SUN DEVILS TRAVEL TO BEAVER STATE FOR SEASON OPENER

CORVALLIS, Ore. – The No. 22 Sun Devil women's swimming squad jets up north to the Beaver State Friday to open its 2018-19 campaign against Oregon State.

"I'm excited to get this season started," coach Bob Bowman said. "The women have done a great job in the preseason, and it'll be really fun to see some of the new faces in competition for the first time."

The Sun Devils hold an uncontested all-time series lead over the Beavers to the tune of a 9-0 lead going into the weekend. Both programs both met up last in Tempe, when the Sun Devils took the meet by a commanding 164-89 victory. The largest margin of victory over OSU came in 2008, when ASU won by a 131-point difference, 209-78.

"We're looking forward to getting some experience under our belt with this first meet," Bowman said. "It'll give us some race experience to get us off for the rest of the season."

The trip follows the squad's annual intrasquad meet last week headlined by new additions on both the men's and women's side.

A few notable newcomers made their presence in the pool known in the intrasquad including freshman Ruby Martin, who contributed wins in the 100FL and 200FL and led off in the winning 400FR relay foursome.

"Ruby is our highest ranked recruit in this incoming class," Bowman said. "She's someone that has national experience, so we're very excited for her to be on the team and continue to develop."

The Sun Devil women come into their 2018 competition slate with a reinforced roster containing 11 new faces, including 10 freshmen to go along with the returning athletes that include U.S. National Junior team member Emma Nordin and Chloe Isleta, who represented the Philippines over the summer in the Pan Pacific Championships.

Along with Nordin and Isleta, a plethora of swim Devils return, including 2018 NCAA qualifiers Silja Kansakoski and Marlies Ross. As for the newcomers, the overhaul starts with Wisconsin transfer Cierra Runge, whose leadership on the team is felt despite not being able to compete until January.

"Our upperclassmen have had a very good summer, Emma and Chloe included," Bowman said. "I'm excited for them to take the work they did over the summer and carry it into this new season."

Luckily for the women, they return most of the 2017-18 roster as the squad lost just one to graduation, Pac-12 All-Academic honoree Ivana Ninkovic. Although Ninkovic provided valuable depth for the Sun Devils in the breaststroke, Kansakoski is set to take the block again as one of the premiere breaststroker in maroon and gold.

The Sun Devils take the block in Corvallis at 6 p.m. MST. Fans can follow the action by following @ASUSwimDive on Twitter or on Meet Mobile.

NOTES

HEAD DIVE COACH MARK BRADSHAW

Completing his 20th season at ASU in 2016-17, Mark Bradshaw has proven to be one of the most successful NCAA diving coaches in the country.

With Bradshaw at the helm of the diving program, ASU has produced some of the NCAA's finest divers, including four-time NCAA Champion Joona Puhakka and six-time All-Americans Micky Benedetti and Trisha Tumlinson. Under Bradshaw's guidance, ASU has had nine divers earn four NCAA individual titles and 29 All-American honors. In addition, Bradshaw has been named NCAA Diving Coach of the Year twice, in 2003 and 2005.

With eight Pac-10 Men's Diving Coach of the Year and one Women's Diving Coach of the Year plaques on his wall, Bradshaw has earned more Pac-10 Diving Coach of the Year honors than any other coach in conference history and has been named Pac-10 Coach of the Year the most out of all ASU Head Coaches. His divers have earned a total of nine Pac-10 Diver of the Year awards and six Pac-10 Newcomer of the Year honors.

HEAD SWIM COACH BOB BOWMAN

Bob Bowman, mentor of the world's most decorated Olympian and two-time Big Ten Coach of the Year, was named Arizona State head men's and women's swimming coach prior to the 2015-16 season. He earned his third conference Coach of the Year honor in 2016-17, named Pac-12 Men's Swimming Coach of the Year.

A 2010 inductee into the American Swimming Coaches Association (ASCA) Hall of Fame, Bowman is a five-time ASCA Coach of the Year and is the most-honored coach in the 40-plus years of the award. He has earned USA Swimming Coach of the Year honors six times, the USA Swimming Foundation's Golden Goggle Award four times, and was the 2002 USA Swimming Developmental Coach of the Year.

In addition to Phelps, Bowman guided Allison Schmitt to five medals, including three gold, at the 2012 Olympics, and coached 13-time international medalist Conor Dwyer.

ON THE WORLD STAGE

Freshman Ashley McCool represented her country in her native Calgary at the 2018 Canada Cup Grand Prix, earning silver in the 3M synchro ahead of the United States, Cuba and Germany.

McCool added another medal to her collection at the Summer Speedo Nationals, putting up a score of 283.10 in the finals to place third in the event and earn a bronze medal.

