8-time NCAA Champions

Sun Devil Women's Golf

Arizona State women's has done something unmatched by any other NCAA Division I women's golf team - the Sun Devils have won eight National Championships, including three straight, five in six years, and six within nine years (1990, 1993, 1994, 1995, 1997, 1998, 2009, 2017).

The reigning NCAA champions advanced to NCAA Regionals for the 26th consecutive year this season (one of 10 teams to appear each of the 26 years) and advance to their 34th NCAA Championships.

Arizona State Notes

- The Sun Devils won their nation-leading 8th national championship in 2017 behind individual medalist and 2017 graduate Monica Vaughn
- ASU earned their best team score at 2018 NCAA Regionals since early October 2017
- Olivia Mehaffey leads the reigning NCAA champion Sun Devils with eight top-10 finishes in 12 tournaments while the team also has nine top-5 finishes this year. Mehaffey finished T5th at Pac-12 Championships (Apr. 22-24)
- A testament to the strength of the Pac-12 Conference, 10 of 11 Pac-12 teams earned a spot in NCAA Regionals this season and seven advance to Stillwater
- Mehaffey was named to the 2018 international team for the Palmer Cup, to the ANNIKA Watch List, and to the 2018 Curtis Cup team
- ASU played in the prestigious East Lake Cup in November as one of the 2017 NCAA semifinalists
- Head coach Missy Farr-Kaye, who has won a national championship at ASU as a player (1990), assistant coach (2009), and head coach (2017), earned ASU's Alumni Achievement Award at the annual Founders' Day Awards Dinner in March
- Arizona State women's golf alum Mary Bea Porter-King earned the 2018 WGCA Gladys Palmer Meritorious Service Award
- Junior Linnea Strom turned professional in December, playing on the Symetra Tour

8-time NCAA Champions

Sun Devil Women's Golf

Head coach Missy Farr-Kaye and assistant coach Michelle Estill, both former Sun Devils, played under legendary head coach Linda Vollstedt at Arizona State. The five-time National Coach of the Year retired from ASU in June 2001 after leading the Sun Devils to six NCAA championships in the 1990's.

Missy Farr-Kaye

- Missy Farr-Kaye was named the 10th head coach of the Arizona State women's golf team on June 26, 2015
- Led the Sun Devils to their nation-leading eighth NCAA Championship in 2017 behind individual medalist Monica Vaughn
- 2017 National Coach of the Year, Regional COY, and Pac-12 COY
- Spent 13 seasons as an assistant coach then associate head coach of the ASU women's golf program under Melissa Luellen before the promotion
- Farr-Kaye returned the Sun Devils to the NCAA Regionals, their 26th consecutive appearance, while ASU makes their 34th appearance at nationals
- A Phoenix-area native, she was a member of ASU's first NCAA title as a senior in 1990 under legendary head coach Linda Vollstedt
- Farr-Kaye graduated from ASU in 1990 with a degree in Organizational Communications

Michelle Estill

- Returned to her alma mater in November 2016, joining former teammate Farr-Kaye's staff as an assistant coach
- Also played under legendary head coach Linda Vollstedt
- Was the NCAA Championship runner-up in 1986
- Graduated from ASU with a B.S. in Business Management in 1989
- 1991 LPGA Rolex Rookie of the Year and had four top-20 finishes the following year after ASU
- LPGA playing member from 1991-2006, also serving on the LPGA Board of Directors and Executive Committee (1996-98) as President (1998)
- Received Budget Service Award for the LPGA Urban Youth Pen Pal Program in 1994
- Since 2006, following her professional playing days, she worked in multiple areas of PING, Inc.
