QUICK HITS

Last Week

The Sun Devils started the 2024 season with a 3-0 weekend at the LUV Invitational at Lipscomb, beating the host team, Butler and Cal Baptist. ASU has not lost a non-conference match since September 16, 2022. Geli Cyr, a senior outside hitter, was named the LUV Invitational MVP after notching a total of 37 kills over three matches on a .386 clip. Jeter, a graduate middle blocker, earned a spot on the all-tournament team after hitting a blistering .714 on the weekend, totaling 25 kills, the second-highest team total.

Threat at the Net: Claire Jeter

Jeter had an incredible start to 2024. She earned a spot on the LUV Invitational All-Tournament Team after hitting a blistering .714 on the weekend, totaling 25 kills, the second-highest team total. Jeter's hitting percentage is the second-best in the nation. In 2023 when she was earned AVCA All-America Honorable Mention honors, she led the defense at the net with 130 blocks, the most she's had in a single season. She finished the year with a .373 clip to lead the team, the highest hitting percentage by a Sun Devil since 2003. She also was second on the team in aces with 43, the most she has had in a single season. In the career record books, she's inching her way up on the blocks list, currently seventh in career blocks at ASU (349) and in career block assists at ASU (293).

2023 Season Recap

The 2023 season for Sun Devil Volleyball was arguably the best one in program history. With numerous records broken, two wins in the NCAA Tournament, three All-Americans, and many more milestones, the 50th season of the program was a remarkable one. Arizona State went 28-7 under first-year head coach JJ Van Niel. The Sun Devils reached the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 2015, winning two matches for the first time in program history. Arizona State had its second-highest win total in a season in program history with 28, which was the most wins in a season this century. The win percentage of .800 was the best the program has had. To start the season, the Sun Devils went 14-0 (undefeated in non-conference and two conference wins), the third-best start in team history and the best start by a new head coach. ASU has had 20 sweeps that season, the most in program history by five.

New Faces

The Sun Devils have reloaded in 2024 after losing three key starters. Many new faces made their debuts last weekend. The three transfers all saw playing time. Graduates Argentina Ung and Savannah Kjolhede played at setter and middle blocker, respectively, while junior pin hitter Bailey Miller saw time as well. Two made their collegiate debuts last Friday. Redshirt freshman setter Brynn Covell saw time as a utility player, serving up seven aces and 18 total digs between three matches. Freshman defensive specialist Bella Faria played in five sets, earning two digs.

All-Americans on the Roster

The Sun Devils have three All-Americans on the 2024 roster. ASU returns graduates Claire Jeter and Mary Shroll, both who earned AVCA All-America Honorable Mention. Additionally, Arizona State brings in transfer graduate Argentina Ung, who was an honorable mention All-American last year as well while playing for Washington State. All three were first-time All-Americans.

Second Year Head Coach

JJ Van Niel is now in his second season as a head coach. He made history in his first season as a head coach by leading Arizona State to an incredible turnaround to make the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 2015 and winning two matches for the first time in Sun Devil history to advance to the Sweet Sixteen. For his efforts, he was named the AVCA Pacific South Region Coach of the Year and the Pac-12 Coach of the Year.

Preseason Things

The Sun Devils were picked to finish third in the Big 12 preseason poll. ASU finished the 2023 season in a tie for third in the Pac-12. This is the first season that Arizona State is in the Big 12, switching over from the Pac-12. In the AVCA Preseason Poll, they are ranked No. 17, the first preseason ranking for the program since 2015 when they were picked at No. 16. That ranking in 2015 was the highest preseason rank in team history.

Home Court Advantage

Home matches are becoming can't-miss events for the Sun Devils. Playing in half of the matches in Desert Financial Arena and the other half in Mullett Arena for the first time in 2023, the team set a program record for average attendance (3,146), which was No. 12 in the nation. The total attendance of 31,458 is also a team record, which was achieved with just 10 home matches. Three home matches ranked in the top 10 in Sun Devil history: September 21 against Arizona in third (4,816), September 24 against Washington in sixth (3,941) and November 17 against Oregon in seventh (3,937).
