COACH'S CORNER

"It never gets old getting your name called on Selection Show Day," Assistant Coach Mikayla Tatman mentioned. "I'm very proud of this team and how they have positioned themselves all season to make a run in the postseason."

"We are quickly shifting our focus towards having a great week of preparation before heading back to Washington," Coach Tatman added. "This is a great site selection for us; we've already adjusted to the climate and will get the opportunity to compete on a terrific golf course against #1 in the nation. We aren't headed to Washington just to NEXT UP...

Sun Devil Women's Golf will head to Tumble Creek Club in Washington after being selected to the Cle Elum NCAA Regional, hosted by the University of Washington running May 6-8. This is the 31st consecutive year that Arizona State has qualified for a regional, doing so every time since the format was instituted. ASU has not missed a NCAA postseason since 1991. The program earned their 32nd straight NCAA postseason berth and will be making its 41st overall appearance. The Maroon & Gold will be the No. 3 seed in a regional that features No. 1 overall seed Stanford (Pac-12 Champ). The regional also includes No. 2 seed Duke, No. 4 Virginia, No. 5 San Jose State (MWC Champ), host school No. 6 Washington, No. 7 Alabama, No. 8 Virginia Tech, No. 9 Kansas, No. 10 Long Beach State (Big West Champ), No. 11 Sacramento State (Big Sky Champ), and No. 12 Seattle (WAC Champ).

BY THE NUMBERS

By virtue of their titles in 2009 and 2017, Arizona State is one of three programs to have won two NCAA Championships since 2009. They are joined on this exclusive list by Duke and Stanford.

Sun Devil Women's Golf has a total of eight NCAA Golf Championships, the most of any program in the nation.

ASU also has had six individuals win medalist honors at the NCAA Championship, the most of any school.

20

Arizona State has made 20 NCAA Women's Golf Championship appearances since 2000, one of only five programs to accomplish the feat.

A TRADITION LIKE NO OTHER

- During the past five decades, many of the premier amateur women's golfers have called Arizona State University home.
- Arizona State won its NCAA-leading eighth national championship title in 2017 to reinforce its standing as the premier women's golf school in the United States.
- Under legendary Head Coach Linda Vollstedt, the program became the first in women's collegiate golf to win six championships in a decade (1990, '93, '94, '95, '97, '98).
- ASU remains the lone program to ever capture three national titles in a row (1993, '94, '95).
- The Sun Devil Golf programs did something in 1990 that had never been done before and hasn't been accomplished since. ASU swept both the Men's and Women's Team National Titles in 1990, becoming the first school to capture both championships in the same year.

TEAM RANKING

- Clippd: 13
- WGCA (Coaches): 13 - as of May 3

PLAYER RANKINGS (CLIPPD)

- Ashley Menne: 47
- Grace Summerhays: 101
- Patience Rhodes: 107
- Beth Coulter: 111
- Paula Schulz-Hanssen: 168

LAST TIME OUT

- Sun Devil Women's Golf completed their final round in the last Pac-12 Championship, hosted at Palouse Ridge Golf Club.
- No. 12 Arizona State finished in seventh place among 11 teams in the first step of the postseason.
- Grace Summerhays led the way for the Sun Devils, shooting 71 (-1) to earn a Top-20 finish (T18th).
- Beth Coulter (T26th) also finished in the top half of a 55-golfer field. T
- The Maroon and Gold made a late push at the end, recording eight birdies over their final five holes after having just two through the first 13.

MCGUIRE INVITATIONAL

- Arizona State finished in third place in their return to the McGuire Invitational, beating out 13 teams in the initial event of the 2023-24 campaign.
- It was a balanced effort that helped the Sun Devils to an impressive performance over the two days, as four individuals finished in the Top-20.
- Ashley Menne led the way for the Maroon & Gold, appearing to be in midseason form on her way to a sixth place finish.
- Grace Summerhays put together a strong effort in order to tie for 14th.
- Patience Rhodes and Paula Schulz-Hanssen joined them in the Top-20, with the pair finishing tied for 17th.
- All six Sun Devils earned valuable experience that has proven to be critical for the rest of the 2023-24 season.

