UP NEXT

The Sun Devil soccer team will attempt to go over the .500 mark in Pac-12 play while looking to solidify its spot in the upcoming NCAA Tournament when it plays the second of three consecutive home games to end the regular season when it faces Oregon State (4-10-3, 0-8-1) on Sunday (1 p.m.) at Sun Devil Soccer Stadium. After Sunday's game, ASU will close the regular season with its annual contest with in-state rival Arizona on Friday at 7 p.m.

The Sun Devils (8-4-3, 4-4-1 Pac-12) are coming off their finest performance of the season in their 5-1 win over Oregon on Thursday. Nicole Douglas, Sun Devil Soccer's all-time leader in career goals, points and game-winning goals and its record holder for most goals and points in a single season, added two more school records to her remarkable resume as the senior forward set new single-game standards for most goals (four) and points (nine) in a single game. Fellow fifth-year senior Eva van Deursen continued to add to her single-season career high in goals with her sixth of the season. Like Douglas, van Deursen also made history on Thursday night with her 25th career assist, tying Sun Devil Hall of Famer Stacey Tullock for most career assists.

WHAT TO LOOK FOR

- The Sun Devils (8-4-3, 4-4-1 Pac-12) are currently tied with Arizona (7-6-3, 4-4-1) for fifth place. UCLA (16-1, 8-1 Pac-12) and Stanford (15-2-1, 8-1) are tied for first, USC follows in third place (10-2-3, 6-1-2) and Cal (10-4-4, 5-3-1) in fourth place. Washington (9-5-3, 3-5-1/sixth place) follows ASU and UA, and Washington State (8-5-3, 2-4-3) is in seventh place.
- In the all-important NCAA RPI, ASU started the week at No. 19, one of 11 Pac-12 teams ranked in the top 60. It was joined by UCLA (No. 1), Stanford (No. 10), USC (No. 33), Cal (No. 38), Arizona (No. 39), Oregon (No. 43), Washington State (No. 49), Washington (No. 51), Colorado (No. 54) and Utah (No. 57).
- Thursday's win over Oregon in emphatic fashion as the Sun Devils posted their highest goal total vs. a Pac-12 opponent since 2012 when they defeated USC 5-4 in double overtime.
- As of Oct. 28, ASU is among the top 25 teams in the nation in assists per game (2.8/5th/1st in the Pac-12), points per game (7.33/13th) and scoring offense (2.27 goals per game/23rd).
- ASU has been led by returning All-American Nicole Douglas. The program's all-time career leader in goals (55), points (129) & game-winning goals (17), Following Thursday's four-goal performance, Douglas shot up 20 spots to 6th nationally in goals per game (0.87) and moved up 24 spots to 8th place in points per game (1.93). Douglas is also 15th in shots on goal per game (2.0) and 19th in game-winning goals (4).
- After not finding the back of the net in ASU's season opener vs. South Dakota State (Aug. 18), Douglas scored nine goals in ASU's next five games. In ASU's 5-0 win over Grambling State (Sept. 14), Douglas, who was named the Pac-12's offensive player of the week on Sept. 19, tied the school's single-game school record for goals (3) for the fourth time in her career. After an unlucky stretch in Pac-12 play, Douglas reminded everyone of her one-of-a-kind ability to go off at any time with single-game records of 4 goals and 9 points in ASU's 5-1 win over Oregon (Oct. 27).
- Eva van Deursen (25 career assists) needs one assist to pass ASU Hall of Famer Stacy Tullock's and take over sole possession of ASU's record for career assists. Lucy Johnson, who has missed three games this season, currently leads ASU in assists in 2022 (8) and is two assists away from tying van Deursen's single-season record of 10 set last season.
- Prior to its loss vs. Stanford, ASU scored 21 goals during a five-game winning streak (6 vs. UAB, 5 vs. Grambling State and Toledo, 3 at Colorado and 2 vs. Cal). Douglas (6 goals), van Deursen (5 goals) and Alexia Delgado (4 goals) combined for 15 of those 21 goals. By the season's 8th game, van Deursen and Delgado had set new single-season career highs in goals. Delgado scored her fifth goal at Washington (Oct. 23) and Van Deursen added her sixth goal vs. Oregon (Oct. 27).
- Both Lucy Johnson (vs. UAB) and Kennedy Mayo (vs. Toledo) have tied the single-game school record for assists (3).

