SCOUTING THE WILDCATS...

Arizona will arrive in Tempe looking to end the season on the right foot. In their last outing, the Wildcats fell to Oregon, 1-0, bringing their overall season record to 11-5-2, that includes a 4-4-2 record in Pac-12 play. On the season, Arizona has struggled on the road, battling their way to a 2-4-0 record away from Mulcahy Soccer Stadium. Sophomore Jada Talley has led the Wildcats on the offensive end of the pitch this year, scoring seven goals and adding an assist en route to a team-leading 15 points on the season. In goal, senior Lainey Burdett has anchored the Wildcat defense, allowing less than a goal per game in her nearly 1700 minutes played.

SCOUTING THE CARDINAL...

The Sun Devils will face a tough test on Sunday as the top-ranked Cardinal come to Tempe to close out the 2018 season. For the 18th-consecutive week, dating back to Oct. 10, 2017, Stanford has claimed the No. 1 ranking in the nation. Stanford (15-0-2) is just one of two teams in the nation without a loss this season. Stanford's 39-game unbeaten streak is a program record and ties for the sixth-longest unbeaten streak in NCAA Division I history. During the streak, which dates to Aug. 25, 2017, the Cardinal is outscoring opponents 125-14. It is the longest unbeaten streak since UCLA went 44 games unbeaten from 2013-14.

EXPERIENCE AGAINST TOP-RANKED TEAMS...

Not only has ASU already faced some of the nation's toughest teams, but head coach Graham Winkworth brings with him the experience of toppling a No. 1 ranked squad. In 2016, Winkworth guided his South Alabama team to a 15-6-1 record, that included a win over then top-ranked Florida State. The Jaguars got on the board early, scoring in the 25th minute of the match, and then holding the Seminoles scoreless to complete the 1-0 upset victory.

FULL STRENGTH SUN DEVILS SHOW STRIPES...

Entering this weekend's contests, ASU has played the 20th- toughest schedule based on opponents win-percentage. In a look at conference standings around the country, the Sun Devils have had close matches with Baylor, a team who won the Big 12 Regular Season Championship, won a game against South Dakota State who finished first in the Summit League Standings, and won a match against Weber State who currently wrapped up the 2018 regular season atop the Big Sky leader board. Most of the struggles for ASU this season have come with a depleted roster due to injury and international duty. The Sun Devils fell to New Hampshire when starting keeper Nikki Pannas was recovering from an injury, fell to Baylor following a week were senior captain Jemma Purfield was away with the English National Team, and fell in three starting contests against Utah, UCLA and USC with leading goal scorer Nicole Douglas away to compete with the English Youth National Team.

THE SUN DEVIL SURGE IN 2018...

With an influx of international players, and a second year head coach at the helm, expectations for the 2018 season outside of the ASU locker room may not have been too high, but the staff and players knew better than to let that curb their drive for the year. During the preseason, the Sun Devils were picked to finish second to last in the conference standings in the league's coaches poll. The team used that snub as motivation to drive them to a possible top-four finish (with a pair of wins this weekend and some help from others). Entering the last two games of the season, ASU has already tallied 16 points in the league standings, leaving them just one win away from tying their highest overall point total for a season.
