SUN DEVIL NOTES

SERIES HISTORY

ASU has struggled in the series with Washington in the program's history. The Huskies have gone 64-34 all-time against the Sun Devils. The Sun Devils won the series last season 2-1, and the teams have split the 32 meetings since 2011.

The Sun Devils are 16-29 against the Huskies in Tempe and 13-18 at Farrington Stadium. The two teams split four games at Farrington during the 2021 campaign.

FAST STARTS

The Sun Devils have outscored the opposition 23-13 in the first inning of games this season. They are 10-1 when scoring in the first inning, which has led to a 13-2 record when scoring first.

The first-inning success has been bolstered by the team hitting seven home runs in the opening frame.

SETTING IT UP

ASU has been successful this season at getting the first batter of the inning on base. Through 171 innings at the plate, the Sun Devils have seen the first batter reach base 51.5 percent of the time.

In contrast, ASU opponents have seen their first batter in an inning reach base in 37.4 percent of their 179 opportunities.

STILL LOVE THE LONG BALL

After hitting a program-record 104 home runs in 2022, the Sun Devils have continued to deliver in that department in 2023. With 41 home runs in 28 games, ASU is seventh in the nation by hitting 1.46 per game.

The team is 14th in the NCAA in total home runs, and they have scored 66 runs via the home run this season (45.2% of total runs). ASU homered in 17 consecutive games – one shy of the program record – before being shutout by Arizona on March 10.

NOT JUST HOMERS

While the long ball has been a factor in the team's scoring output this season, ASU has totaled 78 extra-base hits to place sixth in the Pac-12.

	TEAM	OPS
1	Arizona	.998
2	UCLA	.928
3	Washington	.923
4	Arizona State	.915
5	Utah	.913
6	California	.912

All those extra-base hits have the team fourth in the conference and 23rd in the NCAA with a .915 OPS. The Sun Devils have at least one XBH in 22 of the team's 28 games this season.

NEARING 1,600

Arizona State, one of the most successful programs in NCAA history, needs seven wins to reach 1,600 since joining the NCAA in 1982. During those 42 seasons, the Sun Devils are 1593-828-2 (.658).

ASU has averaged 38 wins per season, made 17 consecutive postseason appearances and won two national championships in 2008 and 2011.

TOP OF THE LINEUP

Yanni Acuña continues to lead the Sun Devils from her leadoff position with a .419 batting average and a team-leading 36 hits. She has a team-high 12 multi-hit games while recording a hit in all but seven games and driving in 19 runs.

Acuña is sixth in the Pac-12 in average, and she ranks fourth in slugging (.802) and total bases (69), eighth in home runs (8) and 10th in doubles (7).

Dating back to last season, Acuña has reached base in 43 of the previous 46 games.

THE JORDYN RULES

Jordyn VanHook continues to lead the Pac-12 with 14 home runs and the country in home runs per game at 0.50. She is hitting a home run every 5.9 at-bats, and twice this season, she homered in four consecutive games.

VanHook is slugging .927 to sit second in the conference and 10th in the NCAA. She is batting .354 with five doubles and 27 RBIs.

AROUND THE INFIELD

Alexa Milius is 12th in the Pac-12 with her .387 batting average. She has three games this season with three hits, and her 29 total hits are tied for second on the club.

Milius has recorded multiple hits in a game seven times this season, with seven doubles, a homer and 11 RBIs.

Jazmyn Rollin enters the weekend batting .342 with six home runs and 17 RBIs. She has posted nine multi-hit games and added four games with multiple RBIs.

ROAMING THE OUTFIELD

Makenna Harper has started 26 games in left field and is batting .279 with three home runs and 15 RBIs. She is third on the team with five multi-RBI games.

Harper made ASU history in the opener against CSUN with a pair of two-run triples, becoming the first player in program history with two triples in the same game dating back to the 2007 season with available game records.

Megan Bartlett has been named the head coach for the Arizona State University women's softball program, on June 22, 2022, as announced by Vice President for University Athletics and Athletics Director Ray Anderson.

