THE OPENING KICKOFF

• Stanford heads on the road for a Friday night showdown at No. 22/25 Arizona State. Both teams are coming off wins over ranked opponents. Stanford defeated No. 3 Oregon, 31-24, in overtime, while Arizona State won at No. 20 UCLA, 42-23, on Saturday night.

• Stanford is one of four programs (joined by Alabama, Arkansas and Georgia) with multiple wins over Top-15 teams so far this season. The Cardinal defeated No. 14 USC on Sept. 11 before last week's win over the No. 3 Ducks.

• Friday night marks Stanford's third consecutive game against a ranked opponent. The last time Stanford played ranked opponents in three straight games was the last three games of the 2017 season. The last time it happened in the regular season was in 2012 (Nov. 10 vs. #13 Oregon State; Nov. 17 at #1 Oregon; Nov. 24 at #15 UCLA).

• Saturday's win over No. 3 Oregon was Stanford's fifth victory over a Top-5 team under David Shaw and its fourth win over a Top-3 team.

• Shaw, who is in his 11th season, has 29 wins vs. Top 25 opponents, 17 wins over teams in the Top 15 and 11 wins against teams inside the Top 10.

• Stanford has now defeated Oregon four times when the Ducks were ranked inside the Top 5, including three times under Shaw.

• The Cardinal has won four straight games over AP Top-3 teams, the longest active streak in the FBS.

• Stanford improved to 7-5 in overtime games in program history and has won three straight. The Cardinal is 4-0 all-time in overtime games against Oregon, defeating the Ducks in extra sessions in 2021, 2018, 2012 and 1996.

• David Shaw is now 93-39 in his head coaching career, tied for the 10th-most wins all-time among Pac-12 coaches. He is 64-26 in Pac-12 regular season wins, tied for the sixth-most league wins in conference history.

• Since the start of the 2010 season, Stanford is 54-14 (.794) at Stanford Stadium.

• Stanford improved to 80-7 under Shaw on Saturday night when leading at halftime. By comparison, the Cardinal is 9-27 when trailing at the half.

• Stanford is 34-0 when scoring 40-or-more points under Shaw and 82-18 when allowing fewer than 30 points.

MEDIA POLICIES

Stanford University is constantly monitoring public health guidelines and adjusting its policies to reflect the latest guidance from the CDC, State of California and Santa Clara County. At this time, the Stanford Athletic Communications office is planning to welcome media back to Stanford Stadium with no capacity restrictions. Stanford Athletics understands the importance of assisting the media in providing coverage of the institution, its athletics programs, administrators, coaches and student-athletes. Our goal is to disseminate information as widely, uniformly and fairly as possible using normally accepted media standards. To this end, the best attempt will be made to fill reasonable requests by recognized media outlets, however, the Stanford Stadium pressbox and work spaces have limited seating and not all requests may be met for all games. Members of the media are encouraged to work with the Stanford Athletic Communications staff to assist in that endeavor. It is not permissible for media members to contact any athletics department administrator, associate, coach or student-athlete directly without working through the communications department.

CONTENT & WORKPLACE POLICIES

1. Video clips of in-game competition, live or otherwise, online or via social media networks are not permitted. Still photos may be shared online and across social platforms during the game.
2. Any non-editorial or commercial use of any picture, audio, film, tape, or digital image or drawing of the event is prohibited without prior, specific, written authorization from the host institution.
3. Internet usage in all media areas, including media work areas, stadium pressbox, digital work room and the field, is for work-related purposes only. Media members who do not follow the proper internet procedures may have their credentials and internet access revoked for the remainder of the event.
4. Media should respect the work environment of their colleagues by maintaining a quiet and professional atmosphere in all working media areas. The press box will close two hours after the conclusion of the game.

FIELD ACCESS & SIDELINE POLICY

Field access is limited to photographers, videographers and sideline reporters whose job function requires them to work from field level. Print media, and anyone working out of the press box, will only be permitted on the field for the final five minutes of games during the 2021 season. There is no pregame access and no interviews should be conducted on the field.

1. Photo credentials will be issued only to accredited media outlets prior to the game and photo identification must be provided.
2. Photographers and videographers must check in at media will call located at Gate 8 of the stadium. Those photographers and videographers who will work on the sidelines will be issued a photo vest. This photo vest must be worn at all times to gain access to the sidelines. Vests must be returned after the game at the on-field dropoff location situated next to the south endzone tunnel.
3. Only working photographers and videographers with professional-grade cameras will be allowed on the field. Those without proper equipment or not shooting the game will be escorted from the sidelines regardless of credential.
4. Working photographers and videographers are permitted to shoot in the designated area (between the two marked dotted lines outside the 20-yard lines and behind the end zone).
5. Photographers are encouraged to use the photo work areas, located on Level 3 of Stanford Stadium and the media room on Level 2 of the fieldhouse. Wireless internet is available. While security in this area is provided, Stanford University is not responsible for the loss of any items.
6. According to NCAA policies, the presence of any type of photographer and videographer in the bench area for all sports is strictly prohibited with the exception of one (1) institutional videographer in the football bench area. According to the NCAA Football Rules and Interpretations Manual (Rule 1, Section 2, Article 4b): "the team area shall be limited to squad members in uniform and a maximum of 40 other individuals directly involved in the game. The 40 individuals not in uniform shall wear special identification." (Rule 1, Section 2, Article 4e): "No media personnel, including journalists, radio and television personnel, or their equipment, shall be in the team area or coaching box, and no media personnel shall communicate in any way with persons in the team area or coaching box." Stanford Athletics prohibits photographers and videographers from stopping and shooting from behind the bench area or into the bench area.

GAME NOTES

THE MATCHUP

- Stanford and Arizona State meet for the 33rd time on Friday night, but the first time since 2018.
- The Cardinal has won the last two meetings, and six of the last seven.
- Stanford is 4-1 against Arizona State under David Shaw.

HEAD COACH DAVID SHAW

- Bradford M. Freeman Director of Football David Shaw '94 owns a career record of 93-38 (.710) overall and a mark of 64-26 (.711) against Pac-12 foes.
- Shaw's 93 wins are the most in school history, as he surpassed the legendary Pop Warner (71 wins) during the 2017 season.
- Shaw owns a 29-21 (.580) record against AP Top 25 programs. Of Shaw's 29 wins against ranked foes, 17 of them have come against Top-15 opponents and 11 of those have been against teams ranked in the Top 10.
- Stanford has defeated multiple Top-15 opponents in five of Shaw's 11 seasons. In addition to this season, Stanford has defeated multiple Top-15 teams in 2012, 2013, 2015 and 2017 under Shaw.
- Saturday's win over No. 3 Oregon marked Shaw's fifth Top-5 win and fourth Top-3 victory.
- Stanford has defeated a Top-20 opponent on the road in eight of Shaw's 11 seasons.
- Shaw is one of seven active coaches in the country who is the winningest head coach at his current school. He is joined by North Carolina's Mack Brown, Northwestern's Pat Fitzgerald, Iowa's Kirk Ferentz, Navy's Ken Niumatalolo, Oklahoma State's Mike Gundy and TCU's Gary Patterson
- Shaw is the only four-time Pac-12 Coach of the Year in conference history (dating back to 1975).
- Shaw's 93 wins are currently the 10th-most in Pac-12 history and his 64 conference wins are tied for sixth-most in Pac-12 history.

