THE GAME - #16 (CFP)/#14 (AP) Sun Devil Football will conclude the 2024 regular season on the road on Saturday, Nov. 30 as the team travels down the I-10 to Tucson to take on rival Arizona at Arizona Stadium in the 98th Territorial Cup. Scheduled for a 1:30 p.m. AZT kickoff, the contest will be broadcast nationally on FOX (Jason Benetti, Brock Huard, and Allison Williams). The game will also be available over the local airwaves in Arizona on Arizona Sports 98.7 FM (Tim Healey, Jeff Van Raaphorst, Kevin Turner, Jeff Munn).

ON THE TERRITORIAL CUP - This will be the 98th Duel in the Desert, with Arizona leading the all-time series 51-45-1. A majority of those Wildcat wins came prior to 1950, however. Since 1949, ASU holds a 44-31-1 record in the series. The winner of the game will receive (or retain) the Territorial Cup Trophy, and the game is recognized by the NCAA as the nation's oldest rivalry trophy game. After the Sun Devils had a five-game winning streak in the rivalry - tied for the second longest for either school in the series - ended in 2022, ASU is looking to ensure the Wildcats don't post their first three-game winning streak in the series since the 1993-95 campaigns.

KICKING OFF

- » Saturday will mark the first time the Sun Devils have played a Territorial Cup while ranked since being No. 13 in the 2014 edition a decade ago.
- » ASU's 9-2 record already marks a six-win improvement - at minimum - over the team's 3-9 record a season ago. The six-win improvement is the most in program history and trails only Indiana's seven-win improvement this season among FBS programs.
- » The Sun Devils are looking to become just the 10th Power 4/5 team since 2012 to increase their win total by 7 games from one season to another (8 - TCU, 21-22/7 - Missouri 12-13, UCF 16-17, Syracuse 17-18, Cincinnati 17-18, USC 21-22, UW 21-22, Northwestern 22-23, Indiana 23-24).
- » With ASU vacating its wins in the 2021 season, the nine wins this season surpasses the team's combined win tally from 2020-2023 (8 wins).
- » Since Week 6, no FBS wide receiver has as many yards as Jordyn Tyson's 749 - second behind only Bowling Green tight end Harold Fannin Jr., Jr. His 481 receiving yards in the month of November leads all FBS players.
- » Sam Leavitt is the nation's highest-graded freshman player on offense OR defense with his overall offense grade of 88.2 (min. 400 snaps) - 4.3 points higher than Ohio State receiver Jeremiah Smith (83.9). He is 6.3 points better than the next closest quarterback, South Alabama's Gio Lopez (81.9) and 12.6 points better than the next closest Power Four freshman quarterback, Tennessee's Nico Iamaleava (75.6).
- » Leavitt's 88.2 grade for the season is the eighth-best among all FBS freshman quarterbacks in the PFF era since 2015 (min. 400 snaps played). Of the seven players ahead of him, six have started an NFL game this season (Brock Purdy, Trevor Lawrence, Caleb Williams, Drake Maye, C.J. Stroud and Spencer Rattler).
- » ASU is 5-0 in games decided by a touchdown or less and 6-1 in games decided by one score (8 points or less). The 5-0 record is second behind Arkansas State's 6-0 mark in games of seven points or less and the six wins is tied with Arkansas State for the most overall in one score games.

AN ASU VICTORY WOULD...

- Match ASU's best record through 11 games since also going 9-2 in 2014.
- Give ASU 10 wins for the first time since the 2013 and 2014 seasons.
- Give ASU 10 wins in the regular season for just the 10th time in program history but only the 4th time since 1975.
- Guarantee at least a tie for first in the Big 12 conference standings and potentially a spot in the Big 12 Championship Game.
- Give ASU its best regular season conference record (7-2) since going 8-1 in 2013.
- Give ASU a winning record on the road (4-2) for the first time since going 4-2 in 2014.
- Be just the 10th time a Power 5 team increased its win total by seven games from one year to another since 2012-13 (not counting 2020 due to COVID year).
- Keep the Wildcats from winning three games in a row in the series for the first time since 1993-95.

