FALL SEASON REVIEW

Sun Devil Women's Golf Concludes the Fall Portion of the 2023-24 Campaign

ARIZONA STATE SUN DEVILS

Coaching & Support Staff

Head Coach Missy Farr-Kaye

Asst. Coach Mikayla Tatman

Volunteer Asst. Matt Trimble

Director of Ops. Ally Montiel

COACH'S CORNER

"This Fall was a tremendous opportunity to grow as a team," Head Coach Missy Farr-Kaye observed. "All six of our student-athletes have been working extremely hard to improve their game. We had some strong moments over the past few months and look forward to building on that."

"The best has yet to come for this group," Coach Farr-Kaye added. "It is exciting that our fans have a couple chances in the state of Arizona to watch us play, because you are going to have the chance to see some exciting golf. Coach Tatman and I are encouraged by the attitude of the team and optimistic for the Spring season."

FINISHED UP THE FALL

Sun Devil Women's Golf completed the Fall portion of the 2023-24 campaign at the Stanford Intercollegiate. Arizona State finished in seventh place out of 19 teams in a loaded field at Stanford Golf Course. Ashley Menne led the way individually, earning a spot in the Top-25 among a field of 100 golfers. Patience Rhodes fired a 69 (-2) to move 15 spots up the leaderboard on the final day and into the Top-30. All five Sun Devils enjoyed stretches of strong play during the Fall, giving Sun Devil Women's Golf fans plenty to be excited about heading into the Spring.

BY THE NUMBERS

By virtue of their titles in 2009 and 2017, Arizona State is one of three programs to have won two NCAA Championships since 2009. They are joined on this exclusive list by Duke and Stanford.

8

Sun Devil Women's Golf has a total of eight NCAA Golf Championships, the most of any program in the nation.

6

ASU also has had six individuals win medalist honors at the NCAA Championship, the most of any school.

20

Arizona State has made 20 NCAA Women's Golf Championship appearances since 2000, one of only five programs to accomplish the feat.

A TRADITION LIKE NO OTHER

- During the past five decades, many of the premier amateur women's golfers have called Arizona State University home.
- Arizona State won its NCAA-leading eighth national championship title in 2017 to reinforce its standing as the premier women's golf school in the United States.
- Under legendary Head Coach Linda Vollstedt, the program became the first in women's collegiate golf to win six championships in a decade (1990, '93, '94, '95, '97, '98).
- ASU remains the lone program to ever capture three national titles in a row (1993, '94, '95).
- The Sun Devil Golf programs did something in 1990 that had never been done before and hasn't been accomplished since. ASU swept both the Men's and Women's Team National Titles in 1990, becoming the first school to capture both championships in the same year.

TEAM RANKING

- Golfweek/Sagarin: 25
- WGCA: 14 (Preseason)

UP NEXT

- All six Sun Devils enjoyed stretches of strong play during the Fall, giving Sun Devil Women's Golf fans plenty to be excited about heading into the Spring.
- Head Coach Missy Farr-Kaye's team will now enjoy a two month break before taking on their Spring schedule, which begins on January 22nd in Gold Canyon, Arizona for the Match in the Desert.

2023-24 CAMPAIGN

- Arizona State has been tested throughout 2023-24 as Coach Farr-Kaye built one of the nation's toughest slates once again.
- The Maroon and Gold are scheduled to compete in a total of nine regular season events, with five remaining in the Spring.
- The postseason begins April 21 at the Pac-12 Championship, with NCAA Regionals and NCAA Championships scheduled for the month of May.

MCGUIRE INVITATIONAL

- Arizona State finished in third place in their return to the McGuire Invitational, beating out 13 teams in the initial event of the 2023-24 campaign.
- It was a balanced effort that helped the Sun

Devils to an impressive performance over the two days, as four individuals finished in the Top-20.

- Ashley Menne led the way for the Maroon & Gold, appearing to be in midseason form on her way to a sixth place finish.
- Grace Summerhays put together a strong effort in order to tie for 14th.
- Patience Rhodes and Paula Schulz-Hanssen joined them in the Top-20, with the pair finishing tied for 17th.
- All six Sun Devils earned valuable experience that has proven to be critical for the rest of the 2023-24 season.

