ASU LACROSSE GAME NOTES

STICK-Y NOTES (UPDATED 3/7)...

• The Sun Devil Lacrosse program embarks on their second season at the Division I Level. The program put together a historic campaign a season ago, reaching several significant milestones and earning unexpected accomplishments under Head Coach Courtney Martinez Connor.

• Arizona State will kick-off Pac-12 play when the USC Trojans come to Sun Devil Soccer/Lacrosse Stadium on Friday, March 8th at 5:00 p.m. USC came in at No. 22 in the IWLCA Top-25.

• Emily Glagolev and Kerri Clayton have reached the 10-point mark this season in different ways. Glagolev has been an elite distributor, showing her unselfishness by recording a team-high six assists. Kerri Clayton has been the Sun Devils' biggest scoring threat, picking up where she left off last season by scoring a team-best nine goals.

• Goalkeeper Berkeley Bonneau has been outstanding in net, playing all 240 minutes for the Sun Devils. In three of the four games in 2019, Bonneau has recorded at least nine saves. She is coming off another double-digit save performance against Vanderbilt (3/5).

• Eight different players have recorded at least five points so far this season as part of Arizona State's balanced attack (Clayton, Glagolev, Carson, McGlothlin, Hunter, Buckner, Dougherty, and Burns). Five Sun Devils are a part of the five-goal club.

• Arizona State was extremely effective earning free-position attempts, cashing in on 5-of-7 shots from eight meters. The five free position goals matched a program-best mark, with ASU last reaching the feat last April, when they converted 5-of-10 in a matchup with California.

• Freshman midfielder Kaylon Buckner enjoyed quite the collegiate debut. The St. Louis native finished with a team-high six caused turnovers and five draw controls, while contributing four points (two goals & two assists) on the offensive end in the Sun Devils' season opening victory over Kennesaw State. For her efforts, she was named the Pac-12 Conference Defensive Player of the Week for the first week of the season. She became the first Sun Devil in program history to receive a weekly conference honor.

SCOUTING THE TROJANS...

Pac-12 Conference play kicks-off on Friday, when the Sun Devils take on USC at 5 p.m. USC Head Coach Lindsey Munday enters her seventh season at the helm of the Trojans Lacrosse team, the only coach the program has ever had. The Trojans have sprung out to a hot start to the season, coming to Tempe with a 4-1 record. The Trojans split a road trip to Boston over the weekend, falling to No. 1 Boston College before knocking off Boston University on Sunday. USC currently sits at No. 24 in the latest IWLCA Coaches' Poll.

LAST TIME OUT...

The Sun Devil Lacrosse team battled through adversity to nearly knock-off undefeated Vanderbilt, falling 15-14 to the Commodores on Tuesday evening at Sun Devil Soccer/Lacrosse Stadium. Without two key players to start the game and with another exiting early in the second half, it took some time for the Sun Devils to adjust and find their footing. Once they did, a spirited comeback attempt would ensue, with the Sun Devils scoring the final three goals of the game to pull within one. Despite controlling a majority of the action for the final 15 minutes, including scoring six of the final eight goals, it was not enough as Arizona State dropped their second game of 2019. Freshman Paige McGlothlin recorded her first-career hat trick to lead the way offensively. Maddy Hunter, Kate Dougherty, and Kylie Kroeger all joined McGlothlin in putting together multi-goal performances. Julia Burns dished out a pair of assists and Morgan McCaffrey picked up her first career helper. Goalkeeper Berkeley Bonneau made some athletic saves on her way to picking season-best 13 saves.

YOUTH MOVEMENT...

In just their second season at the Division I level, the Sun Devils boast a talented and young roster. So far during the 2019 season, 11 members of the freshman class have seen playing time (Buckner, McCaffrey, McGlothlin, Martel, Kroah, Hood, Anotonucci, Brodsky, Odell, Class, Payne). Sophomores Caryn Takeuchi and Mia Harp also made their Sun Devil debuts this season after missing all of last season with knee injuries.

SUN DEVILS ON THE NETWORK...

Four contests will air live on Pac-12 Network, including both matchups with No. 18 Colorado. In addition, ASU's matchups with Kennesaw State, Vanderbilt, and USC will be available to be watched live through the ASU Digital Stream. The season culminates with the 2019 Pac-12 Lacrosse Championship, hosted in Eugene by the University of Oregon. The Championships will be broadcasted live on Pac-12 Network.

COURTNEY MARTINEZ CONNOR

HEAD COACH

SECOND SEASON

MARYLAND '01

Guiding the Sun Devil Lacrosse program through its inaugural Division I season, Coach Martinez Connor helped the Sun Devils enjoy one of the most successful inaugural seasons in NCAA history. In the season opener, Arizona State picked up the program's first-ever victory, an 18-8 road triumph against Kennesaw State. The Sun Devils started the season 5-1, highlighted by a come-from-behind win over Columbia, a game the Sun Devils trailed 4-0 and 7-1 at one point. The most significant result of the season came when ASU traveled to Berkeley to take on conference foe Cal. Despite trailing 6-2 in the first half, the Sun Devils would not quit, tying the game at 11 before the end of regulation to force overtime. Emily Glagolev would come through with the clutch, game-winning goal in overtime would give that would give the the program its first Pac-12 Conference victory.

