The Block Queen Naghede Abu

Senior Naghede Abu put down her 500th career block against Oregon State, becoming just the second player in school history to reach the milestone. Abu now holds every record in the rally scoring era from total blocks to solo blocks.

There is only one more record to hit, and the block queen is 65 away from the feat. Abu trails only Meghan Barkman (1999-02) who had 565 blocks in her career.

With 11 games under her belt this season Abu has averaged 4.7 block per match, which with 12 matches remaining means she is on pace for 56 more blocks. The senior needs to average 5.4 blocks per match to reach the goal, or around 11 blocks a weekend like she had this past weekend against Oregon and Oregon State.

In her career Abu averages 4.7 blocks per match, with the best average coming her sophomore season at 5.1. Her greatest 12-match block total is 73 which happened her sophomore season after her career-high 15 blocks. Without that outlire her best 12 games is 66, also in her sophomore season.

Bufs Head to Arizona Looking to Even Conference Play

BOULDER – The University of Colorado women's volleyball team finds themselves a pair of games below .500 in conference play as the team heads to Arizona this weekend for a matchup with Arizona at 8 p.m. Friday in Tucson, Arizona, and a matchup Sunday against Arizona State at 3 p.m. in Tempe.

This situation is familiar to the Bufs as they were in a similar situation last season on their way to Arizona. The Bufs last season were 2-4 in conference play when they went to Arizona. CU won both games on the road and sparked a 7-1 run in conference play last season. This season the Bufs are 3-5 and look to pull even in conference play as the conference season wraps up the first half of play.

CU is a team led by the leadership of upperclassmen, all of which continue to shine as the season ages. The senior captain Alexa Smith continues to lead the team in kills with 261 and digs with 195, though some of the pressure has come off her shoulders lately. Naghede Abu, who posted her 500th career block this past weekend, led the team against the Oregon schools with a combined 26 kills. On the other side, junior Rachel Whipple stepped up with 38 digs to jump into a tie with Smith at 195 this season.

The signs that the Bufs are improving are clear to see, especially after this past weekend when three CU players posted huge career-highs. Abu led the charge with a career-high in kills against #14 Oregon with 17. She also tied her points record with 20.5, a record that dates back to her sophomore season. The other kills career-high came from Anyse Smith who hit a team-high 18 kills against Oregon. Her 4.5 kills per set is the second-highest mark she has achieved.

The final record came from Whipple, who shattered her career-high in digs by six with 25. This is the first time in her career she has averaged more than six digs per set.

The Bufs are middle of the pack in the conference in most statistical categories, with the peak coming as the fourth-best team in the conference in blocks per set at 2.47. The team also is fifth in hitting percentage (.246) and kills (960) as well as total blocks (178). Those equate to the Bufs being top-50 in the nation in blocks per set and hitting percentage.

SCOUTING ARIZONA:

The Wildcats are one of the strongest hitting team in the nation with 14.3 kills per set, the 12th-best mark in the nation. Arizona started the season off with an eight-match win streak and entered conference play 11-1 with the lone loss a five-set loss to New Mexico State on the road. As of recent, No.25 Arizona has lost its last four matches against four ranked teams in Washington, Washington State, USC and UCLA. The Wildcats have not won a match in October.

Kendra Dahlke leads the conference in attacks per set and is fourth in the nation with more than 13 swings per set. She also leads the conference with more than five kills per set and is third in the nation in that category. The setter Julia Patterson leads the conference with the most assists at 821. Middle Devyn Cross leads the team with 79 total blocks, more than the next two Wildcats combined.

Arizona has been struggling with injuries, as Dahlke was out Sunday against USC after suffering a concussion against UCLA. Another outside, Elizabeth Shelton has missed eight-straight matches with a concussion.

SCOUTING ARIZONA STATE:

Arizona State has been one of the streakiest teams in the conference this season. The Sun Devils have swept ranked opponents Washington and Oregon as well as Oregon State, then on the other hand were swept by Arizona, Washington State and UCLA. The Sun Devils have a similar opponent in Wyoming, who they lost to in four sets in Laramie. The last time the Sun Devils were home they swept No.15 Washington.

