No. 12 Gym Devils Travel to the Sooner State for a Star-studded Quad Meet

The No. 12 Gym Devils (6-5, 3-3 Pac-12) continue on the road for a top-15 quad meet with fellow Big 12 and SEC opponents: No. 1 Oklahoma, No. 10 Arkansas, and No. 15 Denver. The meet is slated for a 5:45 p.m. start on Friday, March 9 in Lloyd Noble Center. The meet will be televised on Fox College Sports Central (FCSC) and streamed on FOX Sports Go.

Raising The Bar

- Arizona State has ranked in the Top-20 nationally for nine consecutive weeks, moving up to No. 12 (RQS) in this week's Road to Nationals standings. The Gym Devils currently rank fifth among Pac-12 squads. ASU also ranks in the Top-20 nationally in each event, sitting at 14th on beam, 15th on bars, 18th on floor, and 20th on vault. Prior to the 2018 season, the Gym Devils had not ranked in the Top-25 since the 2013 season (No. 24) and had not appeared in the Top-15 since 2006 (No. 9).
- The Gym Devils have knocked off four ranked opponents this season – No. 14 Auburn, No. 20 Iowa, No. 14 West Virginia, and No. 20 Stanford – marking the first time since 2006 that the squad has accomplished the feat.
- Arizona State is one of six Pac-12 programs ranked nationally – the No. 12 Gym Devils are joined in the rankings by No. 3 UCLA, No. 4 Utah, No. 9 Washington, No. 11 Oregon State, and No. 20 California.
- Recording team totals of 196.475 at No. 16 West Virginia on Jan. 14, 196.250 at No. 20 Stanford on Jan. 20 and 196.800 vs. California on Jan. 28, the Gym Devils surpassed the 196+ mark in three consecutive meets for the first time since 2006. After recording a 196.575 vs. No. 10 Washington on Feb. 17, a 196.725 vs. Arizona on Feb. 24 and a 196.525 at Minnesota on Mar. 3, the team has now recorded six 196+ marks in a season for the first time since 2006.
- Arizona State has scored 49,000 or higher in 24 event rotations on the season, after eclipsing the mark only four times in 2017.
- Arizona State's 196.800 effort in its Pac-12 home opener against California on Jan. 28 constitutes the program's best team tally since the Gym Devils recorded a 197.750 vs. Iowa State on March 10, 2006. It also accounts for the 19th best team total in Gym Devil history.
- Standout Gym Devil freshman and five-time Pac-12 Freshman/Newcomer of the Week Cairo Leonard-Baker currently ranks in the top-15 nationally in three event categories including the all-around (10th, 39.455), bars (12th, 9.905) and floor (14th, 9.905). Her RQS in the all-around and on bars and floor mark collegiate bests among freshmen. On a conference basis, Leonard-Baker sits in fourth on bars, fourth in the all-around, and seventh on floor.
- French Olympian Anne Kuhm has made great strides this season and has made an immediate impact to the team. She currently ranks in the top-50 nationally in two event categories including the all-around (32nd, 39.235) and floor (49th, 9.870).

Scouting The Opposition

No. 1 Oklahoma (9-1, 2-0 Big 12): The Oklahoma Sooners are led by K.J. Kindler, who is entering her 12th season as head coach... Kindler has racked a plethora of honors throughout her head coaching career, including: three-time National Head Coach of the Year, eight-time Regional Coach of the Year, and 11-time Big 12 Coach of the Year... Last season OU won their second straight and third overall NCAA National Championship title... Coming off a year in which the Sooners recorded the first undefeated season in program history (33-0) and topped the final national rankings, Oklahoma remains on top after the ninth week of the NCAA gymnastics season... The Sooners talented roster is led by former international elites and 3x All-Americans, Maggie Nichols and Brenna Dowell, along with veterans Nicole Lehmann (3x All-American), A.J. Jackson (4x All-American), and Natalie Brown (All-American). Underclassmen Brehanna Showers, Anastasia Webb, and Evy Schoepfer also add depth to the squad.

No. 10 Arkansas (3-8, 2-5 SEC): The Arkansas Razorbacks are led by Mark Cook, who is entering his 17th season as head coach... Cook has garnered many honors throughout his time at Arkansas, including: two-time SEC Co-Coach of the Year, Regional Co-Coach of the Year... Since the inception of Razorback gymnastics, Cook has led the team to seven NCAA Championship appearances and 14 straight NCAA Regional appearances... Coming off a year in which Arkansas battled through injuries, the Razorbacks finished No. 19 in the final national rankings and are ranked No. 10 after the ninth week of the NCAA gymnastics season... The Razorbacks young roster is led by veterans Amanda Wellick, Braie Speed, and Sydney McGlone. Sophomore sensations Jessica Yamzon, Michaela Burton, and Hailey Garner; along with Freshman Sarah Shaffer (redshirt), Sophia Carter, and Sydney Laird also provide depth to the Razorback squad.

