GETTING STARTED

This season marks the 84th year of varsity ice hockey at Colorado College and 10th season as a member of the National Collegiate Hockey Conference. CC was a charter member of the Western Collegiate Hockey Association (1951-52) for 62 seasons before joining the NCHC with seven other schools prior to the 2013-14 campaign.

HOW TO WATCH / LISTEN

Both games this weekend will be broadcast in the Colorado Springs area and Southern Colorado on KRDO NewsRadio 105.5 FM / 95.5 FM / 1240 AM with the ‘Voice of the Tigers’ Ken Landau, and streamed live on Pac-12 Insider.

LAST TIME OUT

Colorado College suffered a pair of losses last weekend at St. Lawrence University ... On Friday, Justin Paul scored twice, including the game-winning goal early in the second period and an empty-netter, in a 5-1 SLU victory. The Tigers saw two of SLU’s goals deflect off their own sticks in the defensive end and could not find the special teams magic they had last weekend. CC was just 1-for-6 on the power play after scoring five times with a man advantage against Alaska Anchorage. In fact, the Tigers had three power plays in the first period, including a 5-on-3 opportunity for 1:07, but the Saints killed off the penalties, then took the lead 12 minutes into the opening frame. Jordan Steinmetz carried the puck down the left side and his centering pass deflected off a Tiger stick and over the left shoulder of CC goalie Matt Vernon. The Saints doubled the lead just 45 seconds into the second period when Paul scored a shorthanded goal. Tyler Coffey scored his first of the season one minute later with CC still on the power play to cut the SLU lead in half. The Saints put the game away with three goals in the span of 1:08 late in the third period. Luc Salem scored at the 15:32 mark, followed by Josh Boyer at 16:16 and Paul closed the scoring with his empty-netter at 16:40 On Saturday, Ryan Beck scored his first career goal, but it wasn’t enough as St. Lawrence claimed a 4-1 victory. Following a five-minute boarding major late in the first period, SLU opened the scoring with a shorthanded goal at 17:38 of the opening frame. Beck tied it up at the 8:12 mark of the second, but the Saints scored 1:42 later to take the lead for good. Kaidan Mbereko finished the game with 32 saves for CC.

FOR THE RECORD

Colorado College is 2-2 after its two losses at St. Lawrence ... Arizona State is 2-4 after splitting a pair of games with Colgate, winning 2-0 and losing 4-0, as the Sun Devils opened the brand-new Mullett Arena.

THE COACHES

Kris Mayotte is in his second season at the helm of the Tigers. He came to Colorado College after serving two years as an assistant coach at the University of Michigan. Mayotte was an assistant coach for Providence College when the Friars won the NCAA Division I title in 2015. In addition, he has won a pair of gold medals and a bronze in four stints as an assistant coach with Team USA at the World Junior Championships ... Greg Powers is in his 15th overall season on the Sun Devil staff and his eighth as head coach of ASU’s NCAA Division I Hockey program. He was a finalist for the 2019 and 2020 Spencer Penrose Award, which is awarded to the Division I Coach of the Year.

UP NEXT

Colorado College battles cross-town rival Air Force in a home-and-home series for the Pikes Peak Trophy. The game on Friday, Oct. 28, will be at Robson Arena, beginning at 7:30 p.m., and Saturday’s contest at Cadet Ice Arena, starting at 7 p.m.

TIGER TALES

Tyler Coffey scored his first goal of the season Friday night, then attempted a season-high five shots on Saturday ... Gleb Veremyev led all players with a career-high five shots on goal ... Freshman Cade Ahrenholz made his collegiate debut Friday night ... Ryan Beck became the third Tiger to score his first career goal this season (Noah Laba, Gleb Veremyev) ... Hunter McKown is tied for the national lead with three power-play goals ... The Tigers are second in the NCHC in faceoff winning percentage (.536) and third in penalty kill percentage (.846).

ANOTHER TOUGH SCHEDULE

The Tigers are scheduled to play 18 of their 34 regular-season games against teams that competed in the 2022 NCAA Division I Hockey Championships, including 12 against five of the last six national champions (Denver, Minnesota Duluth and North Dakota).

LEADERSHIP NAMED FOR 2022-23 SEASON

Graduate student Bryan Yoon and junior Logan Will have been named team captains of the Colorado College hockey team for the 2022-23 season, while junior Hunter McKown and sophomore Stanley Cooley will serve as alternate captains. Yoon, a defenseman from Parker, Colo., returns to the CC squad for a fifth season in '22-23. He is the team's active scoring leader with 57 points (6g,51a) in 129 career games after collecting one goal and 11 assists in 36 games last season. Will, from Ames, Iowa, appeared in 32 games and tied for second on the team with 18 points (6g,12a) last season. He tied for the team lead with 12 assists and tied for third with six goals. McKown paced the Tigers with 13 goals, 21 points and 85 shots as a sophomore in '21-22. He posted the first hat trick of his career, including the game-winning goal, in a 4-3 overtime victory over Miami. Cooley was one of only three Tigers to appear in all 36 games last season and led the team with four power-play goals. He finished in a tie with Logan Will for second in scoring with 18 points and the team lead with 12 assists, including a career-high three at Air Force.

EIGHT NEWCOMERS ON '22-23 ROSTER

Colorado College added eight newcomers to the roster for the upcoming season. They are: Cade Ahrenholz (F, Omaha Lancers - USHL), Ryan Beck (F, Dubuque Fighting Saints - USHL), Nikolai Charchenko (D, Minot Minotauros - NAHL), Noah Laba (F, Lincoln Stars - USHL), Kaidan Mbereko (G, Lincoln Stars - USHL), Noah Serdachny (F, Salmon Arm Silverbacks - BCHL), Ethan Straky (D, Green Bay Gamblers - USHL), and Gleb Veremyev (F, Lincoln Stars - USHL).

