UP NEXT

The Sun Devil soccer team (9-7-2, 1-6-2 Pac-12) plays its final home game of the 2021 season on Sunday (1 p.m.) when it hosts Utah (6-9-3, 1-6-2) in a Halloween matinee. Sunday's contest will be Senior Day. Following the game, the Sun Devil Soccer will honor student-athletes Lara Barbieri, Isabel Dehakiz, Jessica Hale, Jayda Hylton-Pelaia, Vildan Kardesler, Julia Koharko, Olivia Kears-Thomas, Hikaru Minami, Nicole Soto, Cori Sullivan and Anna White following Sunday's game.

STATE OF PLAY

Coming off a tough road trip to the Bay Area, the Sun Devil soccer team bounced back in a big way with a 3-2 win over Colorado on Thursday. Senior Nicole Douglas scored a pair of goals – the ninth multi-goal outing of her Sun Devil career – and Olivia Nguyen added her sixth goal of the season while freshman goalkeeper Julia Ortega made seven saves in win.

Despite all the hard work it has put in and the high quality of soccer it has displayed throughout the season, ASU came into Thursday's game seeking its first conference win. While they were not getting the results they desired each successive week – including near upsets of USC, UCLA and Washington State – the Sun Devils' competitive spirit never waned. Outside of its ties at Washington (2-2 on Sept. 24) and vs. Washington State (2-2 on Oct. 15), all of ASU's Pac-12 contests had been decided by one goal coming into its road trip to the Bay Area. Its 2-0 loss at Stanford (Oct. 21) was the first time in league play in which ASU was involved in a contest decided by more than one goal. That setback was followed by another one-goal game, a 1-0 loss at Cal (Oct. 24) played amid heavy rains and 30 mph winds.

PERSEVERANCE IN THE FACE OF ADVERSITY

Quality depth, resilience and a team-first mentality of playing for each other are among the reasons ASU did not fold when injuries started to pile up. It did just the opposite as it put together its best nine-game record in program history (8-1). Included in ASU's non-conference wins was a 3-2 win over then-No. 21 and previously unbeaten Texas Tech on Sept. 12 in Tucson.

ASU has faced adversity all season – 22 different players have been in the starting lineup – and has still managed to play at a high level that enabled it to jump out to leads of 2-0 (at Washington), 1-0 (vs. USC) and 3-1 (vs. UCLA). ASU's outstanding abilities on the attacking end also played a major role in the Sun Devils' 2-2 tie vs. Washington State on Oct. 15. Down 2-0 after 30 minutes of game time ASU was faced with this task: To get any kind of result it would have to score two goals against the nation's top team & top goalkeeper in goals-against average. It meant scoring one more goal than WSU had given up in its eight previous contests coming into the game. Given the circumstances, one could argue ASU responded to the challenge with one of its best performances of the season as Olivia Kears-Thomas and Nicole Douglas both scored in a game that ended in a 2-2 draw.

After winning all five of its one-goal games in non-conference play, ASU has not been as fortunate in the same situation in Pac-12 play with five of its six league losses coming by one goal. Its 3-2 triumph over Colorado (Oct. 28) was ASU's first positive result in a one-goal game in league play.

DOUGLAS DELIVERS

Senior forward Nicole Douglas has been nothing short of sensational this season. The national leader in goals (17) and points (39) – is also No. 2 in the nation in goals per game (0.94) and No. 6 in points per game (2.17) – Douglas has either scored or assisted on a goal in all but five games this season. ASU's contest at Oregon snapped a streak of seven consecutive games in which she scored at least one goal.

TOP OFFENSIVE CONTRIBUTORS

Douglas (17 goals/5 assists/39 points), van Deursen (3 goals/8 assists/14 points) & fellow seniors Olivia Nguyen (6 goals/2 assists/14 points) and Olivia Kears-Thomas (3 goals/2 assist/8 points) have combined for 29 of ASU's 37 goals this season. Sophomore Jazmine Wilkinson (two goals) has also scored multiple goals this season.

