NO. 10 BEARS DUEL IN THE DESERT AT ASU

No. 10 California women's gymnastics is back on the road this week and looking for another strong showing away from the Bay when the Golden Bears head to Arizona State to face the Sun Devils Saturday. Meet time is set for 3 p.m. PT/4 p.m. MT from Desert Financial Arena in Tempe. The meet will air on the Arizona State live stream.

The Bears are on the road for the second consecutive weekend and look to keep up a recent trend of top scores. After scoring a season-high 197.325 against Stanford two weeks ago, Cal followed it up with a second-straight 197.0+ score in the team's 197.225-197.075 loss at Washington last week, scoring back-to-back 197.0s for the first time in school history.

Cal enters Saturday's dual meet ranked in the top 10 on three events – bars (6th), vault (8th) and beam (10th). Six different gymnasts rank in the top 50 nationally on an event: Kyana George (vault - 4th; beam - 22nd; floor - 34th), Nina Schank (bars - 4th; vault - 50th), Milan Clausi (vault - 30th; floor - 45th), Emi Watterson (bars - 9th), Maya Bordas (all-around - 15th) and Nevaeh DeSouza (all-around - 27th).

FOLLOW THE ACTION FROM AFAR:

Sunday's meet will not air live on television but will be offered online via the Arizona State live stream. ## NUMBERS TO KNOW

49.241

While Cal currently ranks 29th nationally on floor with a 48.894, the Bears would own a 49.241 average without their season-worst 47.850. That mark would be good for ninth nationally.

6TH

As a team, the Bears are sixth nationally on the uneven bars with a 49.338 average on the event. Two Cal gymnasts rank within the nation's Top 10. Nina Schank is fourth, and Emi Watterson is ninth.

49.175

Cal scored a season-best 49.175 on vault in last week's meet at Washington. Kyana George paced the Bears with a career-best 9.925 for her third vault title of the season.

197

Cal has posted back-to-back scores of 197.0+ in the last two meets for the first time in school history. The bears earned a 197.325 against Stanford and a 197.075 at Washington.

LAST PASS

Quick Hit: Cal's strong showing at Washington saw the Bears produce another 197.0+ score with a 197.075, but the Huskies won the meet with a 197.225.

- Cal recorded a season-best 49.275 on floor, highlighted by Milan Clausi's career-high 9.95 on the event.
- Kyana George rebounded from a 6.75 start on the uneven bars to post a career-high 9.925 on vault to win the event.
- Maya Bordas, Nina Schank and Emi Watterson shared the uneven bars title with 9.925s.
- Schank made her season debut on vault, where she scored a career-high 9.825, up from her previous high of 9.65.
- Clausi also set a season-high on beam with a 9.85.
- Bordas took second all-around with a 39.400, and Nevaeh DeSouza was third with a 39.225.
- DeSouza matched her career-highs on vault (9.80) and beam (9.875).

RANKED ON THE ROAD TO NATIONALS

The Golden Bears opened 2020 at No. 9 in the Women's Collegiate Gymnastics Association preseason poll as voted on by WCGA coaches. This is the third time in the last four seasons that Cal was voted into the preseason top 10.

Cal's results against Top 25 ranked opponents this season:

Jan. 4 vs. No. 1 Oklahoma – L
 Jan. 4 vs. No. 4 UCLA – L
 Jan. 4 vs. No. 22 Stanford – W
 Jan. 12 vs. No. 9 Stanford – W
 Jan. 12 vs. No. 21 UC Davis – W
 Jan. 12 vs. No. 22 Sacramento State – W
 Jan. 19 vs. No. 25 Stanford – W
 Jan. 26 vs. No. 24 Washington – L

NEXT IN THE ORDER

The Bears return to Berkeley for their second home meet of the season when they face Pac-12 powerhouse Utah on Saturday, Feb. 8 at 12:30 p.m. The meet airs live on Pac-12 Networks.

Saturday's meet against Utah will be part of Cal's 150 Years of Women at UC Berkeley celebration, as well as the Bears' annual Alumnae Meet.

