SCOUTING THE OWLS...

Kennesaw State Head Coach Laura Maness enters her third season at the helm of the program that began in 2013. The Owls have enjoyed the two winningest seasons in the young program's history during Maness' tenure. She wrapped up the 2017 season, her first in charge, with a program-high eight wins. The Owls then followed it up the next season with a seven-win campaign, putting together the school's first winning season in conference play. The Owls boast both the Atlantic Sun Preseason Player of the Year and the Defensive Player of the Year. Freshman sensation Siena Gore received top recognition in the conference, returning for her sophomore season after bursting onto the scene by putting up 70 goals. Defender Maura Palandro started all 18 games last season, leading a defensive backline that allowed an average of 13.57 goals per game, the lowest average in KSU single-season history.

2019 SCHEDULE PREVIEW...

There will be plenty of opportunities to see the 2019 Sun Devils as they open up the season with five consecutive home games and host ten games overall, all of which will take place at Sun Devil Soccer/Lacrosse Stadium. In total, Arizona State's 17-game schedule includes 10 Pac-12 Conference games and seven non-conference games. The Sun Devils will square off with three teams that begin the season ranked in the Preseason Top 25 Coaches' Poll. Four contests will air live on Pac-12 Network, including both matchups with No. 18 Colorado. The season culminates with the 2019 Pac-12 Lacrosse Championship, hosted in Eugene by the University of Oregon.

LAST TIME OUT...

The Owls and Sun Devils matched up a season ago in Kennesaw. The contest represent the first at the Division I level for the Arizona State Lacrosse Program. Attacker Graci Fulkerson scored the program's first-ever goal, coming just 45 seconds into the game. Coach Martinez Connor's squad would take a 6-4 lead into half, 30 minutes away from capturing the monumental victory. Attacker Kerri Clayton took over in the second half, scoring five of her seven goals after halftime as the Sun Devils cruised to a 14-6 triumph. For her efforts, Clayton received Inside Lacrosse's Alpha Lacrosse Player of the Week on Feb. 14 as voted on by lacrosse fans across the country. Goalkeeper Berkeley Bonneau earned the win after playing all 60 minutes in net, totaling 10 saves, the first of nine double-digit save efforts for her in 2018.

HEAD COACH

SECOND SEASON

MARYLAND '01

Guiding the Sun Devil Lacrosse program through its inaugural Division I season, Coach Martinez Connor helped the Sun Devils enjoy one of the most successful inaugural seasons in NCAA history. In the season opener, Arizona State picked up the program's first-ever victory, an 18-8 road triumph against Kennesaw State. The Sun Devils started the season 5-1, highlighted by a come-from-behind win over Columbia, a game the Sun Devils trailed 4-0 and 7-1 at one point. The most significant result of the season came when ASU traveled to Berkeley to take on conference foe Cal. Despite trailing 6-2 in the first half, the Sun Devils would not quit, tying the game at 11 before the end of regulation to force overtime. Emily Glagolev would come through with the clutch, game-winning goal in overtime would give that would give the the program its first Pac-12 Conference victory.

Under Coach Martinez Connor's tutelage, several Sun Devil Lacrosse student-athletes enjoyed breakout seasons. Sun Devil Lacrosse co-captain Kerri Clayton nabbed Second Team All-Pac-12 honors after an outstanding first season in Tempe. Clayton finished with 59 points, compiling 44 goals and 15 assists. Her 2.59 goals per game average placed her fourth in the conference while her 3.47 points per game was good enough for fifth. She recorded two game-winning goals, tying for the team-lead with Maddy Hunter. Clayton put her name in the Sun Devil record books the very first weekend of the season, scoring a program record seven goals in the team's first win over Kennesaw State on Feb. 9. The junior added five goals and two assists the very next game against Stetson on Feb. 11 to cement her name at the top. For that weekend's performance Clayton was named Inside Lacrosse's Alpha Lacrosse Player of the Week on Feb. 14 as voted on by lacrosse fans across the country, the first National Player of the Week honor for the program.

The Sun Devils captured five non-conference victories, two of which came by double-digits (Manhattan, Presbyterian). The Arizona State offense clicked in the non-conference, scoring 103 goals in six games (17.2 goals/game). Competing as the six seed at their first-ever Pac-12 Tournament, Arizona State saw freshman midfielder Maria Vallanti be named to the 2018 Pac-12 Women's Lacrosse All-Tournament Team after scoring a pair of goals against USC. In total, 2,530 fans attended Sun Devil Lacrosse home games, for a Pac-12 best average crowd of 361 fans per game. The team got it done off the field as well as on it, as Coach Martinez Connor continues to stress the importance of academics. Arizona State placed a pair of student-athletes (Sydney Bosmans, Rachel Gregory) on the IWLCA All-Academic Team, honoring those with a cumulative GPA of 3.50 or higher. Five different Sun Devils earned Pac-12 All-Academic honors, led by Sydney Bosmans, who received Second Team honors.

Courtney Martinez Connor was named the first head coach for Arizona State's varsity women's lacrosse program, Vice President for University Athletics Ray Anderson announced in Nov. 2015. Martinez Connor, a gifted lacrosse student-athlete and standout collegiate coach, is building the foundation of Sun Devil Athletics' 25th varsity sport.
