16,881 • As the crow flies, Stanford traveled 16,881 miles before kicking off the home portion of its schedule at Stanford Stadium against UCLA (Sept. 23). The trip from Stanford's campus to Sydney's Allianz Stadium, where the Cardinal opened the season against Rice, spanned 14,864 miles. A mere 642 round-trip miles separated Stanford Stadium from the Los Angeles Coliseum, and 858 from San Diego Stadium.

2,085 • Of the 44,073 applicants -- the largest application pool in school history -- for Stanford's class of 2021, only 2,085 were admitted. The admitted students came from all 50 states and 82 countries.

2013 • In the regular season matchup against Arizona State, Tyler Gaffney ran for 95 yards and two touchdowns, Anthony Wilkerson added 68 yards and another score, and No. 5 Stanford started strong and struggled late in a 42-28 victory over the 23rd-ranked Sun Devils. Stanford led 29-0 at halftime and 39-7 through three quarters. The Cardinal scored twice in the air and three times on the ground, forced two interceptions, blocked two punts, tallied 10 tackles for loss and recorded three sacks. Later in the season, Gaffney ripped off 138 yards and three touchdowns on the ground, including a 69-yard scamper on the game's third play from scrimmage, sending Stanford to a fourth straight BCS bowl game after a 38-14 win at Arizona State in the Pac-12 title game. Kevin Hogan threw for 102 yards during a 99-yard scoring drive in the fourth quarter to put the game out of reach.

2009 • Andrew Luck completed 17 of 28 passes for 236 yards while Toby Gerhart rushed for 127 yards on 25 carries to pace Stanford to a 33-14 victory, ending the Sun Devils four-game winning streak in the series. Stanford collected 473 yards of offense and held Arizona State to 290 yards.

2005 • Mark Bradford caught nine passes for 185 yards and two touchdowns during a 45-35 win for the Cardinal in Stanford Stadium. The receiving performance was the 10th-best in school history.

1994 • Damon Dunn returned a second-quarter kickoff 100 yards for a touchdown to become the second player in school history to cart a kickoff 100 yards for a score, joining Bob Bryan, who accomplished the feat against USF in 1950. At the end of the day, Jon Baker's 38-yard field goal with 0:06 remaining gave Arizona State a 36-35 victory.

1981 • In one of the of the greatest offensive shootouts in program history, Stanford rolled up a school-record 693 yards in total offense, but dropped a wild one, 62-36, to the Sun Devils at Stanford Stadium. The teams combined to break five NCAA and 11 Pac-10 records, including NCAA marks for combined total offense (1,436 yards) and passing yardage by two teams (1,092). John Elway completed 10 of 17 passes for 270 yards and three touchdowns before leaving the game with 8:10 left in the second quarter due to a concussion and sprained index finger. Backup Steve Cottrell came off the bench to complete 21 passes for 311 yards. Darrin Nelson set a Stanford record for receiving yardage with 237 on nine catches.

1972 • From the "on this date" folder -- Stanford's Sept. 30 win over West Virginia in 1972 featured some incredible nuggets. Highlights from the 41-35 victory over the Mountaineers at Stanford Stadium:

- 2,284 - Season passing yards for Stanford's Mike Boryla, the Pac-8 leader in that category.
- 486 - Net yards in total offense for Stanford.
- 159 - Seconds into the game that Stanford scored its first touchdown, on a 9-yard John Winesberry sweep.
- 113 - Seconds left when West Virginia cut the deficit to 41-35 after a 9-yard pass to Brian Chiles, but the Mountaineers' onside kick was recovered by Stanford's Bill Wiley.
- 96 - Distance on a kickoff return by Artie Owens on a reverse to set up West Virginia's first touchdown.
- 18 - NFL titles won as a player or coach by members of Stanford's 1972 coaching staff.
- 7 - Touchdowns in the second half by both teams.
- 3 - Touchdowns scored by Stanford's John Winesberry, who rushed for 135 yards on 29 carries.
- 2 - Future national championships won by West Virginia coach Bobby Bowden, who left for Florida State in 1976.

1921 • Built in 1921, Stanford Stadium is the eighth-oldest FBS facility. The current configuration includes a renovation completed prior to the 2006 season.

