 of UTEP's games and led the team in steals (2.06 per game/fourth in the conference) and was second on the squad in scoring (11.6 ppg), rebounds per game (5.8) and assists per game (2.3).

Coach A's Comments: "Hold on to your seats, Sun Devil nation, because Jazion "Jaz" Jackson will bring the crowd to its feet! She's a prolific scorer on every level and a relentless defender who wreaks havoc on opposing offenses. Jaz is also a rebounding guard, which will be an asset to our team. Quiet by nature but turns it on when the lights come on. Jaz has earned All-Conference honors, is a double-digit scorer and is capable of coming up with a steal anytime she is on defense. She brings high energy, competitiveness and Big 12 experience to Tempe. The work begins now!"

the midrange, an efficient scorer and a pesky defender. She's a big rebounding guard which fits perfectly into our system. She is used to winning. - Parkinson is another player who will be toting plenty of experience to Tempe. After playing 20 games in two seasons at New Mexico, had a pair of breakout seasons at UC Irvine in helping the squad earn postseason berths in both 2023 and 2024.
- In 2022-23, was named the Big West's Best Sixth Player and also received All-Big West honorable mention recognition.
- After helping lead UC Irvine to the WNIT in her first season, helped her squad ascend even higher in earning a berth to the NCAA Tournament last season.
- Scored a career-high 18 points (8-10 FGs) and grabbed 10 rebounds in UC Irvine's NCAA Tournament first round game at Gonzaga (Mar. 23).

Coach A's comments: "Neveah Parkinson will ignite Sun Devil nation with her skill set, toughness, energy and effort. She is a force inside and plays with tenacity on the court. Neveah has the versatility to play inside and out. She has great hands and footwork around the rim. She does a phenomenal job of finishing through contact. She is a winner and brings NCAA tournament experience to Tempe. It's time to get to work!"

MORE FROM NATASHA ADAIR ABOUT UPCOMING SEASON

On building culture in the evolving times of college athletics and the transfer portal: "First and foremost I think you have to adapt and we tell our players daily to get used to change. Some coaches love and some hate it, but we have eight new players and seven out of the portal. It's a brand new team, as soon as the season ended we were in the portal and identified specific needs. We have size, depth, and height, but I love that we have experienced players who have played in the BIG 12. We have balance and being able to see them practice and go five-on-five because for two years we weren't able to do that due to injuries.

"A lot happened in the off-season. We were able to hire Abby Sherard, our new strength coach. I'm big on symbols and wanted to go up A Mountain the first two years to signify the start of the season. I didn't want to leave anyone behind and we couldn't do it. This year we went up A Mountain. As a coach you look at every opportunity and highlight those growth moments. That has been a huge growth moment for us and you're building chemistry with eight new players, but they're mature and we have one freshman, so they've played high-level college basketball.

"Now it's building chemistry and what lineups we like. We can go big, we can go small, we can press, we can go zone, and adjust according to the flow of the game. I think the portal and the new landscape have been good for the program."

On bringing back tremendous talent Kennedy Basham to Arizona:

"In the recruiting process with her, she was intentional in her approach and communicated her needs. The opportunity of being back home was a huge factor, but also being on the biggest stage. She has aspirations to play after college and she wanted to make sure she could check off every box and she remembered playing with two dynamic guards.

"I told this story all the time when she finally made the call. We were super excited because she said it felt like home. If the family atmosphere in the locker room feels that way, having her family and friends in the stands is a bonus. To see her growth and development from day one to now, and how we're going to be able to play with her inside and out. Two dominant posts versus one, but again playing all different ways because she is a hybrid player where she can stretch it and shoot it from three at 6 '7. She's also a rim protector, who blocks shots."

On her excitement for the upcoming season: "I'm so pumped. I'm excited just to see it all come together and I know what it looks like. A lot of people here haven't seen it, but I have seen it. This is year 27 for me so I know what it looks like. I know how it's supposed to work, what it takes, so now having the pieces and seeing it in practice and coming together, I cannot wait for opening night because now everyone else will get to see it.

"One thing I do know is that it's still a new team, so we still have that energy to build and that chemistry and culture. When you talk about players that are competing, players that have that chip on their shoulder, players that have that something to prove, we check off all those boxes. I am excited to get started with the season."

