ASU SOCCER GAME NOTES

QUICK KICKS...

• The Arizona State soccer team is off to their best start since 2005, but await a challenging week three schedule that features UC Irvine and Oklahoma. Action in week three will get underway Friday afternoon when the team travels to Tucson to take on UC Irvine in a neutral site contest at 4:00 p.m. PT, before returning home to host Oklahoma on Sunday at 5:00 p.m.

• The Sun Devils will be looking to build momentum on their already impressive 4-0 start to the season. In their first two weeks of play, the Sun Devils have outscored their opponents, 19-3, and enter the weekend with the nation's fourth-best scoring offense.

• In their last outing, Arizona State completed a hard-fought 92 minute game, topping Weber State with a golden goal in overtime. The win marked the first shutout of the season, and snapped a three-game multi-goal streak for ASU, who recorded a program best seven goals in back-to-back outings prior to Sunday's win.

• Through the first two weekends of play, eight players have made their first appearance in the maroon and gold, including six players who tallied their collegiate debuts. Of those eight players who made their first ASU appearances, four have found the back of the net, including freshmen Dai Williams, Nicole Soto and most recently Makenzie Harvey. Senior Lorato Sargeant has tallied a pair of goals, and added an assist in her first two weekends as a Sun Devil. Not to be outdone, a handful of returners have also made a big splash in the first two weeks of the season as well. Sophomores Eva Van Deursen, Nicole Douglas and Marleen Schimmer have combined to score eight goals and seven assists. Entering the third week of the season, the top three points leaders on the team are all sophomores.

• The Sun Devils expect large crowds on hand for their marquee matchup against Oklahoma on Sunday night, as it will be the third 942 Crew Game of the week. Students attending the game will receive 'shersey' that resemble the team's home white kits.

SCOUTING THE ANTEATERS...

Head coach Scott Juniper returns for his 12th season as UCI's head coach, looking to register his third trip to the NCAA tournament after doing so in 2010 and 2011. The Anteaters opened the season with an 0-3 record after falling to three power-five programs, including a pair of No. 9 ranked clubs in Virginia and Vanderbilt. UCI supplied valiant efforts in all three of their previous games, including dropping a pair of matches decided by a single goal. In their last outing, the Anteaters claimed their first victory of the season, and the team's first goals in 2019, as UCI carded a shutout win over Northern Colorado, 2-0. The two goals represented the first career goals for sophomore Scarlett Camberos and newcomer Julia Gonzalez, who will undoubtedly be hungry to build off of their success in Sunday's win. The 2019 UCI roster boasts a veteran laden team for the Anteaters, as three seniors were selected to the All-Big West preseason team: Defender Aleah Kelley, Forward Jessica Miclat and Goalkeeper Maddie Newsom.

SCOUTING THE SOONERS...

The Sooner squad is led by eighth year head coach Matt Potter. Potter has soared as Oklahoma's manager, notching a program record 14 wins and the first ever NCAA tournament win in 2016. A veteran leader of power-five teams, Potter also served as the head coach at Washington State from 2003 to 2012 before leaving with a school record 88 victories to his name in his nine seasons with the Cougars. On the field, OU is led by two-time All-Big 12 First Team member Kaylee Dao. Already this season, Dao has supplied five goals in just four games played, pushing her career mark to 21 goals – fifth all-time in OU history.

FRESH FACES MAKING QUICK IMPACT...

Through the first weekend of play, eight players made their first appearance in the maroon and gold, including six players who tallied their collegiate debuts. Of those eight players who made their first ASU appearances, three scored a goal, including freshmen Dai Williams and Nicole Soto. Senior Lorato Sargeant did scored a goal, and tallied an assist in her first weekend as a Sun Devil.

OFFENSIVE EXPLOSION POWERS ASU TO STRONG START TO SEASON...

Through the first two weekends of play, ASU has seen eight players make their first appearances as Sun Devils. Of those eight players who made their first ASU appearances, four have found the back of the net, including freshmen Dai Williams, Nicole Soto and most recently Makenzie Harvey. Senior Lorato Sargeant has tallied a pair of goals, and added an assist in her first two weekends as a Sun Devil. Not to be outdone, a handful of returners have also made a big splash in the first two weeks of the season as well. Sophomores Eva Van Deursen, Nicole Douglas and Marleen Schimmer have combined to score eight goals and seven assists. Entering the third week of the season, the top three points leaders on the team are all sophomores. In total, with 19 goals scored on the season, 10 different players have scored a goal, while 12 different players have been credited with an assist.

IN RARE AIR..

ASU enters the weekend as one of just 38 teams in NCAA Division I competition to not have suffered a loss or a draw in the 2019 season.