#BYTHENUMBERS

60

Kenny Dillingham has put together a roster with 60 total newcomers this season - the ninth-most of any FBS school behind after being second a year ago. The Sun Devils have just three players in their final year of eligibility that started their careers at Arizona State (Trenton Bourguet, Caleb McCullough and Anthonie Cooper) - tied for the fourth-lowest tally in the FBS. ASU's 46 scholarship newcomers are tied for third-most in the FBS while the teams 58 returning players are tied for the fifth-lowest tally in the FBS. Only 38 of those players are scholarship student-athletes, tied for the third-lowest mark in the FBS.

50

50.0 percent of Sun Devil offensive drives have resulted in ASU scoring a touchdown or getting in range for a field goal attempt - good for 29th nationally. Only 40.9 percent of opponent drives have done the same, a net +9.1 percent difference that is the 38th-best in the FBS. ASU was dead last (133rd) in the category last year with a net -29.0 tally as only 28 percent of its drives resulted in a TD/FGA (124th) compared to a 57 percent success rate for opponents (132nd of 133). The Sun Devils are averaging 2.77 points per drive this season, good for 29th nationally and have a net .62 points per drive over opponents advantage that is 33rd in the country.

7

Playing the third-most snaps in coverage in the Big 12 this season (396), Xavion Alford has allowed just seven receptions, and 4th-fewest in the FBS (min. 300 coverage snaps). Opponents have chosen to throw his way on just 3.5 percent of coverage snaps, the 3rd-lowest total among all FBS players. His 14 targets on the year are 5th-lowest in the FBS. He has allowed just 76 yards in coverage this season - 4th-lowest among all FBS players. He has allowed just 0.19 yards per coverage snap this season, lowest in the Big 12 and 2nd in the FBS. Alford has forced an incompletion 35.7 percent of the time when targeted, the best tally among all FBS players.

3

Leif Fautanu has played 3,398 snaps in his career, third-most among active FBS centers, behind only NMSU's Canaan Yarro (3,442) and Texas' Jake Majors (3,411) and has started 48 consecutive games in his career out of his 54 total starts. He started all 12 games for the Sun Devils a year ago, playing all but one snap of the season (helmet came off) for the team at center (850). Leif Fautanu also has just five pressures credited against him, tied for 12th-fewest among FBS players and 9th among centers (min. 300 pass block snaps). His 14 pressure allowed percentage is 12th among FBS centers. His 87.1 pass-blocking grade is the sixth-best grade for any FBS center and 18th among all players.

2

ASU has the quickest average time to cause a QB pressure in the Big 12 at 2.41 seconds, a total good for 29th nationally. The team has done that with largely four-man rushes on the year, blitzing just 26.3 percent of the time - the 16th-lowest total nationally while the team has brought just four or fewer pass rushers 296 times - 12th-MOST among all FBS teams. ASU QBs have had an average time to throw of 3.34 seconds this season, good for 25th-best in the FBS after ranking 128th in the country a season ago at 2.48 seconds. The group is 22nd nationally with an average of 2.60 seconds before allowing a QB pressure. ASU was 117th a year ago with a 2.37 mark before giving up a QB pressure.

1

Wide receiver Jordyn Tyson has eight touchdowns in the last seven games and 749 yards (107.0 yards per game) on 53 catches in that span. In the first four games, he had 14 catches for 209 yards with one touchdown. The 749 yards are the most for any FBS wide receiver since Week 6, as are his eight touchdowns. Tyson's 481 yards in the month of November are also first in the country and his five touchdowns in the Month are second. Tyson needs 42 receiving yards to reach 1,000 for the season (currently at 958) and become the first Sun Devil to accomplish the feat since Brandon Aiyuk in 2019 (1,192).

#10THINGS (Twitter-Friendly Notes)

- Jordyn Tyson's nine touchdown receptions are tied with Travis Hunter for most in the Big 12 and his next will mark him as one of just 11 Sun Devils all time to reach double digits.

