SUN DEVILS CLOSE HOME SLATE WITH COUGARS, HUSKIES

TEMPE – The Sun Devil women's tennis team welcomes two ranked programs from the Evergreen State in No. 37 Washington State and 50th-ranked Washington for the final homestand of the season, making Saturday senior day for the Devils.

"It's probably Washington State's best team they've ever had," coach Sheila McInerney "They've beaten USC, I think for the first time in program history, beaten Oregon, who we lost to, so we're going to have to play really well to get a favorable result."

The Cougars boast the best record in the Pac-12 with 19 wins and just two losses, seven more wins than any other Pac-12 program this season.

As for the Huskies, the Devils' senior day opponent is 12-8 with one of the toughest schedules in the nation.

"They're not ranked quite as high, but they're a little bit like us in that they've played well against some good teams," McInerney said. "They had Duke on the ropes on the road, they lost 4-3 to Illinois and Northwestern, who are both top-10 programs, so they're right on the cusp. A couple points here and there and they could be a top-20 team."

Both visiting sides are led by two of the nation's best singles players, meaning freshman No. 42 Lauryn John-Baptiste will have her hands full again on court one.

"Washington State's No. 1 was one of the best junior players in the world, and Fung is a top-player as well," McInerney said. "They don't make mistakes. They're tough outs, so Lauryn's going to have to be a little more aggressive this weekend because she's not going to get very many unforced errors from them."

Nicole Fossa Huergo is the Sun Devils' only active senior, and she will likely take to court three in her final matches at the Whiteman Tennis Center. Fossa Huergo joined the Devils in the fall of 2016 from Armstrong State and the Bologna, Italy, native has been a staple in ASU's lineup since her arrival.

"It's always emotional on senior day, and Nicole is a pretty emotional kid," McInerney said. "But it's not the last match of the season, it's not the rival in U of A, so there's still more for her to accomplish. You want it to be emotional because it means she's invested a lot into the program, but with that being said, we haven't really talked about it much because we've been focused on preparation for the matches."

The Sun Devils and Cougars tango Friday at 1:30 p.m., and the Huskies come to town Saturday for a 12 p.m. showdown with ASU.

Saturday will be senior day and also USTA Southwest Family Day.

TEAM NOTES

RANKINGS UPDATE

After splitting a weekend series with the Stanford and California, the Sun Devils jumped two places back into the top-40 to No. 39 in the latest Oracle/ITA ranking.

The ranking leaves them as the fifth-highest ranked Pac-12 program out of eight in the top-50.

Next weekend's opponent UCLA held firm at No. 14, last week's opponent Stanford comes in at 23, Oregon checks in at 26, Washington State is 34, Southern California is 40 and Cal and Washington are 49th and 50th, respectively.

Individually, court one freshman Lauryn John-Baptiste leads the line for the Devils as the 42nd-ranked woman in the country. She moved to 6-1 on the season against ranked opponents this past weekend in her matchups with Stanford and Cal.

Savannah Slaysman is the 123rd-ranked singles player, and in doubles, Slaysman makes up half of the No. 45 doubles tandem with freshman Tereza Kolarova.

John-Baptiste also makes up part of a ranked doubles duo, as she and Ilze Hattingh are ranked 35th in the nation and remain unbeaten heading into the final homestand of the season.

SENIOR SPOTLIGHT: NICOLE FOSSA HUERGO

Sun Devil senior Nicole Fossa Huergo will play her final match at the Whiteman Tennis Center Saturday in Tempe against Washington.

Fossa Huergo, from Bologna, Italy, came the Arizona State just a year ago after transferring from Division II Armstrong State University.

In her two seasons as a Sun Devil, Fossa Huergo has put together a 27-20 singles record and 27-10 doubles record with three partners. Her best run of form came when doubled-up with former Sun Devil Alex Osborne as the two finished the season last year ranked as the 49th-best tandem in the NCAA.

In her partnership with Sasa Klaneczek this season, the two have gone 8-2 and 4-1 at the Whiteman Tennis Center.

In dual-match play this season, Fossa Huergo has gone 6-3, but hasn't been able to finish her last three matches but had leads in two of them over ranked opponents from Stanford and California.

GET TO KNOW THE COUGARS

Hailing from the southeastern corner of the Evergreen State, Washington State leaves the coniferous forests for the valley of the sun on a hot-streak, having won eight of its last nine with its only loss in the span coming at No. 13 UCLA.

Head coach Lisa Hart has the Cougs firing on all cylinders in her 15th season at the helm as WSU leads the Pac-12 in wins with a whopping 19 in 2018 alone. For comparison, no other program has more than 12 wins this season.

The Cougars fell three places in the ITA rankings, but remain ahead of the Sun Devils at No. 34.

With just one woman ranked in the top-150 (No. 46 Michaela Bayerlova), the Cougars have proved they can get it done on all courts and will prove to be another tough out for the Devils despite ASU's lopsided series lead of 16-1 since the turn of the century.

GET TO KNOW THE HUSKIES

Representing the western side of the state, Saturday's opponent, Washington, has also had a solid season so far, having recently secured a place in the Oracle/ITA team rankings at No. 50.

Two of the Huskies starting six find themselves in the top-60 individually with the higher-ranked woman, Stacey Fung, coming in at No. 21, and Vanessa Wong checking in at 58.

Head coach Robin Stephenson has UW at 12-8 this season, and while they haven't been on quite the tear as their in-state rivals, the Huskies have put together a nice resume with wins over LSU and Colorado, as well as close quality losses to Southern Cal in Los Angeles, Illinois in Champagne-Urbana and Duke in Durham.

