UP NEXT

The No. 23 (USA Today coaches poll) Arizona State women's basketball team closes out the regular season on Sunday (noon MT) when it hosts No. 15 UCLA on Senior Day. Sunday's game will be the final at home for Sun Devil seniors Sophie Brunner, Quinn Dornstauder, Sara Hattis and Kelsey Moos. All four players will be recognized in a ceremony following the game.

This year's senior class is one of the most accomplished in school history. Since their arrival they have helped ASU win 96 games (and counting), only the fifth time ASU has won 90 or more games in a four-year span. They have also been major contributors to several other historical accomplishments in their time including winning 29 games (second most in school history) and advancing to the Sweet 16 in 2015 and helping ASU win its second Pac-12 regular season title last season in addition to earning a No. 2 seed in the 2016 NCAA Tournament, the highest placement in school history. Next month the senior quartet will look to join the 2005-06 class as the only other class to advance to the NCAA Tournament four straight seasons.

The Sun Devils (18-10, 9-8 Pac-12) have won four of their last six contests, most recently a 69-62 triumph over USC on Friday night. Senior leadership provided the spark for ASU as Brunner (game-high 20 points) and Dornstauder (19 points) combined for 39 points in the win. Brunner (8-9 FGs/3-4 FTs) and Dornstauder (6-9 FGs/7-9 FTs) combined to shoot 78 percent (14-18) from the floor and 77 percent (10-13) from the free throw line. The duo's outstanding shooting helped ASU shoot 52 percent for the game. Reili Richardson (105 assists this season), who tied with fellow freshman Kiara Russell with a team-high four assists on Friday night, broke former Sun Devil Kylan Loney's single-season program record (104 in 2002) for most assists by a freshman. Brunner's 3/4 court shot at the third quarter buzzer broke a 46-46 tie. ASU would never relinquish the lead as a 14-0 run in the fourth quarter helped seal the win.

Sunday's game is a rematch of a contest won by UCLA 69-60 last month in Los Angeles. Down by as many as 18 in the second half, the Sun Devils made a furious comeback to get within five points on two occasions in the final 2:25, but were never able to pull even with the Bruins. Three players – Brunner (16 points), Robbi Ryan (13 points) and Dornstauder (10 points) – scored in double figures for the Sun Devils, who shot 37 percent from the field. What ASU could not get in the run of play it made up for at the foul line where it hit 91 percent of its free throw attempts (19-21).

Winners of its last three contests, UCLA (21-7, 12-5) comes in already having clinched the No. 4 seed and last of the four first-round byes in next week's Pac-12 Tournament. If ASU wins its first round game in the Pac-12 Tournament (opponent TBD) it would play UCLA a third time in one of next Friday's quarterfinal matchups.

COVERAGE

Sunday's game vs. UCLA can be seen on Pac-12 Arizona/Los Angeles (Play-by-play: Anne Marie Anderson; Analyst: Tammy Blackburn; Sideline: Jill Savage) and heard on NBC Sports Radio AM 1060 and on the Sun Devil Athletics TuneIn Channel. Pregame radio coverage will begin at 11:30 a.m. Veteran broadcaster and the state of Arizona's 2010 Broadcaster of the Year Jeff Munn is in his 13th season as the voice of ASU women's basketball. He will be joined by former Sun Devil head coach Maura McHugh.

SERIES NOTES VERSUS UCLA

ASU's 59-57 win in 2014 in Tempe snapped UCLA's eight-game winning streak in the series. The Sun Devils captured their second consecutive win over the Bruins in 2015 with a 68-56 win in Los Angeles. After playing once in 2014 and 2015, the two teams split last year's contests with the home team holding serve on its home court: ASU 65-61 in Tempe and UCLA 74-61 in Los Angeles. Dornstauder averaged 17.0 ppg and 6.5 rpg in the two meetings, including 24 points in the rematch in Los Angeles. Brunner nearly averaged a double-double in the two games (9.0 ppg, 10.5 rpg/game-high 13 rebounds at UCLA).

