SERIES NOTES VS COLORADO – ASU LEADS 6-5-1

Both teams have enjoyed a stint in the series in which they went 4-0-1 against the opposition in a five-year stretch. Last season, ASU received a pair of goals from Nicole Douglas and one from Olivia Nguyen in ASU's 3-2 win. Douglas' goal in the 77th minute put the Sun Devils ahead to stay.

UP NEXT

The Sun Devil soccer team (4-0-2) starts Pac-12 play on Friday (3 p.m. MST/4 p.m. MDT) when it travels to Boulder, Colo., to face the Colorado Buffaloes (6-1-2). This will be ASU's second trip to the state of Colorado this season. Last month (Aug. 28), the Sun Devils played Denver to a 1-1 tie.

The fact the Sun Devils are unbeaten is a testament to the team's focus despite the obstacles it has overcome to play the games it has thus far.

Both of ASU's opening weekend contests were affected by weather. ASU's opening game, 1-1 tie vs. 2021 NCAA Tournament participant South Dakota State, started on the night of Aug. 18 and finished on the morning of Aug. 19. Keri Matthews' first career goal tied the game at 1-1 on Friday after SDSU took the lead during Thursday's evening session. ASU's next scheduled contest vs. Hawai'i (Aug. 21) did not even start (lightning). The game was eventually canceled.

ASU was able to start and finish its first road contest, a 2-1 win at Boise State (Aug. 25) without any unusual stoppages. However, weather issues once again came into play – a 50-minute lightning delay before the start of the second half – in ASU's 1-1 tie at Denver (Aug. 28).

ASU returned home and scored its most goals since the 2021 season opener in a 6-2 win over UAB (Sept. 1). The Sun Devils then went 13 days without playing a game after their home contests vs. Georgia Southern (Sept. 4) & Pepperdine (Sept. 8) were canceled (Covid-19 protocols).

ASU returned to action last week with a pair of 5-0 wins over Grambling State (Sept. 14) and vs. Toledo (Sept. 18).

The tremendous job ASU has done of playing through adversity should come as no surprise to anyone who has followed the program in recent years. During the Covid season of 2020 (played in the spring of 2021), ASU made its first NCAA Tournament appearance since 2014 and was just short of making its first Sweet 16 after falling to Duke in double OT. Last season, ASU still managed to post a double-digit win total (10) despite having to play 22 different players in the starting lineup due to an unlucky spate of injuries.

Including this season's 4-0-2 record, ASU now 28-7-2 in regular season, non-conference games since 2018, including a 14-1-2 the last two seasons.

WHAT TO LOOK FOR

- ASU comes into Friday's game leading the nation in assists per game (4.0), is second in points per game (10.67), sixth in scoring offense (3.3 goals per game) and ninth in shots on goal per game (10).
- ASU has been led by returning All-American Nicole Douglas. Now the program's all-time career leader in goals (55), points (128) and game-winning goals (17), Douglas enters Friday's game leading the nation in goals per game (1.5), points per game (3.17) and SOG per game (3.17), is fourth in total goals (9), sixth in total points (19) and seventh in game-winning goals (3).
- After not finding the back of the net in ASU's season opener vs. South Dakota State (Aug. 18), Douglas has since scored all nine of her goals in ASU's last five games. In ASU's 5-0 win over Toledo (Sept. 14), Douglas, who was named the Pac-12's offensive player of the week on Sept. 19, tied the school's single-game school record for goals (3) for the fourth time in her career. She has now scored multiple goals in a game 12 times and has accounted for 28 goals in ASU's last 26 games.
- ASU has scored 16 goals in its last three games (6-2 vs. UAB and 5-0 vs. Grambling State and Toledo). Nine different Sun Devils have scored in that stretch with three players accounting for multiple goals Douglas (6), Alexia Delgado (2) and Eva van Deursen (2).
- Both Lucy Johnson (vs. UAB) and Kennedy Mayo (vs. Toledo) have tied the single-game school record for assists (3). Teammate Enasia Colon is 19th in the nation in assists per game (0.67).
- Freshman goalkeeper Pauline Nelles was not available week one as she was still competing with the German National Team at the U20 World Cup in Costa Rica. She has since started the last five games and last week earned her first complete game shutout vs. Toledo.