Under Coach Martinez Connor's tutelage, several Sun Devil Lacrosse student-athletes enjoyed breakout seasons. Sun Devil Lacrosse co-captain Kerri Clayton nabbed Second Team All-Pac-12 honors after an outstanding first season in Tempe. Clayton finished with 59 points, compiling 44 goals and 15 assists. Her 2.59 goals per game average placed her fourth in the conference while her 3.47 points per game was good enough for fifth. She recorded two game-winning goals, tying for the team-lead with Maddy Hunter. Clayton put her name in the Sun Devil record books the very first weekend of the season, scoring a program record seven goals in the team's first win over Kennesaw State on Feb. 9. The junior added five goals and two assists the very next game against Stetson on Feb. 11 to cement her name at the top. For that weekend's performance Clayton was named Inside Lacrosse's Alpha Lacrosse Player of the Week on Feb. 14 as voted on by lacrosse fans across the country, the first National Player of the Week honor for the program.

The Sun Devils captured five non-conference victories, two of which came by double-digits (Manhattan, Presbyterian). The Arizona State offense clicked in the non-conference, scoring 103 goals in six games (17.2 goals/game). Competing as the six seed at their first-ever Pac-12 Tournament, Arizona State saw freshman midfielder Maria Vallanti be named to the 2018 Pac-12 Women's Lacrosse All-Tournament Team after scoring a pair of goals against USC. In total, 2,530 fans attended Sun Devil Lacrosse home games, for a Pac-12 best average crowd of 361 fans per game. The team got it done off the field as well as on it, as Coach Martinez Connor continues to stress the importance of academics. Arizona State placed a pair of student-athletes (Sydney Bosmans, Rachel Gregory) on the IWLCA All-Academic Team, honoring those with a cumulative GPA of 3.50 or higher. Five different Sun Devils earned Pac-12 All-Academic honors, led by Sydney Bosmans, who received Second Team honors.

Courtney Martinez Connor was named the first head coach for Arizona State's varsity women's lacrosse program, Vice President for University Athletics Ray Anderson announced in Nov. 2015. Martinez Connor, a gifted lacrosse student-athlete and standout collegiate coach, is building the foundation of Sun Devil Athletics' 25th varsity sport.

TIERNEY CONLON ASSISTANT COACH SECOND SEASON MONTCLAIR STATE '15

In charge of the Sun Devils offensive unit during their innagural Division I season, Coach Tierney Conlon developed some of the most productive attackers in the conference. The offense was a big part of Arizona State's 5-1 start in non-conference play, averaging 16.3 goals/game, including a school record 23 goals in the home opener. The Sun Devil offense scored at least 12 goals in eight of their contests. Redshirt sophomore attacker Kerri Clayton enjoyed a breakout season under Conlon's tutelage, scoring 44 goals on her way to receiving Second Team All-Conference honors from the Pac-12. Freshman Emily Glagolev found the back of the net 21 times from the midfield, including the game-winning goal in the Sun Devil's first conferene victory over California. It total, a balanced offensive unit saw eight different Sun Devils reached a double-digit goal output in 2018.

Sun Devil Lacrosse Assistant Coach Tierney Conlon enters her second season on the coaching staff. In charge of the offensive unit, Conlon joined the Sun Devils after acting as an assistant coach at her alma mater, Montclair State. Conlon assisted head coach Nicol Parcelluzzi in all aspects of the sport including practice planning, recruiting, film breakdowns, strength and conditioning programming, and academic monitoring.

CAROLINE FITZGERALD ASSISTANT COACH FIRST SEASON FLORIDA '17

Former Drexel Assistant Coach Caroline Fitzgerald, a three-time All-American defender at the University of Florida, is joining the Arizona State Lacrosse staff as an Assistant Coach, as announced by head coach Courtney Martinez Connor on Friday.

Fitzgerald joins the Sun Devil Lacrosse staff after one season as an Assistant Coach at Drexel, where she worked primarily with the defense. Working under Dragons head coach Hannah Wszalek, Fitzgerald assisted with defensive concepts, helped implement defense schemes, and developed practice/game plans.

A four-year starter at the University of Florida, Fitzgerald made a tremendous impact in her career in Gainesville. Graduating as the program's all-time leader in ground balls (152) and caused turnovers (87), Fitzgerald will go down as one of the Gator's most productive defenders. Fitzgerald compiled several major accolades during her career at Florida. She was a two-time Tewaaraton Award Nominee (2016, 2017), an award which is recognized as the pre-eminent lacrosse award, annually honoring the top male and female college lacrosse player.
Earning IWLCA All-American honors in each of her final three seasons, Fitzgerald became just the fourth Gator to be selected to three All-America teams. The two-time Big East Defender of the Year (2016, 2017) also was named to the All-Big East First Team on three occasions (2015-2017).

"I'm so glad to have Caroline join our staff" Coach Courtney Martinez Connor remarked. "She will be a wonderful addition and influence to our student-athletes and program. I'm so happy that she has joined our family to become a Sun Devil."