HEAD COACH NATASHA ADAIR

- On March 27, 2022, Natasha Adair was introduced as the new head coach of Sun Devil Women's Basketball.
- Adair, who brought 10 seasons of head coaching experience to ASU, came to Tempe after five seasons at Delaware where she compiled a 95-58 record, including a 48-13 record in her final two seasons.
- In 2021-22, Adair's final season at Delaware, the Blue Hens captured the program's third Colonial Athletic Association tournament title and earned their first trip to the NCAA Tournament in nearly a decade.
- In 2021, Adair was named the CAA's Coach of the Year for a season in which she guided Delaware to its first regular season conference championship since 2013.
- Prior to her five seasons at Delaware, Adair also had successful head coaching stints at College of Charleston (two seasons) and Georgetown (three seasons).
- Despite a spate of unlucky injuries to key personnel, the Sun Devils had several noteworthy accomplishments during Adair's inaugural season in Tempe, including: Starting 5-0 for the first time since 2002-03; Finishing the season No. 2 in the Pac-12 and 10th in the nation in fewest turnovers per game (12.3/only ASU's 2017-18 squad averaged fewer turnovers per game (11.7) in a season; Even with all its injuries, ASU nearly pulled off three Top 25 upsets in the season's final five games: vs. No. 21 Colorado (62-70), vs. No. 4 Utah (69-74) and vs. No. 19 UCLA (70-81-OT) in the first round of the Pac-12 Tournament. In their 75-73 win at Oregon State, the Sun Devils overcame their second-largest deficit in school history (17 points).

- ASU was once again hampered by injuries in 2023-24 as it lost leading scorer Tyi Skinner before the season started. Despite the injury issues, the Sun Devils still increased their overall win total and conference win total from the season before. Individually, Jalyn Brown flourished in her first season as a Sun Devil. The transfer from Louisville earned All-Pac-12 Honorable Mention recognition from the league's coaches and All-Pac-12 notice from media who covered the league. In conference games, Brown finished 3rd in the Pac-12 in scoring (19.6 ppg), 9th in FT percent (80.6) and tied for 14th in 3-pointers per game (1.56).
- In addition to the 2021-22 team (NCAA Tournament), Adair's leadership while at Delaware was instrumental in the 2017-18 (WNIT) and 2020-21 (WNIT) squads earning postseason appearances. Playing a big role in Delaware's success in Adair's final two seasons as head coach was the Blue Hens' resiliency on the offensive glass as they finished among the top three teams in the nation in offensive rebounding in 2020-21 and 2021-22.
- Under Adair's tutelage, three Delaware student-athletes earned Player of the Year honors, two were named Rookie of the Year and multiple players collected All-Conference honors.
- In recent years, Adair has taken on an increasingly prominent role within USA Basketball. In 2017, she was appointed as the U19 Women's World Cup Team Trials Court Coach. In 2018, Adair was a speaker at USA Basketball's Las Vegas Coach Academy. In 2018 and 2019, Adair earned gold medals while serving as an assistant coach for the USA teams that won the 2018 FIBA Americas U18 Championship and the 2019 FIBA U19 World Cup.
- Adair joined the Blue Hens from Georgetown University, where she turned a four-win Hoyas program into a postseason contender in three seasons as head coach. Behind Adair's leadership, Georgetown finished the 2016-17 campaign with 17 wins, the most wins for the Hoyas since 2011-12 and garnered the team's second straight trip to the Postseason WNIT.
- In only her second season at Georgetown, Adair helped the Hoyas experience a 180-degree turnaround as they finished 16-14 – the third-best NCAA DI turnaround in 2015-16 – and made the program's first postseason appearance since 2012.
- While at Georgetown, Adair coached a Big EAST Rookie of the Year, two players who were named to the league's All-Rookie team and pair of All-Conference standouts.
- Adair's first head coaching job was at College of Charleston, where

HEAD COACH NATASHA ADAIR

(35-31 overall in two seasons). She was the first coach to lead the program to consecutive postseason appearances.

- In 2013-14, Adair's second season and the Cougars' first in the Colonial Athletic Association, Adair guided College of Charleston to a record of 19-15, marking the third-highest win total in the school's Division I era. Additionally, the squad finished third in conference play, defeated five postseason teams from the previous year and advanced to the semifinals of both the CAA Championship and the Women's Basketball invitational.

- In her first season at College of Charleston, Adair led the Cougars to 16 wins and a WBI postseason bid. Her first squad broke 22 school records along the way.

- While leading the College of Charleston, Adair coached two all-conference players and an all-rookie team performer who would go on to be named a three-time CAA Defensive Player of the Year.

- Adair previously spent 14 seasons in the assistant coaching ranks, with eight years (2004-12) at Wake Forest University and six seasons (1998-04) at Georgetown University. Her coaching career has seen her develop and mentor five WNBA draft picks and several players who went on to play professionally overseas.

- A founding member of the Black Coaches United, Adair has been recognized by the organization, as well as Advancement of Blacks in Sports (ABIS), as one of the top women's basketball coaches in the country. Adair prides herself on being known as a game-changer as it relates to social justice and creating a safe space for athletes to find and use their voice; where she was a guest on ESPNW's "Around the Rim" with LaChina Robinson and Delaware's UD Winning Women in Athletics: Trailblazers and Changemakers Webinar Series.

- Adair played collegiately at Pensacola Junior College (1990- 92) before playing and graduating from the University of South Florida with a degree in communications in 1994.

- Coach Adair has two children, a son Aaron M. Adair (27), graduated magna cum laude from Johnson C. Smith University. A four-year member of the university's President's Council for his academic achievement, he also earned four letters playing for the men's basketball team. Daughter Allyssa M. Adair (19) is a sophomore at Texas State University and a middle blocker on the volleyball team.