MASON RUDOLPH INVITATIONAL

- Arizona State (-13/851) finished in fourth place as a team after posting a 285 (-3), moving two spots up the leaderboard on the final day of the Mason Rudolph Invitational in September.
- The Maroon & Gold were the top finishing non-SEC team at the tournament played in the footprint of the league, as Coach Farr-Kaye's team proved to be able to handle the change in geography.
- The Mason Rudolph Invitational featured 11 teams ranked inside GOLF Channel's preseason Top-35 and ASU beat out seven of them this weekend.
- The Sun Devils were led by sophomore Paula Schulz-Hanssen, who was fantastic on her way to a Top-5 finish. She completed the Mason Rudolph Invitational at 209 (-7), capping the event with a 69 (-3) to move into a tie for fifth.
- She was joined by Beth Coulter (T16th) and Grace Summerhays (T20th) in the Top-20 of a loaded individual field.

WINDY CITY COLLEGIATE

- Sun Devil Women's Golf returned to the Windy City Collegiate Classic, playing three rounds in two days. Arizona State continued their ascent up the leaderboard, climbing an additional two spots thanks to a solid final round.
- Head Coach Missy Farr-Kaye's group shot a 288 (E) on the last day to move into a tie for 10th.
- The only teams to finish ahead of the Maroon & Gold other than host Northwestern entered the event in the Golfweek Top-30. Ashley Menne and Patience Rhodes led the way individually, each solidifying Top-20 finishes after carding a 70 (-2) in round three.

STANFORD INTERCOLLEGIATE

- Sun Devil Women's Golf completed the Fall portion of the 2023-24 campaign at the Stanford Intercollegiate.
- Arizona State finished in seventh place out of 19 teams in a loaded field at Stanford Golf Course.
- Ashley Menne led the way individually, earning a spot in the Top-25 among a field of 100 golfers.
- Patience Rhodes enjoyed the best day of any Sun Devil, firing a 69 (-2) to move 15 spots up the leaderboard and into the Top-30.

MATCH IN THE DESERT

- Arizona State (-9/279) put together a terrific score on the way to finishing in third place to open the Spring at the Match in the Desert.
- Ashley Menne led the way with an outstanding performance, carding a 66 (-6) on her way to earning second place at the 34-golfer event.
- Five in Maroon & Gold registered rounds at or under par which helped ASU finish with its third-lowest team score of the season.

REGIONAL CHALLENGE

- The final day of the Therese Hession Regional

OVERALL: 94-31-3

Challenge was cancelled due to rain.

- The tournament, which was originally scheduled for three stroke-play rounds from Feb. 4-6, was moved up a day due to the weather conditions. The format was also switched from traditional stroke-play to a bracket-style Match Play setup.
- Arizona State went 1-2 in their matches at the event, defeating No. 20 Pepperdine and falling to No. 8 Texas & No. 45 Ohio State.
- ASU took down the No. 20-ranked Waves in impressive fashion. The Maroon and Gold won 4.5 of the potential 5 points that were up for grabs thanks to four victories and one tie.

DUAL IN THE DESERT

- No. 23 Arizona State took down No. 50 Denver in the one-day, match play style event hosted by the Pioneers.
- Head Coach Missy Farr-Kaye's team took care of business, winning four of the six matches en route to their second match play victory of the season.
- ASU now possesses victories over two Top-50 teams in matches despite only having played in two events with the format.
- Calyne Rosholt was the first Sun Devil to secure a win, wrapping up her match on the 13th hole with an impressive 6&5 victory.
- Grace Summerhays followed shortly after with a win of her own, needing only 14 holes to clinch the victory.
- Patience Rhodes captured a win giving ASU the advantage in both Group 1 matches and a 3-0 lead overall.
- It was Beth Coulter's clutch 18th hole that sealed the deal for Arizona State, as she took home the victory in her match on the final hole.