LAST TIME OUT - #14/14 BYU

- » With the win, Arizona State now posted back-to-back wins over AP Top-25 teams (No. 20 Kansas State, No. 14 BYU). It was the first time the program had accomplished the feat since defeating No. 18 Utah and No. 8 Notre Dame on Nov. 1 and Nov. 8 back in 2014.
- » This is the sixth time in program history that ASU has defeated AP Top-25 teams in consecutive games. (2024, 2014, 1997, 1996, 1982, 1975).
- » The Sun Devils moved to 9-9 against AP Top-25 teams when it falls on Homecoming.
- » The last time ASU won consecutive games over a ranked opponent with one of those games being on the road was in 1997 when they beat No. 25 Stanford away from home and took down No. 10 Washington State two weeks later on Nov. 1.
- » The victory Improved ASU to 3-0 against AP-ranked opponents this season. It matched ASU's most wins against Top-25 teams since 2019 (3-1) and is tied for the third-most single-season AP wins in program history (5 in 1986, 4 in 2014).
- » The win gave ASU an undefeated record at home for the first time since 2004 (also 6-0). The Sun Devils DID have a regular season undefeated record of 7-0 at home in 2013, leading to ASU hosting the final Pac-12 Championship game not played at a neutral site. The Sun Devils dropped that game to Stanford for its lone loss at "home" that year.
- » Arizona State controlled the ball and owned the time of possession advantage, 35:00-25:00. ASU is now 6-0 when they win the time of possession battle.
- » The Sun Devils have not punted on an opening drive this season and have scored on the first drive in eight of 11 games, including the BYU game. They have touchdowns in seven of those (a field goal against Wyoming), threw interceptions on the opening drives against Utah and Texas Tech and turned the ball over on downs against UCF.
- » The three points scored by the Cougars in the first half were the fewest BYU has had in the first half of a game this season.
- » ASU has outscored opponents 42-3 in the first half of the last two games.
- » It was the third time this season and second straight game ASU did not allow an opponent score on the first three drives of the game after it went eight-straight games between doing so between the opener against Wyoming and the Kansas State game.
- » Prior to the last two games, ASU was 71st in the country, allowing 13.2 points per game in the first half to opponents. Over the last two games, ASU has allowed just 3 points combined to two ranked opponents.

- » Tyson's 11-yard catch at 7:48 in the third quarter of that game gave him a new career high for single-game yardage, surpassing his previous best of 137 yards against Oregon in 2022 while he was a member of the Colorado football team. He also set a new career high with 12 receptions in the game.
- » Four of his touchdown receptions this season have come in the final five minutes of a half (two in the first half and two in the second half).
- » Three of his touchdown catches have come in the fourth quarter of games - tied for 6th among FBS receivers.
- » His 12 third down receiving conversions are tied for 22nd in the FBS.
- » Tyson is 9th in the country with 45 first down/touchdown receptions, third in the Big 12.
- » Tyson has emphasized Hines Ward's "No Block, No Rock" mantra as he is 6th among FBS receivers with 337 run-blocking snaps this season.

GOLD RUSH

- » The Sun Devils rank 32nd in the FBS in averaging 187.2 rushing yards per game this year.
- » Twice this season, ASU has rushed for over 300 yards in a game - the first time it has accomplished that feat since 2012 (vs. NAU, vs. Navy).
- » The group is averaging a rushing first down or touchdown 30.1 percent of the time, good for 37th nationally.
- » The rushing attack has been especially efficient in punishing opponents with ASU running backs earning 3.6 yards after contact per rush - 29th in the FBS.
- » ASU has forced 127 missed tackles on run plays this season, 3rd-most in the FBS.
- » The Sun Devils ranked 10th in the FBS in averaging 0.28 missed tackles forced per running play last season.