TICKETS ON SALE NOW

Tickets to all California home meets are available for purchase online at CalBears.com, including season tickets to all five home meets, Cub Club passes and single-meet tickets. Admission to the meet is also still available for purchase at the ticket window on Spieker Plaza beginning 90 minutes prior to the start of each home meet.

For every home meet this season, enjoy a live DJ, the Blue & Gold fan zone and Go Bears photo station.

DUO CLAIMS PAC-12 WEEKLY AWARDS

After leading Cal to its best performance of the season against Stanford, a pair of Golden Bears picked up Pac-12 weekly awards on Jan. 21. Nevaeh DeSouza was voted Pac-12 Freshman of the Week, and Emi Watterson was voted the Pac-12 Specialist of the Week.

DeSouza turned in her best performance at Stanford, winning her first event title and taking third in the all-around with a career-high 39.350. She won the beam title with a 9.875 for the first victory of her collegiate career. In addition, she set career-high scores on vault (9.80), beam and floor (9.85), along with the all-around.

Watterson earned Specialist of the Week after recording career-highs and winning both of her events. Watterson fueled Cal to a program-record 49.575 uneven bars performance with her near-perfect 9.975. She continued the strong work on beam, where she anchored with a career-high 9.875 to win her first-ever beam title.

GEORGE WINS FIRST GYMNAST OF THE WEEK

Kyana George picked up her first career Pac-12 Gymnast of the Week award on Jan. 14 after collecting three event titles at the NorCal Classic. George won the all-around, beam and floor, and finished as the runner-up on vault and bars. She tied her career-high score on vault with a 9.90.

BACK FOR THE BEARS

California lost seven routines from last year's NCAA postseason squad, but the Golden Bears return a youth-laden squad highlighted by 2019 Pac-12 Freshman of the Year Milan Clausi. Now-sophomore Clausi, who qualified to the NCAA Championships as an individual last season, anchored a Cal class that also includes all-arounder Maya Bordas and Talitha Jones. Together, the trio hit more than 97 percent of their routines last season. Classmate Grace Quinn, who only exhibited last season, is expected to make an impact in the lineup this season.

At the top of the roster are talented specialists in All-Pac-12 selection Emi Watterson, who recorded four 9.95s on bars last season, plus Alma Kuc, Rachael Mastrangelo and Nina Schank.

YOUTH MOVEMENT

The Golden Bears welcomed four new faces to their roster in the offseason, led by JO National competitor Nevaeh DeSouza (Fairfield, Calif.), who scored a perfect 10 in her final club season. Joining her is fellow Bay area product Maya Green (San Jose, Calif.), a two-time JO National Qualifier. The Bears added another JO National competitor in Natalie Sadighi, who was 9th on vault at the 2019 competition, plus Ashton Woodbury, both out of Southern California.

CALIFORNIA INKS NATIONAL STANDOUTS

The Bears signed two national standouts in November's early signing period, adding three-time JO National Team member Andi Li and senior international elite and USA National Team member Gabby Perea, both out of Legacy Elite gym in Illinois. Li most recently finished as the runner-up in the all-around and on bars at the 2019 JO Championships, adding to third-place beam and floor finishes, and fourth place on vault. Perea's competition experience spans across the globe, where she has competed at City of Jesolo in Italy and Gymnix in Montreal, while stateside she owns numerous appearances at the U.S. Gymnastics Championships (2019), U.S. Classic (2019, 2017, 2016, 2015, 2014, 2013) and P&G Championships (2017, 2016, 2015). Known for her prowess on the uneven bars, Perea won the event title at the 2016 and 2017 U.S. Classic, as well as the 2016 P&G Championships.

PAC-12 PREDICTIONS

For the third consecutive season, California women's gymnastics is projected to finish third in the Pac-12 this season, according to a vote by the league's gymnastics coaches. Last season, Cal finished fourth at the Pac-12 Championships with a 196.575, just .025 behind third-place team Oregon State. UCLA won the league crown with a 198.400, and Utah was runner-up with a 198.025. The exact breakdown of points is as follows:

1. UCLA (5) – 47 points
2. Utah (3) – 44 points
3. California – 36 points
4. Oregon State - 32 points
5. Washington – 25 points
6. Arizona State – 21 points
7. Stanford – 12 points
8. Arizona – 7 points
