SUN DEVIL LACROSSE PREVIEW

Arizona State Lacrosse (7-6, 2-2) has a pair of games in the Centennial State to open their three-game road slate. The trip opens against No. 20 Colorado (8-4, 3-1), before taking on No. 13 University of Denver (9-3, 3-0 Big East). Friday's matchup will mark the sixth time that the Sun Devils will take on a ranked opponent. ASU is 0-5 on the season taking on a ranked foe, and has not beaten a ranked opponent since April 5, 2022 against No. 16 USC.

Program History:

The Sun Devils have matched up against the Buffaloes 10 times in program history and have come out on top in just three matchups. The last two meetings between the teams have gone CU's way, with ASU losing by a combined nine goals in two games.

Sun Devil Notes:

Last weekend, ASU took on California and downed the Golden Bears 18-11 after scoring eight goals in the third quarter to pull away with the win. Defensively, Junior Goalkeeper Katie Vahle tallied 12 saves in the win and notched her fourth game with 10+ saves this season. The duo of Sun Devil attackers, Mina Scott and Lydia Oldknow combined for nine of the 18 ASU goals and each tied career highs in goals scored. Scott accounted for five goals while Oldknow recorded her third game of a career-high four goals this season. Defender Gigi Gaspar also notched her first career goals in the win.

Zoe Mazur recorded 10 draw controls in the win over Cal, and tallied her sixth game this season with 10+ draw controls. She now owns the program's single-season draw control record with 116 and counting, passing Maura Cissel's 111 in 2021. Mazur was named Pac-12 Defensive Player of the Week for her efforts last week.

Scouting the Opponent:

The Buffaloes have won three of their last four games, with their most recent loss (14-8) coming against Denver on April 3. CU has played just four games at home and owns a 2-2 record at Kittredge Field, but boasts a 6-2 road record on the season. Colorado has been in the IWLCAs in all but one week this season, which came in the opening polls. Their highest ranking has been 19, and lowest has been 22.

BY THE NUMBERS

24

After 24 draw controls in two games last week, graduate defender Zoe Mazur was named Pac-12 Defensive player of the Week.

7

With their seventh win on Saturday with four games remaining, the Sun Devils have surpassed their 2023 season win total (6).

14

Mazur's 14 draw controls against Detroit Mercy last week were a career-high for the defender and a single-game program high.

1

Zoe Mazur now owns the program's single-season draw control record, 116, after recording 10 against California on Saturday.

IN THE RECORD BOOKS:

- Senior attacker Mina Scott is tied with Katie Brodsky for 5th all-time in goals with 80. She is 6th all-time with 99 points in the program's career recordbooks behind Kaylon Buckner's 137.
- Sophomore attacker Lydia Oldknow is also on the list with Scott sitting at 51 career goals, which is tied with Maddy Hunter for 6th place in the career recordbooks. Oldknow is 8th in all-time points with 69. Her 18 career assists is also 9th all-time behind Kylie Kroeger's 20.
- Zoe Mazur's 116 draw controls have her on the single-season leaderboard, sitting at first all-time passing Maura Cissel's 111 draw controls which came in 2021. Mazur also holds the program's career draw control record with 279, 50 more than the next closest player.

TEAM NOTABLES:

- ASU earned their first road win of the season against SDSU on March 17. The Sun Devils outscored the Aztecs 10-2 in the second half to secure the 17-9 win.
- ASU has held opponents to a 85.5% clear percentage allowing 183 clears in 214 attempts.
- The Sun Devils' 3-0 start to the season was the first time in program history, but was halted after a loss to Stony Brook in the team's first road game.

PLAYER NOTABLES:

- Zoe Mazur's 8.92 draw controls per game are the seventh-best individual mark in the NCAA and second best in the Pac-12.
- Attackers Mina Scott (32) and Lydia Oldknow (34) each have 30+ goals on the season.
- in the Pac-12 opener against SDSU, junior goalkeeper Katie Vahle hit the 400 career save mark and was the second active goalie in the Pac-12 with 400 career saves.
- Oldknow has seven hat tricks this season, which leads the team.

PAC-12 PLAYER OF THE WEEK:

- Katie Vahle earned the first weekly award for ASU this season after being named the Pac-12 Defensive Player of the week on 3/19.
- Zoe Mazur was named Pac-12 Defensive Player of the Week on 4/8/24 after recording 24 draw controls in two games. It was the first career Pac-12 honor for the graduate defender.