DARIUS RUCKER INTERCOLLEGIATE

- Sun Devil Women's Golf won the 2024 Darius Rucker Intercollegiate at Long Cove Club in South Carolina earlier in the month of March.
- Featuring live coverage on GOLF Channel, the 2024 Darius Rucker Intercollegiate was considered one of the most prestigious events of the 2023-24 women's collegiate golf schedule.
- In a field containing three of the Top-5, six of the Top-10, and 11 of the Top-25 teams in the nation, No. 19 Arizona State emerged victorious.
- It was a total team effort that led the Sun Devils (+3/855) past No. 11 Northwestern, as several individuals stepped up under pressure to help ASU secure the victory.
- Clutch holes down the stretch from Grace Summerhays, Patience Rhodes, and Beth Coulter allowed Arizona State to clinch their first team title since the 2022 PING/ASU Invitational.
- Five of the Top-10, 10 of the Top-25, and 22 of the Top-50 golfers in the nation were competing for the individual crown at Long Cove. Grace Summerhays finished tied for seventh in the deep and talented field, battling some of the sport's most recognizable names for top positioning on the leaderboard.

- Patience Rhodes and Beth Coulter each tied for 12th, which put them ahead of seven of the Top-25 golfers in the nation

DR. DONNIS THOMPSON

- Arizona State (-42/822) won the Dr. Donnis Thompson Invitational team championship while Ashley Menne claimed the individual title, both in record-breaking fashion.
- Head Coach Missy Farr-Kaye's team shattered the program record for 54-hole scoring vs. par by an incredible 17 strokes, eclipsing the previous mark of 25-under set back in 2022.
- Ashley Menne (-14/202) now has the best 54-hole score vs. par in the history of Sun Devil Women's Golf, breaking Brandie Burton's 35-year-old record.
- The Maroon and Gold won their 18th team championship and Ashley Menne became the 16th individual champion during the Missy Farr-Kaye era.
- It was a complete effort by the entire lineup from start to finish with Arizona State recording the lowest round each of the three days.
- Four of the Top-10 and three of the Top-5 finishers were Sun Devils, as Coach Farr-Kaye's team dominated the event. Finishing right behind Ashley Menne was Patience Rhodes (-11/205), who earned bronze medalist honors. Her 11-under 54-hole score vs. par is tied for the third-best in program history.
- Also in the Top-5 for the second-time in her career was Beth Coulter (-9/207), as she ended in fifth. Paula Schulz-Hanssen (-8/208) claimed sole possession of sixth-place, meaning four of the Top-6 finishers were Sun Devils.

PING/ASU INVITATIONAL

- Sun Devil Women's Golf ended the 2024 PING/ASU Invitational strong, moving up the leaderboard on the final day at Papago Golf Club.
- No. 13 Arizona State (-8/856) finished with the best round of the day allowing them to jump six spots into a tie for second. The PING/ASU Invitational runner-up results is another impressive performance for Head Coach Missy Farr-Kaye's team, as the field featured eight Top-15 teams.
- The Maroon & Gold only trailed PING/ASU Invitational Team Champions No. 11 Northwestern by three strokes as they leap-frogged several teams thanks to a fantastic effort on Saturday. ASU finished ahead of No. 1 Stanford, No. 6 USC, No. 7 Texas, and No. 12 Oregon, while matching No. 4 UCLA's second-place outcome.
- Two Sun Devils finished in the Top-10 of the individual race, as both Ashley Menne (-3/213) and Grace Summerhays (-3/213) tied for ninth. The duo used rounds in the 60s to make a major move up the standings, as Summerhays' 68 (-4) was the second-best score of the day with Menne following behind with a 69 (-3).