In 2022, she helped guide Texas to their WCWS appearance against Oklahoma. The squad finished with a 47-22-1 record and No. 2 in the final USA Today/NFCA poll. Bartlett was a mastermind behind the success of the Texas' offense, with the program leading the nation in doubles (116) while setting school single-season records for doubles, runs scored (397), hits (560), total bases (906), RBIs (355), walks (224) and games played (70). UT rallied for an impressive 18 come-from-behind victories, posted 14 total wins over ranked teams and won its first six elimination games during its postseason run through the NCAA Seattle Regional, the NCAA Fayetteville Super Regional and the Women's College World Series.

In her first campaign on the Forty Acres in 2021, Bartlett helped guide Texas to a 43-14 overall record, a No. 12 final ranking and a berth in the NCAA Stillwater Super Regional. The squad set program records for team batting average (.342 - third in NCAA Division I), slugging (.561 - seventh NCAA) and on-base percentage (.419 - fourth NCAA) while putting up top five single-season totals for hits (512 - third NCAA), doubles (79), RBIs (338) and HR's (78).

As the head coach at Ball State for five seasons (2016-20), Bartlett led the program to a 141-108 overall record (.567) while registering three consecutive 30-win seasons from 2017-19. Over that stretch, she helped guide the Cardinals to the 2018 Mid-American Conference (MAC) West Division title with that season's 37 victories marking the fourth-most wins in a single season in program history.

Over her five years in charge of the Ball State program, Bartlett mentored four National Fastpitch Coaches Association (NFCA) All-Great Lakes Region selections, outfielder Rachel Houck (second team), designated player Madison Lee (second team), pitcher Nicole Steinbach (third team) and infielder Stacy Payton (third team). She also had players earn a combination of 12 All-MAC or All-MAC Freshman Team honors and 29 Academic All-MAC accolades to go along with six MAC Distinguished Scholar Athlete inclusions.

Bartlett began her coaching career as a graduate assistant coach at Loyola University Chicago (2005-07), where she was part of the 2007 Horizon League Coaching Staff of the Year while helping her squad to the league's regular season title.

From there, she moved on to become an assistant coach at Northern Illinois (2007-12), working with infielders and outfielders while also serving as the recruiting coordinator, offensive coordinator and camp coordinator. During her stay at NIU, she guided Huskies hitters to multiple single-season records and helped tutor the squad to top 40 national rankings in 2011 in doubles (2nd - 1.81), batting average (24th - .312), scoring (33rd - 5.49) and slugging percentage (39th - .461).

After spending a single campaign at DePaul as a volunteer assistant coach for the 2014 Big East regular season and tournament champions (44-11), Bartlett moved on to become an assistant coach at Purdue (2014-15). During the 2015 season with the Boilermakers, she served as the team's defensive coordinator, helping the squad improve its team fielding percentage from 10th (.956) all the way to third in the Big 10 (.970).

As a professional softball player, Bartlett was a part of two regular season National Pro Fastpitch (NPF) championship teams (2005-06) with the Chicago Bandits.

Under her maiden name Megan Ciolli, was a four-year letter winner at Notre Dame (2002-05), helping power the Irish to four NCAA Regional appearances, four Big East regular season championships and two Big East Tournament titles. A two-time NFCA All-American (2004, 2005), she captained the 2005 squad to a 46-15 mark while helping secure the program's first-ever NCAA Regional home contests.

The 2004 Big East Player of the Year, Bartlett completed her playing career at Notre Dame as the program's leader in hits (284) and stolen bases (76), while finishing in the top five in batting average (second - .368) and runs scored (second - 161). She also finished ranked in the UND career top 10 in doubles (ninth - 37), triples (seventh - 9), HR's (ninth - 13) and RBIs (10th - 101).

Prior to her collegiate career, the Terre Haute, Ind., native was a three-sport standout in softball, basketball and soccer at North Vigo High School. Following her senior year in 2001, Bartlett was named Indiana Miss Softball as well as the Indiana Gatorade Player of the Year.

Bartlett graduated from the University of Notre Dame with a bachelor's degree of business administration in managerial consulting in 2005. She completed her master's of business administration in healthcare administration at Loyola University Chicago in 2007 and went on to earn a juris doctor from Northern Illinois in 2012.

A licensed attorney in the state of Illinois, she is married to Mike Bartlett, a former professional hockey player, and has two daughters, Vivian and Maren.
