DEVILS OPEN POSTSEASON CAMPAIGN AT PAC-12 TOURNEY

TEMPE - Anything can happen in the postseason, and this year the Sun Devils head into the Pac-12 Championships as the No. 3 seed hoping for an extended stay in Ojai, California, with one of the youngest squads in the conference.

"The girls are excited and we've got four new ones going to Ojai for the first time," coach Sheila McInerney said. "I think we want to stay a little bit longer than we did last year for sure."

As the No. 3 seed, the Devils received a bye into the quarterfinal round and their opponent will be determined in a first round match Wednesday between No. 6 Southern California and No. 11 Arizona.

"You pretty much wait to see what happens in the first round," McInerney said. "The good thing is we've played both of these teams quite recently and as far as singles goes, the lineups are the same so they'll come up against the same women they've played already."

Within the last two weeks, ASU has recorded victories over the Trojans and Wildcats as they won a nailbiter in Los Angeles 4-3, and fought off a U of A comeback to take the T-Cup Series point 4-2 in Tucson.

"In doubles, Arizona's switched it up a bit, but honestly for either opponent it's going to be the same match, different day," McInerney said. "With that being said, the kids know the good and the bad from their last outings and you just have to wait to see what happens. This time of the year, anything can happen."

The Devils met USC in the quarterfinal last season where the Trojans bested ASU, 4-3. This year, the Sun Devils are led by an unlikely tandem that has had one of the most impressive runs in school history.

No. 15 Lauryn John-Baptiste and Ilze Hattingh are two newcomers to Tempe who have been on a tear with their impressive 16-1 record in doubles, and are vying for a coveted place in the field of 32 at the NCAA Doubles Championships in May.

"They've gotten more aggressive now and that's something you have to do on court one," McInerney said. "They're 16-1 and that's crazy. That's as good a record as we've ever had. It's pretty easy to lose a set of tennis, but they haven't strayed too much mentally this whole season. Depending on what they do at Pac-12s, they should get into the tournament. It would be a nice feather in our cap if they could make that field."

McInerney's squad takes to the court Thursday at 10:30 a.m., in Ojai at the Ojai Valley Athletic Club. The match between Southern Cal and U of A will be one of the first of the weekend as it's slated to begin at 11 a.m. Wednesday.

Scores and updates from the championships will be available on the Pac-12 website.

TEAM NOTES

RANKINGS UPDATE

Arizona State grabbed a crucial Territorial Cup Series point in their victory over Arizona last weekend, but the win wasn't enough to keep the Devils from getting leapfrogged by surrounding teams as they were pushed to 35th in the updated ranking.

Conference leader UCLA leads the way at No. 13, and Stanford's steady climb in the poll has landed the Cardinal at 16. The Pac-12's seven-seed, Oregon slots in at No. 30. Behind the Sun Devils is Washington at No. 43, Cal at 45, Washington State at 48 and Southern Cal in 49th.

In singles rankings, Lauryn John-Baptiste remains on the list following her win this weekend. She comes in at No. 61, but her partnership with Ilze Hattingh has the England international among the elites this season.

The South African and English combination is 15th in the nation and the third-highest ranked doubles duo in a loaded Pac-12 conference.

LAST TIME OUT

The Sun Devil women's tennis team secured an important Territorial Cup Series point with a 4-2 victory over in-state rival Arizona Saturday in Tucson.

The charge to victory got started with a dominating doubles performance on all three courts that saw the Devils make quick work of the three U of A tandems with Fossa Huergo/Klanecek sweeping on court three and No. 17 John-Baptiste/Hattingh winning 6-1 on court one. Slaysman/Kolarova were up 5-2 before the point was clinched on court one.

In singles play, Lauryn John-Baptiste won on court one to give the Devils a 2-0 lead, then Arizona won two straight on courts three and four.

The go-ahead point was scored by Sasa Klanecek on court five, then Tereza Kolarova clinched the match for the Sun Devils by taking down Sophia Thomas in three sets on court six. In their first Territorial Cup Series matchup, all three of coach Sheila McInerney's freshmen didn't blink as they sealed their first win over the in-state rival.