- » Since 2020, ASU's 20.3 percentage of total drives have ended with a rushing touchdown is 12th in the FBS.
- » ASU has received a team rushing grade of 96.8 from PFF since the 2020 season, the 25th-highest tally in the FBS.
- » Since 2020, ASU has been stuffed at or behind the line of scrimmage on just 18.3 percent of its rushes - good for the 35th-lowest tally in the FBS. The team has averaged 3.2 yards after contact per rush in that time - tied for 29th in the FBS.
- » Since 2020, ASU has picked up a first down or touchdown on 30.5 percent of its rushes - 17th-most in the FBS. The team is averaging 5.2 yards per rush in that time, tied for 46th in the FBS.
- » Since 2018, ASU has rushed for 100+ yards in 59 of 78 games (75.6 percent).
- » The Sun Devils have produced a 1,000-yard rusher 10 times in the last 14 seasons - with one of the lone exceptions being the shortened 2020 season. For comparison, from 1976-2010, ASU had just eight 1000-yard rushers over 34 years.

BUT ALSO NO RUSH

- » The Sun Devils have held opponents to just 119.7 rushing yards per game, the 31st-best total in the country and second in the Big 12. This comes as ASU has played four of the Top-25 teams in the nation this season in rushing offense (UCF, Kansas, Kansas State, Texas State). ASU was 36th in the FBS in allowing just 133.5 rush yards per game to opponents last season.
- » 10 times in 23 games under Kenny Dillingham and Brian Ward has ASU held an opponent under 100 rushing yards in a game.
- » Caleb McCullough has the sixth-best run blocking grade in the Big 12 overall and 21st among all FBS linebackers (85.3)
- » Shamari Simmons (81.7) and Keith Abney (79.6) rank 28th and 38th among all FBS corners as run blockers.
- » A year ago, the Sun Devils allowed only 88 rushing yards to Washington State, which marked the third consecutive game that ASU had held an opponent to under 100 rushing yards. It was the first time since the first three games of the 2016 season that ASU had accomplished the feat (Northern Arizona - 56 yards, Texas Tech - 72 yards, UTSA - 93 yards).
- » It was the first time it had happened against three-straight Pac-12 Conference opponents since a four-game stretch in the 2015 season (USC - 76, UCLA - 62, Colorado - 49, Utah - 72).
- » In that three-game span against CU/UW/WSU, Arizona State allowed only 157 total rushing yards - the fewest over a three-game stretch since the Sun Devils allowed only 96 against Colorado (99), Washington (-5), and Washington State (2) during the 2013 season.
- » A lot of that success can be attributed to the Sun Devil secondary as well, which received a positive rush defense grade on 17.3 percent of run plays this season from PFF, the 32nd-highest tally among safeties and corners in the FBS.

A HAND IN THE COOKIE JAR

- » Arizona State only had eight takeaways all of last year - 127th of 133 teams. It has 18 (13 interceptions and five fumble recoveries) through 11 games this year - a total good for 34th in the country.
- » Sun Devil true corners (excluded the nickelback) recorded interceptions in four straight games (Keith Abney vs. Utah and at Cincinnati/Javan Robinson at Oklahoma State/Laterrance Welch vs. UCF). It was the first time ASU has had corners accomplish that feat in four straight games since 2013 (Robert Nelson at Stanford/Osahon Irabor vs. USC and Notre Dame/Nelson and Lloyd Carrington vs. Colorado).
- » This season marked the first since 2020 (at USC 4 TOs; at Arizona 7 TOs) that the Sun Devils have forced three or more turnovers twice in a three-game span (3 vs. Wyoming, 3 at Texas State).
- » The Sun Devils picked off Utah's Cam Rising three times, matching the veteran's career high for a game. Rising now has 17 interceptions in his career (on over 750 career passes), of which the Sun Devils are responsible for six of them (35.3 percent). The three interceptions in the game were the most for an ASU team since having three against Stanford on Oct. 8, 2021.
- » ASU was one of just five teams in the country with a fumble recovery in each of its first three games. ASU has five fumble recoveries already this season after having just four total a season ago.
- » ASU is tied for 11th nationally with just three fumbles lost this year.
- » ASU has recorded four defensive touchdowns this season (2 pick sixes, 2 fumble returns), the second-most in the FBS
- » Taking out ASU's COVID-19 shortened 2020 season, the Sun Devils had a streak of at least one pick six in 23 consecutive seasons (2000-2022) come to a close last season - ending what was the longest streak in the FBS.
- » ASU immediately started a new streak with Zyrus Fiaseu's 29-yard return in the opener of 2024. ASU would also pick up a scoop-and-score from Justin Wodtly later in the contest on a 6-yard fumble return, giving ASU an interception AND fumble return for a touchdown in the same game for the first time since UCLA in 2008.
- » ASU has outscored opponents 941-554 in points off takeaways since 2012 and 34-14 this season.

