Gym Devil Update

In 2019, the Gym Devils have continued to rise to the next level with the leadership of head coach Jay Santos. They finished the regular season with a winning record (11-10) for the first time since 2014. The team has been ranked in the top 25 on Road to Nationals all season, including seven in the top 20. On bars and beam, they have also been ranked in the top 25 every week, reaching as high as No. 12 on bars and No. 16 on beam. On vault, the highest ranking has been No. 19, which they reached just last week, and on floor, the highest ranking was No. 16.

The Sun Devils collected multiple awards last week. Cairo Leonard-Baker was named to the All-Pac-12 First Team in both the all-around and on bars. She was also named a WCGA Regular Season All-American on bars. Anne Kuhm added to her Pac-12 Scholar Athlete of the Year award by making the All-Pac-12 Second Team in the all-around. Nine Gym Devils received Pac-12 All-Academic nods as well, including six on the first team.

Opponents Outlook

No. 3 LSU

- The Tigers are the top team in the entire Baton Rouge Regional. They have an RQS of 197.810 and are ranked fourth in all four events.
- In two of the last three meets, LSU has surpassed 198.000 for the team score, the best coming against Arizona when they scored a 198.175. LSU also won the SEC Championships with a 197.900.

No. 13 Auburn

- The other Tigers team in this regional is Auburn, who has an RQS of 196.695. They have scored a 197.000+ once this year (197.100) and have scored over a 196.000 eight times out of the 12 meets.
- In the second week of the season, Auburn beat LSU in a dual meet, 196.700-196.275.

George Washington

- The Colonials will be battling for that fourth spot in the second session. They are currently ranked No. 35 on Road to Nationals with a 195.450 RQS.
- At the EAGL Championships, they took second with a score of 195.825.

Lindenwood

- The Lions will fight the Colonials for that fourth spot in the second session. They are currently ranked No. 36 on Road to Nationals with a 195.400 RQS.
- They tied for first at the Midwest Independent Conference Championships with a 195.350.

Cairo: 2x All-American & History-Maker

Sophomore Cairo Leonard-Baker was named a WCGA Regular Season All-American for the second-straight season, this time on bars. She garnered regular season All-America Second Team honors in 2018 in the all-around from the National Association of College Gymnastics Coaches (NACGC). She was the first Gym Devil to earn regular season honors since they started in 2013.

She was also named to the 2019 All-Pac-12 First Team in both the all-around and on bars. She is the first Gym Devil to receive both of those awards in back-to-back seasons since Ashley Kelly from 2003-04.

At the Pac-12 Gymnastics Championships, she finished in a tie for fourth in the all-around, the best all-around finish for an ASU gymnast since 2007. She also tied for second on bars with a 9.950.

Olympic Flair

Senior Anne Kuhm has international competition experience to her credit. A member of the French national team since 2009, she competed in the 2012 London Olympics for Team France, which finished in 11th place. Kuhm was selected as a reserve for the all-around final. Most recently, Kuhm was selected as an alternate for France in the 2016 Rio Olympics.

This year, she was named the Scholar Athlete of the Year in addition to receiving Pac-12 All-Academic First Team honors and All-Pac-12 Second Team honors in the all-around.

More Than An Athlete

The Gym Devils continued their tradition of incredible work in and out of the classroom. Tying last year's record, nine student-athletes were placed on Pac-12 All-Academic Teams.

There were six on the first team, which is a program record. The six on the first team are Corinne Belkoff, Jessica Ginn, Anne Kuhm, Kaitlyn Szafranski, Ashley Szafranski and Heather Udowitch. On the second team, the Gym Devils represented are Morgan Hart and Morgan Wilson. Justine Callis is the Sun Devil receiving an honorable mention.

Last season, the team placed a program-best nine student-athletes on Pac-12 All-Academic teams, including a conference-best four first-team honorees.

In the Rankings

The Sun Devils' highest ranking so far this season is No. 13 in week two. They have been in the top 20 in seven weeks of the regular season and in the top 25 all season. They were ranked No. 20 in the Women's Collegiate Gymnastics Association (WCGA) preseason poll. They moved up 11 spots from their 2018 preseason ranking of No. 31.

Last Season

In 2018, Arizona State ended the season at No. 23, improving 18 spots ahead of the 2017 finish. The Sun Devils also improved their average team score from 195.145 to 196.545. The team qualified for NCAA regionals for the first time since 2014 and sent Leonard-Baker to NCAA nationals as an all-around.

JAY SANTOS

Head Coach

Hometown Brocktown, Mass.
Education Massachusetts '95
Bachelor's Business Administration

Vice President for University Athletics and Athletics Director Ray Anderson named Jay Santos the head women's gymnastics coach on May 27, 2016.