WHAT TO LOOK FOR

- This season ASU returned three senior starters – posts Sophie Brunner, Quinn Dornstauder and Kelsey Moos – from the 2015-16 team that captured a share of the Pac-12 regular season title, won 26 games (tied for third-highest in program history) and earned a No. 2 seed in the NCAA Tournament (highest placement in program history). In addition, 2016 Pac-12 Coach of the Year Charli Turner Thorne welcomed a five-member freshman class – Sydney Goodson, Reili Richardson, Jamie Ruden, Kiara Russell and Robbi Ryan – that was ranked among the nation's top 10 signing classes when it was announced last fall. Moos missed 12 games in Pac-12 play after injuring her foot vs. Cal on New Year's Day while Ruden was likely lost for the season after injuring her foot in practice on Dec. 28.
- ASU has held every Pac-12 opponent below its scoring average and all but seven of those opponents (at Stanford, at UCLA, at USC, vs. Oregon, at WSU, at Arizona, vs. USC) 12 or more points below its scoring average coming into the game.
- ASU had held the opposition to 10 or fewer points in a quarter 22x this season.
- ASU has outrebounded all but six of its opponents: vs. Maryland (-19), at Stanford (-8), at UCLA (even) vs. Oregon State (-5), at WSU (-1) and at Washington (-7).
- As of Feb. 25, ASU is ranked among the top third in the Pac-12 in rebounding defense (1st/30.7 rpg), 3-point FG pct. defense (1st/27.5/21st in nation), scoring defense (3rd/56.8 ppg/31st in nation), offensive rebounds (3rd/14.8 rpg) and rebounding margin (4th/+7.6/23rd in nation). Individually, Brunner is 6th in FG pct. (52.4), 7th in offensive rebounds (3.2 rpg), 9th in rebounds (7.6 rpg), 12th in FT pct. (71.6) and 14th in scoring (13.4 ppg); Dornstauder is 9th in FG pct (48.5), 12th in shot blocks (1.2 bpg) and offensive rebounds (2.2 rpg), 13th in rebounding (6.1 rpg) and 24th in scoring (10.6 ppg); Richardson is 3rd in assist/turnover ratio (2.0), 5th in FT pct. (82.4) and 12th in assists (3.8 apg).
- Head coach Charli Turner Thorne needs two wins to record her 400th win at ASU. In 2016 Turner Thorne recorded the 400th win of her career (includes 40 wins at NAU).
- Brunner (F) and Dornstauder (C) have started all 28 games this season.
- Moos (105 starts in 107 career games), who is No. 7 on ASU's career list for rebounds (636), started ASU's game at UA (Feb. 17) after missing the previous 12 games due to a foot injury suffered against Cal on Jan. 1. At the time of her injury Moos led the team in 3-pts (11), steals (1.8 spg) and FT pct. (92.9/13-14), was 2nd in rebounding (5.8 rpg) and 3rd in assists (2.3 apg). Prior to the injury Moos had established new single-game career highs this season for assists (8) and steals (6) and tied a career high with three 3-pointers.
- Brunner (1,332 points/eighth place) needs nine points to pass Emily Westerberg (2004-07) for seventh place on ASU's all-time career points list. Brunner, who is No. 2 on ASU's all-time rebounds list (892), is averaging 16.0 points and shooting 55 percent in ASU's last four games.
- Quinn Dornstauder, who had two career double-doubles coming into this season, has posted four in ASU's last 16 games: vs. Cal (19/10), at Colorado (13/career-high 12 rebounds) at USC (13/10) and at WSU (12/11). Dornstauder, who is shooting 57 pct from the floor (16-28) in ASU's last three games, just missed double-doubles on three other occasions at Utah (15 points/9), at Cal (12 /8) and at Arizona (15/8).
- Sabrina Haines averaged 15.5 ppg and made 62.5 pct of her FGs (10-16), including 67 pct of her 3ptrs (6-9) in ASU's consecutive wins vs. Oregon (Feb. 5) and at WSU (Feb. 10). In the fourth quarter of those games Haines combined for 16 points and knocked down all four of her 3-pointers. She led ASU with 13 points in its win over Arizona last Sunday.
- Robbi Ryan, who started all 12 games Moos was forced to miss, has scored in double figures 8x this season and has led/tied for team lead in scoring 4x.
- Reili Richardson, who has started 20 games at point guard, has scored in double figures 11x and dished out six or more assists 7x. Richardson, who had a career-high eight assists in ASU's win over Oregon (Feb. 5), holds the ASU single-season record for most assists by a freshman (105).
- Kiara Russell started the first seven games at point guard before getting injured during the week of preparation for ASU's game at Kentucky. She missed six games before returning for ASU's game at Utah (Jan. 6). She has scored a season-high 8 points 3x and has averaged 1.8 steals in ASU's last 8 games.
- Kianna Ibis, who has scored in double figures 4x this season, has grabbed 5 or more rebs 5x in last 9 games, including career-high 8 at WSU on February 10. Most recently she played a career-high 28 minutes vs. UA (Feb. 19).

