ASU SOCCER GAME NOTES

QUICK KICKS...

• The Arizona State soccer team will hit the road to begin a three-match road stand to end the 2019 season. This week, ASU will travel to the Bay to face No. 2 Stanford, before closing the trip with a Sunday meeting at California on Sunday.

• With just three games remaining in the 2019 regular season, the Arizona State Squad has enjoyed a tremendous amount of success from their young core of players. Entering this week's game, ASU has seen 26 goals from underclassmen, including seven goals from freshman players. The Sun Devils two leading goal scorers on the season are both sophomores, while the Sun Devil defense has been anchored by a freshman keeper in Giulia Cascapera, and a pair of talented freshman defenders in Lieske Carleer and Callie Darst.

• Having already played a tough slate of games so far this year, things will not be getting any easier for ASU as they wrap up the final three weeks of their 2019 regular-season schedule. Entering this week, the Sun Devils' future opponents have combined to post an impressive .700 win percentage, making the final six games the 16th-toughest schedule in the nation.

• Last weekend, ASU honored the 2019 senior class following Sunday's match against Oregon. The five players, consisting of Sydney Day, Christina Edwards, Kylie Miniefeld, Adriana Orozco and Lorato Sergeant all played their final regular-season home game at Sun Devil Soccer Stadium in Sunday's home finale.

• The Sun Devils will be hoping to turn the tide in the overall series meeting against the Cardinal on Thursday afternoon. The Sun Devils have not beaten the Cardinal since 2013, and will be looking for their third ever win in Palo Alto. On the flip side, the Sun Devils will be looking to extend their two-match unbeaten streak over the Bears.

SCOUTING THE CARDINAL...

The Stanford Cardinal has been a top performer all season long, winning their past 10 matches with only one loss coming to Pepperdine back in early September. The 15-1 Cardinal team is led by Paul Ratcliffe, one of the most successful college soccer coaches in Stanford's history. In 21 seasons, Ratcliffe has led Stanford to two National Championships, while only missing the tournament four times in his tenure. The Cardinal has been playing their best soccer of late, shutting out their opponent in seven straight matches and outscoring their opposition 25-0 in that time. Offensively, 12 different players have notched goals for Ratcliffe's club, with junior Catarina Macario leading the charge. Macario leads the nation with 20 goals, while adding 13 assists on the season.

SCOUTING THE BEARS...

The Cal Golden Bears enter the second to last week of Pac-12 play with a 11-3-3 record, while sitting fifth in the Pac-12 standings. Quality wins over No.4 USC and No.7 UCLA highlight what they have done up to this point. Cal is led by 12-year head coach Neil McGuire, who has left his mark on the program since his first season in the Bay. McGuire has reached the NCAA tournament in 11 of 12 seasons, while also becoming the all-time wins leader in that time. The Golden Bears are undoubtedly one of the strongest defensive teams in the nation, as evident by their 13th- ranked .509 goals against average entering this weekend's slate.

KEEPING UP WITH THE PAC...

Following a tough losses to Oregon and Oregon State last weekend, the Sun Devils have a tough hill to climb. Entering this weekend, four Pac-12 women's soccer teams are ranked in this week's United Soccer Coaches top 25. The Pac-12 also boasts 11 schools in the top-100 of the most recent RPI rankings. Nine teams are inside the top 50, including four in the top 20, led by Stanford at No. 1.

PAC-12 SETS RECORD IN NON-CONFERENCE PLAY...

Pac-12 women's soccer kicked off conference play after registering a dominant 2019 non-conference campaign. The league completed the five weeks of non-league competition with a combined 77-14-9 record for a .815 win percentage, the highest of any conference in the nation, and the highest non-conference win percentage by the league in Pac-12 history. The previous record for a conference win percentage was the ACC's .809 win percentage, set during the 2011 season. This season, the ACC ranks second in terms of non-conference win percentage with a .769 mark.

A LOOK AHEAD...

Following this weekend's slate of games, ASU will close out the 2019 regular-season with an important road match at Arizona, Friday Nov. 8. ASU will travel down south, holding a 17-5-1 advantage in the all-time series history against the Wildcats, and will be looking for their ninth road victory over Arizona.