BLACK LEADERSHIP

- Stanford is one of four Power Five schools with a Black head football coach (David Shaw) and athletic director (Bernard Muir), joined by Arizona State, Maryland and Michigan State.
- Stanford is one of two FBS schools to have had three Black head football coaches, joined by Colorado. Shaw (11th season) was preceded by Dennis Green (1989-91) and Tyrone Willingham (1995-01) for a combined 21 seasons in the last 34. Colorado's three Black head coaches have combined for five seasons.
- David Shaw is the longest tenured Black head coach (11th season) at one school in FBS history.
- Shaw's 93 wins are the most by a Power Five Black head coach in NCAA history.
- Willie and David Shaw form the only father-son pairing of Black coaches who held coordinator roles at the same Power 5 school.
- Stanford hired the Pac-12's first and second Black coaches in Green (1989) and Willingham (1995). The third came eight years later (Karl Dorrell, UCLA, 2003).
- Athletic director Bernard Muir is the second-longest tenured black AD in the country behind Ohio State's Gene Smith. Last July, Muir was appointed to the executive committee of the Black AD Alliance, whose mission is to grow, develop and elevate Black athletics administrators at the Division I level while partnering with NCAA senior leadership and the Minority Opportunities Athletic Association.

THE IMPORTANCE OF A GOOD START

- Stanford jumped out to a 17-7 halftime lead on Saturday over No. 3 Oregon.
- A quick start is important for the Cardinal, as they are 80-7 under David Shaw when leading at halftime, compared to 9-27 when trailing at halftime. Stanford is also 4-4 when tied at the half.
- Stanford is 3-0 this season when leading at half.

MCKEE MAGIC

- David Shaw named QB Tanner McKee the starter prior to the victory at USC, and the sophomore has quickly taken control of the Cardinal offense.
- McKee is 3-1 in his first four starts with two victories over Top-15 opponents.
- McKee has completed 74-of-120 (61.7%) for 975 yards and 10 touchdowns. He has also added two rushing touchdowns, totaling three TDs in each of his first four starts.
- On the season, McKee is 89-of-138 (64.5%) for 1,093 yards, 11 passing touchdowns and no interceptions. He has 13 total touchdowns.
- McKee is one of three quarterbacks nationally with at least 10 touchdowns and no interceptions. Liberty's Malik Willis also has 11 TDs while Ole Miss' Matt Corral has 10.
- McKee was ranked as the No. 4 quarterback in the Class of 2018 by 247Sports. He served a two-year LDS mission in Brazil prior to enrolling at Stanford.
- McKee was ranked behind Trevor Lawrence (Clemson), Justin Fields (Georgia then Ohio State) and J.T. Daniels (USC then Georgia).
- McKee's 975 passing yards in his first four career starts in tied with Daniels for the most amongst the Top 4 QBs in the Class of 2018.
- McKee's 10 passing touchdowns are second behind Fields' 13, while his 12 total touchdowns are second behind Fields' 19.
- In McKee's first four starts, he faced three ranked teams, going 2-1 in those contests. By comparison, Lawrence played just one ranked opponent (1-0), Fields none and Daniels two (0-2).

FIRST FOUR CAREER STARTS

	PASSING	RUSHING	TOTAL TD
PLAYER	C-A-Y-TD-INT	ATT-YDS PASS/RUSH
TANNER MCKEE ...	74-120-975-10-0.....	24-72	10/2
Trevor Lawrence	76-116-890-7-0	16-14	7/0
Justin Fields.....	66-95-880-13-0	35-160	13/6
J.T. Daniels.....	74-120-975-4-3	19-(-60).....	4/0

- In McKee's four starts, Stanford's offense is averaging 34.5 points per game, 6.48 yards per play (1,511 yards on 234 plays) and 13.2 yards per completion (975 yards on 74 completions).
- McKee is the first freshman quarterback to defeat a top 5 team since true freshman Bo Nix led No. 15 Auburn to a 48-45 victory over No. 5 Alabama on Nov. 30, 2019.
- McKee was the first Pac-12 QB since Tavita Pritchard in 2007 to defeat a ranked opponent on the road in his first career start.

LDS MISSIONS PRIOR TO STANFORD

- Stanford has six student-athletes who served two-year LDS missions prior to enrolling. In addition to McKee: junior ILB Levani Damuni (New Zealand), fifth-year FB Houston Heimuli (Indianapolis), junior ILB Spencer Jorgensen (Thailand), senior OLB Tangaloa Kaufusi (Taiwan) and fifth-year OLB Gabe Reid (American Samoa).

RED ZONE IMPROVEMENT

- Stanford significantly improved its red-zone scoring production from 2019 to 2020, and that trend has continued into 2021.
- After just one red zone trip in week one, the Cardinal offense has reached the red zone 16 times in the last four games. Stanford has reached the red zone 15 total times in its three wins, as compared to just one time each in its two losses.
- On the season, Stanford has scored 16-of-17 times in the red zone, with 14 of those being touchdowns.
- In 2020, Stanford converted 21-of-27 red zone trips into touchdowns, compared to just 16-of-34 trips during the 2019 season.

RED ZONE SCORING TRENDS

YEAR	PPG	RZ TD %	RZ SCORE %
2019	21.7	16-34 (47%)	30-34 (88%)
2020	29.3	21-27 (78%)	24-27 (89%)

#TUNNELWORKERSUNION

- A unit that was hit hard by injuries in 2019 led to early on-field experience for the Cardinal offensive line. That experience began to pay dividends during the 2020 season and should continue to be a strength for Stanford during the course of the 2021 season.
- Stanford's starting offensive line features four juniors and a sophomore who have combined to make 63 career starts.
- Under new offensive line coach Terry Heffernan, the Cardinal has broken in two new starters in 2021 with center Drake Nugent and right tackle Myles Hinton.
- The Cardinal started the same five in each of the season's first four games, with Jake Hornibrook starting at right guard against Oregon as Branson Bragg missed the game. The offensive line by career starts: LT Walter Rouse (22), LG Barrett Miller (19), C Nugent (5), RG Branson Bragg (11)/Jake Hornibrook (7) and RT Hinton (5).
- The Cardinal offensive line, by major: Rouse (Biomechanical Engineering), Miller (Mechanical Engineering), Nugent (Science, Technology and Society), Bragg (Mathematical and Computational Sciences)/Hornibrook (Science, Technology and Society) and Hinton (sophomore, planning to study Human Biology).

FIRST TIME STARTERS

- So far in 2021, 15 Cardinal have made their first career starts.
- On the offensive side of the ball, RT Myles Hinton, WR John Humphreys, C Drake Nugent and TE Benjamin Yurosek started vs. K-State, while QB Tanner McKee and RB E.J. Smith started at USC. WR Bryce Farrell made his first career start at Vanderbilt and RB Nathaniel Peat made his first career start vs. UCLA.
- On the defensive side of the ball, DE Ryan Johnson and DT Tobin Phillips started vs. K-State while DB Jimmy Wyrick started at nickelback at USC. Against UCLA, both FS Alaka'i Gilman and CB Jaden Slocum made their first career starts. ILB Jacob Mangum-Farrar and CB Nicolas Toomer started against Oregon.