DOUBLE TROUBLE

With a relatively young team consisting of three freshmen and two sophomores, the 2018 Sun Devil squad has found leadership and consistency outside of its lone senior Nicole Fossa Huergo from a pair of newcomers.

Playing on courts two and one for the entire season, Ilze Hattingh and Lauryn John-Baptiste have combined to not only clinch six of the Devils' 15 wins, but also as a tandem had one of the most prolific debut seasons in ASU history.

The duo began the season unranked and playing on court two, but the NCAA has taken notice as the young Devils have accumulated 16 wins and just one loss and are now in position to make the NCAA Doubles Championships as they sit ranked 15th in the nation in the Oracle/ITA Rankings.

They are the joint-youngest tandem in the top-20 as there are only three sophomore/freshman pairings among the elite of the NCAA.

John-Baptiste/Hattingh would need to finish in the top-32 to earn a place in the NCAA Doubles Championships scheduled for later next month. Should they receive a berth, it would be the seventh time in the past decade the Devils have sent a representative to the Tournament.

A LOOK BACK

As the three-seed a season ago, the Devils faced a familiar opponent in six-seed USC and dropped a nail-biter 4-3 in Ojai to end their Pac-12 Championships run.

The Devils took the doubles point with wins on courts two and three, but USC was too much for ASU in singles as the Trojans won four of the six matches to claim the match and advance to the semifinal round.

Savannah Slaysman actually put ASU up 2-0, but USC tied it with wins on courts two and three before Cassidy Jump upset No. 37 Jessica Failla on court one, then the Trojans rolled to the 4-3 win.

It was a mirror image of the matchup earlier in the season in Tempe that saw the Devils fall once again 4-3.

In the past 33 years, Sheila McInerney has seen a vast amount of change at Arizona State, from new athletic directors, new head coaches, schools added to the conference, and numerous renovations to athletic facilities. Through the countless changes across Arizona State, McInerney has continued to lead the women's tennis program in a successful direction heading into her 33rd season.

In Arizona State's history, no coach has the number of accolades that Sheila McInerney has accumulated during her 33-year tenure as a Sun Devil. Since her first season as head coach in 1985, Sun Devil women's tennis has won 495 matches, advanced to 31 of 32 NCAA Tournaments, including 29 straight, and has finished each season in the top 38 nationally. That's the second most wins by any Arizona State coach in school history. In the 2016 season, McInerney was named the Southwest Region Coach of the Year by the ITA, as well as the Pac-12 Coach of the Year. She also was awarded the 2016 ITA Meritorious Service Award, which is given to an ITA coach who has gone "above and beyond" in their commitment and contributions to the ITA and college tennis in general.

In recent years, Arizona State's tennis program has continued to thrive on and off the court. On the court, the Sun Devils have 86 wins against ranked opponents since 2008. Leading the way for the tennis program have been 45 All-Americans and 41 All-Pac-12 student-athletes. Of these integral players in Arizona State's history, there have been 40 players ranked in the Top 50 of the singles season-end ranking and 21 in the Top 25 of the doubles season-end ranking.

In the classroom, McInerney has recruited bright student-athletes. She has had four Academic All-Americans, 45 ITA Scholar-Athletes (since 2002), and 80 Academic All-Pac 12 student-athletes (since 1991). Of those 45 ITA Scholar-Athletes, four were named in 2015 – Alexandra Osborne, Aubria Solares, Gussie O'Sullivan and Cassidy Jump. Her players have had majors such as Bioscience, Business Management, Criminal Justice and Criminology, English, Journalism, Kinesiology, Marketing, Political Science, and Sociology.

McInerney has also been fundamental in helping players' development to reach high achievements in the NCAA. Among the achievements include Jacqueline Cako named Arizona State Female Athlete of the Year (2013), Michelle Brycki awarded Cissie Leary ITA National Sportsmanship Award (2012), Kelcy McKenna selected as the Pac-12 Post-Graduate Scholar (2011), four singles and four doubles All-Americans since 2009, 14 players ranked in the singles season-end ranking and seven doubles teams ranked in the doubles season-end ranking since 2009.

