ASU SOCCER GAME NOTES

QUICK KICKS...

• The Arizona State soccer team will hit the road for the first time in conference play, this time traveling to Washington to face the University of Washington and Washington State. Action in the third week of conference play will begin Thursday, with a 7:00 p.m. PT meeting with the Huskies, before capping the trip with a 1:00 Sunday meeting at 15th-ranked Washington State.

• This week's slate will provide the Sun Devils an opportunity to rebound from a tough second week of Pac-12 play. Last week, the Sun Devils dropped a heart-breaker to No. 5 USC, before suffering a tough loss to No. 16 UCLA on Sunday.

• The pair off losses last weekend marked just the second time this season that the Sun Devils have dropped back-to-back games, and snapped a three-game unbeaten streak for ASU.

• Despite playing two of the best teams in the nation, ASU did manage to score a pair of spectacular goals, both off the foot of sophomore Marleen Schimmer. With the pair of goals, ASU has now scored in 13-straight matches dating back to the end of last season. The Sun Devils have also combined to score exactly 30 goals on the year, a mark that ranks as the most goals scored by a Sun Devil team since the 2015 season.

• Individually, the Sun Devils have numerous players who rank near the top in a handful of statistical categories. With her eight goals so far this season, Nicole Douglas checks in at No. 41 nationally. Eva Van Deursen, a talented midfielder has notched five assists already this season, a mark that ranks 64th nationally and fifth in the Pac-12.

• Having already played a tough slate of games so far this year, things will not be getting any easier for ASU as they wrap up the last few weeks of their schedule. Entering this week, the Sun Devils' future opponents have combined to post an impressive .753 win percentage, making the final eight games the fourth-toughest schedule in the nation.

SCOUTING THE HUSKIES...

Washington enters this week looking to get back on track following a 1-1 showing in their two games last week. After an impressive 1-0 win over Cal, the Huskies fell to top-ranked Stanford, 4-0, snapping what was a four-game win-streak for Washington. With a 6-3-2 record on the season, UW has struggled to find their footing on offense for parts of the season, leading to a pair of scoreless draws and two-shutout losses on the year. On the flip side of the field, Washington has played stifling defense to this point of the season, carding five clean sheets, and checking in as the top defensive teams in the Pac-12 this season, allowing just over one goal per game.

SCOUTING THE COUGARS...

Head coach Todd Shulenberg has enjoyed a tremendous amount of success in his fifth season as the head coach of Washington State. The Cougars enter the week with an impressive 9-2 record on the season, having only suffered losses to No. 2 Stanford and Michigan this season. WSU will look to continue to score goals in bunches, as the team enters the weekend with a 2.36 goals per game average, a mark that ranks 26 nationally. WSU is led on the field by senior Morgan Weaver, who was named to the Mac Herman Trophy Award Watch List prior to the start of the season and has more than proved she belonged on that list having already scored five goals and tallied a pair of assists. In goal, fifth-year senior Ella Dederick has made 31 saves in her 915 minutes played while not allowing a goal in five of her 11 games played on the season.

SCHIMMER SHINNING IN SOPHOMORE SEASON...

Sophomore forward Marleen Schimmer has continued to impress Sun Devil fans in her second season of collegiate soccer. Last weekend, the talented striker found the back of the net twice, pushing her season goal-scoring total to six. The Mainz Germany native has now scored a goal in three-straight games.

PAC-12 SETS RECORD IN NON-CONFERENCE PLAY...

Pac-12 women's soccer kicked off Conference play last week after recording a dominant 2019 non-conference campaign. The league completed the five weeks of non-league competition with a combined 77-14-9 record for a .815 win percentage, the highest of any conference in the nation, and the highest non-conference win percentage by the league in Pac-12 history. The previous record for a conference win percentage was the ACC's .809 win percentage, set during the 2011 season. This season, the ACC ranks second in terms of non-conference win percentage with a .769 mark.

A LOOK AHEAD...

Following this week's games, Arizona State will continue their road trip with a Saturday meeting against Colorado on October 19. Action in the Sun Devils' sixth Pac-12 match is scheduled to begin at 1:00 p.m. PT, and will be live-streamed through Colorado's Pac-12 Plus channel.