GAME NOTES

BOOKER BACK FOR MORE

- Senior captain Thomas Booker opted to return for his final year at Stanford as he pursues a double major in economics and communication.
- Booker tallied six tackle and a QB hurry in a win over No. 3 Oregon.
- For his career he now has 128 career tackles, 18 TFL, 10 sacks, seven passes defended, two fumble recoveries, one forced fumble and two blocked kicks.
- Booker blocked an extra point in back-to-back games (at Cal, at UW) last season, becoming the first Cardinal to block a placekick in back-to-back games since Gordon Banks in 1979. Before Booker, the last Pac-12 players with two blocked PATs in a season were Utah's Daniel Nelson and Oregon State's Mana Rosa, both in 2013.
- Booker was named a CoSIDA first team Academic All-American in 2020, in addition to garnering All-Pac-12 first team honors at the special teams spot and second team for his play on the defensive line.
- In 2020, Booker played a key role in founding CardinalBLACK (Brilliance, Leadership, Community and Knowledge), designed to provide a safe space for Black student-athletes to connect, share, and foster a meaningful community that will support them long after their undergraduate experience is over. Fueled by the power of its collective voices, CardinalBLACK strives to empower Black student-athletes to use their influence in positive ways.

THE CAPTAINS

A WELCOME SIGHT AT LINEBACKER

- Stanford's linebackers were hit hard by injury in both 2019 and 2020, especially at inside linebacker.
- Senior ILB Jacob Mangum-Farrar made his season debut at USC on Sept. 11, returning from injury for the first time since 2019, when he suffered a season-ending setback at USC. He missed the entire 2020 season. Mangum-Farrar made his first career start on Saturday against Oregon.
- Fellow senior ILB Ricky Miezán was also injured in that 2019 game at the Coliseum. He played in just one game in 2020, suffering a season-ending injury for the second straight season in the season opener at Oregon last season. Miezán has started four of five games so far this season.
- The eight LBs listed on the depth chart combined to play in only 58 games and make just 22 starts in 2019-20. Three of them (Tangaloa Kaufusi, Mangum-Farrar, Tristan Sinclair) missed the entire 2020 season.

TREMAINE A FIRST-DOWN MACHINE

- Senior WR Brycen Tremayne began his career as a walk-on and earned a scholarship prior to the 2019 season. He suffered an injury Saturday vs. Oregon.
- Through five games, Tremayne had 20 receptions for 245 yards and five touchdowns, one in each game.
- For his career, Tremayne has 37 catches, 26 of which have gone for touchdowns (8) or first downs (18).

THE RECEIVING THREATS

- With Tremayne sidelined, the Cardinal will look to junior Elijah Higgins and sophomore John Humphreys to lead the way at receiver.
- Higgins leads Stanford with 23 catches for 271 yards and three touchdowns. He caught his first career touchdown at USC and has one in each of the last two games.
- On Saturday in the win over Oregon, Higgins had a career-best six catches for 62 yards, including the game-tying touchdown on the final play of regulation.
- Against UCLA, Higgins notched his first career 100-yard game, with five receptions for 102 yards. He had a career-long 56-yard touchdown reception.
- Sophomore John Humphreys caught the game-winning touchdown on Saturday, the first score of his career.
- Humphreys has 13 catches for 205 yards and a touchdown so far this season.
- Stanford uses tight end Benjamin Yurosek in the passing game, as the sophomore has totaled 10 catches for 128 yards thus far. He missed the game at UCLA, but had three big catches for 41 yards in the win over Oregon.

THE STANFORD TREES

- Led by 6-foot-6 quarterback Tanner McKee, the Cardinal offense features height across the board.
- Stanford's three leading active receivers are Elijah Higgins (6-foot-3), John Humphreys (6-foot-5) and starting tight end Benjamin Yurosek (6-foot-5).
- Across the offensive line, four of Stanford's five starters are 6-foot-5 or taller.

PLAYMAKING RUNNING BACKS

- Stanford's running backs room features four dynamic playmakers. After playing UCLA with just one healthy, scholarship running back (Peat), the Cardinal welcomed back both junior Austin Jones and sophomore Casey Filkins on Saturday for the win over Oregon.
- Peat made his first career start against UCLA and started once again vs. Oregon.
- Peat tallied a career-high 15 rushes and finished with 78 rushing yards. He totaled 115 all-purpose yards in the win.
- On the season, Peat leads Stanford with 271 rushing yards (6.8 ypc) and has two rushing touchdowns.
- Jones, who started the first three games of the season, has 36 carries for 151 yards. He totaled nine rushing touchdowns in six games in 2020, but has yet to reach payday in 2021.
- Sophomore Casey Filkins returned and was used primarily in the punt return game. On the year, Filkins has 41 rushing yards, six receiving yards and 100 punt return yards on seven attempts.
- Sophomore E.J. Smith scored his first career touchdown against Vanderbilt, but was injured on the play and has missed the last two games..

KYU, KYU, I'M KYU

- Junior CB Kyu Blu Kelly has excelled so far in 2021, totaling 26 tackles, seven pass breakups and two interceptions. His nine passes defended lead the Pac-12 and are fourth-most nationally.
- He was named Pac-12 Defensive Player of the Week following a win at USC, where he held Drake London to four catches on 10 targets, and finished with seven tackles, three pass breakups and a pick six. It was Stanford's first interception returned for a touchdown since Nov. 4, 2017.
- The pick six was special for Kelly, whose dad shined at USC before an NFL career.
- Against K-State, Kelly kicked inside to cover the slot and had the highest-graded game of his career, according to Pro Football Focus. He played 29 snaps in the slot, with zero yards allowed.
- Kelly's interceptions in back-to-back games to begin the season marked the first time a Cardinal has had interceptions in consecutive games since Paulson Adebo had three in a two-game stretch in 2019.

ROTATING SECONDARY

- Through five games, Stanford has started nine different players in the secondary.
- CB Kyu Blu Kelly and SS Kendall Williamson are the only two defensive backs to start all five games thus far.
- True freshman Jimmy Wyrick has started three games at nickelback.
- At free safety, Noah Williams has started four games while Alaka'i Gilman has made one start.
- At cornerback opposite Kelly, the Cardinal has started four different players in five games: Ethan Bonner, Zahran Manley (two), Jaden Slocum and Nicolas Toomer.
- Gilman, Slocum, Toomer and Wyrick have all made their first career starts this season.
- Two starters - S Jonathan McGill and CB Salim Turner-Muhammad - have missed the entire season thus far.