Taryn VanThof

Head Coach

SECOND Season

Loyola Maryland '15

Sun Devil Athletics hired Taryn VanThof as the new Lacrosse Head Coach, Vice President of University Athletics Ray Anderson announced on July 5, 2022

VanThof comes to Arizona State after an extremely successful six-year stint as the Assistant Coach at national power Florida. There she served as the Offensive Coordinator, Goalie Coach, Draw Specialist, and Recruiting Coordinator for the Gators.

“Thank you to Vice President for University Athletics Ray Anderson and Senior Associate AD/SWA Christina Wombacher for this opportunity to lead the Sun Devil Lacrosse program,” VanThof remarked. “I could not be more thrilled to coach at this extraordinary university.”

Under the direction of VanThof and Head Coach Amanda O’Leary, Florida has emerged as one of the nation’s premiere programs over the past six years. In 2022, the Gators made their fifth consecutive NCAA Tournament, earning a bid every year of VanThof’s tenure. She arrives in Tempe coming off two straight appearances in the NCAA Quarterfinal Round (Elite Eight) with Florida.

“Taryn VanThof is a tremendous addition to the Sun Devil Family.” Vice President of University Athletics Ray Anderson stated. “We identified her as the right person to lead this program on the rise because of her energy, passion, and desire to be at Arizona State.”

Prior to launching a budding career in coaching, VanThof was a standout All-American midfielder at Loyola Maryland from 2011-15. She competed at the professional level as recently as the 2021 season in the Athletes Unlimited League.

While she was an assistant coach at Florida, the Gators combined to go an incredible 85-24 (78%) from 2017-22. That stretch included five NCAA Tournament appearances, six NCAA Tournament victories, all five possible Conference Tournament titles, and two of the three Elite Eight appearances in program history.

As the Offensive Coordinator, Goalie Coach, Draw Specialist, and Recruiting Coordinator, VanThof had an impact on all aspects of the program for the last six years. The Gators finished the season ranked in the Top-10 all but one of those seasons, proving to be one of the most consistent and well-coached teams in the country.

She began her coaching career at Rutgers in 2016, getting a taste of Big Ten action immediately following the completion of her collegiate career. During her only season in New Brunswick, she helped orchestrate a four-win improvement, with two Scarlet Knights named to the Big Ten All-Conference Team.

Caroline Wakefield

Assistant Coach
SECOND Season
North Carolina '21

One of the winningest players in the history of the storied North Carolina Women's Lacrosse program will be patrolling the sidelines in Tempe next season. For All-American Caroline Wakefield joins Haley Warden, who accepted a role on the staff last week, to make up an extremely decorated assistant coach duo.

"We are thrilled to have Caroline Wakefield join our staff," Head Coach Taryn VanThof remarked. "She has an exceptional ability to connect and build relationships with student-athletes. I can't wait to get to work with her."

As part of her over 14 years of hands-on experience in the sport of lacrosse, Wakefield has been the Head Coach of Team91 Carolina since 2018. In this role, she developed Team91's program to reach their maximum performance. She most recently served as a Director of Operations for the travel teams she helped establish, coordinating all travel and logistics.

"Arizona State is a unique place to play lacrosse and offers an extraordinary student-athlete experience," Wakefield observed. "I am looking forward to being a part of something special in Tempe."

Haley Warden
Assistant Coach
SECOND Season
JMU '18

Warden comes to Arizona State after spending the past three seasons at James Madison, where she served as the offensive coordinator for her Alma Mater. She brings an impressive resume with her to Tempe, having found success at the highest level as both a coach and player.

"I am excited to welcome Coach Warden to the Sun Devil Lacrosse family," Head Coach Taryn VanThof exclaimed. "Haley brings international and professional playing experience, is a great leader and communicator, and continues to blossom as a coach. She understands what it takes to be the best."

Over the course of a brilliant four-year run with the Dukes, Warden established herself as one of the best to ever wear the purple and gold. She capped her playing career in the ultimate fashion, captaining the 2018 team to the NCAA Championship, the first in program history. Warden was named the Most Outstanding Player of the National Championship Game after delivering a four-goal performance in the 16-15 win over Boston College.

"I am honored and humbled to be named assistant coach at Arizona State University," Haley Warden remarked. "I would like to thank Coach VanThof and Sr. Associate AD/SWA Christina Wombacher for this amazing opportunity."