Nine Sun Devils trekked to Columbus to compete against some of the top swimmers in the country in the last stop of the summer at the TYR Pro Swim Series. ASU put up a whopping 13 top-10 finishes on the weekend, making them one of just six universities (Michigan, Louisville, Ohio State, Kentucky, Indiana) to record 10+ top-10 finishes in the series. Cierra Runge put up four of those finishes alone, placing in the top-5 in every single event she took the block for, including a second-place finish in the 400M and 800M freestyle, third in the 1500M free and fifth in the 200M free. Grant House also came up big for the Sun Devils, putting up several lifetime bests en route to a third-place finish in the 200M free and fourth in the 200 IM.

The Phillips 66 National Championships was a great meet for the Sun Devils, as several swimmers set personal bests. Cierra Runge took second place overall in the 800FR, swimming a time of 8:29.93, a whole three seconds faster than third place. Among them was Grant House, whose time of 1:46.95 in the 200FR was good for the 24th fastest time in 2017-18, giving him first place in the B Finals of the event. Danny Comforti (200BR) and Zach Poti (200BK) were among Sun Devils who set personal bests in the event, and Erica Laning had a sub-two-minute time in the 200FR to put up another solid performance for ASU.

Frida Kaellgren competed again in the 1M dive for her country at the Swedish National Championships, racking up her second-straight gold medal in the event to become a Swedish National Champion in the event. Kaellgren notched a gold medal in the same event in 2017 and a silver in the 3M dive as well.

HOMECOMING

The Sun Devils added a new coach to the staff in the offseason -- #SunDevil4Life Herbie Behm.

Behm returns to Tempe after serving as the assistant sprints coach at the University of Utah for two seasons. During his tenure in Salt Lake, Behm led a group of more than 20 student-athletes in their daily training programs while assisting and working with each individual's technique, training strategies and post-race analysis. Under Behm's tutelage, 20 student-athletes set school records in just two seasons.

At Utah, Behm also coached a 2018 Pac-12 Champion and an All-American in the 200 medley relay. One of his student-athletes also swam the fastest 50-yard backstroke in the nation in the 2017-18 season.

Behm swam at Arizona State from 2010-13. Excelling in the classroom as well, Behm was a three-time Scholar-Athlete Award winner and graduated with his degree in Psychology while minoring in Communications. As a Sun Devil, Behm was a part of the foursome that set the school record in the 400 medley relay.

MEN NAMED NO. 5 INCOMING CLASS IN NATION

Boasting yet another exceptional recruiting class, the Sun Devil men's swimming program's 2018 haul was chosen as the No. 5 class in the nation, according to Swim Swam magazine's annual evaluation of NCAA Division I swimming classes.

The highly-touted Sun Devil class features 16 freshman and seven four-year university transfers spanning 12 states including Missouri, Ohio, Arizona, Virginia, Texas, Alabama, California, Colorado, Florida, Pennsylvania, Michigan, New York and one international student from Australia.

Swim Swam recognized freshmen Cody Bybee, Noah Henry, Khalil Fonder and transfers Jack Kucharczyk (Indiana) and Carter Swift (Eastern Michigan) as top-tier additions to the class.

The class, recognized as one of the nation's largest signing groups, rose quickly through the rankings, as only one of the class' prospects broke the magazine's top-20 list in the summer of 2017. After huge senior campaigns, that number tripled to three.

The class boasts nine swimmers with 100 free times of 44.9 or better, five with 50 free bests of 20.3 or better and six with 200 free bests at 1:36.6 or better. This adds to an already strong crop of Sun Devil freestylers that includes Cameron Craig, who owns all 10 of the top-10 200 free times in ASU history and Grant House, who put up the No. 24 time in the world during the 2017-18 season in the 200 free over the summer.

POWERHOUSE SCHEDULE

This season, Arizona State will face last year's national champions on each side – Texas (men) and Stanford (women) – as well as two of the top five overall finishers at NCAA's a year ago.

During the dual season, the men's and women's teams also face seven top-25 teams to finish last season, including the top-ranked team for each. The men face No. 1 Stanford, No. 2 Cal, No. 3 Indiana, No. 6 Texas, No. 9 USC, No. 18 Arizona while the women face those teams plus No. 21 UCLA.

ACADEMIC SUCCESS

The Sun Devils earned CSCAA Scholar All-America honors as a team, marking the 10th-consecutive semester dating back to Fall 2013 that both Sun Devil squads have earned a place in the team, while the ASU men have achieved upward improvement for the past three seasons. 17 individual Sun Devil swimmers and divers were also named Scholar All-Americans.

Rounding out the selections were Sarah Bathe, Camryn Curry, Kendall Dawson, Emma Nordin, Fanny Teijonsalo, Cameron Smith, Heikki Makikallio, Youssef Selim and Jack Dalmolin.

Of the 17 honorees, nine were freshman. This honor marks the second such for three Sun Devils in Dawson, Kansakoski and Selim, and the fourth-straight for Makikallio. The diver notched a Scholar All-American award every year as a Sun Devil, graduating with his degree in finance last month.