EARLY ENROLLEES

- For the first time in program history, Stanford welcomed two early enrollees to The Farm for the beginning of the spring quarter in March.
- Quarterback Ari Patu and cornerback Jaden Slocum each joined the team in time for spring ball.
- On June 10, 2021, the Stanford Faculty Senate voted to implement a three-year pilot program that would allow certain student-athletes to enroll at Stanford as early as winter quarter before their freshman year. Early enrollment would be limited to no more than 15 students per year, and each student-athlete must be academically qualified and have already graduated from their respective high school.

GAME NOTES

THE CARDINAL BY MAJOR

- Stanford requires students to declare a major before their junior year. Among the Cardinal roster in 2021, 19 different majors are represented.
- There are four student-athletes pursuing credits towards a master's program and two others who are pursuing double majors.

WHERE THEY'RE FROM

- Twenty-seven student-athletes come from the state of California. After that, from largest to smallest: Texas (12), Georgia (9), Alabama (6), Utah (6), New Jersey (5), Maryland (4), Arizona (3), Colorado (3), Massachusetts (3), New York (3), North Carolina (3), Canada (2), Minnesota (2), Oregon (2), Virginia (2), Washington (2) and one each from Florida, Hawaii, Idaho, Indiana, Kansas, Louisiana, Michigan, Missouri, Nebraska, Nevada, New Hampshire, North Dakota, Pennsylvania and Tennessee.

THE HOME OF CHAMPIONS

- Stanford is one of six programs with at least one national championship in football, baseball and men's basketball and the only school with at least one in football, baseball, men's and women's basketball.
- Stanford completed a sweep of the Capital One Cup during the 2020-21 campaign, matching its dual victory achievement from 2017-18 and remaining the only school to capture both titles in the same season.
- Prior to its second-place finish in 2020-21, Stanford won 25 straight Division I Learfield Sports Directors' Cup, the award presented to the most successful intercollegiate athletic department in the nation.
- Stanford has won at least one NCAA team title in each of the past 45 academic years (dating back to the 1976-77 campaign), representing the longest streak in NCAA history.
- The Cardinal leads the NCAA with 128 team titles. In total, Stanford claimed three national team championships during the last year - women's basketball, men's gymnastics, synchronized swimming - increasing its overall total to 155.

LELAND STANFORD JUNIOR UNIVERSITY

- Stanford was established in 1885 and opened in 1891.
- Stanford's faculty includes two Presidential Medal of Freedom winners and four Pulitzer Prize winners. Stanford faculty have won the Nobel Prize 34 times since the university's founding and the Stanford community includes 19 Nobel laureates.
- Stanford students have consisted of 127 Rhodes Scholars, 96 Marshall Award winners and 68 Truman Scholars.
- The top five undergraduate majors at Stanford include: computer science, engineering, human biology, management science and engineering, and mechanical engineering.
- Stanford's 8,180-acre campus is large enough to contain 96 Disneyland.
- The Stanford campus features roughly 43,000 trees, 25 fountains and over 800 different species of plants.
- The 700-acre Stanford Research Park, created in 1951, is home to over 150 companies.

STANFORD IN THE NFL

- Stanford had five players drafted in 2021 and five more signed as undrafted free agents. Multiple Cardinal have been taken in 12 consecutive drafts.
- Stanford has had 42 players selected in the NFL Draft since 2012, the most in the Pac-12.
- Stanford had the 15th-most alumni on NFL Kickoff Weekend active rosters, the second-most from the Pac-12 Conference.
- Stanford's eight tight ends drafted since 2010 are the most in the nation. (Dray, Fleener, Ertz, Toilolo, Hooper, Schultz, Smith, Parkinson). The Cardinal has had the most tight ends on NFL Kickoff Weekend active rosters for 10 straight years.
- Stanford's 16 quarterbacks drafted in the Modern Era (since 1967) rank second in the nation. [behind USC 19, tied with Ohio State] Stanford's 24 quarterbacks drafted all-time rank second in the nation. [behind USC 25]
- Stanford is one of six schools all-time to produce at least four No. 1 overall NFL Draft picks (Auburn, Georgia, Notre Dame, Oklahoma, USC). The Cardinal is the only school to have four quarterbacks taken with the No. 1 overall pick (Garrett, Plunkett, Elway, Luck).

100 YEARS OF STANFORD STADIUM

In 2021, Stanford celebrates a century of excellence at one of college football's hallowed grounds. The home of Jim and John, and where Bill Walsh started a West Coast revolution. Where Luck and McCaffrey led a new era of Cardinal legends to chant C-House. Nestled miles from the foothills and in a grove of eucalyptus and oak trees, Stanford Stadium has assumed a place as one of the most beautiful and fan-friendly football facilities in the country. The venue has a cozy seating capacity of 50,424, a considerable difference from the 85,000 that existed in what was previously the largest privately owned college football facility in the United States. The Cardinal is 53-13 (.803) inside Stanford Stadium since the start of the 2010 season.

The 2021 season marks David Shaw's 11th as Stanford's Bradford M. Freeman Director of Football.

A 1995 Stanford graduate who is the fifth alum to hold the position of head football coach, Shaw is the 34th head coach in Stanford history, and the winningest coach in program history.

Shaw enters the 2021 season with an 90-36 (.714) career record, including 62-25 (.713) in Pac-12 play. He has led the Cardinal to three Pac-12 titles and a pair of Rose Bowl wins in three trips to The Granddaddy of Them All.

Under Shaw, Stanford's 90 victories since 2011 marks the winningest stretch in program history. Stanford has won at least 11 games four times under Shaw, and has appeared in a bowl game eight times.

Shaw, who oversaw the final nine years of the 2010s, was instrumental in Stanford's most successful decade in school history. The Cardinal totaled 98 wins, 42 NFL Draft picks, 28 wins vs. AP Top 25 teams, 24 AP All-Americans, nine Academic All-Americans, five unanimous All-Americans and had a 93.5 average graduation success rate. Each of those categories either led the Pac-12 or was second, while also in the Top 10 nationally.

Shaw was named recipient of the Dodd Trophy following the 2017 season. It was Stanford's third all-time national coach of the year award, following Chuck Taylor (1951) and Clark Shaughnessy (1940) winning the AFCA Coach of the Year Award. The Dodd Trophy, college football's most coveted coaching award, honors the head football coach whose program embodies the award's three pillars of scholarship, leadership and integrity, while also having success on the playing field throughout the season.

The 2017 Pac-12 Coach of the Year's involvement reaches far beyond the football field. In the classroom, his student-athletes maintain a high level of academic excellence, including six Academic All-Americans in his first 10 seasons.

Stanford's 2020 season was unlike any in program history, as Shaw guided the Cardinal to four straight wins to finish the season, en route to a 4-2 overall record. Playing a six-game, conference-only schedule due to the COVID-19 global pandemic, Stanford was forced to spend its final 19 days away from campus due to county restrictions.

The Cardinal began its winning streak with a one-point, Big Game win at Cal. Stanford went on to defeat Washington, Oregon State and UCLA on the road to end the year, capping off the UCLA win with a 14-point, fourth-quarter comeback and a double-overtime victory.

Shaw was named to the Uplifting Athletes' Rare Disease Champion Team in 2020. In 2018, Shaw was a bone marrow donor for his brother, Eric, who is now cancer free after battling a rare disease for over seven years.

