SERIES NOTES

The Sun Devils won five of the first eight meetings, the most recent of which came in 2014. Utah has had more success in recent encounters with a 3-0-3 record in the last six meetings. Last year's 4-1 win in Tempe, ended Utah's six-game unbeaten streak in the series.

UP NEXT

After going 1-3 in consecutive games against the current top four teams in the Pac-12 standings, the Sun Devil soccer team (6-3-2, 2-3 Pac-12) returns home to face Utah (6-5-2, 2-3 Pac-12) on Friday night. Game time is set for 7 pm at Sun Devil Soccer Stadium.

ASU's accomplishments over the first six weeks of the season included a five-game winning streak, the program's second 6-0-2 start in three seasons and its first 2-0 start in Pac-12 league play since 2007.

In ASU's Pac-12 opener at Colorado (Sept. 23), Alexia Delgado scored the game's first goal and midfield teammate Eva van Deursen accounted for the other two, including the game-winner with three seconds remaining in ASU's dramatic, 3-2 win.

ASU started what most outside the state of California would consider to be the toughest possible four-game stretch in the Pac-12 with a come-from-behind win over Cal (2-1 on Sept. 29). For the second straight game, fifth-year seniors Delgado and van Deursen found the back of the net for the Sun Devils. Van Deursen's goal in the 73rd minute – assisted by Delgado and Lucy Johnson – gave the Sun Devils a lead they would not relinquish.

ASU had to deal with the bitter taste of defeat for the first time this season after it was not able to score a goal – also a first this season – in a 2-0 setback to current No. 9 Stanford on Oct. 2. The Sun Devils were again held scoreless in a 4-0 loss at top-ranked UCLA on Oct. 6. ASU concluded the difficult string of games with a 2-1 loss at then-No. 8 USC on Sunday. The good news for the Sun Devils is they are coming off their best half of soccer in the loss at USC. Freshman Enasia Colon's goal in the 48th minute cut ASU's two goal deficit in half. Although they were ultimately not able to score the equalizer, the Sun Devils' spirited play on both ends of the field resembled their performance in their last win against Cal on Sept. 29.

WHAT TO LOOK FOR

- How competitive is the Pac-12? Prior to last week's games in Los Angeles, the Sun Devils were in a three-way tie for fourth place. Fast forward one week and ASU (2-3 in the Pac-12) comes into Friday's game in a four-way tie for seventh place (tied with Washington, Utah and Oregon). UCLA (5-0) leads the way followed by Stanford & USC (tied for second place at 4-1), California in fourth place (3-2) and Washington State (2-2-1) and Colorado (2-2-1) tied for fifth place. A Sun Devil win combined with other results could propel ASU back into the top half of the conference going into next week's contests at the Washington schools.
- ASU's current three-game slide started with a pair of contests – 2-0 vs. Stanford and 4-0 at UCLA – in which it was not able to score after averaging 4.2 goals per game during a five-game winning streak. The common dominator in their first two losses? Trying to score goals against not only the top two teams in the Pac-12 in goals against average, but also two of the best in the nation: UCLA (first in the Pac-12 and eighth in the nation, 0.462 GAA) and Stanford (second in the Pac-12, 42nd in the nation, 0.714 GAA).
- ASU (No. 19) just finished a four-game stretch against teams that are currently among the top 40 in the NCAA RPI: vs. California (No. 31), vs. Stanford (No. 24), at UCLA (No. 1), at USC (No. 36).
- As of Oct. 13, ASU is among the top 20 teams in the nation in assists per game (14th/2.55), 16th in points per game (7.27) and 19th in scoring offense (2.36 goals per game).
- ASU has been led by returning All-American Nicole Douglas. Now the program's all-time career leader in goals (55), points (129) & game-winning goals (17), Douglas is currently 10th in the nation in goals per game (.82), 13th in points per game (1.82), 26th in shots on goal per game (1.91) & 34th in game-winning goals (3).
- After not finding the back of the net in ASU's season opener vs. South Dakota State (Aug. 18), Douglas scored nine goals in ASU's next five games. In ASU's 5-0 win over Grambling State (Sept. 14), Douglas, who was named the Pac-12's offensive player of the week on Sept. 19, tied the school's single-game school record for goals (3) for the fourth time in her career. She has now scored multiple goals in a game 12 times in her career.
- Prior to its loss vs. Stanford, ASU scored 21 goals during a five-game winning streak (6 vs. UAB, 5 vs. Grambling State and Toledo, 3 at Colorado and 2 vs. Cal). Douglas (6 goals), van Deursen (5 goals) and Delgado (4 goals) combined for 15 of those 21 goals. By the season's eighth game, Van Deursen and Delgado had already set new single-season career highs in goals.
- Both Lucy Johnson (vs. UAB) and Kennedy Mayo (vs. Toledo) have tied the single-game school record for assists (3).
- Olivia Coleman, who earned a starting spot on the ASU back line as a freshman before a season-ending injury last season, returned to action at UCLA (Oct. 6).