SERIES NOTES VS OREGON STATE

The Sun Devils have won five of the last eight contests against Oregon State. Nicole Douglas scored ASU's only goal in last season's 2-1 loss to the Beavers. Although the Sun Devils took six more shots (16-10) than the Beavers, both teams had the same number of shots (four) on frame. Douglas scored the only goal of the match between the two teams in the 2020 season (played in the spring of 2021) in the 96th minute to give the Sun Devils a 1-0 win.

S O C C E R

ASU HEAD COACH GRAHAM WINKWORTH

- The 2022 season will be Graham Winkworth's sixth as head coach of Sun Devil Soccer.
- The Sun Devils had their best season under Winkworth in 2021 (2020 season), finishing the regular season with an 8-5-2 record and making a postseason run for the first time since 2014 and eighth in school history. ASU made it to the second round of the tournament to become the fifth ASU soccer team to advance to that stage in the NCAA Tournament.
- Winkworth and company boasted an undefeated non-conference slate last season, including an overtime comeback thriller at Grand Canyon to protect the streak. ASU continued its unbeaten streak through eight games and notched wins against UCLA, Stanford, and USC to become only the fourth team in history to beat all three programs in a single season. With a 4-4-2 record in Pac-12 Conference play, the Sun Devils finished in the middle of the table after being picked to finish last in the preseason poll.
- With 10 wins in 2021, Sun Devil Soccer posted a double-digit win total twice (2018 and 2021) four seasons – and that does not include the 9-6-2 record that was good enough to earn the squad a berth in the 2020 NCAA Tournament – after accomplishing the same feat twice in the previous 10 seasons. After its 8-1 record in non-conference play, ASU earned a No. 15 ranking in the United Soccer Coaches Top 25, its highest in program history.
- In 2019, Winkworth led his team to a dominant start to the season, securing five-straight wins for just the second time in program history, and carded their best start to a season since winning nine straight to start the 2000 season. The five-game win streak was the longest for the Sun Devils since 2014. ASU's strong non-conference performance helped the Pac-12 record the best-ever win percentage in conference play. Together, the league's 77-14-9 record for a .815 win percentage, the highest of any conference in the nation, and the highest non-conference win percentage by the league in Pac-12 history.
- Winkworth's 2019 squad combined to score 33 goals on the year, marking the best offensive output for the Sun Devils since scoring 34 goals in 2015. Sun Devil Women's Soccer capped the season with a 6-11-3 record to push Winkworth's overall ASU record to 21-29-7.
- In his second season at the helm, Winkworth achieved his best record at ASU, finishing with a 10-7-1 record. During the conference schedule, ASU swept all of the Pacific Northwest Pac-12 schools (Washington, Washington State, Oregon, Oregon State) in four consecutive games (two home and two away).
- Prior to his time with the Sun Devils, Winkworth spent four seasons transforming South Alabama women's soccer program into one of the top mid-major programs in the country and an emerging national power. Under Winkworth's direction, South Alabama set school records and program bests including qualifying for four-straight NCAA appearances, winning four straight Sun Belt Conference Championships, and earning the program's first top-25 national year-end ranking. A two-time Sun Belt Coach of the Year ('14, '15), Winkworth's student-athletes had a monopoly on the conference's top honors including four straight Sun Belt Freshmen of the Year, three Sun Belt Players of the Year, and three Sun Belt Defensive Players of the Year.
- In his first season as head coach of the Jaguars, Winkworth guided South Alabama to its most wins (14) since 1997 and the second-most wins in school history only to set the new program record for most wins (19) in 2014. The 2014 team also set school records for best winning percentage (.848), longest unbeaten streak (18), consecutive games scored (22) and shutouts (12). As evidence of South Alabama's transformation, in the five years prior to Winkworth's arrival, South Alabama had only one season with a finish above .500.
- Winkworth spent 10 seasons at North Alabama, leading the Lions to a total of 111 wins, the most for a coach in school history. He also coached the program's first two All-Americans and led the program to its first NCAA appearance.
- Winkworth began his coaching career in England with the Preston North End Football Club as an assistant with the Center of Excellence. He also served as an assistant coach at Cumberland (Tenn.) and Central Arkansas before North Alabama.
- Winkworth and his wife Jonna are parents to children Lucas, Caden, and Darbi.

