ASU SOCCER GAME NOTES

QUICK KICKS...

• The Arizona State soccer team will return home to complete the non-conference portion of the 2019 schedule with a Friday afternoon meeting with CSUN. Entering the matchup with a 6-2 record to start the season, ASU has an opportunity to cap their non-conference slate with a 7-2 record, the best for an ASU team since 2014 when the team finished the non-conference slate with a 7-1-1 record.

• Friday's meeting against CSUN will stand as the seventh meeting between the two sides, and the second time under third-year head coach Graham Winkworth. The Sun Devils enter the meeting with a 5-0-1 record against the Matadors, with ASU winning the last meeting, 1-0, in an exhibition match to start the 2017 season.

• In their last outing, ASU snapped a two-game slide that started with a 2-1 loss to Oklahoma on Sept. 8. After suffering a tough loss at UCF last Thursday, the Sun Devils rebounded nicely to top 2018 SEC Champion LSU, 1-0, in Baton Rouge.

• Entering the fifth weekend of the 2019 season, the Sun Devils have combined to outscore their opponents, 25-17, including a 14-5 advantage in goals scored following the halftime break. In total, ASU is averaging 3.43 goals per game, making the Sun Devils the ninth-highest scoring offense in the nation.

• Entering the week, ASU has enjoyed a ton of success from their talented sophomore class. Following the first eight games of the season, the top three point-scoring players in maroon and gold are all part of that sophomore class. Douglas leads the way with 14 points, a mark that ranks 19th nationally, while Eva Van Deursen and Marleen Schimmer have accounted for 11 and 10 points, marks that rank in the top 10 in the Pac-12.

SCOUTING THE MATADORS...

CSUN jump-started their 2019 season with a 5-1-2 record, including winning three of their last five matches over Houston, Easton Washington and San Diego. A hard-fought battle against No. 14 Texas A&M resulted in the Matadors' lone loss to begin the season. The Matadors have been excellent on both ends of the field, holding opponents to only six goals in eight games, while tallying five shutouts in the process. The offensive end has seen six different players get into the scoring column, with sophomore forward Alexis White leading the team with three. Head coach Keith West, now in his 14th season as manager, welcomes 18 familiar faces back to the pitch, including six who started half of the team's games in 2018.

FRESH FACES MAKING QUICK IMPACT...

In total 10 players have scored goals for the Sun Devils this season, among those goal scorers, four are new to the roster in 2019. Of those four newcomer goal scorers, three are freshmen. In keeping with the youth movement on the 2019 roster, this season's sophomore class has combined to score 45 of the team's 74 points this year. That class alone has tallied 14 goals and 17 assists already this season. Not far behind, the freshman class has made a quick impact as well, contributing five goals and five assists already in 2019.

OFFENSE POWERING ASU TO STRONG START TO SEASON...

Entering the final weekend of non-conference play, Arizona State has combined to score a total of 25 goals this season. That total is more than the team scored in either the 2017 and 2016 seasons, and is just four goals shy of matching the total scored during the 2018 season. The team has a lot of work to do if they want to chase down the program record of 46 goals, scored in 2000, but this year's offense is for sure on track to rank near the top in program history.

PAC-12 NEARING RECORD IN NON-CONFERENCE PLAY...

Through the non-conference portion of the 2019 season, the Pac-12 has combined to post an incredible 64-13-5 record, pushing the Conference of Champions to an incredible .811 win percentage on the season. The closest conference to the Pac-12 through the first four weekends of play is the ACC with a .767 league win percentage.

A LOOK AHEAD...

Following the Friday matchup against CSUN, Arizona State will begin Pac-12 play with a home match against Utah, Friday, Sept. 20. That game will also be broadcast by the Pac-12 Network.
