SUN DEVIL LACROSSE PREVIEW

Arizona State lacrosse (7-8, 2-3) wraps up the 2024 Pac-12 road slate with a matchup against the Oregon Ducks (7-5, 1-4) on Saturday, April 20. The game is slated to start at 12 p.m. MST and will be broadcast on Pac-12 Arizona.

Program History:

The two teams have faced off nine times in program history, with ASU holding the 6-3 edge. Two of the three ASU losses came in the first two meetings between the teams, though the most recent loss to the Ducks came last season in Eugene and halted the six-game win streak by the Sun Devils.

Sun Devil Notes:

Last week, the Sun Devils had a pair of games in Colorado and dropped both contests. The team fell 20-10 to No. 20 Colorado and 21-11 at No. 13 Denver, despite trailing the Pioneers by just two goals at halftime. Seven of the eight losses this season have come to ranked opponents. ASU has not defeated a ranked team since May 5, 2022, when the Sun Devils took down then-No. 16 USC.

Sun Devil sophomore attacker Lydia Oldknow stayed hot with her eighth hat trick of the season against DU, which leads the team. She sits at 38 goals on the season and is the first Sun Devil with 50+ points this season.

Graduate defender Zoe Mazur still leads the program's single-season recordbooks with 126 draw controls after picking up 10 in the two games last weekend.

Scouting the Opponent:

Oregon has compiled a 7-5 record with first-year head coach Jessica Drummond this season. The Ducks have lost their last two games to No. 21 USC at home and unranked San Diego State on the road. All seven of Oregon's wins this season have come when the Ducks have scored 15+ goals. The five losses have come when the team scores 14 or fewer goals.

Taryn VanThof

Head Coach

SECOND Season

Loyola Maryland '15

Sun Devil Athletics hired Taryn VanThof as the new Lacrosse Head Coach, Vice President of University Athletics Ray Anderson announced on July 5, 2022

VanThof comes to Arizona State after an extremely successful six-year stint as the Assistant Coach at national power Florida. There she served as the Offensive Coordinator, Goalie Coach, Draw Specialist, and Recruiting Coordinator for the Gators.

“Thank you to Vice President for University Athletics Ray Anderson and Senior Associate AD/SWA Christina Wombacher for this opportunity to lead the Sun Devil Lacrosse program,” VanThof remarked. “I could not be more thrilled to coach at this extraordinary university.”

Under the direction of VanThof and Head Coach Amanda O’Leary, Florida has emerged as one of the nation’s premiere programs over the past six years. In 2022, the Gators made their fifth consecutive NCAA Tournament, earning a bid every year of VanThof’s tenure. She arrives in Tempe coming off two straight appearances in the NCAA Quarterfinal Round (Elite Eight) with Florida.

“Taryn VanThof is a tremendous addition to the Sun Devil Family.” Vice President of University Athletics Ray Anderson stated. “We identified her as the right person to lead this program on the rise because of her energy, passion, and desire to be at Arizona State.”

Prior to launching a budding career in coaching, VanThof was a standout All-American midfielder at Loyola Maryland from 2011-15. She competed at the professional level as recently as the 2021 season in the Athletes Unlimited League.

While she was an assistant coach at Florida, the Gators combined to go an incredible 85-24 (78%) from 2017-22. That stretch included five NCAA Tournament appearances, six NCAA Tournament victories, all five possible Conference Tournament titles, and two of the three Elite Eight appearances in program history.

As the Offensive Coordinator, Goalie Coach, Draw Specialist, and Recruiting Coordinator, VanThof had an impact on all aspects of the program for the last six years. The Gators finished the season ranked in the Top-10 all but one of those seasons, proving to be one of the most consistent and well-coached teams in the country.

She began her coaching career at Rutgers in 2016, getting a taste of Big Ten action immediately following the completion of her collegiate career. During her only season in New Brunswick, she helped orchestrate a four-win improvement, with two Scarlet Knights named to the Big Ten All-Conference Team.

Caroline Wakefield

Assistant Coach
SECOND Season
North Carolina '21

One of the winningest players in the history of the storied North Carolina Women's Lacrosse program will be patrolling the sidelines in Tempe next season. For All-American Caroline Wakefield joins Haley Warden, who accepted a role on the staff last week, to make up an extremely decorated assistant coach duo.

"We are thrilled to have Caroline Wakefield join our staff," Head Coach Taryn VanThof remarked. "She has an exceptional ability to connect and build relationships with student-athletes. I can't wait to get to work with her."

As part of her over 14 years of hands-on experience in the sport of lacrosse, Wakefield has been the Head Coach of Team91 Carolina since 2018. In this role, she developed Team91's program to reach their maximum performance. She most recently served as a Director of Operations for the travel teams she helped establish, coordinating all travel and logistics.

"Arizona State is a unique place to play lacrosse and offers an extraordinary student-athlete experience," Wakefield observed. "I am looking forward to being a part of something special in Tempe."

Haley Warden
Assistant Coach
SECOND Season
JMU '18

Warden comes to Arizona State after spending the past three seasons at James Madison, where she served as the offensive coordinator for her Alma Mater. She brings an impressive resume with her to Tempe, having found success at the highest level as both a coach and player.

"I am excited to welcome Coach Warden to the Sun Devil Lacrosse family," Head Coach Taryn VanThof exclaimed. "Haley brings international and professional playing experience, is a great leader and communicator, and continues to blossom as a coach. She understands what it takes to be the best."

Over the course of a brilliant four-year run with the Dukes, Warden established herself as one of the best to ever wear the purple and gold. She capped her playing career in the ultimate fashion, captaining the 2018 team to the NCAA Championship, the first in program history. Warden was named the Most Outstanding Player of the National Championship Game after delivering a four-goal performance in the 16-15 win over Boston College.

"I am honored and humbled to be named assistant coach at Arizona State University," Haley Warden remarked. "I would like to thank Coach VanThof and Sr. Associate AD/SWA Christina Wombacher for this amazing opportunity."