No. 15 Denver (12-3-1, 1-0 Big 12): The Denver Pioneers are led by Melissa Kutcher-Rinehart, who is entering her 20th season as head coach... Under her tenure, the Pioneers have appeared in 19 consecutive NCAA Regionals, along with four NCAA National appearances.... Kutch-er-Rinehart is a two-time Regional Coach of the Year... Last season was the most successful season in program history as the Pioneers returned to the NCAA National Championships after 6 years and finished ninth overall in the record books... Coming off a year in which the Pioneers (9th) finished in the top-10 of the final national rankings, Denver is ranked No. 15 after the ninth week of the NCAA gymnastics season... The Denver Pioneers experienced roster features returning veterans, Nikole Addison, Diana Chesnok, and Kaitlyn Schou. Sophomore sensation, Maddie Karr, and newcomers, Mia Sundstrom, Emily Glynn, and Lynzee Brown also add depth.

One For The Thumb; Leonard-Baker Nets Fifth Pac-12 Freshman/Newcomer Of The Week Honor

Gym Devil standout freshman Cairo Leonard-Baker yet again garnered Pac-12 Freshman/Newcomer of the Week honors, as announced by the league office Feb. 27. The accolade constituted her fifth this season, after the Oakland native nabbed the recognition in three consecutive awards cycles earlier this season. By virtue of the recognition, Leonard-Baker joined prestigious company Utah's MyKayla Skinner and California's Toni-Ann Williams as just one of three gymnasts in conference history to garner the award five or more times. The Oakland, Calif. native also became just the second Gym Devil in program history to earn league honors on five separate occasions, joining 2004 national champion and five-time all-american Ashley Kelly in the feat.

In The Rankings

Through nine weeks of competition, Arizona State continues its rise in the collegiate rankings, pulling to No. 12 on an RQS On an event basis, the Gym Devils rank 20th on vault (49.035), 15th on bars (49.145), 14th on beam (49.135) and 18th on floor (49.175). Week 8 marked the squad's highest jump in the rankings since Week 2 as the Gym Devils moved up four spots to No. 13. In Weeks 5-7 of the season, the Gym Devils ranked No. 17. During Week 4 of the collegiate gymnastics season, the Gym Devils ranked No. 12 as they tallied a 196.800 in their Pac-12 home opener against California, constituting the program's best team tally since it recorded a 197.750 vs. Iowa State on March 10, 2006. It also accounts for the 19th-best team total in Gym Devil history. During Week 3 of the season, the Gym Devils ranked at No. 14. Week 2 constituted the team's highest rank of the season, coming in at No. 11 after the Gym Devils defeated then-No. 16 West Virginia. By virtue of their season-opening 194.674, the Gym Devils concluded Week 1 ranked at No. 14. ASU checked in at No. 31 in the NACGC/W preseason coaches poll released in December, jumping 10 slots from its 2017 postseason ranking of No. 41. The 10-spot move constituted the most significant rise in the rankings over that span. Collectively, the Pac-12 Conference proved well-represented in the rankings as six of its eight programs appeared within the Top-25. Arizona State was selected to finish eighth in the preseason Pac-12 women's gymnastics poll. Reigning conference champion UCLA tops the league list, announced in mid-December.

Last Time Out

The Gym Devils recorded their 27th best team total in program history, but fell narrowly to No. 25 Minnesota, 196.675-196.525, Sat., March 3. ASU recorded event scores of 48.950 (vault), 49.250 (bars), 49.075 (beam), and 49.250 (floor). The specialists stepped up their game to contribute towards the team effort for the Gym Devils. Local product Jessica Ginn placed second on vault by tying her career-high of 9.825. Sophomore Ashley Szafranski placed third on bars with a career-high 9.900. Junior Justine Callis is showing constant improvement as she tied second on beam with a 9.850. Lastly, Junior Corinne Belkoff made her season debut on floor with an impressive 9.850.

Road Warriors

The Gym Devils will cap the regular season with three consecutive road meets - at Minnesota (March 3), at Oklahoma with Denver and Arkansas (March 9), at Sacramento State with Oregon State and UC Davis (March 16) - before traveling south to Tucson for the 2018 Pac-12 Championships, to be held on March 24. Over the course of the four-week stretch the squad with log a total travel mileage of 6,990.2 miles.

Season Prospectus

Announced in October, Arizona State's gauntlet of a 2018 slate sees the Gym Devils take on five programs – Oklahoma, Utah, Washington, Denver and Oregon State – who all advanced to compete in the 2017 National Collegiate Women's Gymnastics Championships. In addition to the aforementioned teams, the Gym Devils will face off with five other squads that capped the 2017 season ranked nationally in the Top-25 including Auburn, California, Iowa, Arkansas and West Virginia. Up next, Arizona State will cap the 2018 non-conference slate by competing in a Sacramento State-hosted quad-meet with UC Davis and Pac-12 counterpart Oregon State on Friday, March 16. The Pac-12 season will conclude on Saturday, March 24, with Arizona set to host the 2018 Pac-12 championships.