MASON RUDOLPH INVITATIONAL

- Arizona State (-13/851) finished in fourth place as a team after posting a 285 (-3), moving two spots up the leaderboard on the final day of the Mason Rudolph Invitational in September.
- The Maroon & Gold were the top finishing non-SEC team at the tournament played in the footprint of the league, as Coach Farr-Kaye's team proved to be able to handle the change in geography.
- The Mason Rudolph Invitational featured 11 teams ranked inside GOLF Channel's preseason Top-35 and ASU beat out seven of them this weekend.
- The Sun Devils were led by sophomore Paula Schulz-Hanssen, who was fantastic on her way to a Top-5 finish. She completed the Mason Rudolph Invitational at 209 (-7), capping the event with a 69 (-3) to move into a tie for fifth.
- She was joined by Beth Coulter (T16th) and Grace Summerhays (T20th) in the Top-20 of a loaded individual field.

WINDY CITY COLLEGIATE

- Sun Devil Women's Golf returned to the Windy City Collegiate Classic, playing three rounds in two days. Arizona State continued their ascent up the leaderboard, climbing an additional two spots thanks to a solid final round.
- Head Coach Missy Farr-Kaye's group shot a 288 (E) on the last day to move into a tie for 10th.
- The only teams to finish ahead of the Maroon & Gold other than host Northwestern entered the event in the Golfweek Top-30. Ashley Menne and Patience Rhodes led the way individually, each solidifying Top-20 finishes after carding a 70 (-2) in round three.

STANFORD INTERCOLLEGIATE

- Sun Devil Women's Golf completed the Fall portion of the 2023-24 campaign at the Stanford Intercollegiate.
- Arizona State finished in seventh place out of 19 teams in a loaded field at Stanford Golf Course.
- Ashley Menne led the way individually, earning a spot in the Top-25 among a field of 100 golfers.
- Patience Rhodes enjoyed the best day of any Sun Devil, firing a 69 (-2) to move 15 spots up the leaderboard and into the Top-30.

SOLHEIM CUP

- Sun Devil Women's Golf alumni had a major influence in retaining the 2023 Solheim Cup for Team Europe at Finca Cortesin Golf Course in Spain.
- Anna Nordqvist, Linn Grant, and Carlota Ciganda were all a part of the European side that tied the United States, 14-14.
- Thanks to their status as two-time defending Solheim Cup Champions, Team Europe retains the title.
- Trailing 4-0 after the first session, the Sun Devil trio was instrumental in sparking a comeback for the Europeans. Of the 14 total points accumulated by 12 European golfers, seven came from the three Sun Devils.
- Playing in front of thousands of fans in her home country of Spain, Carlota Ciganda delivered one of the most memorable performances in Solheim Cup history.
- With Europe trailing 14-13 and Ciganda tied late in her singles match, she secured massive wins on holes 16 and 17.
- A clutch putt on 18 sealed her victory over Nelly Korda of Team USA and evened the overall score at 14, allowing Europe to retain the cup.

FORSTERLING WINS LET TITLE

- Sun Devil Women's Golf alum Alexandra Forsterling won the VP Bank Swiss Ladies Open in September, securing her first career title on the Ladies European Tour (LET).
- Forsterling shot a 66 (-5) three consecutive days, erasing a two-stroke deficit on the final day to claim the victory at Golfpark Holzhausen in Switzerland.
- A bogey-free final round and clutch birdies on 8, 10, 12, and finally 18 helped her seal the VP Bank Swiss Ladies Open Championship while collecting $45,000 in prize money.

HERE FOR THE LONG HAUL

- Sun Devil Athletics was thrilled to extend four of its head coaches in December of 2022, including Women's Golf Head Coach Missy Farr-Kaye.
- Entering her ninth season with ASU, Farr-Kaye has been extended through the 2027-28 athletic calendar.
- She completed the trifecta in 2017, becoming the first individual in NCAA history to win a National Championship as a player, assistant coach, and head coach at the same school.

THE BIRD

- The Thunderbirds Golf Complex, designed by Douglas Fredrickson Architects and built by Rummel Construction Inc., is a 7,000-square foot facility featuring a grand entry lobby, national championship displays, a team gym and locker rooms for both men's and women's teams, a fueling station, study lounge, team lounge, indoor hitting bays and more.
- Designed by Sun Devil alumnus and five-time PGA Major Championships winner Phil Mickelson, who is known for his short-game expertise, the four-acre practice area consists of five practice greens, four practice bunkers and a three-acre fairway and rough designed to practice every possible golf shot.
- On Nov. 1, 2018, Papago Golf Course became the new home for Sun Devil Men's & Women's Golf with the unveiling of their new state-of-the-art practice facility -- The Thunderbirds Golf Complex -- through the generous commitment by The Thunderbirds organization. Arizona State, in partnership with The Thunderbirds, Arizona Golf Community Foundation, the City of Phoenix and Phil Mickelson Design, revitalized the course and helped build the Lou Grubb Clubhouse and Lou's Bar & Grill.