Prior to coming to Arizona State, McInerney served as assistant women's tennis coach at the University of Southern California during the 1983-84 season, in which the Trojans were NCAA finalists. In addition to her success as a collegiate coach, McInerney has traveled with various USTA junior and national teams. At the 1986 Goodwill Games, McInerney coached the team to gold and silver medals. In 1987, she led the U.S. Pan American Games doubles squad to a gold medal.

McInerney attended USC, where she captained the Trojans during her senior season. The four-time All-American also was a four-time Trojan Spirit Award winner, as voted by her teammates. The Trojans won three national championships during McInerney's collegiate career, and she was the national collegiate doubles runner-up three times and a singles semifinalist in 1977. McInerney collected a half-dozen USTA national titles and was a member of the 1977-80 USTA Junior Federation Cup team. As a professional, she played on the major international tour, earning a world ranking in the top 75. McInerney competed at three grand slam venues -- Wimbledon, French Open and the U.S. Open where she reached the round of 32. She also served a short term as assistant pro at the highly acclaimed L.A. Tennis Club.

McInerney earned a bachelor's degree in public relations from the University of Southern California in 1980. A member of the Dean's List at USC, she won the USC Postgraduate Scholarship Award, the USC Junior Student-Athlete and Senior Student-Athlete awards.

STAFF

Matt Langley

Head coach Sheila McInerney announced in 2015 that Matt Langley would join the program as an assistant coach and in 2017, Langley was named associate head coach.

Langley joined the Sun Devils from Middle Tennessee State University, his alma mater, where he most recently served as assistant coach for its women's tennis program. At MTSU, Langley helped coach the Blue Raiders to one of their best seasons in program history, recording a 19-5 overall record, 7-1 in Conference USA competition.

A member of the MTSU men's tennis team from 2009-12, Langley was a two-year co-captain and three-time Sun Belt Conference Champion, earning two Most Outstanding Player honors at the Sun Belt Conference Championships. Langley also recorded three career appearances at the NCAA Championships.

Langley graduated from MTSU with a degree in exercise science, and was a two-time Academic All-American and ITA Scholar-Athlete.

Ebony Panoho is a graduate student assistant for the Sun Devil women's tennis program and former Sun Devil tennis standout. The Brisbane, Australia native won the Pac-12 doubles championship in her senior season with teammate Alexandra Osborne to give ASU its first conference doubles title. She once partnered with 2003 U.S. Open champion Andy Roddick for a mixed doubles exhibition match.

Alexandra Osborne recently graduated from Arizona State after an illustrious career on the court for the Sun Devils. Along with claiming ASU's first ever conference doubles title, Osborne earned the Bill Kajikawa Female Athlete of the Year Award during her senior season, and earned the honor of ITA scholar athlete in 2016 as a junior. She is a native of Sydney, Australia.

Lindy Kyger is the Sun Devils' athletic trainer. She joined ASU this past fall after graduating from the University of South Carolina with a degree in athletic training in 2017. Kryger was born in Pennsylvania, grew up in Massachusetts. She will graduate in 2019 with a master's in higher and post secondary education.

SAVANNAH SLAYSMAN

Phoenix, Ariz.

Arizona Connections Academy

Sophomore

Career Notes

- Began the 2018 campaign as one of two Sun Devils ranked in the ITA top-125...
- She is also one of only a handful of women in the NCAA to be a member of two doubles pairings ranked in the ITA's top-25 (No. 28 and No. 32)...
- Finished her freshman campaign with a 20-12 record, and won 18 doubles matches, while dropping just eight in 201, as well...
- Was one of the hottest players in the nation during the final weeks of the season as she closed with a six-match win streak...
- Slaysman was the No. 1 recruit out of Arizona in 2016 and was named a five-star prospect by Tennis Recruiting Network...
- Slaysman did not have to travel far to continue her tennis career as she is a native of Phoenix.