Returns

The Gym Devils return 22 routines and 12 letterwinners from 2017. Senior leader Nichelle Christopherson constitutes the lone senior on the roster while juniors Corinne Belkoff, Justine Callis, Heather Udowitch, Katelyn Lentz and Morgan Wilson return for their respective third seasons with the program. The Gym Devils also return six sophomores in Averie Brook, Jessica Ginn, Morgan Hart, Mekayla Jones, Graycee Rushton, and Ashley Szafranski.

Newcomers

The offseason proved generous for the Gym Devils, who welcomed a pair of high-caliber collegiate transfers in Anne Kuhm (University of Paris-Dauphine, junior) and Kaitlyn Szafranski (Louisiana State University, junior), and a pair of freshmen – Cairo Leonard-Baker (Oakland, Calif.) and Maya Williams (Reistertown, Md.) – expected to elevate the program immediately.

Olympic Flair

Junior Gym Devil Anne Kuhm joins the Arizona State program with international competition experience to her credit. A member of the French national team since 2009, she competed in the 2012 London Olympics for Team France, which finished in 11th place. Kuhm was selected as a reserve for the all-around final. She participated in the 2012 and 2016 Olympic Test Event, helping France qualify a full team to the Olympics on both occasions. Most recently, Kuhm was selected as an alternate for France in the 2016 Rio Olympics. She also earned further international experience competing for France at the 2015 World Championships in Glasgow. Kuhm is a two-time French national all-around champion (2011 and 2012). She also finished second at the national championships on bars and floor. In 2011, Kuhm was the French Junior National Champion in the all-around.

Academic Excellence

Academic excellence has become an integral standard within the Gym Devil program. In 2017, Arizona State placed seven student-athletes on Pac-12 All-Academic teams, while ten members of the squad garnered Scholastics All-American recognitions (NACGC/W). As a contingent, Arizona State gymnastics was one of seven Sun Devil programs recognized as an APR (Academic Progress Report) Top-10 percent performer in 2017. Exemplifying the team's academic excellence, the Gym Devils managed a perfect score of 1000.

Head Coach Jay Santos

Vice President for University Athletics and Athletics Director Ray Anderson named Jay Santos the head women's gymnastics coach on May 27, 2016.

Santos enters his second season at the helm of the program after a promising 2017 campaign.

In his first season as head coach in 2017, Santos quickly elevated the program, as the Gym Devils hit a season high team score in five of six consecutive meets including a season high 195.700 at Arizona. The Gym Devils scored 195 in four separate meets, the first time that has happened since the 2014 season. The team showed significant improvement on bars and beam from the 2016 season. Their bars regional qualifying score increased from a 48.24 in 2016 to a 48.8 in 2017 while beam improved from 48.57 to 48.93. The Gym Devils finished the season ranked 29th in the country on beam. The Gym Devils also bested then-No. 23 Arizona for the program's first Pac-12 win since 2014 and the coveted Territorial Cup series point. At the Pac-12 Championship, the Gym Devils completed the season with a 195.600, their second highest team score of the season, plus a season-high 49.275 on beam in the final rotation, the highest team beam score since March 13, 2009. It was the second highest team total for the program at a championship meet since 2004 when they scored a 196.775.

Santos coached Eastern Michigan to the 2016 Mid-American Conference Championship, the program's first-ever NCAA Regional appearance, and finished the season ranked 17th in the nation – the highest national ranking in the history of the program.

In 2016, Eastern Michigan broke eight school records, including three on beam, earning Santos NCAA Central Regional Head Coach of the Year honors. Individually, Santos coached gymnast Rachel Slocum, who scored a career-high 9.900 to win the NCAA Ann Arbor Regional title on floor, to become only the second athlete in school history to qualify for the NCAA Championships.

Prior to leading Eastern Michigan, Santos coached at the University of Illinois-Champaign where he served as assistant coach, then associate head coach in his four-year tenure. At Illinois, Santos coached the team to three NCAA Championship appearances in 2011, 2013, and 2014, finishing 11th in the nation each year. Santos also coached eight Illini gymnasts to All-American honors, including Alina Weinsten, the 2012 and 2013 Regional All-Around Champion, 2013 Honda Award Finalist, and 2013 South Central Region Gymnast of the Year.

Santos was assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at Iowa State from 2006-10, and also spent time as an assistant at Ohio State. Santos also spent eight years coaching at Somersault Gymnastics Center in Stoughton, Mass., serving as the women's team director and head coach for his last four years. At Somersault Gymnastics, he was responsible for all facets of the women's program and produced several Junior Olympic national and regional qualifiers, and many state champions.

Santos served as a nationally-rated men's gymnastics judge from 1997-2001, working numerous college dual meets as well as Junior Olympic state and regional championships.

Santos earned a bachelor's degree in Business Administration in Operations Management from the University of Massachusetts at Amherst in 1995, and was a member of the Minutemen's gymnastics team from 1990-95. At Amherst, he was a three-time co-captain and founding member of the department's Student-Athlete Advisory Committee (SAAC).

Santos' wife, Jessica Santos, serves as the Sun Devil Gymnastics program's associate head coach. They have two sons, Mason and Cooper.