1,016 • In his past six outings, junior running back Bryce Love has 1,016 yards rushing on 101 carries (10.1 yards/rush).

787 • Through four games, junior running back Bryce Love has 787 yards rushing on 73 attempts. In the past 20 years, only LSU's Leonard Fournette (864 yards on 99 attempts) and Northern Illinois' Garrett Wolfe (828 yards on 96 attempts) had more. (Note courtesy of STATS)

661 • Stanford's 661 tackles for loss this decade ranks sixth nationally.

656 • Stanford's 656 total yards against Rice in the season opener were the seventh-most in program history, and best total since 1999 (672 vs. No. 18 UCLA).

625 • There are more than 625 registered student organizations at Stanford.

602 • Stanford's true freshmen accounted for 602 snaps during the 2016 season, 10th-fewest nationally. That included offensive guard Nate Herbig, who started the final six games of 2016 (Stanford was 6-0). Four true freshmen -- tight end Colby Parkinson, wide receiver Connor Wedington and offensive tackles Walker Little and Foster Sarell -- received significant playing time in Stanford's first four games.

500 • Stanford has gained more than 500 yards of total offense five times in its past eight games.

405 • Stanford's 405 rushing yards against UCLA (Sept. 23) were the fourth-most in program history. Stanford was the first team to rush for over 400 yards against UCLA since USC did so in 2005. Junior running back Bryce Love had 263 against UCLA in 2017, and USC running back Reggie Bush had 260 in 2005. (Note courtesy of STATS)

400 • Stanford has held opponents to fewer than 400 yards of total offense in 39 of its past 52 games.

267 • Stanford leads the nation with 267 sacks since 2011.

263 • Junior running back Bryce Love's 263 rushing yards against UCLA (Sept. 23) were second all-time only to Christian McCaffrey's 284 at Cal in 2016.

200 • Stanford has allowed 200 or more rushing yards only 12 times under head coach David Shaw.

199 • Before a second-quarter interception at San Diego State (Sept. 16), Stanford had 199 consecutive pass attempts without an interception. Senior quarterback Keller Chryst had 170 straight attempts without a pick.

198 • Junior running back Bryce Love ranks second among Pac-12 players with 198 all-purpose yards/game. Junior running back Cameron Scarlett (141.5) is 30th nationally and third among Pac-12 players.

196.8 • Junior running back Bryce Love ranks first nationally with 196.8 rushing yards/game. Oklahoma State's Barry Sanders (238.9), USC's Marcus Allen (212.9), Cornell's Ed Marinaro (209.0) and Iowa State's Troy Davis (198.6) are the NCAA leaders for single-season rushing yards/game.

189 • Stanford has made 189 consecutive extra-point attempts, the third-longest streak in the nation (Michigan - 297, Texas A&M - 219). The streak dates to Stanford's matchup at Oregon State on Oct. 26, 2013.

138 • Stanford has a streak of scoring in 138 consecutive games, dating to Nov. 11, 2006.

137 • Stanford claimed five national team championships during the past academic year, increasing its overall total to 137, including 113 NCAA titles. Recent NCAA crowns came in men's soccer, women's volleyball, women's swimming and diving, and women's water polo.

134 • Stanford held USC (Sept. 9) without a single punt or kickoff return yard, a first for the Cardinal special teams units in 134 games, dating to the 2006 regular season finale against Cal. Stanford special teams coordinator Pete Alamar was the Golden Bears' special teams coordinator for that 2006 affair.

129 • Stanford was the 129th and final FBS program to plays its originally scheduled home opener Sept. 23 against UCLA at Stanford Stadium. Georgia Southern's Sept. 9 home opener was moved to Birmingham, Alabama, due to the impending threat of Hurricane Irma, and plays its first true home game on Oct. 4.

123 • Stanford opened its 123rd season with a nonconference game against Rice on Aug. 26 in Sydney, Australia.

113 • The Cardinal and UCLA share the NCAA lead with 113 team titles.

100 • Stanford has rushed for at least 100 yards in 62 of its past 68 games. Stanford has not recorded fewer than 100 yards rushing in a victory since the second game of 2012 (92 yards vs. Duke).