SUN DEVIL

S O C C E R

ASU HEAD COACH GRAHAM WINKWORTH

- The 2022 season will be Graham Winkworth's sixth as head coach of Sun Devil Soccer.
- The Sun Devils had their best season under Winkworth in 2021 (2020 season), finishing the regular season with an 8-5-2 record and making a postseason run for the first time since 2014 and eighth in school history. ASU made it to the second round of the tournament to become the fifth ASU soccer team to advance to that stage in the NCAA Tournament.
- Winkworth and company boasted an undefeated non-conference slate last season, including an overtime comeback thriller at Grand Canyon to protect the streak. ASU continued its unbeaten streak through eight games and notched wins against UCLA, Stanford, and USC to become only the fourth team in history to beat all three programs in a single season. With a 4-4-2 record in Pac-12 Conference play, the Sun Devils finished in the middle of the table after being picked to finish last in the preseason poll.
- With 10 wins in 2021, Sun Devil Soccer posted a double-digit win total twice (2018 and 2021) four seasons – and that does not include the 9-6-2 record that was good enough to earn the squad a berth in the 2020 NCAA Tournament – after accomplishing the same feat twice in the previous 10 seasons. After its 8-1 record in non-conference play, ASU earned a No. 15 ranking in the United Soccer Coaches Top 25, its highest in program history.
- In 2019, Winkworth led his team to a dominant start to the season, securing five-straight wins for just the second time in program history, and carded their best start to a season since winning nine straight to start the 2000 season. The five-game win streak was the longest for the Sun Devils since 2014. ASU's strong non-conference performance helped the Pac-12 record the best-ever win percentage in conference play. Together, the league's 77-14-9 record for a .815 win percentage, the highest of any conference in the nation, and the highest non-conference win percentage by the league in Pac-12 history.
- Winkworth's 2019 squad combined to score 33 goals on the year, marking the best offensive output for the Sun Devils since scoring 34 goals in 2015. Sun Devil Women's Soccer capped the season with a 6-11-3 record to push Winkworth's overall ASU record to 21-29-7.
- In his second season at the helm, Winkworth achieved his best record at ASU, finishing with a 10-7-1 record. During the conference schedule, ASU swept all of the Pacific Northwest Pac-12 schools (Washington, Washington State, Oregon, Oregon State) in four consecutive games (two home and two away).
- Prior to his time with the Sun Devils, Winkworth spent four seasons transforming South Alabama women's soccer program into one of the top mid-major programs in the country and an emerging national power. Under Winkworth's direction, South Alabama set school records and program bests including qualifying for four-straight NCAA appearances, winning four straight Sun Belt Conference Championships, and earning the program's first top-25 national year-end ranking. A two-time Sun Belt Coach of the Year ('14, '15), Winkworth's student-athletes had a monopoly on the conference's top honors including four straight Sun Belt Freshmen of the Year, three Sun Belt Players of the Year, and three Sun Belt Defensive Players of the Year.
- In his first season as head coach of the Jaguars, Winkworth guided South Alabama to its most wins (14) since 1997 and the second-most wins in school history only to set the new program record for most wins (19) in 2014. The 2014 team also set school records for best winning percentage (.848), longest unbeaten streak (18), consecutive games scored (22) and shutouts (12). As evidence of South Alabama's transformation, in the five years prior to Winkworth's arrival, South Alabama had only one season with a finish above .500.
- Winkworth spent 10 seasons at North Alabama, leading the Lions to a total of 111 wins, the most for a coach in school history. He also coached the program's first two All-Americans and led the program to its first NCAA appearance.
- Winkworth began his coaching career in England with the Preston North End Football Club as an assistant with the Center of Excellence. He also served as an assistant coach at Cumberland (Tenn.) and Central Arkansas before North Alabama.
- Winkworth and his wife Jonna are parents to children Lucas, Caden, and Darbi.