The Sun Devils are second in the conference in digs per set and opponent hitting percentage. Much of that is due

HEAD COACH JESSE MAHONEY

Jesse Mahoney was named the fifth head volleyball coach in University of Colorado history on December 17, 2015. In his two seasons at the helm, he has led the Buffs to a 38-26 mark (.594).

Mahoney's second season saw Colorado return to the NCAA Tournament and advance to the sweet 16 round for the first time in 20 years. The Buffs recorded a 24-10 overall record, which was the third best win total for CU since becoming a varsity program. Colorado also earned a 12-8 mark in Pac-12 play, the most conference wins since becoming members of the league. CU finished tied for fifth in the Pac-12 standings.

The Buffs started the season off with a 10-1 record in non-conference action, which included wins at Illinois (3-2) and No. 22 Colorado State (3-2). The win at CSU was the first for CU since 1995. During the Pac-12 slate, CU recorded four wins against ranked opponents, which included a season sweep of Oregon, which was ranked 12th and 15th, respectively when the Buffs faced the Ducks. CU also picked up its first ever win against No. 19 Southern California, and defeated No. 11 Washington, both 3-0 in Boulder.

After finishing the regular season with a 22-9 record, the Buffs earned an at-large bid to the NCAA Tournament. CU swept its competition, first downing James Madison before knocking out the host, No. 17 Baylor, for CU's first-ever true road match in the NCAA Tournament. The Buffs eventually fell to No. 5 Nebraska, the 2017 NCAA Champion, to finish the season. CU was ranked 19th in the final AVCA Coaches Poll of the season.

In addition to the team's success, several Buffs had outstanding individual seasons. Junior outside hitter Alexa Smith became CU's first AVCA Second Team All-American and was also named to the AVCA All-Pacific South Region and All-Pac-12 Teams.

Freshman setter Brynna DeLuzio had one of the best freshman seasons for a Buff, earning AVCA All-America honorable mention honors in addition to the Volleyball-Mag.Com All-Freshman Team and PrepVolleyball.Com All-Freshman Second Team. DeLuzio was the first Buff to earn the AVCA Pacific South Region Freshman of the Year award and was also selected to the AVCA all-region honorable mention team. She was a Pac-12 All-Freshman Team honoree and earned All-Pac-12 honorable mention honors.

Three other Buffs earned All-Pac-12 honorable mention status: junior middle blocker Naghede Abu, senior right side hitter Joslyn Hayes and junior outside hitter Frankie Shebby.

In his first season (2016) at the helm of the Buffaloes, CU saw its share of success, recording a 14-16 overall record. The Buffs also earned a ninth place finish in the Pac-12 with a 6-14 match. CU finished its non-conference slate with an 8-2 record, which included several huge wins. The Buffs recorded back-to-back wins against ranked opponents for the first time in school history when they took down No. 13 Penn State and No. 17 Illinois at the Pac-12/Big Ten Challenge. Colorado also earned its first win against Colorado State since 2002, defeating the Rams 3-1.

During the Pac-12 schedule, CU knocked off three more ranked opponents. The Buffs recorded a huge 3-1 win over No. 12 UCLA in the 400th match at Coors Events Center. The other wins came on the road. The Buffs knocked off No. 13 Washington State in Pullman, Wash., which was the Cougars first home loss of the season, and took down No. 17 Utah in the final contest of the season in Salt Lake City.

The Buffs were ranked five weeks and were ranked as high as 16th. After they dropped out of the poll, they were still receiving votes for an additional five weeks.

Several individual Buffs earned recognition during the season, most notably Gabby Simpson who was named to the AVCA All-Pacific South honorable mention team after she was selected to the All-Pac-12 honorable mention team. Simpson was joined on the all-conference team by Abu and Smith.

Academically, Mahoney has seen several Buffs earn Pac-12 All-Academic honors. In 2017, Stephanie Shadley was named to the second team for the second time, while Abu, Anna Pfefferle, Smith and Rachel Whipple were honorable mention selections. In 2016, five Buffs were named to the academic teams: Abu, Pfefferle, Shadley, Cierra Simpson and Gabby Simpson.

Mahoney is no stranger to the University of Colorado, having earning a bachelor's degree in Psychology in 1995 and a Juris Doctorate degree from CU's Law School in 1999. He is married to the former Gwen McEntyre and the couple has three children: Macy, Griffin and Declan.
