UP NEXT

The Sun Devil soccer team (8-5-1, 0-4-1 Pac-12) returns to the friendly confines of Sun Devil Soccer Stadium this week when it hosts Washington State (10-2-1, 4-1) on Friday at 7 p.m. Friday's game will be ASU's annual Pink Game to increase awareness of Breast Cancer awareness. Fans are encouraged to wear pink to the game to help support the initiative.

While the numbers are to the contrary, ASU comes into Friday's game seeking its first Pac-12 win. Outside of its tie at Washington, all of ASU's Pac-12 contests have been decided by one goal. ASU has faced adversity all season – 22 different players have been in the starting lineup due to injuries – and has still managed to play at a high level that enabled it to jump out to leads of 2-0 (at Washington), 1-0 (vs. USC) and 3-1 (vs. UCLA).

Quality depth, resilience and a team-first mentality of playing for each other are among the reasons ASU did not fold when injuries started to pile. It did just the opposite as it put together its best nine-game record in program history (8-1). Included in ASU's non-conference wins was a 3-2 win over then-No. 21 and previously unbeaten Texas Tech on Sept. 12 in Tucson.

Although its hard work has yet to produce a win in league play, it has not deterred the team's spirit given what it almost accomplished the second week of Pac-12 play when the Sun Devils had leads over current No. 7 USC and current No. 5 UCLA, only to lose both games by a single goal – 2-1 vs. USC, 4-3-OT vs. UCLA. After winning all five of its one-goal games in non-conference play, ASU has been unlucky in the same situation in Pac-12 play with all four of its league losses coming by one goal. ASU's most recent outing, a 1-0 setback at Oregon on Sunday, was the first time ASU failed to score this season, despite an overwhelming 8-1 advantage in shots on goal.

As the team continues to add players back into the fold who missed extended time because injury – and given the high quality of depth it has developed – ASU has every reason to believe it can still be in the hunt for an NCAA berth with a strong finish. Both of its next two opponents – Washington State (51) and Stanford (30) – have strong RPIs that would help boost ASU's RPI number with a pair of positive results.

DOUGLAS DELIVERS

Senior forward Nicole Douglas has been nothing short of sensational this season. The nation's leader in goals (14) and No. 2 in total points (33) – is also No. 4 in the nation in goals per game (1.00) and No. 5 in points per game (2.36) – Douglas has either scored or assisted on a goal in all but three games this season. Last Sunday's contest at Oregon snapped a streak of seven consecutive games in which she scored at least one goal. Also among the nation's leaders is senior Eva van Deursen (45 in assists per game/0.5).

Douglas (14 goals/5 assists/33 points), van Deursen (3 goals/6 assists/12 points) & fellow seniors Olivia Nguyen (5 goals/2 assists/12 points), Cori Sullivan (1 goal/5 assists/7 points), Olivia Kearse-Thomas (2 goals/1 assist/5 points) and sophomore Jazmine Wilkinson (2 goals/1 assist/5 points) – with their extraordinary talent for scoring/setting up teammates – have combined to help ASU rank 36th in the nation in points per game (6.71), 37th in assists per game (2.14) and 39th in scoring offense (2.29 goals per game), .

IN THE RANKINGS

After its 8-1 record in non-conference play, ASU earned a No. 15 ranking in the United Soccer Coaches Top 25, its highest in program history. ASU was then dropped from the Top 25 after its 2-2 tie at Washington (Sept. 24). ASU was the highest team receiving votes prior to its games vs. USC and UCLA and is still among teams receiving votes in this week's poll.

SERIES NOTES VS WASHINGTON STATE – ASU LEADS 13-9-2

Neither team has claimed superiority over the other in recent years as the last three meetings have included one win for each team – WSU 1-0 in 2017 in Pullman, ASU 3-1 in 2018 in Tempe and a scoreless tie in 2019 in Pullman. Last year's contest scheduled to be played in Tempe was canceled due to COVID-19 protocol.