ASU HEAD COACH GRAHAM WINKWORTH

- ASU Vice President for University Athletics and Athletics Director Ray Anderson announced Graham Winkworth as the new head coach of Sun Devil Women's Soccer in November of 2016.
- The Sun Devils had their best season under head coach Graham Winkworth in 2021 (2020 season), finishing the regular season with an 8-5-2 record and making a postseason run for the first time since 2014 and eighth in school history. ASU made it to the second round of the tournament to become the fifth ASU soccer team to advance to that stage in the NCAA Tournament.
- Winkworth and company boasted an undefeated non-conference slate last season, including an overtime comeback thriller at Grand Canyon to protect the streak. ASU continued its unbeaten streak through eight games and notched wins against UCLA, Stanford, and USC to become only the fourth team in history to beat all three programs in a single season. With a 4-4-2 record in Pac-12 Conference play, the Sun Devils finished in the middle of the table after being picked to finish last in the preseason poll.
- The Sun Devils scored 28 goals in 17 games, second-most in the Pac-12 Conference. ASU boasted one of the strongest defensive lines in the Pac-12, conceding only 16 goals and forcing ASU's keepers to make only 57 saves - fifth-fewest amongst Conference competitors.
- In 2019, Winkworth led his team to a dominant start to the season, securing five-straight wins for just the second time in program history, and carded their best start to a season since winning nine straight to start the 2000 season. The five-game win streak was the longest for the Sun Devils since 2014. ASU's strong non-conference performance helped the Pac-12 record the best-ever win percentage in conference play. Together, the league's 77-14-9 record for a .815 win percentage, the highest of any conference in the nation, and the highest non-conference win percentage by the league in Pac-12 history.
- Winkworth's 2019 squad combined to score 33 goals on the year, marking the best offensive output for the Sun Devils since scoring 34 goals in 2015. Sun Devil Women's Soccer capped the season with a 6-11-3 record to push Winkworth's overall ASU record to 21-29-7.
- In his second season at the helm, Winkworth achieved his best record at ASU, finishing with a 10-7-1 record. During the conference schedule, ASU swept all of the Pacific Northwest Pac-12 schools (Washington, Washington State, Oregon, Oregon State) in four consecutive games (two home and two away).
- Prior to his time with the Sun Devils, Winkworth spent four seasons transforming South Alabama women's soccer program into one of the top mid-major programs in the country and an emerging national power. Under Winkworth's direction, South Alabama set school records and program bests including qualifying for four-straight NCAA appearances, winning four straight Sun Belt Conference Championships, and earning the program's first top-25 national year-end ranking. A two-time Sun Belt Coach of the Year ('14, '15), Winkworth's student-athletes had a monopoly on the conference's top honors including four straight Sun Belt Freshmen of the Year, three Sun Belt Players of the Year, and three Sun Belt Defensive Players of the Year.
- In his first season as head coach of the Jaguars, Winkworth guided South Alabama to its most wins (14) since 1997 and the second-most wins in school history only to set the new program record for most wins (19) in 2014. The 2014 team also set school records for best winning percentage (.848), longest unbeaten streak (18), consecutive games scored (22) and shutouts (12). As evidence of South Alabama's transformation, in the five years prior to Winkworth's arrival, South Alabama had only one season with a finish above .500.
- Winkworth spent 10 seasons with North Alabama University, leading the Lions to a total of 111 wins, the most for a coach in school history. He also coached the program's first two All-Americans and led the program to its first NCAA post-season appearance.
- Winkworth began his coaching career in England with the Preston North End Football Club as an assistant with the Center of Excellence. He also served as an assistant coach at Cumberland (Tenn.) and Central Arkansas before North Alabama.
- Winkworth and his wife Jonna are parents to children Lucas, Caden, and Darbi.

Record at ASU: 39-41-11 (5th season)

Career Record: 216-140-26 (19th season)

IN THE RANKINGS

After its 8-1 record in non-conference play, ASU earned a No. 15 ranking in the United Soccer Coaches Top 25, its highest in program history.

SERIES NOTES VS UTAH – UTAH LEADS 6-5-3

After winning five of the first eight meetings, the most recent of which came in 2014, Utah has had more success in recent encounters with a 3-0-3 record in the last six meetings.