THREE TIGERS ON TEAM USA AT WORLD JUNIORS

Kris Mayotte, Hunter McKown and Kaidan Mbereko represented the United States at the 2022 International Ice Hockey Federation World Junior Championships. The tournament, which was originally canceled on Dec. 29, 2021, due to COVID-19 issues, was played August 9-20 in Edmonton, ALB. Mayotte served as an assistant coach with Team USA for the fourth time, while Mbereko was Team USA's starting goaltender and McKown made his first appearance at the WJC.

SECOND SEASON AT ROBSON ARENA

Never in the storied history of Colorado College Tiger Hockey had the team played its home games on campus. Thanks to the generosity of donors, including former CC hockey player Ed Robson '54, along with the vision of former President Jill Tiefenthaler and the Board of Trustees, that changed on October 8, 2021, when the Tigers and St. Lawrence battled in the first regular-season game at Ed Robson Arena. Colorado College ranked No. 1 in the nation last season with percentage of attendance vs. capacity, at 104.5 percent. The capacity of Robson Arena is 3,407 and CC averaged an attendance of 3,559.

CC TO HAVE 14 GAMES TELEVISED THIS SEASON

11 of Colorado College's 34 games will be televised live on AT&T SportsNet, including 10 from Ed Robson Arena, while the Princeton game on New Year's Eve will be broadcast live in Colorado Springs and throughout the Southern Colorado region on KRDO NewsChannel 13. Road games at Air Force on Saturday, Oct. 29, and Denver on Friday, March 3 will be televised on Altitude 2 and CBS Sports Network, respectively.

HEAD COACH KRIS MAYOTTE

Kris Mayotte is in his second season as head coach at Colorado College in 2022-23.

The 15th head coach in the history of the program, Mayotte brought a wealth of success as one of the top assistant coaches and recruiters in the nation to CC.

He put his stamp on the Tiger program in his first season with several convincing victories, including a 5-3 road win over 10th-ranked Boston College and CC's first four-game season sweep of an opponent (Miami) since the 2007-08 campaign.

In addition, Colorado College improved its team offense from 1.57 goals per game in 2020-21 to 2.19 in 2021-22, and the power play from 5.6 percent to 16.8 percent in Mayotte's inaugural season, the highest percentage increase in the nation.

Mayotte also solidified his reputation as a top recruiter with this year's incoming class, which includes Noah Laba, a fourth-round selection of the New York Rangers in the 2022 NHL Draft, Kaidan Mberekho, the starting goaltender for Team USA at the 2022 World Junior Championships, and several highly-touted players from the United States Hockey League (USHL).

Throughout his 10 years as a Division I assistant and associate head coach, he helped his teams to an NCAA National Championship in 2015, two Frozen Fours and seven NCAA Tournament appearances. In addition, Mayotte won a pair of gold medals and a bronze in three stints as an assistant coach with Team USA at the World Junior Championships.

Prior to taking over the CC program, Mayotte spent two seasons at the University of Michigan with head coach Mel Pearson after five years under Nate Leaman at Providence College, has recruited six All-Americans and prepared several of his players for the National Hockey League.

In 2020-21, Michigan ranked No. 3 in the nation allowing just 1.96 goals per game and ninth scoring 3.5 goals per contest. The Wolverines completed the 2019-20 campaign ranked seventh in the nation allowing just 2.00 goals per game, while netminder Strauss Mann was named the Big Ten Goaltender of the Year and a finalist for the Mike Richter Award.

Mayotte served as an assistant coach under Leaman on the gold-medal winning U.S. National Junior Team at the 2021 International Ice Hockey Federation World Junior Championship in Canada. Mayotte, who also helped the U.S. win gold in 2017 and bronze in 2018, was also on Team USA's bench for the 2022 IIHF World Junior Championships this past August.

From 2014-19, Mayotte spent five seasons with Leaman at Providence College and was elevated to associate head coach in 2017. A member of the 2015 NCAA National Championship coaching staff, Mayotte led the Friar goaltenders as well as the penalty-kill unit, while handling all aspects of many nationally-ranked recruiting classes. Providence earned a trip to the NCAA Tournament each of his five years at the school.

Under his guidance, Friar goaltenders and penalty-kill units ranked among the nation's best each of his last three seasons. In '18-19, the Friars finished tied for sixth in the nation for fewest goals against per game (2.00) while its penalty-kill unit ranked fourth (87 percent).

Mayotte spent two seasons (2012-13 and 2013-14) as an assistant coach at St. Lawrence University under head coach Greg Carvel, serving as the primary recruiter and working with the goaltenders and penalty-kill unit during his time with the Saints. He also was a volunteer assistant coach at Cornell University under Mike Schafer (2011-12).

As a collegian, Mayotte was Union College's starting goaltender from 2002-06. His final three seasons coincided with the first three seasons of Leaman's tenure as Union's head coach. Mayotte finished his college career with 116 games played and a 2.69 goals-against average while earning ECAC Hockey All-Rookie Team (2003) and ECAC Second All-Star Team (2006) honors.

After graduation, Mayotte spent four seasons playing professionally, which included American Hockey League stints with Lowell, Hershey, Bridgeport and Adirondack. He also played in the East Coast Hockey League for San Diego, Fresno and Johnstown and in the Central Hockey League for Arizona.

Mayotte and his wife, Juli, are natives of Pittsburgh, Pa., and the proud parents of a son, Locke, who was born in April of 2022.