Record at ASU: 44-43-14 (sixth season)

Career Record: 219-142-28 (20th season)

IT'S EARLY, BUT STILL WORTH NOTING...

At the outset of conference play, the Sun Devils have the second-highest RPI among Pac-12 teams. UCLA was at the very top of the pack, followed by the Sun Devils at No. 31. Every Pac-12 team was among the Top 100 with Washington State (No. 38), Washington (No. 44) and Stanford (No. 47) also among the Top 50.

MAKING HISTORY

All eyes are focused 2021 NCAA scoring leader Nicole Douglas, who earned Third-Team All-America honors in 2021 and was one of 13 players named to the All-Pac-12 First Team. The first Sun Devil to earn All-America honors since 2002, in 2021 Douglas set single-season school records for goals (19/No. 1 in the nation) and points (45). She also led the nation in goals per game (0.95) and points per game (2.25).

On Sept. 1, 2022, Douglas became ASU's all-time leader in career goals after finding the back of the net twice in ASU's 6-2 win over UAB. Douglas tied and then passed Sun Devil Hall of Famer Stacey Tullock (50 goals/1998-2001) vs. UAB. On Sept. 14 vs. Grambling State, Douglas became ASU's new career leader in points (126/54 goals and 18 assists) and game-winning goals (17), passing Tullock in both categories Grambling State (Sept. 14) .

Douglas, who has started all 77 games she has played in her career, accounted for a goal or assist in all but five games last season and had a stretch in which she scored at least one goal in seven straight games. She has scored multiple goals in a game 12x in her career and has tied the single-game school record for goals (3) on four occasions – most recently in ASU's 5-0 win over Grambling State (Sept. 14) – and the single-game record for assists (3) once.

On Aug. 18, it was announced Douglas was one of 60 players on the 2022 Hermann Trophy Watch List. Presented annually by the Missouri Athletic Club, the Hermann Trophy is the nation's highest individual honor recognizing the National Player of the Year.

CHASING HISTORY

Also within reach of breaking a program career record is fifth-year midfielder Eva van Deursen (23 career assists/second place), who needs three assists to become ASU's all-time leader. Tullock (first place/25 assists/1998-2001) holds the school record. van Deursen has already accounted for two goals and three assists this season.

In 2021, van Deursen set the school's single-season assists record with 10 in addition to scoring three goals. At season's end, van Deursen led the Pac-12 and was No. 19 in the nation in assists per game (0.56). She tied her single-game career high in assists (two) twice in ASU's wins at UAB (Aug. 29) and vs. Utah (Oct. 31).

ABOUT THE SCHEDULE

Included on ASU's 2022 schedule are five contests against teams that qualified for last season's NCAA Tournament: South Dakota State (T, 1-1), Stanford, UCLA, USC, and Washington State. The Sun Devils missed out on an opportunity to face a Top 10 team when their game vs. then-No. 10 and Pepperdine (Sept. 8) was canceled due to Covid 19 protocols.

ASU's first two road opponents – Boise State (W, 2-1) and Denver (T, 1-1) – just missed out on an automatic NCAA Tournament berth last season after falling in the championship game of their respective 2021 conference tournaments.

HOW'S THIS FOR EXPERIENCE?

ASU returns a quartet of fifth-year players in the form of forwards Nicole Douglas (77 games/77 starts) and Olivia Nguyen (67 games/42 starts, including 41 starts in her last 43 games since start of her junior season) and midfielders Alexia Delgado (70 games/63 starts) and Eva van Deursen (75 games/72 starts). The four players have started every game this season and have combined for 14 goals and eight assists – Douglas (9G/1A), van Deursen (2G/3A), Delgado (2G/2A) and Nguyen (1G/2A) and collectively have amassed 289 games played, including 254 starts.

The Sun Devils also return two other players with more than 50 games of experience: senior defender Lieske Carleer (58 games/57 starts) and senior defender/midfielder Callie Darst (59 starts in 63 career games). Although this is her first season with ASU, New Mexico State transfer Hannah Leitner has played in 54 games (50 starts).

