Women's Tennis Readies for Tilts Against Oklahoma State and Kansas State

TEMPE – Rounding up a three-match road trip, Sun Devil Women's Tennis (11-5, 6-2 Big 12) takes on in-state rival Arizona (15-7, 5-3 Big 12) at LaNelle Robson Tennis Center in Tucson.

The match is set for Saturday, March 27 at 12 p.m. MST and will be streamed on Playsight with live stats available on Sidearm and StatBroadcast.

Sun Devil Outlook:

No. 35 Arizona State (11-5)

-The Sun Devils hold a record of 43-12 against the Wildcats, including a nine-match winning streak dating back to April 2015. ASU swept Arizona in six of those nine matches.

-Freshman Aiya Nupbay earned her first ranked win over No. 104 Marcela Lopez for Oklahoma State last weekend. She moved to 4-0 on the season in singles.

-Senior Patricija Spaka is one win away from her 60th career singles victory. She is currently 38th all-time in career singles wins.

-Freshman Lily Taylor clinched the Sun Devils win against Kansas State last weekend with a comeback win 4-6, 6-0, 6-4. It was her first three set win as a Sun Devil.

-ASU holds a 10-3 record from the #2 spot in singles this season with Sara Svetac having a 5-1 record from the spot this year.

Last Time Out:

The Sun Devils lost their first match last weekend 4-1 to No. 26 Oklahoma State, but rallied on Sunday in a comeback win over Kansas State, 4-3. ASU overcame a 3-1 deficit against the Wildcats and moved to 6-2 in Big 12 Conference play this season. After dropping the opening set, Lily Taylor helped close out the victory for the Sun Devils with a comeback of her own, winning 4-6, 6-0, 6-4. Aiya Nupbay went 2-0 in singles over the weekend with two wins on court six.

IN THE RANKINGS:

The Sun Devils boast two players in the top 50 in the latest ITA Rankings which were updated on March 18. Emilija Tverijonaite is ranked 33rd in the country after an NCAA tournament appearance and is currently 9-4 on the year. Sara Svetac entered the top-50 at the end of the fall and is currently No. 49. The Sun Devils are one of two teams (Oklahoma State) in the Big 12 to have at least two singles players ranked in the top 50 in the ITA rankings.

The Sun Devil doubles pairs, Spaka and Taylor are No. 36 in the country after winning 10 of the last 13 double's matches.

MAGNIFICENT MILLIE:

Emilija Tverijonaite became the first Sun Devil to qualify for the NCAA Singles tournament since 2021 and went 12-2 during the fall season. The sophomore currently leads the team in singles wins at a 9-4 mark and helped clinch the win over Cincinnati and earned a bounce-back win in three sets against Kansas State. She is currently ranked No. 33 in the ITA rankings and has won three of the last four doubles matches. Tverijonaite is one of two Sun Devils with five singles wins on the team and owns a 5-2 record from the #1 spot.

SUPER SARA:

The Sophomore is currently 8-3 this season and has split time between the #1 and #2 spots in singles. She has a 5-1 record from the #2 spot this spring. Svetac was named Big 12 Player of the Week and earned a top-15 victory over Savannah Broadus of Pepperdine on Feb. 1. Svetac came off a successful fall season where she went 8-4 and is also 7-3 in doubles when paired with Karin Altori.

The Croatian has had a successful sophomore campaign, earning a ranking in both singles and doubles throughout the spring.

SPARKY ON TOP:

The senior is currently 7-2 in singles after playing from the #3 spot this season. Additionally, she has won ten of her first 11 matches in doubles and racked up an 10-1 record in doubles alongside partner Lily Taylor. From Latvia, she currently sits at 59 career wins in singles and recently notched her 70th career double win. The duo aims to rebound this week as Spaka has 129 wins as a Sun Devil between singles and doubles matches combined in her four years.

NEW CONFERENCE, WHO THIS?

The Sun Devils were picked to finish fourth in the Big 12 Conference in the preseason poll announced on Jan. 7. The maroon and gold also picked up a first-place vote. Prior to joining the Big 12, the Sun Devils boasted a 24-11 record against Big 12 opponents.

