ASU SOCCER GAME NOTES

QUICK KICKS...

• The Arizona State soccer team will begin the 2019 season with a pair of games this weekend, opening the season with a Thursday road game against Cal State Fullerton, before returning home to host Central Arkansas on Sunday evening.

• The Sun Devils will hit the pitch this season with a lot of confidence following a 2018 campaign that saw the squad tally double-digit wins for the first time since winning 12 matches in 2014. ASU finished tied for seventh in the league with five wins in conference play, the most wins for an ASU team since 2015, including a win over then-No. 22 Washington State on Oct. 18, 2018.

• Returning 19 players from his 2018 roster, including the team's top two goal scorers, Winkworth hopes to continue the growth of the program that finished with 16 total points in the Pac-12 standings and just narrowly missed an opportunity to compete in the NCAA Tournament. The hunt for what has been an illusive berth into the 64-team NCAA Tournament field will begin with a pair of important tests this weekend.

• Things will get started for the Sun Devils with a road match at Cal State Fullerton. Head coach Demian Brown returns for his 13th season as the Titans head coach, looking to guide his squad to their fifth Big West regular season championships having claimed the title in 2007, 2012, 2014 and 2015. He has also claimed five Big West Tournament championships earning that distinction in 2007, 2013, 2014, 2015 and 2017 leading to four NCAA Tournament appearances in the last six seasons.

• Following Thursday's game at Cal State Fullerton, ASU will return to Sun Devil Soccer Stadium for the first time in 2019, hosting Central Arkansas in an evening tilt in Tempe. A familiar foe to Winkworth, who served as an assistant coach at UCA for two seasons beginning in 2001. The Bears boast five players who were named to the preseason All-Southland Conference Team, including Connie Awuku-Darkoh and Hadley Dickinson who both earned first-team nods. Awuku-Darkoh returns as a staple to the Bears' offensive attack as the midfielder tallied 13 goals and three assists in her junior campaign in 2018. Her 13 goals helped lead the Bears to a program best 16 wins in 2018, an SLC title and an undefeated 9-0-1 home record.