Record at ASU: 48-47-15 (sixth season)

Career Record: 223-146-29 (20th season)

SENIOR DAY ON SUNDAY

At the conclusion of Sunday's game vs. Oregon State, the Sun Devil soccer program will celebrate the careers of this year's senior class, one of the best in the history of the program: Fifth-year seniors Alexia Delgado, Douglas, Olivia Nguyen and van Deursen and Giulia Cascapera, Callie Darst and Tahlia Herman-Watt. The program's NCAA appearance in 2020 (played in the Spring of 2021), the program's first since 2014, and three winning seasons – including a pair of 10-win campaigns – are among the most notable of the several accomplishments of this year's class. The class is far from done as it looks forward to its second NCAA berth in three seasons.

MAKING HISTORY

All eyes have been focused 2021 NCAA scoring leader Nicole Douglas, who earned Third-Team All-America honors in 2021 and was one of 13 players named to the All-Pac-12 First Team. The first Sun Devil to earn All-America honors since 2002, in 2021 Douglas set single-season school records for goals (19/No. 1 in the nation) and points (45). She also led the nation in goals per game (0.95) and points per game (2.25).

On Sept. 1, 2022, Douglas became ASU's all-time leader in career goals after scoring twice in ASU's 6-2 win over UAB. Douglas tied and then and passed Sun Devil Hall of Famer Stacey Tullock (50 goals/1998-2001) vs. UAB. On Sept. 14 vs. Grambling State, Douglas became ASU's new career leader in points (126/54 goals and 18 assists) and game-winning goals (17), passing Tullock in both categories Grambling State (Sept. 14).

Douglas, who has started all 86 games in her career, accounted for a goal or assist in all but five games last season and had a stretch in which she scored at least one goal in seven straight games. She has scored multiple goals in a game 13x in her career and tied the single-game school record for goals (3) on four occasions – most recently in ASU's 5-0 win over Grambling State (Sept. 14) – before surpassing it with single-game school records in both goals (4) and points (9/4G, 1A) in ASU's 5-1 win over Oregon (Oct. 27).

On Aug. 18, it was announced Douglas was one of 60 players on the 2022 Hermann Trophy Watch List. Presented annually by the Missouri Athletic Club, the Hermann Trophy is the nation's highest individual honor recognizing the National Player of the Year.

CHASING HISTORY

Also within reach of breaking a program career record is fifth-year midfielder Eva van Deursen (25 career assists/tied for 1st place), who needs one assists to pass Sun Devil Hall of Famer Stacey Tullock (first place/25 assists/1998-2001) and take over sole possession of the top spot. Van Deursen has accounted for a single-season, career-high six goals and five assists this season. She scored two goals, including the game-winning goal with three seconds remaining in ASU's 3-2 win at Colorado (Sept. 23) and followed with another game-winner in the 73rd minute of ASU's 2-1 win over Cal (Sept. 29). Van Deursen was named to the College Soccer News Women's National Team of the Week for the week ending Sept. 25.

In 2021, van Deursen set the school's single-season assists record with 10 in addition to scoring three goals. At season's end, van Deursen led the Pac-12 and was No. 19 in the nation in assists per game (0.56). She tied her single-game career high in assists (two) twice in ASU's wins at UAB (Aug. 29) and vs. Utah (Oct. 31).

HOW'S THIS FOR EXPERIENCE?

ASU returned a quartet of fifth-year players in the form of forwards Nicole Douglas (86 games/86 starts) and Olivia Nguyen (76 games/49 starts, including 48 starts in her last 52 games since start of her junior season) and midfielders Alexia Delgado (79 games/72 starts) and Eva van Deursen (84 games/79 starts). The four players have combined for 26 goals and 16 assists this season – Douglas (13G/3A), van Deursen (6G/5A), Delgado (5G/5A) and Nguyen (2G/3A) – and collectively have amassed 325 games played, including 286 starts.

