PREVIEWING THE MATCHES

TEMPE-- No. 25 Sun Devil Women's Tennis will open the spring 2024 season with a pair of home matches at the Whiteman Tennis Center as they will take on UC Davis (10 a.m.) and UC San Diego (3 p.m.) on Saturday.

The pair of matches this weekend mark the beginning of the 40th season for head coach Sheila McInerney.

Arizona State returns a majority of its roster from last season with six returners. Freshmen Ada Pietrzynska, Sara Svetac and Emilija Tverijonaite will make their regular season debuts this weekend.

UC DAVIS (Jan. 13/10 a.m.)

- The Aggies are led by Bill Maze, who is in his 29th season with the program. UC Davis finished the 2022-23 campaign with an 8-14 record and had a three match midseason winning streak with wins over conference opponent Hawaii as well as Montana and Montana State. The Aggies have also been named an ITA All-Academic team the past two seasons.
- Returning for the Aggies this season is junior Arianna Stavropoulos who was named to the All-Big West Second Team in singles as she had a 14-6 record last season. Her All-Big West First Team nod in doubles is the second in program history for a doubles pairing, and the first time since 2014.

UC SAN DIEGO (Jan. 13/3 p.m.)

- Sebastian Bader is the first-year head coach of the Tritons in August 2023 after spending the previous two seasons as an assistant coach under Liz LaPlante, who retired after 44 seasons as the head coach from UCSD.
- The Tritons enter their fourth season as a Division I program as they finished the 2022-23 season with a 10-16 record and an appearance in the inaugural postseason NIT Championship.

LOOKING AHEAD

The Sun Devils will remain at home next weekend with their standalone match on Saturday, January 20, against Fresno State (11 a.m.). It'll complete three of 13 home matches played at Whiteman this spring.

SHEILA MCINERNEY

Head Coach

Record at ASU 574-340
Hometown Rome, N.Y.
Education USC
Bachelor's Public Relations

- In the past 39 years, McInerney has seen a vast amount of change at Arizona State, from new athletic directors, new head coaches, schools added to the conference, and numerous renovations to athletic facilities. Through the countless changes across Arizona State, McInerney has continued to lead the women's tennis program in a successful direction heading into her 40th season in 2023-24 after being hired on Aug. 16, 1984.
- Since her first season as head coach in 1985, Sun Devil women's tennis has won 574 matches, advanced to 36 of 37 NCAA Tournaments (no championship season in 2020), including 35 straight, and has finished each season in the top-40 nationally. McInerney has twice been named both the Southwest Region Coach of the Year by the ITA as well as the Pac-12 Coach of the Year in the same season (2016, 2022). In 2016, she also was awarded the ITA Meritorious Service Award, which is given to an ITA coach who has gone "above and beyond" in their commitment and contributions to the ITA and college tennis in general.
- On the court, the Sun Devils have over 100 wins against ranked opponents since 2008. Leading the way for the tennis program have been 49 All-Americans and 51 All-Pac-12 student-athletes. Of these integral players in Arizona State's history, there have been 40 players ranked in the Top 50 of the singles season-end ranking and 21 in the Top 25 of the doubles season-end ranking.
- McInerney attended USC, where she captained the Trojans during her senior season. The four-time All-American also was a four-time Trojan Spirit Award winner, as voted by her teammates. The Trojans won three national championships during McInerney's collegiate career, and she was the national collegiate doubles runner-up three times and a singles semifinalist in 1977. McInerney collected a half-dozen USTA national titles and was a member of the 1977-80 USTA Junior Federation Cup team. As a professional, she played on the major international tour, earning a world ranking in the top 75. McInerney competed at three grand slam venues -- Wimbledon, French Open and the U.S. Open where she reached the round of 32. She also served a short term as assistant pro at the highly acclaimed L.A.