2016-17 SUN DEVIL WBB GAME NOTES

SUN DEVILS CONTINUE TO BE AMONG THE PAC-12'S BEST

In what has arguably been the most competitive era in the history of Pac-12 women's basketball, Arizona State has established itself as one of the conference's most successful programs. Since 2015 ASU's 40 wins in Pac-12 play trail only Oregon State's 47 and Stanford's 41. In 2015 the Sun Devils just missed tying for a share of the Pac-12 regular season title, a feat they would accomplish last season after tying Oregon State in the league standings (16-2).

ASU's win over Holy Cross on Dec. 21 was its 40th regular-season, non-conference win in the last four seasons. Going back to the 1986-87 season – the first season of Pac-10/Pac-12 play – ASU's 40 regular-season, non-conference wins are by far the most in a four-season stretch in program history (the next highest total is 33 games done three times: 2003-06/2004-07/2005-08). In addition, ASU's 40 wins leading up to the start of the conference season are more than any other team in the Pac-12 the last four seasons. This was the fourth straight season that ASU brought a winning streak of six or more games into Pac-12 play. The 2013-14 team won 10 straight, the 2014-15 team won seven straight, the 2015-16 team won six straight and this year's team will brought a seven-game winning streak into league play.

Oregon State	38-8

SUN DEVIL WBB JUST AS SUCCESSFUL IN THE CLASSROOM AS IT IS ON THE COURT

For the Fall 2016 semester the Sun Devil WBB team turned in an extraordinary effort in the classroom that resulted in a 3.63 team GPA. Every player on the roster has a cumulative GPA about 3.0, including nine players with a cumulative GPA of 3.4 or higher.

Since the 1996-97 season, Turner Thorne's first season at ASU, the Sun Devils lead the Pac-12 in the number of first-team All-Academic conference awards (19) and the combined number of first- and second-team All-Academic conference awards (40). In 2014-15 ASU's team GPA (3.558) was No. 7 on the Women's Basketball Coaches Association's (WBCA) 2015 Academic Honor Roll.

COSIDA ACADEMIC ALL-DISTRICT AWARD IS LATEST OFF-THE-COURT ACCOMPLISHMENT FOR SOPHIE BRUNNER

Sun Devil women's basketball senior forward Sophie Brunner has distinguished herself as a superstar not only for what she has done on the court – currently No. 2 on program's all-time list in career rebounds and No. 8 in career points – but what she has done off of it where she has been recognized both for her work in the classroom and in the community.

On January 5 it was announced Brunner was one of 30 student-athletes named as candidates for the 2016-17 Senior CLASS Award® in women's basketball. An acronym for Celebrating Loyalty and Achievement for Staying in School®, the Senior CLASS Award focuses on the total student-athlete and encourages students to use their platform in athletics to make a positive impact as leaders in their communities. To be eligible for the award, a student-athlete must be classified as an NCAA Division I senior and have notable achievements in four areas of excellence: community, classroom, character and competition.

The most recent example of this off-the-court excellence came on Feb. 9 when Brunner was one of five players named to the CoSIDA Academic All-District® VIII Team, according to an announcement by the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA). By virtue of being named to the first team, Brunner advances to the CoSIDA Academic All-America® Team ballot, where first-, second- and third-team All-America honorees will be selected later this month.

Brunner, who has earned Pac-12 All-Academic honorable mention recognition each of the last two seasons, currently maintains a 3.69 GPA in Education Studies.

In December Brunner was one of 97 women's basketball student-athletes named as nominees for the 2017 Allstate WBCA Good Works Team®. The esteemed award honors an outstanding group of student-athletes who represent the sport's finest in the areas of community service and leadership among their peers.