The Cardinal also saw five players drafted and five more sign undrafted free agent contracts during the 2021 NFL Draft. Walker Little (2nd Round, Jacksonville), Paulson Adebbo (3rd Round, New Orleans), Davis Mills (3rd Round, Houston), Drew Dalman (4th Round, Atlanta) and Simi Fehoko (5th Round, Dallas) were all selected, the fifth time in eight years at least five Cardinal have been drafted in a single draft.

In 2019, Stanford endured many injuries to starters and key players throughout the season. The Cardinal played 21 true freshmen, including 12 who used a year of eligibility by playing in more than four games, and eight who combined for 43 starts throughout the season. The Cardinal started three true freshmen on the offensive line for half the year, while four true freshmen started at least one game along the offensive line.

Off the field, Stanford student-athletes continued to shine. The Cardinal had a league-best 33 named to the Pac-12 Honor Roll, which honors any student-athlete who boasts at least a 3.3 cumulative grade-point average, excluding freshmen. In addition, two Cardinal earned recognition for arguably the biggest off-field accolades in college football. Fifth-year OLB Casey Toohill was named one of 12 finalist for the William V. Campbell Trophy and a member of the NFF Scholar-Athlete Class, while junior WR Connor Wedington was a member of the AFCA Allstate Good Works Team, given to 11 FBS players who stand out both on the field and in the community.

Five Cardinal were selected in the 2019 NFL Draft, highlighted by JJ Arcega-Whiteside's second round selection to the Philadelphia Eagles. Inside linebacker Bobby Okereke was selected in the third round by the Indianapolis Colts, running back Bryce Love in the fourth round by the Washington Football Team, punter Jake Bailey in the fifth round by the New England Patriots and tight end Kaden Smith in the sixth round by the San Francisco 49ers. Seven other Cardinal were given NFL opportunities following the draft, including five who signed as undrafted free agents.

In 2018, Shaw led Stanford to its 10th straight bowl game, extending the longest active streak in the Pac-12. The Cardinal defeated Pitt in the 2018 Sun Bowl for their fifth bowl game victory in eight seasons under Shaw. Quarterback K.J. Costello finished with the second-most passing yards and third-most touchdowns in a season in school history, while wideout JJ Arcega-Whiteside tied a 41-year-old school record with 14 receiving touchdowns.

A season prior, Stanford did most of its damage on the ground as its 5.9 rushing yards/attempt ranked first in program history, and its 2,833 rushing yards ranked fourth. Running back Bryce Love set the school's single-season (2,118) and single-game (301) rushing records while being named the 2017 Doak Walker Award winner. Love, also the Lombardi Award winner and Heisman Trophy runner-up, set Stanford's career records for yards/rush (7.76) and consecutive 100-yard rushing games (9). The unanimous All-American combined with Cameron Scarlett to form the top rushing tandem in program history.

Love was the Pac-12 Offensive Player of the Year and winner of the Touchdown Club of Columbus Jim Brown Award. He ranked first among Power 5 conference running backs in over a dozen categories, including FBS records for 50-yard rushes (13), consecutive games with a 30-yard rush (13) and consecutive games with a 50-yard rush (11).

Four Cardinal student-athletes were selected in the 2018 NFL Draft -- Justin Reid (third), Harrison Phillips (third), Dalton Schultz (fourth) and Peter Kalambayi (sixth).

Shaw led the Cardinal to the 2016 Sun Bowl where the 25-23 win over the Tar Heels marked the fourth bowl victory for Shaw, the most in program history, to cap a 10-3 season in which the Cardinal ranked 12th in the final AP and USA Today polls. The Cardinal also won at least 10 games for the fifth time in six seasons under Shaw. From 1891-2010, the program recorded four 10-win seasons.

Even more, the program posted a graduation success rate of 99 percent for the third consecutive year, a total that led all FBS institutions and ranked 11 points higher than the next Pac-12 school. Stanford joined Clemson, Duke, Northwestern and Wisconsin as the only FBS football teams to earn APR Public Recognition Awards from the NCAA in each of the previous four years.

Stanford in 2016 ranked eighth nationally in defensive touchdowns (4), 12th in winning percentage (.769), 17th in time of possession (32:46), 22nd in team sacks (2.85), 18th in scoring defense (20.4) and 25th in team passing efficiency defense (117.8). All-America running back Christian McCaffrey ranked first in all-purpose yards per game (211.6), fourth in rushing yards (145.7) and 20th in rushing yards per carry (6.34). Conrad Ukropina ranked fifth in field goals per game (1.83). Dallas Lloyd ranked 13th in total interceptions (5) and 18th in interceptions per game (0.4). Jake Bailey ranked 24th in punting (43.5).

The Cardinal set single-season school records for top rushing tandem (2,386 -- McCaffrey and Bryce Love), and, at the time, the individual single-game school record for rushing yards (284 -- McCaffrey at Cal).

Stanford had two top-10 NFL Draft picks for only the fifth time, following the 2016 season. Solomon Thomas was the third overall pick by the San Francisco 49ers, and was the highest drafted defensive player in program history. Thomas also won the Pac-

HEAD COACH DAVID SHAW

12's Morris Trophy, given to the league's top lineman. McCaffrey, the CoSIDA Academic All-American of the Year, was selected by the Carolina Panthers with the eighth overall pick. He was Stanford's highest running back draft pick since 1982.

Following the 2015 season, Stanford became the only school ever ranked in the top four by U.S. News and World Report (4th) and the Associated Press (3rd) in the same year.

Stanford was 12-2 overall and 8-1 in Pac-12 play in 2015, going on to win the Pac-12 and Rose Bowl crowns and improving Shaw's postseason record to 6-2. The Cardinal topped five ranked opponents, including top-10 foes in No. 6 USC, No. 4 Notre Dame and No. 6 Iowa. Stanford was one of four teams in 2015 to record five or more wins over AP Top 25 opponents and one of four teams with three or more wins over AP top-10 foes.

McCaffrey was named AP Player of the Year and won the Paul Hornung Award and Johnny "Jet" Rodgers Award. McCaffrey, also a Heisman Trophy finalist, set the NCAA record for all-purpose yards (3,864) and earned Academic All-America honors. McCaffrey earned consensus All-America first team nods and Outland Trophy winner Joshua Garnett received unanimous All-America distinction. Blake Martinez and Austin Hooper were named All-America third-teamers. Fifteen Cardinal were lauded with All-Pac-12 honors and 22 received All-Pac-12 academic distinction.

McCaffrey posted the top four FBS individual all-purpose single-game performances in 2015 and his 461 all-purpose yards vs. USC in the Pac-12 Championship Game was fifth-most in FBS history. He owned three of the top five 100-yard receiving and rushing games by an FBS player and became the only FBS player ever with 200 rushing, 100 receiving and 100 kickoff return yards vs. USC.

For the third time in five seasons, Shaw was named Pac-12 Coach of the Year and McCaffrey earned Pac-12 Offensive Player of the Year honors. Shaw was the AFCA Regional Coach of the Year and a finalist for the Eddie Robinson Coach of the Year Award and Paul "Bear" Bryant Coach of the Year.