Washington does, however, have two of the better doubles duos in the Pac-12 and in the nation in No. 24 Kobayashi/Wong and No. 80 Hance/Slavica.

SUN DEVIL WOMEN'S TENNIS

HEAD COACH SHEILA MCINERNEY

In the past 33 years, Sheila McInerney has seen a vast amount of change at Arizona State, from new athletic directors, new head coaches, schools added to the conference, and numerous renovations to athletic facilities. Through the countless changes across Arizona State, McInerney has continued to lead the women's tennis program in a successful direction heading into her 33rd season.

In Arizona State's history, no coach has the number of accolades that Sheila McInerney has accumulated during her 33-year tenure as a Sun Devil. Since her first season as head coach in 1985, Sun Devil women's tennis has won 495 matches, advanced to 31 of 32 NCAA Tournaments, including 29 straight, and has finished each season in the top 38 nationally. That's the second most wins by any Arizona State coach in school history. In the 2016 season, McInerney was named the Southwest Region Coach of the Year by the ITA, as well as the Pac-12 Coach of the Year. She also was awarded the 2016 ITA Meritorious Service Award, which is given to an ITA coach who has gone "above and beyond" in their commitment and contributions to the ITA and college tennis in general.

In recent years, Arizona State's tennis program has continued to thrive on and off the court. On the court, the Sun Devils have 86 wins against ranked opponents since 2008. Leading the way for the tennis program have been 45 All-Americans and 41 All-Pac-12 student-athletes. Of these integral players in Arizona State's history, there have been 40 players ranked in the Top 50 of the singles season-end ranking and 21 in the Top 25 of the doubles season-end ranking.

In the classroom, McInerney has recruited bright student-athletes. She has had four Academic All-Americans, 45 ITA Scholar-Athletes (since 2002), and 80 Academic All-Pac 12 student-athletes (since 1991). Of those 45 ITA Scholar-Athletes, four were named in 2015 – Alexandra Osborne, Aubria Solares, Gussie O'Sullivan and Kassidy Jump. Her players have had majors such as Bioscience, Business Management, Criminal Justice and Criminology, English, Journalism, Kinesiology, Marketing, Political Science, and Sociology.

McInerney has also been fundamental in helping players' development to reach high achievements in the NCAA. Among the achievements include Jacqueline Cako named Arizona State Female Athlete of the Year (2013), Michelle Brycki awarded Cissie Leary ITA National Sportsmanship Award (2012), Kelcy McKenna selected as the Pac-12 Post-Graduate Scholar (2011), four singles and four doubles All-Americans since 2009, 14 players ranked in the singles season-end ranking and seven doubles teams ranked in the doubles season-end ranking since 2009.

Prior to coming to Arizona State, McInerney served as assistant women's tennis coach at the University of Southern California during the 1983-84 season, in which the Trojans were NCAA finalists. In addition to her success as a collegiate coach, McInerney has traveled with various USTA junior and national teams. At the 1986 Goodwill Games, McInerney coached the team to gold and silver medals. In 1987, she led the U.S. Pan American Games doubles squad to a gold medal.

McInerney attended USC, where she captained the Trojans during her senior season. The four-time All-American also was a four-time Trojan Spirit Award winner, as voted by her teammates. The Trojans won three national championships during McInerney's collegiate career, and she was the national collegiate doubles runner-up three times and a singles semifinalist in 1977. McInerney collected a half-dozen USTA national titles and was a member of the 1977-80 USTA Junior Federation Cup team. As a professional, she played on the major international tour, earning a world ranking in the top 75. McInerney competed at three grand slam venues -- Wimbledon, French Open and the U.S. Open where she reached the round of 32. She also served a short term as assistant pro at the highly acclaimed L.A. Tennis Club.

McInerney earned a bachelor's degree in public relations from the University of Southern California in 1980. A member of the Dean's List at USC, she won the USC Postgraduate Scholarship Award, the USC Junior Student-Athlete and Senior Student-Athlete awards.

Matt Langley

Head coach Sheila McInerney announced in 2015 that Matt Langley would join the program as an assistant coach and in 2017, Langley was named associate head coach.

Langley joined the Sun Devils from Middle Tennessee State University, his alma mater, where he most recently served as assistant coach for its women's tennis program. At MTSU, Langley helped coach the Blue Raiders to one of their best seasons in program history, recording a 19-5 overall record, 7-1 in Conference USA competition.

A member of the MTSU men's tennis team from 2009-12, Langley was a two-year co-captain and three-time Sun Belt Conference Champion, earning two Most Outstanding Player honors at the Sun Belt Conference Championships. Langley also recorded three career appearances at the NCAA Championships.

Langley graduated from MTSU with a degree in exercise science, and was a two-time Academic All-American and ITA Scholar-Athlete.

Ebony Panoho is a graduate student assistant for the Sun Devil women's tennis program and former Sun Devil tennis standout. The Brisbane, Australia native won the Pac-12 doubles championship in her senior season with teammate Alexandra Osborne to give ASU its first conference doubles title. She once partnered with 2003 U.S. Open champion Andy Roddick for a mixed doubles exhibition match.

Alexandra Osborne recently graduated from Arizona State after an illustrious career on the court for the Sun Devils. Along with claiming ASU's first ever conference doubles title, Osborne earned the Bill Kajikawa Female Athlete of the Year Award during her senior season, and earned the honor of ITA scholar athlete in 2016 as a junior. She is a native of Sydney, Australia.

Lindy Kyger is the Sun Devils' athletic trainer. She joined ASU this past fall after graduating from the University of South Carolina with a degree in athletic training in 2017. Kryger was born in Pennsylvania, grew up in Massachusetts. She will graduate in 2019 with a master's in higher and post secondary education.
