Sun Devil Women's Golf

Arizona State women's has done something unmatched by any other NCAA Division I women's golf team - the Sun Devils have won seven National Championships, including three straight, five in six years, and six within nine years (1990, 1993, 1994, 1995, 1997, 1998, 2009).

The Sun Devils return to the National Championships for the first time since 2014 as a team, their 33rd all-time NCAA Championship appearance.

ASU Regional Recap

- The No. 7 Sun Devils won Regionals in 2017 for the first time since 2009 (fifth all-time Regionals first-place finish)
- ASU has won four or more tournaments in the same season for the first time since 2009 (won Pac-12 Preview, Clover Cup, PING/ASU Invitational, and NCAA Regionals in 2017)
- Among all 4 Regionals winners, ASU had the lowest three-round score by 15 strokes. Alabama (Athens) shot 7-under, Stanford (Albuquerque) shot 2-over, Florida/South Carolina (Columbus) shot 22-over
- Monica Vaughn, Olivia Mehaffey, and Linnea Strom went 1-2-3 for the Sun Devils at Regionals. This was Mehaffey's fourth top-10 finish in last five tournaments as well as Strom's sixth straight top-10 finish and eighth of the season in tournament play. Vaughn won her second collegiate tournament
- ASU shot 16-under on day three, a new 18-hole program record, surpassing the old record of 15-under, which the Sun Devils tied at their own PING/ASU Invitational in early April
- The Pac-12 advanced five teams to NCAA championships including USC, Cal, and Oregon as well as Regional winners ASU and Stanford
- 17 of the top 30 teams in Golfstat rankings advanced out of Regionals, but two teams in the top-10 (No. 2 UCLA, No. 8 Georgia) and two more in the top-15 (No. 13 Arkansas, No. 14 Arizona) failed to advance, showing the strength of the Regional fields

7-time NCAA Champions

Sun Devil Women's Golf

Head coach Missy Farr-Kaye and assistant coach Michelle Estill, both former Sun Devils, played under legendary head coach Linda Vollstedt at Arizona State. The five-time National Coach of the Year retired from ASU in June 2001 after leading the Sun Devils to six NCAA championships in the 1990's.

Missy Farr-Kaye

- Missy Farr-Kaye was named the 10th head coach of the Arizona State women's golf team on June 26, 2015
- Spent 13 seasons as an assistant coach then associate head coach of the ASU women's golf program under Melissa Luellen before the promotion
- Under Luellen and Farr-Kaye's partnership, the Sun Devils won the school's seventh NCAA title in 2009 and Azahara Munoz took home an individual NCAA title in 2008
- Farr-Kaye returns the Sun Devils to the NCAA championships, their 33rd all-time appearance, for the first time since 2014
- A Phoenix-area native, she was a member of Arizona State's first NCAA title as a senior in 1990 under legendary head coach Linda Vollstedt
- Farr-Kaye graduated from ASU in 1990 with a degree in Organizational Communications

Michelle Estill

- Returned to her alma mater in November 2016, joining former teammate Farr-Kaye's staff as an assistant coach
- Also played under legendary head coach Linda Vollstedt
- Was the NCAA Championship runner-up in 1986
- Graduated from ASU with a B.S. in Business Management in 1989
- 1991 LPGA Rolex Rookie of the Year and had four top-20 finishes the following year after ASU
- LPGA playing member from 1991-2006, also serving on the LPGA Board of Directors and Executive Committee (1996-98) as President (1998)
- Received Budget Service Award for the LPGA Urban Youth Pen Pal Program in 1994
- Since 2006, following her professional playing days, she worked in multiple areas of PING, Inc.