Shaw is the quickest to earn three Pac-12 Coach of the Year honors.

Stanford received an NCAA GSR of 99 percent for the second consecutive year in 2015, a total that led all FBS and FCS institutions.

Shaw was instrumental in the maturation of Hogan during his Cardinal career. Hogan appeared in more than 50 contests and posted a school-best 36-10 record as a starter. He ranked first in career total offense (10,634), second in completion percentage (.659) and passing efficiency (154.6), and third in passing yards (9,385) and passing touchdowns (75). His 171.0 passing efficiency clip in 2015 was the best single-season mark ever by a Cardinal signal caller. Hogan also set school records for career rushing yards (1,249) and touchdowns (15) by a quarterback.

Stanford's West Coast offense led the nation with 13 consecutive games scoring at least 30 points. Stanford amassed a school-record 3,131 rushing yards on 610 attempts in 2015, the most ever by a Cardinal program. The offensive unit's 529 points ranked second-most in a season and its 33 rushing touchdowns, 223.7 rushing yards/game, 30 passing touchdowns, 37.8 points/game and 6,097 total yards of offense ranked third.

He notched 30 wins in his first 35 games, which was the third-fastest among active coaches, and was one of only three coaches to guide his team to BCS bowls in his first three years as a head coach.

Shaw won 40 games in his first 52 outings at Stanford, tying with Pop Warner for the fastest to 40 wins by any Cardinal head coach.

With a win in the 2014 Foster Farms Bowl, Shaw became the first Stanford head coach with at least eight wins in each of his first four seasons.

Stanford won eight games in 2014 and closed the season on a three-game winning streak. The Cardinal scored at least 30 points in seven of 13 games.

While facing six nationally ranked opponents in 2014, including four on the road, the Cardinal defensive unit helped Stanford rank second nationally in scoring defense (16.4 points/game), third in total defense (282.4 yards/game), seventh in rushing defense (104.5 yards/game) and eighth in passing defense (177.9 yards/game). The Cardinal joined Penn State and Clemson as the only three teams to finish in the top-10 nationally in all four categories. The team was also among the best nationally in getting to the quarterback, ranking sixth with 46 sacks. Stanford also led the nation in punt return average and strong safety Jordan Richards garnered the 2014 National Football Foundation's Scholar-Athlete Award.

In 2013, Shaw led Stanford to a second straight Pac-12 title and the program's 14th trip to the Rose Bowl. Stanford became the only team to earn four consecutive BCS bowl bids during the Bowl Championship Series era.

After leading the team to a landmark 2013 regular season, Shaw received AFCA Regional Coach of the Year honors and was named a finalist for the Eddie Robinson Award and Paul "Bear" Bryant Coach of the Year.

Under Shaw's tutelage in 2013, Stanford was one of 13 FBS football schools and the only Pac-12 football program to earn a Division I Academic Progress Rate Public Recognition Award for posting multi-year APR scores in the top 10 percent of all squads.

Stanford defeated five nationally-ranked opponents at home in 2013 while winning 11 games despite playing the fifth-toughest schedule nationally in the Sagarin ratings. Stanford was among just three schools (Alabama and Oregon) with 10 or more wins in each season from 2010-13.

Stanford finished the 2013 campaign ranked fifth in the BCS standings, the fourth straight top 10 BCS ranking for the Cardinal. The team ranked sixth in the final 2012 BCS standings, following back-to-back No. 4 rankings at the end of the 2010 and 2011 seasons.

The 2013 team ranked among the nation's best in kickoff return average (1st), rushing defense (3rd), tackles for loss allowed (4th), sacks (1-7th), scoring defense (10th), kickoff coverage (10th), total defense (14th), sacks allowed (16th), red zone offense (16th), passing efficiency (17th) and red zone defense (19th).

Stanford had six players receive All-Pac-12 first-team honors with 19 all-conference selections in 2013. There were also eight different national awards that listed Stanford players as semifinalists and finalists. There were 25 players chosen to the Pac-12 All-Academic team and four were placed on the Capital One Academic All-District list, including Jordan Richards who was a second team All-America selection.

For the fifth straight year, Stanford had three or more players selected in the NFL Draft when Trent Murphy (second round - Washington), Cameron Fleming (fourth round - New England), David Yankey (fifth round - Minnesota), Ed Reynolds (fifth round - Philadelphia), Tyler Gaffney (sixth round - Carolina) and Ben Gardner (seventh round - Dallas) signed professional contracts after the 2013 season. The six draft picks in 2014 matched a program-best.

Shaw guided the Cardinal to a 12-2 record in 2012 and its first Pac-12 championship in 13 years. The campaign culminated with Stanford's first Rose Bowl victory in over 40 years, a 20-14 win over Wisconsin in 2013.

Shaw was named the 2012 Pac-12 Conference Coach of the Year, becoming the second to earn the honor outright in consecutive seasons since the award's inception in 1975. Stanford became the first school to defeat programs ranked No. 1 (Oregon) and 2 (USC) in the AP poll during the regular season and the Cardinal closed its season with five straight wins over as many ranked opponents.

Stanford's historic defensive output in 2012 broke the single-season sacks record (57) and led the Pac-12 in scoring defense (17.21), total defense (336.21), rushing defense (97.0), sacks (4.07) and tackles for loss (9.00). The Cardinal ranked first nationally in sacks, second in tackles for loss, fifth in rushing defense and 11th in scoring defense.

Stanford became the first program to win both the AFCA Academic Achievement Award and a BCS bowl game in the same season.

Three Stanford players were selected in the 2013 draft -- Zach Ertz (second round - Philadelphia), Levine Toilolo (fourth round - Atlanta) and Stepan Taylor (fifth round - Arizona). Taylor, a Doak Walker Award semifinalist, set the Stanford record with 4,300 rushing yards and Ertz led Stanford pass catchers and all FBS tight ends in receiving yards (898) and total receptions (69), both school records for a tight end. Ertz was a John Mackey Award finalist and the seventh unanimous All-American in program history.

Stanford was one of five schools to have four or more players selected to the 2012 AP All-America teams, with Ertz earning the honor along with David Yankey (second team), Trent Murphy (third team) and Ed Reynolds (third team). Yankey was a consensus All-American.

In Shaw's first season as head coach, the 2011 edition of the Cardinal posted an 11-2 record and made its second consecutive BCS appearance, falling to Oklahoma State in the Fiesta Bowl. Shaw became just the ninth major college head coach in history to post 11 or more wins in his first season, and the first since Chris Peterson (13-0) of Boise State and Bret Bielema (12-1) of Wisconsin in 2006.

Shaw was named the 2011 Pac-12 Coach of the Year, becoming just the third in Stanford history to earn the award, following Bill Walsh (1977) and Tyrone Willingham (1995, 1999). He was named AFCA Regional Coach of the Year and a Paul "Bear" Bryant Coach of the Year finalist.

The Cardinal was ranked in the top 10 of both major polls for all 16 weeks of the season, peaking at No. 3 in the AP poll and No. 2 in the USA Today Coaches poll on Nov. 6.