Boasting arguably one of the most substantial turnarounds in recent collegiate gymnastics history, Santos' 2018 squad improved 18 spots from their 2017 national finish of 41, capping the season ranked at No. 23 nationally (highest finish since 2007). Ranking in the top-20 of the national standings for 12 consecutive weeks, Arizona State made its first team NCAA regional appearance since 2014 while sending individual all-around qualifier and regular season All-American Cairo Leonard-Baker to nationals. Courtesy of his efforts at the helm of the program, Santos was named the 2018 Pac-12 Coach of the Year.

In his first season as head coach in 2017, Santos quickly elevated the program. The Gym Devils scored 195 in four separate meets, the first time that has happened since the 2014 season. The Gym Devils also bested then-No. 23 Arizona for the program's first Pac-12 win since 2014 and the coveted Territorial Cup series point. At the Pac-12 Championship, the Gym Devils completed the season with a 195.600, their second highest team score of the season. It was the second highest team total for the program at a championship meet since 2004 when they scored a 196.775.

Santos coached Eastern Michigan to the 2016 Mid-American Conference Championship, the program's first-ever NCAA Regional appearance, and finished the season ranked 17th in the nation – the highest national ranking in the history of the program. He earned NCAA Central Regional Head Coach of the Year honors.

Prior to leading Eastern Michigan, Santos coached at the University of Illinois-Champaign where he served as assistant coach, then associate head coach in his four-year tenure. At Illinois, Santos coached the team to three NCAA Championship appearances in 2011, 2013, and 2014, finishing 11th in the nation each year. Santos also coached eight Illini gymnasts to All-American honors.

Santos was assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at Iowa State from 2006-10, and also spent time as an assistant at Ohio State. Santos also spent eight years coaching at Somersault Gymnastics Center in Stoughton, Mass., serving as the women's team director and head coach for his last four years. At Somersault Gymnastics, he was responsible for all facets of the women's program and produced several Junior Olympic national and regional qualifiers, and many state champions.

Santos served as a nationally-rated men's gymnastics judge from 1997-2001, working numerous college dual meets as well as Junior Olympic state and regional championships.

Santos earned a bachelor's degree in Business Administration in Operations Management from the University of Massachusetts at Amherst in 1995, and was a member of the Minutemen's gymnastics team from 1990-95. At Amherst, he was a three-time co-captain and founding member of the department's Student-Athlete Advisory Committee (SAAC).

Santos' wife, Jessica Santos, serves as the Sun Devil Gymnastics program's associate head coach. They have two sons, Mason and Cooper.

Santos helped coach Eastern Michigan to the 2016 Mid-American Conference Championship, the program's first-ever NCAA Regional appearance, and finished the season ranked 17th in the nation – the highest national ranking in the history of the program.

Prior to her time at Eastern Michigan, Santos served as a volunteer assistant at the University of Illinois-Champaign for three seasons. There, Santos helped the Fighting Illini to their first back-to-back NCAA Championships appearances in program history.

Santos was also an assistant at Iowa State from 2009-11, where the Cyclones' saw the team's highest national ranking since 2007 at No. 13.

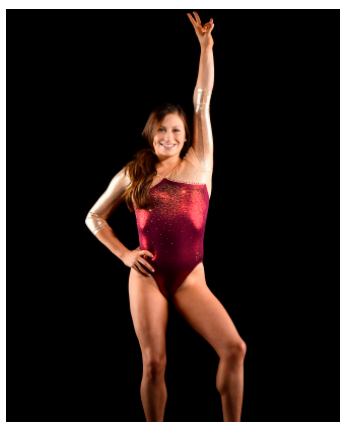

At Pittsburgh, where Santos coached as an assistant from 2006-09, she was named the 2007 NCAA Northeast Regional Co-Assistant Coach of the year, overseeing Dani Bryan, who won the league vault title that year. Santos had four other gymnasts earn all-league recognition on vault during her tenure at Pittsburgh. She also served as the co-recruiting coordinator for the Panthers.

Jessica earned both her bachelor's and master's degrees in Athletic Coaching Education at West Virginia University in 2005 and 2007, respectively. She competed for the Mountaineers from 2001-05 and was the last gymnast at WVU to score a perfect 10.0 in competition. Jessica then served as the Mountaineers' volunteer assistant coach during the 2006 season. A member of the National Association of Women's Gymnastics Judges, Jessica has been a Certified Level 10 judge since 2007.

Jess and Jay Santos have two sons, Mason and Cooper.