SUN DEVIL

S O C C E R

ASU HEAD COACH GRAHAM WINKWORTH

- The 2022 season will be Graham Winkworth's sixth as head coach of Sun Devil Soccer.
- The Sun Devils had their best season under Winkworth in 2021 (2020 season), finishing the regular season with an 8-5-2 record and making a postseason run for the first time since 2014 and eighth in school history. ASU made it to the second round of the tournament to become the fifth ASU soccer team to advance to that stage in the NCAA Tournament.
- Winkworth and company boasted an undefeated non-conference slate last season, including an overtime comeback thriller at Grand Canyon to protect the streak. ASU continued its unbeaten streak through eight games and notched wins against UCLA, Stanford, and USC to become only the fourth team in history to beat all three programs in a single season. With a 4-4-2 record in Pac-12 Conference play, the Sun Devils finished in the middle of the table after being picked to finish last in the preseason poll.
- With 10 wins in 2021, Sun Devil Soccer posted a double-digit win total twice (2018 and 2021) four seasons – and that does not include the 9-6-2 record that was good enough to earn the squad a berth in the 2020 NCAA Tournament – after accomplishing the same feat twice in the previous 10 seasons. After its 8-1 record in non-conference play, ASU earned a No. 15 ranking in the United Soccer Coaches Top 25, its highest in program history.
- In 2019, Winkworth led his team to a dominant start to the season, securing five-straight wins for just the second time in program history, and carded their best start to a season since winning nine straight to start the 2000 season. The five-game win streak was the longest for the Sun Devils since 2014. ASU's strong non-conference performance helped the Pac-12 record the best-ever win percentage in conference play. Together, the league's 77-14-9 record for a .815 win percentage, the highest of any conference in the nation, and the highest non-conference win percentage by the league in Pac-12 history.
- Winkworth's 2019 squad combined to score 33 goals on the year, marking the best offensive output for the Sun Devils since scoring 34 goals in 2015. Sun Devil Women's Soccer capped the season with a 6-11-3 record to push Winkworth's overall ASU record to 21-29-7.
- In his second season at the helm, Winkworth achieved his best record at ASU, finishing with a 10-7-1 record. During the conference schedule, ASU swept all of the Pacific Northwest Pac-12 schools (Washington, Washington State, Oregon, Oregon State) in four consecutive games (two home and two away).
- Prior to his time with the Sun Devils, Winkworth spent four seasons transforming South Alabama women's soccer program into one of the top mid-major programs in the country and an emerging national power. Under Winkworth's direction, South Alabama set school records and program bests including qualifying for four-straight NCAA appearances, winning four straight Sun Belt Conference Championships, and earning the program's first top-25 national year-end ranking. A two-time Sun Belt Coach of the Year ('14, '15), Winkworth's student-athletes had a monopoly on the conference's top honors including four straight Sun Belt Freshmen of the Year, three Sun Belt Players of the Year, and three Sun Belt Defensive Players of the Year.
- In his first season as head coach of the Jaguars, Winkworth guided South Alabama to its most wins (14) since 1997 and the second-most wins in school history only to set the new program record for most wins (19) in 2014. The 2014 team also set school records for best winning percentage (.848), longest unbeaten streak (18), consecutive games scored (22) and shutouts (12). As evidence of South Alabama's transformation, in the five years prior to Winkworth's arrival, South Alabama had only one season with a finish above .500.
- Winkworth spent 10 seasons at North Alabama, leading the Lions to a total of 111 wins, the most for a coach in school history. He also coached the program's first two All-Americans and led the program to its first NCAA appearance.
- Winkworth began his coaching career in England with the Preston North End Football Club as an assistant with the Center of Excellence. He also served as an assistant coach at Cumberland (Tenn.) and Central Arkansas before North Alabama.
- Winkworth and his wife Jonna are parents to children Lucas, Caden, and Darbi.

Record at ASU: 46-46-14 (sixth season)

Career Record: 221-145-28 (20th season)

STATE OF PLAY

The fact the Sun Devils did not encounter a loss until the season's ninth game is a testament to the team's focus and leadership. Both of ASU's opening weekend contests were affected by weather. ASU's opening game, 1-1 tie vs. 2021 NCAA Tournament participant South Dakota State, started on the night of Aug. 18 and finished on the morning of Aug. 19. Keri Matthews' first career goal tied the game at 1-1 on Aug. 19 after SDSU took the lead the previous night. ASU's next scheduled contest vs. Hawai'i (Aug. 21) was canceled (lightning).