The Sun Devils also return two other players with more than 60 games of experience: senior defender Lieske Carleer (64 games/63 starts) and senior defender/midfielder Callie Darst (62 starts in 69 career games). Although this is her first season with ASU, New Mexico State transfer Hannah Leitner has played in 60 games (43 starts). A starter in two games in 2022, Leitner scored her first goal as a Sun Devil in ASU's 2-0 win at Washington State (Oct. 20).

Juniors Lucy Johnson (started nine of 10 games she's played in 2022) and Jazmine Wilkinson (starts in nine of 14 games she has played in 2022), have also provided the team with important contributions this season. Johnson, who tied the single-game school record for assists (3) vs. UAB on Sept. 1, currently has a team-high eight assists and Wilkinson has accounted for one goal and two assists.

THEY MAY BE YOUNG, BUT THEY CAN PLAY

The Sun Devils have also relied on a number of freshmen and sophomores, who have contributed to ASU's success this season.

Sophomore forwards Keri Matthews and Kennedy Mayo have provided the opposition with additional scoring options to be aware of on its scouting reports. Matthews has scored a pair of goals to go with two assists. Mayo proved how dangerous she can be, accounting for a goal and a single-game, school record-tying three assists in ASU's 5-0 win vs. Toledo (Sept. 18). On the defensive end, Lauren Kirberg has provided the Sun Devils with several solid efforts on what has become a younger back line as the season has progressed.

The versatility of Fr. Enasia Colon – can play in the midfield or up top – has been a plus for the Sun Devils this season. She has played in all 15 games with six starts and has scored a pair of goals to go with five assists (tied for second on the team).

On the back line, Sun Devil freshmen and sophomores have all risen to the challenge when their number has been called: Fr. Andrea Kraetzer has played in all 15 games (13 starts), Fr. Meighan Farrell has played in 14 games (seven starts, including last five contests), Fr. Ava Wright has played in 13 games (10 starts), So. Lauren Kirberg has played in 13 games (five starts).

Fr. GK Pauline Nelles was not available week one as she was still competing with the German National Team at the U20 World Cup in Costa Rica. She has since started the last 14 games and on Sept. 18, Nelles earned her first complete game shutout vs. Toledo. She had her second and made a career-high nine saves in ASU's 0-0 tie vs. Utah (Oct. 14) and added a third in ASU's 2-0 win at Washington State (Oct. 20). Nelles and Birta Gudlaugsdottir also combined for ASU's first shutout vs. Grambling State (Sept. 14).

TRANSFERS

The Sun Devils welcomed two transfers to the program, Gabi Rennie and Hannah Leitner. Rennie, who had an assist in her Sun Devil debut vs. South Dakota State, joined the Sun Devils after starting her career at Indiana University. She also spent time with the New Zealand national team and scored a goal for them in the 2020 Tokyo Olympics. Rennie's role has increased as the season has progressed. She has played in 12 games and started three contests, including two of last three games.

In her three seasons playing for New Mexico State, Leitner became the program's all-time career assists leader (12) and tied for eighth in career goals (nine). Like Rennie, Leitner has also played a more significant role as of late. Leitner, who scored her first goal as a Sun Devil in ASU's 2-0 win at Washington State (Oct. 20), has played in 11 games and has started two of ASU's last three games.

SUN DEVIL

S O C C E R

HOW WE GOT HERE

The Sun Devil soccer team's accomplishments over the first six weeks of the season included a five-game winning streak, the program's second 6-0-2 start in three seasons and its first 2-0 start in Pac-12 league play since 2007. In ASU's Pac-12 opener at Colorado (Sept. 23), Delgado scored the game's first goal and midfielder teammate van Deursen accounted for the other two, including the game-winner with three seconds remaining in ASU's 3-2 win.

ASU started what most outside the state of California would consider to be the toughest possible four-game stretch in the Pac-12 with a come-from-behind win over Cal (2-1 on Sept. 29). For the second straight game, fifth-year seniors Delgado and van Deursen found the back of the net for the Sun Devils. Van Deursen's goal in the 73rd minute – assisted by Delgado and Lucy Johnson – gave the Sun Devils a lead they would not relinquish.

