THIS WEEK

Arizona State Sun Devils Overall: 3-0 | Pac-12: 0-0

ITA Kickoff Weekend - Columbia Regional
Jan. 26-27 | Columbia, South Carolina
Wake Forest, Cal, South Carolina

Devils Head to South Carolina for Kickoff Weekend

TEMPE - After a perfect start to the season with three-straight wins in the friendly confines of the Whiteman Tennis Center, the Sun Devil women's tennis team travels across the country to Columbia, South Carolina, for a couple of ITA Kickoff Weekend matchups with Wake Forest, and South Carolina or California.

The Sun Devils are fairly familiar with the Demon Deacons that eliminated ASU from the NCAA Tournament a season ago in Athens, Georgia, by a score of 4-2.

Wake brings three ranked women to the courts in Columbia, including No. 44 Emma Davis, who clinched the match for Wake Forest on court one in the previous meeting.

Although the Demon Deacons also field three viable doubles tandems that are ranked in the top 50, ASU has an advantage in the rankings on court one with No. 8 John-Baptiste/Hattingh. Last time out, the court one matchup produced a thriller that eventually went the way of the Black and Gold and was John-Baptiste/Hattingh's second loss of the season in their first year together.

ASU is expecting to get sophomore Sasa Klanecek back for this weekend's kickoff. The Slovenian international sat out in singles play during the opening homestand, and her absence provided an a chance to several newcomers to put on the pitchfork for the first time.

Samantha Alicea was a mainstay in the lineup on court five for the entire weekend, and Julia Fisch and Grace Koester both earned wins on court six on opening day.

Overall, Tereza Kolarova had the ideal start to the season, claiming three wins in three appearances over opponents from UC Davis, Drake and NAU. Savannah Slaysman picked up two match-clinching wins and both Lauryn John-Baptiste and Ilze Hattingh earned a sole win in singles, but the All-American duo leads the team in doubles wins with two.

The winner between ASU and Wake Forest will take on the winner of No. 14 and host South Carolina and California.

Live streaming will be available on the South Carolina YouTube page, and live results will be available on the SC website.

Follow @SunDevilWTennis for live updates and go to thesundevils.com after each match for a recap of the days.

Team Notes

Rankings Update

Defending national champion Stanford debuted at No. 1 in the first poll of 2019, and even though the Cardinal have yet to play a dual match in the new year, the Pac-12 powerhouse still held on at the top spot in the latest Oracle/ITA rankings.

Only two Pac-12 teams earned top-25 nods in this week's poll as UCLA came in at No. 8.

The American, the SEC and the ACC make up 15 of the 25 spots with the ACC leading all conferences with seven programs.

Most of the top-10 stayed the same after the first week of competition with only No. 9 Michigan and 10th-ranked Oklahoma State swapping positions. Elsewhere in the top-25, Illinois made the biggest jump in the poll, improving three spots to No. 18, and Central Florida had the biggest drop as the Knights fell two spots to 22.

The doubles and singles rankings will be updated next month. Until then, the All-American duo of John-Baptiste/Hattingh remains at No. 8 in the nation and only Cali Jankowski is ranked in singles play for the Devils.

Last Time Out

The Sun Devils opened the season with three home wins over UC Davis, Drake and Northern Arizona.

All three matches were sweeps, including a 5-0 win over in-state rival and Big Sky champion NAU to close out the weekend homestand.

Tereza Kolarova had a perfect weekend of competition and was the only Sun Devil to complete and win all three of her matches over the weekend.

Savannah Slaysman secured two of the wins for the Devils by earning the fourth team point against UC Davis in the first match of the season and NAU to close out the holiday weekend.

Lauryn John-Baptiste and Ilze Hattingh took turns at the No. 1 singles position, but both only managed to take wins in their matches on court two as the dual match was wrapped up before they had a chance to finish on one.

In doubles, however, the duo continued their winning ways, going unbeaten on the weekend with two wins.

A Look Back - ITA Kickoff 2018

At last season's ITA Kickoff Weekend, the Sun Devils nearly knocked off the Oklahoma State Cowgirls in Stillwater before handling a top-25 TCU squad to close the weekend.

Then ranked No. 22, the Sun Devils took the doubles point from the 15th-ranked Cowgirls and held a 1-0 lead going into singles play.

With wins from Sasa Klanecek and Savannah Slaysman on courts 6 and 5, respectively, ASU owned a 3-0 lead and needed just one more match to swing their way to put them into the weekend final.

Unfortunately, the Cowgirls stormed back on courts 2, 3 and 4 to tie the match at 3-3. Ilze Hattingh couldn't fend off No. 21 Vladica Babic in the third set and OSU knocked off the Devils 4-3.

In the match against TCU, the Devils also took the doubles point, but didn't look back against the Horned Frogs as they would go on to take the match in a commanding 4-1 scoreline.

ASU got singles wins from Lauryn John-Baptiste on court two, Nicole Fossa Huergo on court three and Sasa Klanecek on court six. It was the Sun Devils' first win over a top-25 team in 2018.