ASU was able to start and finish its first road contest, a 2-1 win at Boise State (Aug. 25) without any unusual stoppages. However, weather issues once again came into play – a 50-minute lightning delay before the start of the second half – in ASU's 1-1 tie at Denver (Aug. 28).

ASU returned home and scored its most goals since the 2021 season opener in a 6-2 win over UAB (Sept. 1). It then went 13 days without playing a game after their home contests vs. Georgia Southern (Sept. 4) & Pepperdine (Sept. 8) were canceled (Covid-19 protocols).

ASU returned from the extended break with a pair of 5-0 wins over Grambling State (Sept. 14) & vs. Toledo (Sept. 18) before opening Pac-12 play with a dramatic, 3-2 win at Colorado (Sept. 23) and a come-from-behind, 2-1 win over Cal.

DONE THIS BEFORE

The tremendous job ASU has done of playing through adversity this season – weather affecting multiple games, pause in play due to Covid, managing in-game momentum changes – should come as no surprise to anyone who has followed the program in recent years. During the Covid season of 2020 (played in the spring of 2021), ASU made its first NCAA Tournament appearance since 2014 and was just short of making its first Sweet 16 after falling to Duke in 2OT. Last season, ASU still managed to post a double-digit win total (10) despite having to play 22 different players in the starting lineup due to an unlucky spate of injuries. Including this season's 4-0-2 record, ASU now 28-7-2 in regular season, non-conference games since 2018, including a 14-1-2 the last two seasons.

MAKING HISTORY

All eyes have been focused 2021 NCAA scoring leader Nicole Douglas, who earned Third-Team All-America honors in 2021 and was one of 13 players named to the All-Pac-12 First Team. The first Sun Devil to earn All-America honors since 2002, in 2021 Douglas set single-season school records for goals (19/No. 1 in the nation) and points (45). She also led the nation in goals per game (0.95) and points per game (2.25).

On Sept. 1, 2022, Douglas became ASU's all-time leader in career goals after scoring twice in ASU's 6-2 win over UAB. Douglas tied and then and passed Sun Devil Hall of Famer Stacey Tullock (50 goals/1998-2001) vs. UAB. On Sept. 14 vs. Grambling State, Douglas became ASU's new career leader in points (126/54 goals and 18 assists) and game-winning goals (17), passing Tullock in both categories Grambling State (Sept. 14).

Douglas, who has started all 82 games in her career, accounted for a goal or assist in all but five games last season and had a stretch in which she scored at least one goal in seven straight games. She has scored multiple goals in a game 12x in her career and has tied the single-game school record for goals (3) on four occasions – most recently in ASU's 5-0 win over Grambling State (Sept. 14) – and the single-game record for assists (3) once.

On Aug. 18, it was announced Douglas was one of 60 players on the 2022 Hermann Trophy Watch List. Presented annually by the Missouri Athletic Club, the Hermann Trophy is the nation's highest individual honor recognizing the National Player of the Year.

CHASING HISTORY

Also within reach of breaking a program career record is fifth-year midfielder Eva van Deursen (23 career assists/second place), who needs three assists to become ASU's all-time leader. Tullock (first place/25 assists/1998-2001) holds the school record. Van Deursen has already accounted for a single-season, career-high five goals and three assists this season. She scored the game-winning goal with three seconds remaining in ASU's 3-2 win at Colorado (Sept. 23) and followed with another game-winner in the 73rd minute of ASU's 2-1 win over Cal (Sept. 29).

In 2021, van Deursen set the school's single-season assists record with 10 in addition to scoring three goals. At season's end, van Deursen led the Pac-12 and was No. 19 in the nation in assists per game (0.56). She tied her single-game career high in assists (two) twice in ASU's wins at UAB (Aug. 29) and vs. Utah (Oct. 31).

Van Deursen was named to the College Soccer News Women's National Team of the Week for the week ending Sept. 25. She was recognized after scoring a single-game, career-high two goals, including the game-winner with three seconds remaining in ASU's 3-2 win in its Pac-12 opener at Colorado (Sept. 23).

HOW'S THIS FOR EXPERIENCE?

ASU returns a quartet of fifth-year players in the form of forwards Nicole Douglas (82 games/82 starts) and Olivia Nguyen (72 games/47 starts, including 46 starts in her last 48 games since start of her junior season) and midfielders Alexia Delgado (75 games/68 starts) and Eva van Deursen (80 games/76 starts). The four players have 19 goals and 10 assists – Douglas (9G/2A), van Deursen (5G/3A), Delgado (4G/3A) and Nguyen (1G/2A) and collectively have amassed 309 games played, including 273 starts.