Behind 2011 Heisman Trophy finalist Andrew Luck, Stanford averaged 43.2 points/game and established a school-record with 561 points. Stanford's 11 victories in 2011 came by an average of 27.4 points.

Stanford's 2011 defense was ranked first or second in the Pac-12 in six categories, including rushing defense (1st - 84.4), third-down conversion defense (1st - 31.1), scoring defense (2nd - 21.9), total defense (2nd - 337.6), sacks/game (2nd - 3.00) and opponent first downs (2nd - 17.5).

Luck was named Walter Camp Football Foundation National Player of the Year along with receiving the Maxwell Award as the nation's top player. He finished second in the balloting for the Heisman Trophy and was the Pac-12's Offensive Player of the Year for a second straight season.

Right guard David DeCastro was a unanimous All-America selection; left tackle Jonathan Martin landed spots on the Walter Camp and AFCA All-America squads; tight end Coby Fleener and outside linebacker Chase Thomas were named All-Americans by Sporting News.

In all, 21 players earned All-Pac-12 honors in 2011, including six first-teamers. Twelve earned Pac-12 All-Academic honors, including first-team selections Luck and Brent Etiz. Luck was also named the Capital One Academic All-American of the Year by the College Sports Information Directors of America.

Prior to his appointment as head coach, Shaw served as Stanford's offensive coordinator for four seasons, playing an instrumental role in the resurgence of the Cardinal program which established school scoring records in 2009 and 2010 before setting another scoring mark in his first year as head coach.

During Shaw's tenure as offensive coordinator, the Cardinal scored 40 or more points in 11 games from 2007-10.

Stanford's balanced offense amassed a school-record 6,142 yards during the 2010 season, averaging 213.8 on the ground and 258.7 yards through the air.

In addition, Shaw's play calling in the red zone helped Stanford convert on a national-best 88.6 percent of its scoring opportunities inside the 20-yard line.

Prior to Stanford, Shaw served as the wide receivers and passing game coordinator at the University of San Diego during the 2006 season, winning the Division I-AA Mid-Major national title and the Pioneer League championship with the nation's top offense. Shaw's coaching resume also includes nine years of NFL experience with the Philadelphia Eagles (1997), Oakland Raiders (1998-2001) and Baltimore Ravens (2002-05).

Shaw's last coaching job in the NFL with Baltimore included a stint as the quarterbacks and wide receivers coach from 2002-04 before working solely with the wide receivers in 2005. His tenure included an AFC North title in 2003. Derrick Mason set a franchise record with 86 receptions for 1,073 yards under Shaw's tutelage in 2005. Mark Clayton set a franchise rookie record for receptions in 2005 when he caught 44 balls for 471 yards. After three seasons of quality control with the Oakland Raiders from 1998-2000, Shaw moved into the role of quarterbacks coach in 2001 as the Raiders won a second straight AFC West title. Quarterback Rich Gannon made the Pro Bowl for the second straight season and was the game's MVP. Shaw began his NFL coaching career as the quality control coach with the Philadelphia Eagles in 1997. He launched his coaching career at Western Washington, where he coached outside linebackers in 1995 and the tight ends in 1996.

A four-year letterwinner at Stanford from 1991-94 as a receiver, Shaw was a member of Stanford's 1991 Aloha Bowl team coached by Dennis Green that finished the season 8-4 and was the third-highest scoring team in school history at the time. He was also on the Cardinal team that went 10-3 and won the 1993 Blockbuster Bowl under Bill Walsh. Shaw finished his Stanford career with 57 catches for 664 yards and five touchdowns. He also competed in a varsity track meet and a varsity basketball game before graduating in 1995 with a bachelor's degree in sociology.

Shaw's father, Willie, had two coaching stints at Stanford (1974-76, 1989-91) during his 33-year coaching career, which also included time with the Detroit Lions, Kansas City Chiefs, Minnesota Vikings, New Orleans Saints, Oakland Raiders, San Diego Chargers and St. Louis Rams. Stanford announced in 2013 that its defensive coordinator position had been endowed by a gift from an anonymous donor, named in honor of Willie Shaw.

Shaw is Chair of the NCAA Football rules committee and is on the Board of Trustees for the AFCA. He is also on the NCAA Football Competition Committee and represents the Pac-12 on the AFCA Ethics Committee. He was previously on USA Football's Football Advisory Committee and a member of the NCAA Commission to Combat Campus Sexual Violence. In addition to his work with that commission, Shaw has been a leading advocate of the Set The Expectation program, aimed at working to end the culture of sexual assault and domestic violence among college and high school athletes. Stanford players became the first university in the country to sign the Set The Expectation student pledge, stating they would use their platforms to speak out against sexual assault and violence against women.

Born in San Diego, Shaw and his wife, Kori, are the parents of three children -- Keegan, Carter and Gavin.

Cardinal Falls in Opener

ARLINGTON, Texas (AP) -- Kansas State sixth-year quarterback Skylar Thompson ran for two touchdowns, bullying into the end zone for the first one after missing most of last season with a shoulder injury, and the Wildcats opened the season with a 24-7 win over Stanford on Saturday.

Deuce Vaughn sprinted 59 yards for a touchdown and finished with 124 yards rushing on 13 carries for the Wildcats, who finished last season with a five-game losing streak.

Stanford was down 24-0 before Tanner McKee's 14-yard touchdown pass to Brycen Tremayne with 3:16 left on its last offensive snap. The Cardinal, who last year won the last four games of their pandemic-shortened 4-2 season, have played 177 games since last being shut out.

Thompson, who later had a 13-yard TD run, opened the scoring when he put his left shoulder down and knocked cornerback Kyu Blu Kelly to the ground on a 6-yard TD run in the first quarter.

On the possession before the first TD, Kelly had an impressive interception in the end zone, leaping and reaching back over Phillip Brooks and then managing to get one foot down inbounds. But Stanford went three-and-out, setting up the two-play TD drive, Thompson finding a wide-open Brooks for a 56-yard pass to the 6.

Trees Topple No. 14 Troy

LOS ANGELES (AP) - Tanner McKee passed for two touchdowns and rushed for another score in his first collegiate start, and Stanford rebounded from a season-opening loss with a 42-28 upset victory over No. 14 Southern California on Saturday night.

Nathaniel Peat had an 87-yard touchdown run while racking up a career-high 115 yards, and Kyu Blu Kelly returned an interception 31 yards for a touchdown in a surprising rout for the Cardinal (1-1, 1-0 Pac-12). Led by McKee, Stanford's offense came back superbly a 24-7 loss to Kansas State last week.

McKee went 16 of 23 for 234 yards while seizing his chance to start. McKee hit Elijah Higgins and Brycen Tremayne for TDs as Stanford rolled to a 29-point lead in the fourth quarter of its ninth victory over USC in the California rivals' last 14 meetings.

Kedon Slovis passed for 223 yards, and Keaontay Ingram and Darwin Barlow rushed for TDs as the Trojans' (1-1, 0-1) nine-game regular season winning streak ended in tonight's win for Stanford.

Stanford's defense limited star Trojans receiver Drake London to four catches for 68 yards and a touchdown with 5:54 to play.