99 • Stanford received a graduation success rate of 99 percent from the NCAA for the third consecutive year in 2016, a total that paced all FBS institutions and ranked 11 points higher than the next Pac-12 school (UCLA - 88 percent).

97 • Nearly 97 percent of Stanford undergraduates live on campus, and there are an estimated 13,000 bikes at Stanford daily.

96 • Stanford's 8,180-acre campus is large enough to contain 96 Disneylands.

90 • The Cardinal has at least one tackle for loss in each of its past 90 contests.

78 • Stanford's 78 wins this decade are the most of any private school, ahead of TCU (68), USC (66), Baylor (64), Navy (62) and Notre Dame (62).

76 • Stanford's 76 wins against FBS opponents this decade ranks second nationally. Only Alabama (83) has more.

72 • Stanford has at least one sack in 72 of its past 78 games.

66 • Head coach David Shaw has 66 career wins, five shy of matching the school record set by Glenn "Pop" Warner (71 from 1924-32).

59 • Stanford has recorded at least one rushing touchdown 59 times in its past 66 games. Stanford has won 25 of its past 28 games when recording at least one rushing touchdown.

- 55 • The 55-point margin of victory in Stanford's 62-7 season-opening win over Rice was the second-largest since 1949, and largest since a 58-0 win against Washington State in 2008.
- 50.67 • Junior running back Bryce Love is averaging 50.67 yards/scoring play (93-yard catch, 47-yard run 48-yard run, 7-yard run, 56-yard run, 50-yard run, 49-yard catch, 10-yard run, 75-yard run, 51-yard run, 53-yard run, 69-yard run).
- 50 • Stanford leads the nation with seven plays from scrimmage covering 50 or more yards.
- 50 • Dating to 2016, junior running back Bryce Love has recorded a rush of 50 or more yards in six straight games, the only player to do so in the past 20 years. Love has five rushes of 50 or more yards in four games this season. By comparison, Alabama's Mark Ingram had two such rushes in 14 games in 2009, and Derrick Henry had five such rushes in 15 games in 2015 for the Crimson Tide. (Note courtesy of STATS)
- 49 • Stanford's 62 points scored against Rice were the most in an opener in 49 years (62-20 win over San Jose State in 1968) and the most in any game since 2013 (63-13 win over Cal).
- 41 • Stanford, which sponsors 36 varsity sports, has won at least one NCAA team title in each of the past 41 academic years, representing the longest streak in history.
- 40 • Stanford has scored at least 40 points in five of its past eight games.
- 38 • Stanford's 38 first-half points in its opener against Rice tied for the most in a half over the past four seasons.
- 35 • During the 2016 season, 35 former Cardinal received an NFL paycheck.
- 33 • Stanford has produced 33 NFL draft picks since 2010, 12th-most by any program over that span.
- 32:38 • At 32:38, Stanford's average time of possession per game since 2011 ranks fifth nationally.
- 30 • The Stanford Concussion and Brain Performance Center is at the forefront of concussion and traumatic brain injury research, and is incorporating state of the art eye-tracking tests -- EYE-SYNC -- in all of its studies. The EYE-SYNC test is administered with customized eye tracking technology, called Dynamic Visual Synchronization (DVS) Goggles. The eye tracking test lasts 30 seconds, and the results show the ability to focus -- a key problem after a concussion.
- 30 • Stanford, which operates on the academic quarter calendar, had 30 days between its season opener (Aug. 26) and the first day of classes (Sept. 25).
- 30 • Stanford's 2017 roster includes student-athletes from 30 states, and Austria.
- 30 • No Pac-12 Conference team has had more NFL draftees over the past five years than Stanford's 30.
- 30 • Stanford has allowed fewer than 30 points 56 times in its past 63 games.
- 30 • Stanford's last victory on the 30th day of September came in 1978, a 17-14 win over Tulane.
- 28 • Stanford has 28 rushing touchdowns in its past 10 games.
- 28 • Stanford had 28 former players make NFL opening day rosters, third-most of any Pac-12 team.
- 25 • Stanford is one of 10 teams to have allowed fewer than 25 points/game for four straight seasons.
- 25 • Stanford's 25 fifth- and fourth-year seniors are the most of any Pac-12 program.