In the past 34 years, Sheila McInerney has seen a vast amount of change at Arizona State, from new athletic directors, new head coaches, schools added to the conference, and numerous renovations to athletic facilities. Through the countless changes across Arizona State, McInerney has continued to lead the women's tennis program in a successful direction heading into her 34th season.

In Arizona State's history, no coach has the number of accolades that Sheila McInerney has accumulated during her 34-year tenure as a Sun Devil. Since her first season as head coach in 1985, Sun Devil women's tennis has won 512 matches, advanced to 32 of 33 NCAA Tournaments, including 31 straight, and has finished each season in the top 38 nationally. That's the second most wins by any Arizona State coach in school history. In the 2016 season, McInerney was named the Southwest Region Coach of the Year by the ITA, as well as the Pac-12 Coach of the Year. She also was awarded the 2016 ITA Meritorious Service Award, which is given to an ITA coach who has gone "above and beyond" in their commitment and contributions to the ITA and college tennis in general.

In recent years, Arizona State's tennis program has continued to thrive on and off the court. On the court, the Sun Devils have 87 wins against ranked opponents since 2008. Leading the way for the tennis program have been 47 All-Americans and 43 All-Pac-12 student-athletes. Of these integral players in Arizona State's history, there have been 40 players ranked in the Top 50 of the singles season-end ranking and 23 in the Top 25 of the doubles season-end ranking.

In the classroom, McInerney has recruited bright student-athletes. She has had four Academic All-Americans, 45 ITA Scholar-Athletes (since 2002), and 80 Academic All-Pac 12 student-athletes (since 1991). Of those 45 ITA Scholar-Athletes, four were named in 2015 – Alexandra Osborne, Aubria Solares, Gussie O'Sullivan and Cassidy Jump. Her players have had majors such as Bioscience, Business Management, Criminal Justice and Criminology, English, Journalism, Kinesiology, Marketing, Political Science, and Sociology.

McInerney has also been fundamental in helping players' development to reach high achievements in the NCAA. Among the achievements include Jacqueline Cako named Arizona State Female Athlete of the Year (2013), Michelle Brycki awarded Cissie Leary ITA National Sportsmanship Award (2012), Kelcy McKenna selected as the Pac-12 Post-Graduate Scholar (2011), four singles and four doubles All-Americans since 2009, 14 players ranked in the singles season-end ranking and seven doubles teams ranked in the doubles season-end ranking since 2009.

Prior to coming to Arizona State, McInerney served as assistant women's tennis coach at the University of Southern California during the 1983-84 season, in which the Trojans were NCAA finalists. In addition to her success as a collegiate coach, McInerney has traveled with various USTA junior and national teams. At the 1986 Goodwill Games, McInerney coached the team to gold and silver medals. In 1987, she led the U.S. Pan American Games doubles squad to a gold medal.

McInerney attended USC, where she captained the Trojans during her senior season. The four-time All-American also was a four-time Trojan Spirit Award winner, as voted by her teammates. The Trojans won three national championships during McInerney's collegiate career, and she was the national collegiate doubles runner-up three times and a singles semifinalist in 1977. McInerney collected a half-dozen USTA national titles and was a member of the 1977-80 USTA Junior Federation Cup team. As a professional, she played on the major international tour, earning a world ranking in the top 75. McInerney competed at three grand slam venues -- Wimbledon, French Open and the U.S. Open where she reached the round of 32. She also served a short term as assistant pro at the highly acclaimed L.A. Tennis Club.

McInerney earned a bachelor's degree in public relations from the University of Southern California in 1980. A member of the Dean's List at USC, she won the USC Postgraduate Scholarship Award, the USC Junior Student-Athlete and Senior Student-Athlete awards.

Staff

Matt Langley

Head coach Sheila McInerney announced in 2015 that Matt Langley would join the program as an assistant coach and in 2017, Langley was named associate head coach.

Langley joined the Sun Devils from Middle Tennessee State University, his alma mater, where he most recently served as assistant coach for its women's tennis program. At MTSU, Langley helped coach the Blue Raiders to one of their best seasons in program history, recording a 19-5 overall record, 7-1 in Conference USA competition.

A member of the MTSU men's tennis team from 2009-12, Langley was a two-year co-captain and three-time Sun Belt Conference Champion, earning two Most Outstanding Player honors at the Sun Belt Conference Championships. Langley also recorded three career appearances at the NCAA Championships.

Langley graduated from MTSU with a degree in exercise science, and was a two-time Academic All-

Nicole Hoynaski is a graduate student assistant for the Sun Devil women's tennis program and former tennis player for the Hawaii Pacific Sharks. While at HPU, was a top-30 finalist for the NCAA Woman of the Year Award. Hoynaski is originally from Sydney, Australia.

Lindy Kyger is the Sun Devils' athletic trainer. She joined ASU this past fall after graduating from the University of South Carolina with a degree in athletic training in 2017. Kryger was born in Pennsylvania, grew up in Massachusetts. She will graduate in 2019 with a master's in higher and post secondary education.
