SCOUTING THE OPPOSITION

The Lopes finished the 2020 season with an overall record of 4-14-1 and 3-5-0 in WAC conference play. After taking a 12-1 win in an exhibition game against Benedictine Mesa, GCU started regular season play last weekend with two home games against Arizona and Northern Arizona, falling to both teams, 1-4 and 0-2 to start the with an 0-2 record thus far.

Sophomore Jaycee Iranshad has been the only goal scorer for the Lopes this season in the opening game against Arizona. Iranshad had two goals and one assist last season. The Lopes will turn to last season's offensive scorers sophomore Dani Babb and senior Camryn Larson each had four goals. In the exhibition game, all three of these key players found the back of the net. Larson had a hat trick, Babb had two, and Iranshad had two as well which contributed half of the goals scored in the 12-goal game.

GOING INTERNATIONAL

The Sun Devils are after not only the best players state-side, but have made a point to recruit elite international players, many of whom compete on their home country's national team. During the 2020-21 season, ASU's roster features 11 international students from across the globe.