ASU HEAD COACH GRAHAM WINKWORTH

- ASU Vice President for University Athletics and Athletics Director Ray Anderson announced Graham Winkworth as the new head coach of Sun Devil Women's Soccer in November of 2016.
- The Sun Devils had their best season under head coach Graham Winkworth in 2021 (2020 season), finishing the regular season with an 8-5-2 record and making a postseason run for the first time since 2014 and eighth in school history. ASU made it to the second round of the tournament to become the fifth ASU soccer team to advance to that stage in the NCAA Tournament.
- Winkworth and company boasted an undefeated non-conference slate last season, including an overtime comeback thriller at Grand Canyon to protect the streak. ASU continued its unbeaten streak through eight games and notched wins against UCLA, Stanford, and USC to become only the fourth team in history to beat all three programs in a single season. With a 4-4-2 record in Pac-12 Conference play, the Sun Devils finished in the middle of the table after being picked to finish last in the preseason poll.
- The Sun Devils scored 28 goals in 17 games, second-most in the Pac-12 Conference. ASU boasted one of the strongest defensive lines in the Pac-12, conceding only 16 goals and forcing ASU's keepers to make only 57 saves - fifth-fewest amongst Conference competitors.
- In 2019, Winkworth led his team to a dominant start to the season, securing five-straight wins for just the second time in program history, and carded their best start to a season since winning nine straight to start the 2000 season. The five-game win streak was the longest for the Sun Devils since 2014. ASU's strong non-conference performance helped the Pac-12 record the best-ever win percentage in conference play. Together, the league's 77-14-9 record for a .815 win percentage, the highest of any conference in the nation, and the highest non-conference win percentage by the league in Pac-12 history.
- Winkworth's 2019 squad combined to score 33 goals on the year, marking the best offensive output for the Sun Devils since scoring 34 goals in 2015. Sun Devil Women's Soccer capped the season with a 6-11-3 record to push Winkworth's overall ASU record to 21-29-7.
- In his second season at the helm, Winkworth achieved his best record at ASU, finishing with a 10-7-1 record. During the conference schedule, ASU swept all of the Pacific Northwest Pac-12 schools (Washington, Washington State, Oregon, Oregon State) in four consecutive games (two home and two away).
- Prior to his time with the Sun Devils, Winkworth spent four seasons transforming South Alabama women's soccer program into one of the top mid-major programs in the country and an emerging national power. Under Winkworth's direction, South Alabama set school records and program bests including qualifying for four-straight NCAA appearances, winning four straight Sun Belt Conference Championships, and earning the program's first top-25 national year-end ranking. A two-time Sun Belt Coach of the Year ('14, '15), Winkworth's student-athletes had a monopoly on the conference's top honors including four straight Sun Belt Freshmen of the Year, three Sun Belt Players of the Year, and three Sun Belt Defensive Players of the Year.
- In his first season as head coach of the Jaguars, Winkworth guided South Alabama to its most wins (14) since 1997 and the second-most wins in school history only to set the new program record for most wins (19) in 2014. The 2014 team also set school records for best winning percentage (.848), longest unbeaten streak (18), consecutive games scored (22) and shutouts (12). As evidence of South Alabama's transformation, in the five years prior to Winkworth's arrival, South Alabama had only one season with a finish above .500.
- Winkworth spent 10 seasons with North Alabama University, leading the Lions to a total of 111 wins, the most for a coach in school history. He also coached the program's first two All-Americans and led the program to its first NCAA postseason appearance.
- Winkworth began his coaching career in England with the Preston North End Football Club as an assistant with the Center of Excellence. He also served as an assistant coach at Cumberland (Tenn.) and Central Arkansas before North Alabama.
- Winkworth and his wife Jonna are parents to children Lucas, Caden, and Darbi.

Record at ASU: 38-39-10 (5th season)

Career Record: 215-138-25 (19th season)

WHAT TO LOOK FOR

- This was the second straight season ASU started 5-0. On Sept. 5, ASU was looking for its first 6-0 start since 2000 before being defeated by then-No. 17 LSU, 5-2. Last season ASU started 6-0-2 before its first loss in the season's ninth game. ASU's best winning streak to start a season came in 2000 when it started 9-0. ASU's 8-1 represented the second-most wins after nine games in program history.
- Douglas followed up the eighth multi-goal game of her career (two in ASU's 2-2 tie at Washington on Sept. 24) by accounting for a pair of goals and one assist in ASU's near upsets of then-No. 21 USC and No. 3 UCLA. Douglas, who scored at least one goal in seven straight games prior to ASU's loss at Oregon, is currently in third place on ASU's all-time list in both career goals (41) and career points (97), is tied for second place in career GW goals (13) and tied for 10th in career assists (15). With 14 goals this season, Douglas is currently tied with Cali Farquharson (2014) and Patrice Feulner (2000) for the second-highest, single-season goal total in program history. ASU Hall of Famer Stacey Tullock holds the single-season standards in both categories (17 goals/41 points in 1999).
- Douglas (14 goals) & Olivia Nguyen (5 goals) have combined for 19 of ASU's 32 goals. Although Douglas and Nguyen have accounted for the majority of the goals, ASU has had 10 different players find the back of the net this season. van Deursen (3), Wilkinson (2) and Kears-Thomas (2) have also scored multiple goals this season.
- van Deursen missed ASU's games vs. then-No. 21 Texas Tech and at Colorado College due to national team call up. On Sept. 19, van Deursen helped the Dutch U23 National Team claim a 3-0 win over Sweden. She made an immediate impact in her return to the team at Washington (Sept. 24) as she and Kiki Stewart assisted on Douglas' first goal of the game. Currently tied for No. 8 in program history with 16 career assists (six of them coming this season), the next time she helps one of her teammates find the back of the net, van Deursen will move into a three-way tie for sixth place in career assists and a nine-way tie for most assists in a single season.
- ASU started the season with a pair of true freshman goalkeepers – Julia Ortega & Birta Gudlaugs each played a half in ASU's first two games – as the team was forced to go without two-year starter Giulia Cascaperan due to injury. Gudlaugs has played every minute 10 times this season and is the owner of three shutouts: at Mississippi State (Aug. 26), vs. Nebraska in Tucson (Sept. 9) and at Colorado College (Sept. 17). Ortega started ASU's contest last week at OSU.
- ASU has overcome 1-0 deficits in three of its wins: vs. Central Arkansas, vs. Southeastern Louisiana and vs. CSUN. The Sun Devils would go on to win those games by a combined score of 12-4.
- ASU has scored at least one goal in all but one game (at Oregon Oct. 10) and has scored multiple goals eight times this season. Against No. 3 UCLA (Oct. 3), the Sun Devils scored more goals in the first half (three) than the Bruins had given up in all 10 of their games combined (two) coming into the game. The three goals were the most scored against the Bruins since the 2019 NCAA Tournament – a span of 27 games.
- Because of injuries, the Sun Devils have had 22 different players in the starting lineup this season. Nicole Douglas and Callie Darst are the only players who have started every game this season.
- Douglas (Offensive POW/Week One), Lieske Carleer (Defensive POW/Week Two) and Birta Gudlaugs (goalkeeper of the week/Week Two) have combined for three Pac-12 Player of the Week honors this season.