Juniors Lucy Johnson (starts in all four games) and Jazmine Wilkinson (starts in two of five games she has played in, have both broken into the scoring column this season. Johnson, who tied the single-game schools record for assists (3) vs. UAB on Sept. 1, currently has a team-high five assists and Wilkinson has accounted for one goal and one assist.

SOPHOMORE STANDOUTS

Sophomore forwards Keri Matthews and Kennedy Mayo have provided the opposition with additional Sun Devil scoring options to be aware of on its scouting reports. Matthews has scored a pair of goals to go with one assist. Mayo proved how dangerous she can be, accounting for a goal and a single-game, school record-tying three assists in ASU's 5-0 win vs. Toledo (Sept. 18).

TRANSFERS

The Sun Devils welcomed two transfers to the program, Gabi Rennie and Hannah Leitner. Rennie, who had an assist in her Sun Devil debut vs. South Dakota State, joined the Sun Devils after starting her career at Indiana University. She also spent time with the New Zealand national team and scored a goal for them in the 2020 Tokyo Olympics. In her three seasons playing for New Mexico State, Leitner became the program's all-time career assists leader (12) and tied for eighth in career goals (nine).

MORE NEW FACES

The Sun Devils will also be welcoming nine freshmen to Tempe: goalkeepers Pauline Nelles and Kayla Letcher; defenders Andrea Kraetzer, Ava Wright, Meghan Farrell and Mya Wheeler; midfielder Brianna Nunley and a pair of newcomers who can play at multiple positions: Enasia Colon (midfield/forward) and Mia Lanni (midfield/forward).

The class has already made several contributions. Nelles was not available week one as she was still competing with the German National Team at the U20 World Cup in Costa Rica. She has since started the last five games and on Sept. 18 earned her first complete game shutout vs. Toledo. Nelles and Birta Gudlaugsdottir also combined for ASU's first shutout vs. Grambling State (Sept. 14). Kraetzer (four starts), Colon (three starts/one goal, four assists) and Farrell (two starts) have played in all six games. Wright has started three of the four games she has played in. She scored her first career goal vs. Toledo (Sept. 18).

SMART SUN DEVILS

Sun Devil Soccer was well represented on the 2021 Pac-12 Fall Academic Honor Roll as 19 Sun Devils earned recognition from the conference. In addition, Lieske Carleer and Eva van Deursen were both named to the 2021 CoSIDA Academic All-District® Women's Soccer Team.

SUN DEVIL

S O C C E R

LOOKING BACK AT 2021

- After its 8-1 record in non-conference play, ASU earned a No. 15 ranking in the United Soccer Coaches Top 25, its highest in program history.
- Due to injuries, ASU had 22 different players in the starting lineup. Nicole Douglas and Callie Darst were the only two players who started all 20 games.
- After winning all five of its one-goal games in non-conference play, ASU was not as fortunate in Pac-12 games as it went 1-6 in such games and also had a pair of ties.
- After losing two-year starter Giulia Cascapera in fall camp, the goalkeeper duties were split between freshmen Birta Gudlaugsdottir and Julia Ortega.
- Douglas (19 goals) and fellow striker Olivia Nguyen (seven goals) combined for 26 of ASU's 42 goals. Although Douglas and Nguyen accounted for the majority of the goals, ASU had 10 different players find the back of the net in 2021.

NO MORE FREE SOCCER IN THE REGULAR SEASON

This past April, the NCAA Playing Rules Oversight Panel approved changes to overtime rules in men's and women's soccer for both the regular season and the postseason, effective for the 2022 season.

For the regular season, overtime has been eliminated, meaning if a game is tied after the regulation 90 minutes, it will end in a tie. Previously, teams played two 10-minute overtime periods in a sudden-victory (golden goal) format, and if neither team scored, the game ended in a tie.

In conference tournaments and NCAA postseason games, the sudden-victory component has been eliminated, and teams will play two 10-minute overtime periods instead. Also, when a substitution is made by the winning team in the last five minutes of the second overtime, the game clock will stop.

If the game remains tied, a penalty-kick shootout will be held to determine the winner.
