Sun Devil Women's Golf

Arizona State Women's Golf has done something unmatched by any other NCAA Division I women's golf team - the Sun Devils have won eight National Championships, including three straight, five in six years, and six within nine years (1990, 1993, 1994, 1995, 1997, 1998, 2009, 2017).

The Sun Devils advanced to NCAA Regionals for the 28th consecutive time this season (one of 9 teams to appear each of the 28 editions). By virtue of their 2nd-place finish, ASU earned a berth in their 36th NCAA Championships at Grayhawk Golf Club.

Arizona State Notes

- For the fourth consecutive time and 36th time overall, the Sun Devil Women's Golf team advances to the NCAA Championship thanks to their second-place finish at the Columbus Regional.
- This time they will not have to travel to the Championship, as it will be hosted at Grayhawk Golf Club just down the road in Scottsdale.
- The Sun Devils have enjoyed their share of success on the sports' biggest stage, capturing a nation-leading eight National Championships.
- Head Coach Missy Farr-Kaye lead her team to the 2017 National Title in just her second season in charge, with Monica Vaughn earning Individual Medalist honors.
- ANNIKA Award Finalist and WGCA Player of the Year Candidate Linn Grant has been one of the best in the nation, entering the tournament ranked No. 1 by Golfstat and No. 3 by Golfweek/Sagarin.
- Linn Grant and Alessandra Fanali earned First Team Pac-12 All-Conference Honors, with three other Sun Devils landing on the Second Team
- Arizona State has won four event titles as a team this year, one of the highest totals among programs competing exclusively in the Spring.
- Head coach Missy Farr-Kaye has had success in any role that she has filled as part of the Sun Devil Women's Golf program, winning a national championship at ASU as a player (1990), assistant coach (2009), and head coach (2017).
- A testament to the strength of the Pac-12 Conference, 8 of 11 Pac-12 teams earned a spot in NCAA Regionals this season with six advancing to Scottsdale.

8-time NCAA Champions

Sun Devil Women's Golf

Head coach Missy Farr-Kaye and assistant coach Michelle Estill, both former Sun Devils, played under legendary head coach Linda Vollstedt at Arizona State. The five-time National Coach of the Year retired from ASU in June 2001 after leading the Sun Devils to six NCAA championships in the 1990's.

Missy Farr-Kaye

Michelle Estill

- Missy Farr-Kaye was named the 10th head coach of the Arizona State Women's Golf team on June 26, 2015
- Led the Sun Devils to their nation-leading eighth NCAA Championship in 2017 behind individual medalist Monica Vaughn
- 2017 National Coach of the Year, Regional COY, and Pac-12 COY; 2020 Regional COY
- Spent 13 seasons as an assistant coach then associate head coach of the ASU women's golf program under Melissa Luellen before the promotion
- Farr-Kaye returned the Sun Devils to the NCAA Regionals for the fourth straight edition, their 28th consecutive appearance, while ASU makes their 36th appearance at Nationals
- A Phoenix-area native, she was a member of ASU's first NCAA Title team as a senior in 1990 under legendary head coach Linda Vollstedt
- Farr-Kaye graduated from ASU in 1990 with a degree in Organizational Communications

- Returned to her alma mater in November 2016, joining former teammate Farr-Kaye's staff as an assistant coach
- Promoted to Associated Head Coach in June of 2020
- Served as an Assistant Coach in 2017 during the Sun Devils run to their eighth National Championship
- Also played under legendary head coach Linda Vollstedt during her ASU career (86-89)
- Was the NCAA Championship runner-up in 1986
- Graduated from ASU with a B.S. in Business Management in 1989
- 1991 LPGA Rolex Rookie of the Year and had four top-20 finishes the following year after ASU
- LPGA playing member from 1991-2006, also serving on the LPGA Board of Directors and Executive Committee (1996-98) as President (1998)