SEASON SUMMARY

- This was the second straight season ASU started 5-0. On Sept. 5, ASU was looking for its first 6-0 start since 2000 before being defeated by then-No. 17 LSU, 5-2. Last season ASU started 6-0-2 before its first loss in the season's ninth game.
- Douglas posted the ninth multi-goal game of her career with two in ASU's 3-2 upset of Colorado on Oct. 28. She is currently tied with Cali Farquharson for second place on ASU's all-time list in career goals (44) and is in sole possession of second place in both career points (103) and career game-winning goals (14). ASU Hall of Famer Stacey Tullock (1998-2001) holds all three records with 125 points and 50 goals, including 16 game-winning goals. Douglas (17 goals, 39 points) is currently tied for first place with Tullock for most goals in a season (17) and trails Tullock (41 points) by two points for most points in a season.
- Douglas (17 goals) & Olivia Nguyen (6 goals) have combined for 23 of ASU's 37 goals. Although Douglas and Nguyen have accounted for the majority of the goals, ASU has had 10 different players find the back of the net this season. Kearse-Thomas (3), van Deursen (3), and Wilkinson (2) and have also scored multiple goals this season
- van Deursen missed ASU's games vs. then-No. 21 Texas Tech and at Colorado College due to national team call up. On Sept. 19, van Deursen helped the Dutch U23 National Team claim a 3-0 win over Sweden. With her eighth assist of the season vs. Colorado (Oct. 28), van Deursen moved into a three-way tie for second place in the school's record book for most assists in a season and is now in a three-way tie for fourth place in career assists (18). van Deursen's 0.5 assists per game currently rank 34th nationally.
- ASU started the season with a pair of true freshman goalkeepers – Julia Ortega & Birta Gudlaugs each played a half in ASU's first two games – as the team was forced to go without two-year starter Giulia Cascaperan due to injury. Gudlaugs has played every minute 12 times this season and is the owner of three shutouts: at Mississippi State (Aug. 26), vs. Nebraska in Tucson (Sept. 9) and at Colorado College (Sept. 17). Ortega started ASU's contests at OSU (Oct. 7) and at Cal (Oct. 24). She made a (then) season-high six saves at Cal (Oct. 24) and followed that with a season-high seven saves in ASU's 3-2 win over Colorado (Oct. 28).
- ASU has scored at least one goal in all but three games (at Oregon - Oct. 10, at Stanford - Oct. 21 and at Cal - Oct. 24) and has scored multiple goals 10 times this season. Against then-No. 3 UCLA (Oct. 3), the Sun Devils scored more goals in the first half (three) than the Bruins had given up in all 10 of their games combined (two) coming into the game. The three goals were the most scored against the Bruins since the 2019 NCAA Tournament – a span of 27 games.
- ASU has had 22 different players in the starting lineup this season. Nicole Douglas and Callie Darst are the only players who have started every game this season. van Deursen has started all 16 games she has played in.
- Douglas (Offensive POW/Week One), Lieske Carleer (Defensive POW/Week Two) and Birta Gudlaugs (goalkeeper of the week/Week Two) have combined for three Pac-12 Player of the Week honors this season.

RECAPPING LAST SEASON

ASU is coming off its best season under head coach Graham Winkworth, finishing the regular season with an 9-6-2 record and making the postseason for the first time since 2014 and the eighth time in school history. ASU made it to the second round of the tournament to become the fifth ASU soccer team to advance that far.

Winkworth and company boasted an undefeated non-conference slate, including an overtime comeback thriller at Grand Canyon to protect the win-streak. ASU continued its unbeaten streak through eight games and notched wins against UCLA, Stanford, and USC to become only the fourth team in history to beat all three programs in a single season. With a 4-4-2 record in Pac-12 Conference play, the Sun Devils finished in the middle of the table after being picked to finish last in the preseason poll.

The Sun Devils scored 28 goals in 17 games, second-most in the Pac-12 Conference. ASU boasted one of the strongest defensive lines in the Pac-12, conceding only 16 goals and forcing ASU's keepers to make only 57 saves - fifth-fewest amongst Conference competitors.