The 100th meeting between the Pac-12's two California private schools resumed a rivalry that was interrupted last season for the first time since 1945 by the coronavirus pandemic.

Peat put the Cardinal ahead early with his long sprint down the Cardinal sideline for the fifth-longest TD run in Stanford history. The speedy big-play tailback and kick returner nearly topped his previous career-high of 93 yards rushing on that play alone.

USC evened it early in the second quarter with a 15-play, 95-yard drive capped by Ingram's 2-yard TD surge, but McKee put the Cardinal back ahead with a 3-yard TD pass to Higgins on fourth down only after Stanford decided to go for it after USC lined up in the neutral zone on a successful field goal.

Kelly picked off Slovis' pass when it deflected off London's hands, and the cornerback eluded Slovis near the goal line to score his first career touchdown. The rout was on when McKee scored on a 1-yard keeper late in the third quarter.

Stanford's road trip to start the season continues when the Cardinal travels to Vanderbilt next Saturday, Sept. 18.

Nashville Heat

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) -- Tanner McKee ran for a touchdown and threw for two more as Stanford beat Vanderbilt 41-23 Saturday night in the first meeting between the two programs.

Stanford (2-1) finally can head home on a two-game winning streak after playing the first three games on the road, the only Power Five program this season to even play its first two straight games away from home.

Stanford took control scoring 13 points in the final 1:53 of the second quarter. Joshua Karty kicked a 46-yard field goal, then Jimmy Wyrick picked off a Ken Seals pass for the first interception of his career. That set up McKee's second TD pass of the half, a 5-yarder to Brycen Tremayne with 40 seconds left.

The Cardinal defense forced the first three-and-out by Vandy. Casey Filkins returned the punt 48 yards to the Vandy 22, and an illegal formation penalty on the Commodores moved the ball to the 17. Karty came out for the easy 35-yarder for a 27-14 halftime lead. Those were the first field goals of the sophomore kicker's career.

Stanford made it 20 straight after forcing Vanderbilt three-and-out again to open the third quarter. McKee capped a 55-yard drive with a 5-yard TD pass to Jay Symonds for a 34-14 lead.

McKee finished with 218 yards passing in the second straight start of his career. The sophomore completed at least one pass to nine different receivers. Nathaniel Peat and E.J. Smith ran for a TD apiece.

The Cardinal had a 422-398 edge in total offense as Vanderbilt scored a TD on the final play of the game.

After a seven-game road trip that spans back to the 2020 season, Stanford finally returns home next Saturday to host UCLA on at Stanford Stadium.

Card Falls to #24 UCLA in Home Opener

STANFORD, Calif. (AP) -- Playing its first home game since Nov. 2020, Stanford's comeback fell short in a 35-24 loss to No. 24 UCLA on Saturday night at Stanford Stadium.

Stanford (2-2, 1-1 Pac-12) had played its last seven games away from home because of COVID-19 protocols last season and a tough opening schedule. The Cardinal managed to win six of those games but came up short against the Bruins (3-1, 1-0 Pac-12).

UCLA broke out to a 14-0 lead and then, after letting Stanford battle back to tie it, got the biggest play of the game when Thompson-Robinson found Kyle Phillips open deep over the middle for a 75-yard TD on the next play from scrimmage.

The Bruins sealed the win when Thompson-Robinson threw a 5-yard TD pass to Phillips after briefly leaving the game with an injury.

Stanford started the game with five straight three-and-outs and trailed 14-0 on short TD runs by Thompson-Robinson and Zach Charbonnet before the offense even got going.

McKee then started to find some open receivers downfield as the Cardinal worked its way back into the game. Brycen Tremayne made a toe-tapping 19-yard TD grab to get Stanford on the board in the second quarter.

Then, after the Bruins went back up by 14 on Thompson-Robinson's second TD run late in the first half, McKee connected on a 56-yard TD pass to Elijah Higgins in the third quarter and a 52-yarder to Bryce Farrell early in the fourth to tie the game at 21.

But Thompson-Robinson answered on the next play and UCLA held on for the win.

Stanford faces No. 3 Oregon on Saturday at Stanford Stadium.

Cardinal Clips No. 3 Oregon in OT

STANFORD, Calif. (AP) -- Tanner McKee threw a TD pass on an untimed down at the end of regulation to tie the game and another on the opening possession of overtime to lead Stanford to a 31-24 victory over No. 3 Oregon on Saturday.

McKee came back after leaving for a play on the final drive of regulation with an injury to tie it on a 2-yard pass to Elijah Higgins after a holding penalty by Oregon (4-1, 1-1 Pac-12) in the end zone extended the game one play.

McKee then gave the Cardinal (3-2, 2-1) the lead with a 14-yarder to John Humphreys in overtime. Stanford then forced Anthony Brown to throw an incomplete pass on fourth-and-8 to seal its fourth win against an Oregon team ranked in the top 10 since 2009.

The Ducks were appeared poised for their first 5-0 start in eight years when they rallied from 10 points down at halftime to take a 24-17 lead early in the fourth quarter on Brown's second TD run of the game.

But then McKee delivered the big plays late and the Cardinal capitalized on three Oregon penalties on the game-tying 87-yard drive in the final 1:59 of regulation.

McKee left the game for one play on the drive after being hit by Kayvon Thibodeaux on a play ruled targeting. Oregon was then called for another roughing the passer penalty and the holding penalty in the end zone on what appeared to be the final play.

The Cardinal got the untimed down and McKee delivered with the pass to Higgins. Stanford opted for the extra point and the game went to OT.

Stanford returns to play on a short week, traveling to Arizona State on Friday night.

Devils Downed

TEMPE, Ariz. -- K.J. Costello threw for 231 yards and a touchdown, and Stanford remained in the thick of the Pac-12 North Division race with a 20-13 win over Arizona State on Thursday night.

Stanford (5-2, 3-1) needed a half to get its offense fully rolling off a bye week, held to a pair of field goals in the first half. The Cardinal put together a pair of impressive drives in the third quarter and had a 16-minute advantage in time of possession to tie No. 14 Washington atop the Pac-12 North.

Arizona State (3-4, 1-3) was held to a field goal in the first half before Manny Wilkins scrambled for a 10-yard touchdown run in the fourth quarter to pull the Sun Devils within 20-13.

Wilkins threw for 353 yards, but the Sun Devils turned it over three times, including one on a failed trick play, to lose for the fourth time in five games.

Arizona State had a good drive going late in the first half, but failed on a trick play when receiver N'Keal Harry's pass off a reverse was intercepted at Stanford's 11.

The Cardinal appeared to have a touchdown when Cameron Scarlett turned a screen pass into a 59-yard score, but it was called back on a holding penalty.

Jet Toner hit his second field goal of the half, from 31 yards, on the final play of the half to put Stanford up 6-3.

Arizona State opened the second half with Brandon Ruiz's second field goal.

Stanford opened by dominating the Sun Devils on a pair of long scoring drives to take control.

Costello hit JJ Arcega-Whiteside on a 28-yard touchdown pass on the first drive, and Scarlett scored on a 1-yard dive to put the Cardinal up 20-6.