The Sun Devils had to deal with the bitter taste of defeat for the first time this season after it was not able to score a goal – also a first this season – in a 2-0 setback to Stanford on Oct. 2. The Sun Devils were again held scoreless in a 4-0 loss at top-ranked UCLA on Oct. 6. ASU concluded the difficult string of games with a 2-1 loss at then-No. 8 USC on Oct. 9.

Heading into its game vs. Utah (Oct. 14), ASU was coming off its best half of soccer in the loss at USC. Freshman Enasia Colon's goal in the 48th minute cut ASU's two goal deficit in half. Against the Utes, ASU had a pair of excellent scoring opportunities, but was not able to get on the board. The Sun Devils were outshot 13-4 in the second half but kept the Utes from scoring with phenomenal back-line play. The 61st and 71st minute saw heroic efforts from ASU defenders to keep the match scoreless. On both occasions, the last remaining Sun Devil defenders were tasked with making timely slides to shake the ball away from the attacker heading for a one-on-one with their goalkeeper. Freshman goalkeeper Pauline Nelles made a career-high nine saves to secure her second career clean sheet. Playing a big role in helping Nelles keep Utah off the scoreboard were senior Lieske Carleer, sophomore Lauren Kirberg and a trio of freshmen: Andrea Kraetzer, Meighan Farrell and Ava Wright.

A pair of Arizona natives, fifth-year senior Olivia Nguyen (sixth game-winning goal of her career) and New Mexico State transfer Hannah Leitner (first goal as a Sun Devil) provided all the scoring in ASU's 2-0 win at WSU (Oct. 20) to snap ASU's four-game winless streak. Nelles, added seven more saves vs. Washington State to post her second consecutive shutout. The Sun

Devils nearly left the state of Washington with a sweep. Delgado's goal in the 14th minute gave the Sun Devils the early advantage, one they continued to maintain until the Huskies scored two goals in the space of 2:18 late in the game to come away with the 2-1 win.

ASU showed its incredible spirit, brushing off the disappointment of the tough loss at Washington and rebounding with its best game of the season in 5-1 win over Oregon (Oct. 27). Douglas set single-game school records for goals (4) and points (9) in the win.

GREAT CULTURE EQUALS GREAT SUCCESS

The fact the ASU did not encounter a loss until the season's ninth game is a testament to the team's focus and leadership. Both of its opening weekend contests were affected by weather. ASU's opening game, 1-1 tie vs. 2021 NCAA Tournament participant South Dakota State, started on the night of Aug. 18 and finished on the morning of Aug. 19. Keri Matthews' first career goal tied the game at 1-1 on Aug. 19 after SDSU took the lead the previous night. ASU's next scheduled contest vs. Hawai'i (Aug. 21) was canceled (lightning).

ASU was able to start and finish its first road contest, a 2-1 win at Boise State (Aug. 25) without any unusual stoppages. However, weather issues once again came into play – a 50-minute lightning delay before the start of the second half – in ASU's 1-1 tie at Denver (Aug. 28).

ASU returned home and scored its most goals since the 2021 season opener in a 6-2 win over UAB (Sept. 1). It then went 13 days without playing a game after their home contests vs. Georgia Southern (Sept. 4) & Pepperdine (Sept. 8) were canceled (Covid-19 protocols).

ASU returned from the extended break with a pair of 5-0 wins over Grambling State (Sept. 14) & vs. Toledo (Sept. 18) before opening Pac-12 play with a dramatic, 3-2 win at Colorado (Sept. 23) and a come-from-behind, 2-1 win over Cal.

Again it proved its mettle, ending a four-game winless streak (0-3-1) with a 2-0 win at Washington State (Oct. 20).

During the Covid season of 2020 (played in the spring of 2021), ASU made its first NCAA Tournament appearance since 2014 and was just short of making its first Sweet 16 after falling to Duke in 2OT. Last season, ASU still managed to post a double-digit win total (10) despite having to play 22 different players in the starting lineup due to an unlucky spate of injuries.