LOOKING AHEAD:

ASU continues Big 12 conference play with two matches at Whiteman Tennis Center next week. The Sun Devils take on TCU on Friday, April 4 at 4 p.m. AZT and Baylor on Sunday, April 6 at 12 p.m. AZT. Arizona State also celebrates Senior Day in Sunday's dual against the Bears.

JAMEA JACKSON

Head Coach

Record at ASU.....10-4

Career Coaching Record.....43-18

Hometown Atlanta, G.A.

Education..... Oklahoma State

Bachelor's..... University Studies

- Announced has the third head coach in program history since 1954, head coach Jamea Jackson was hired on June 4, 2024 announced by Athletic Director Graham Rossini and taking over for legendary head coach Sheila McInerney who announced her retirement last May after leading the Sun Devils to the round of 32 in 2024. Coach Jackson comes to Tempe after being at the helm of the Princeton Tigers for two seasons, leading them to back-to-back NCAA Tournament appearances and was awarded the 2024 Ivy League Coach of the year and led the Tigers to as high as No. 30 in the ITA team rankings last season. In two seasons she has a 33-14 record in addition to a 13-1 conference record.
- During her time at Princeton, she has coached five All-Ivy selections which includes Daria Freeman who reached No. 2 in the ITA singles rankings and earned Ivy League player of the year, All-American honors and was named ITA Northwest Region player of the year.
- This fall, Jackson assisted sophomore Emilija Tverijonaite to the NCAA Singles Tournament, who became the first Sun Devil since 2021 to take part in the championships.
- Jackson is a former professional tennis player and has sought out talent at the national and collegiate level. Prior to coaching at Princeton, Jackson served as a national coach for nine years from 2013-2022 with the United States Tennis Association (USTA) to recruit top American talent and developing the nation's best junior and pro tennis players.
- Before becoming a coach with the USTA, Jackson served as an assistant coach at Oklahoma State from 2009 to 2013 at Oklahoma State University. In her four years she helped the Cowgirls go from unranked to a top-25 program and managed to recruit the No. 4 recruiting class in 2011, whereas led to the Cowgirls playing in their first Big 12 Championship in more than a decade in 2013.
- Jackson played professionally on the Women's Tennis Association (WTA) Tour from March 2003 to August 2009 and achieved a career-high ranking of No. 43 in 2006. She competed in all four grand slams and represented the red, white and blue in the Fed cup competition in 2006. During her professional career she notched top-20 wins over grand slam winner Maria Sharapova, Marion Bertoli, Amy Frazier, Maria Kirilenko and Jelena Jankovic.

ERIK KORTLAND

Associate Head Coach

Education..... LMU

- Erik Kortland begins his first season with the Sun Devils after being hired by Jamea Jackson on Aug. 5, 2024 as the associate head coach. Kortland founded the RKT3 group to help promote a new innovated approach to the tennis industry and joined the player services and sports marketing team on Yonex USA to help recruit and take care of US Juniors.
- In 2017 in Carson, California at Training Center West, Kortland was promoted to lead national coach for men's and women's tennis and was in charge of all women's and junior boys' programming. He played a key part in recapturing the Junior Fed Cup title in back-to-back years in 2017 and 2018 in Budapest, Hungary. The 2017 team consisted of current world No. 3 Coco Gauff, Alexa Noel and Connie Ma. In 2016, Kortland coached Amanda Anisimova to her first junior French Open final and first WTA Grand Slam win at the U.S. Open.
- Kortland was hired as a player development coach in 2013 by the USTA in junior development with the primary responsibility to develop the best prospects and creating programming for all juniors at the USTA Billie Jean King National Tennis Center, the site of the US Open. While working as a coach at Riviera Country Club, he served as a volunteer assistant coach at Pepperdine in 2012.
- Kortland began his coaching career as an assistant coach at LMU in 2001, after graduating from his alma mater with a bachelor's of Communication.