The Sun Devils also return two other players with more than 60 games of experience: senior defender Lieske Carleer (63 games/62 starts) and senior defender/midfielder Callie Darst (59 starts in 65 career games). Although this is her first season with ASU, New Mexico State transfer Hannah Leitner has played in 56 games (41 starts).

Juniors Lucy Johnson (started all seven games she's played in 2022) and Jazmine Wilkinson (starts in seven of 10 games she has played in 2022), have also provided the team with important contributions this season. Johnson, who tied the single-game school record for assists (3) vs. UAB on Sept. 1, currently has a team-high six assists and Wilkinson has accounted for one goal and one assist.

SOPHOMORE STANDOUTS

Sophomore forwards Keri Matthews and Kennedy Mayo have provided the opposition with additional Sun Devil scoring options to be aware of on its scouting reports. Matthews has scored a pair of goals to go with one assist. Mayo proved how dangerous she can be, accounting for a goal and a single-game, school record-tying three assists in ASU's 5-0 win vs. Toledo (Sept. 18).

TRANSFERS

The Sun Devils welcomed two transfers to the program, Gabi Rennie and Hannah Leitner. Rennie, who had an assist in her Sun Devil debut vs. South Dakota State, joined the Sun Devils after starting her career at Indiana University. She also spent time with the New Zealand national team and scored a goal for them in the 2020 Tokyo Olympics. In her three seasons playing for New Mexico State, Leitner became the program's all-time career assists leader (12) and tied for eighth in career goals (nine).

MORE NEW FACES

The Sun Devils also welcomed nine freshmen to Tempe: goalkeepers Pauline Nelles and Kayla Letcher; defenders Andrea Kraetzer, Ava Wright, Meighan Farrell and Mya Wheeler; midfielder Brianna Nunley and a pair of newcomers who can play at multiple positions: Enasia Colon (midfield/forward) and Mia Lanni (midfield/forward).

The class has already made several contributions. Nelles was not available week one as she was still competing with the German National Team at the U20 World Cup in Costa Rica. She has since started the last 10 games and on Sept. 18 earned her first complete game shutout vs. Toledo. Nelles and Birta Gudlaugsdottir also combined for ASU's first shutout vs. Grambling State (Sept. 14). First-year field players who have earned playing time on a consistent basis include Kraetzer (11 games/9 starts), Colon (11 games/4 starts – two goals, four assists), Farrell (10 games/3 starts/1 assist), Wright (9 games/8 starts – 1 goal, 1 assist). Nunley made her first appearance at UCLA (Oct. 6) after missing the first 10 games due to injury.

SMART SUN DEVILS

Sun Devil Soccer was well represented on the 2021 Pac-12 Fall Academic Honor Roll as 19 Sun Devils earned recognition from the conference. In addition, Lieske Carleer and Eva van Deursen were both named to the 2021 CoSIDA Academic All-District® Women's Soccer Team.

LOOKING BACK AT 2021

- After its 8-1 record in non-conference play, ASU earned a No. 15 ranking in the United Soccer Coaches Top 25, its highest in program history.
- Due to injuries, ASU had 22 different players in the starting lineup. Nicole Douglas and Callie Darst were the only two players who started all 20 games.
- After winning all five of its one-goal games in non-conference play, ASU was not as fortunate in Pac-12 games as it went 1-6 in such games and also had a pair of ties.
- After losing two-year starter Giulia Cascapera in fall camp, the goalkeeper duties were split between freshmen Birta Gudlaugsdottir and Julia Ortega.
- Douglas (19 goals) and fellow striker Olivia Nguyen (seven goals) combined for 26 of ASU's 42 goals. Although Douglas and Nguyen accounted for the majority of the goals, ASU had 10 different players find the back of the net in 2021.

NO MORE FREE SOCCER IN THE REGULAR SEASON

This past April, the NCAA Playing Rules Oversight Panel approved changes to overtime rules in men's and women's soccer for both the regular season and the postseason, effective for the 2022 season.

For the regular season, overtime has been eliminated, meaning if a game is tied after the regulation 90 minutes, it will end in a tie. Previously, teams played two 10-minute overtime periods in a sudden-victory (golden goal) format, and if neither team scored, the game ended in a tie.

In conference tournaments and NCAA postseason games, the sudden-victory component has been eliminated, and teams will play two 10-minute overtime periods instead. Also, when a substitution is made by the winning team in the last five minutes of the second overtime, the game clock will stop.

If the game remains tied, a penalty-kick shootout will be held to determine the winner.