WHO'S THE NEW GUY

- » For the second consecutive season, there will be a slew of newcomers taking the field for the Sun Devils in the form of 60 new players this season - the ninth-highest tally in the FBS.
- » The Sun Devils have just three players in their final year of eligibility that started their careers at Arizona State (Trenton Bourguet, Caleb McCullough and Anthonie Cooper) - tied for the fourth-lowest tally in the FBS.

- » ASU's 46 scholarship newcomers are tied for third most in the FBS while the teams 58 returning players are tied for the fifth-lowest tally in the FBS. Only 38 of those players are scholarship student-athletes, tied for the third-lowest mark in the FBS.
- » The Sun Devils welcomed the 48th best freshman class in the country by 247Sports, good for the top half of the Big 12 at No. 7 in the league.
- » The team's transfer portal haul was tabbed at No. 30 overall and No. 4 in the Big 12.
- » Overall, with the two groups combined, ASU checks in with the No. 43 class in the country and No. 7 in the Big 12.
- » It should be noted, however, that ASU's talent rating from 247Sports (which takes into account transfer's high school ratings) is ranked 30th in the nation and second in the Big 12.
- » While both were on the Sun Devil roster last season, antiquated NCAA rules that were inevitably overturned kept Jake Smith and Xavion Alford out for the season. When the duo takes Frank Kush Field on Saturday night, it will have been 1,342 days for Smith (Dec 29, 2020 - Aug. 31, 2024) and 1,009 days for Alford (Nov. 27, 2021 - Aug. 31, 2024) since either player has appeared in a college football game.
- » Ben Coleman was another newcomer last season that was forced to miss the year with an injury and will be taking the field for the first time in 646 days (Nov. 25, 2022- Aug. 31, 2024) on Saturday.

MOUNTAIN AMERICA STADIUM, HOME OF THE ASU SUN DEVILS

- » Arizona State University and Sun Devil Athletics have announced a multi-year naming rights partnership last season with Mountain America Credit Union to form one of the most dynamic naming rights deals in college athletics.
- » The 15-year partnership with Sun Devil Athletics - the most important deal in athletics department history - includes ASU's football stadium, which will now be called Mountain America Stadium, Home of the ASU Sun Devils.
- » The partnership happens as a fever pitch surrounds Sun Devil Football and the hiring of Sun Devil graduate Kenny Dillingham, one of eight Arizona State alumni leading programs as head coaches at the University. ASU fans have been "Activating the Valley" leading up to the start of the 2023 college football season, as over 90 percent of football season tickets have been renewed so far, and 4,000 new season tickets have been sold. And now, with the record-breaking football naming partnership and comprehensive relationship with Mountain America, numerous Olympic sports teams will be showcased, and multiple areas of the Sun Devil fan experience, from in-stadium entertainment to digital marketing, will be impacted.
- » Both Mountain America and ASU are committed to giving back to the community, and this partnership will provide support to the community and student-athletes in a variety of ways: Football Field Goals: Mountain America will donate $250 to the Sun Devil Club for every field goal made to enhance ASU's student-athlete experience, Shoe Donation Program: ASU and Mountain America will develop a shoe donation program, providing brand-new shoes to community members in need, Scholarships: Each year, Mountain America will provide $20,000 to ASU student-athletes, with $10,000 going to women's sports and $10,000 to men's sports, Financial Education Programs: Mountain America will offer special student-athlete financial education programs, including personal coaching sessions, Internship Program: Mountain America will also provide an internship program for student-athletes to help students develop the skills and experience needed for future endeavors.