FREE THROWS

- ASU was picked to finish in fourth place in the Pac-12 by both the league's coaches and media who cover the conference. The Sun Devils received one first-place vote in the media poll.
- This year's senior class is looking to become the second in school history to advance to the NCAA Tournament four consecutive seasons. The only previous class to accomplish the feat was the 2005-06 class that won 104 games (most ever in a four-year stretch), won at least one NCAA Tournament game all four years and earned ASU's only two Elite Eight appearances (2007, 2009).
- Over the last three seasons ASU is 40-7 (.851) in regular-season non-conference games and 55-9 (.859) at home.
- ASU is 40-13 in regular season Pac-12 games going back to 2015. Prior to its loss at Oregon State last season, ASU's 9-0 record in Pac-12 play was its best conference start in program history (surpassed last 7-0 start in 2015).
- The Sun Devils are 27-9 in road games since the start of the 2014-15 season (includes a 19-8 mark in Pac-12 play). Last season the Sun Devils set a program record with 11 road wins.
- ASU has allowed an average of only 55.8 points per game since the start of the 2014-15 season (96 games). ASU has held the opposition to 50 or fewer points 32 times during that stretch. They are 31-1 in those contests. The only loss came at home to Cal (50-49) on Feb. 8, 2015. On average, opposing teams scored more than 15.0 points under their scoring average when facing ASU last season. In fact, only two opponents (Marquette and Tennessee), scored more points than what they averaged coming into their respective games vs. ASU.
- ASU's opponents have shot 25 percent or less from 3-point range 16 times this season
- In the last three-plus seasons the Sun Devils are 29-7 in games decided by five points or less and/or overtime, including a 4-1 record this season: ASU's 73-71 overtime win at No. 15 Kentucky on Dec. 11 and its 72-62, double-OT win vs. No. 21 Cal on Jan. 1, 68-63 win over Oregon on Feb. 5, 61-58 win at Washington State on Feb. 10, 62-58 loss at Arizona on Feb. 17.

2016-17 SUN DEVIL WBB GAME NOTES

CHARLI TURNER THORNE HAS SUN DEVIL WBB AMONG NATION'S ELITE

The all-time winningest coach in program history and No. 2 in the Pac-12 in career wins (398), Charli Turner Thorne has turned Sun Devil women's basketball into one of the nation's premiere programs since taking over in 1996-97. Included in ASU's earlier run of 13 consecutive postseason appearances (2000-12) were a school record five-consecutive NCAA Tournament bids from 2005-09. During that time the Sun Devils qualified for the Elite Eight on a pair of occasions, making ASU one of only 15 programs in the country to have qualified for the Elite Eight at least two times between 2007-12.

Last season Turner Thorne was named the 2016 Pac-12 Coach of the Year (coaches and media), the second time she has been recognized with the honor (2001), after leading the Sun Devils to their second regular season Pac-12 championship. ASU would go on to earn its highest NCAA Tournament seed (No. 2) in program history. In 2016 ASU has also tied the program records for most conference wins (16) and consecutive wins (15) and set the program record for most road wins (11). Turner Thorne would go on to also be named the WBCA Region 5 Co-Coach of the Year.

In 2014-15 Turner Thorne was named one of 10 semifinalists for the Naismith Women's College Coach of the Year for a season in which she led the Sun Devils to their best start in school history (18-1), their best conference start in school history (7-0), a second-place finish in the Pac-12 and 29 wins, the second-highest number of wins in school history.

In 2013-14 Turner Thorne, who recorded both the 400th win of her coaching career and her 200th Pac-12 win last season, raised the curtain on the team's current era of success as she helped the Sun Devils post one of the best turnarounds in the country as they went from a 13-18 record and a ninth-place Pac-12 finish (5-13) in 2012-13 to a 23-10 record and fourth-place Pac-12 finish (11-7). Included among ASU's 23 wins in 2013-14 were three triumphs over Top 25 teams.

The outstanding success Sun Devil women's basketball has enjoyed under Turner Thorne is a 180-degree difference from the program that had an aggregate record of 20-60 in the three years prior to her arrival and only two NCAA Tournament wins in its history.

CELEBRATING ELITE ACCOMPLISHMENT

This season will be the 10th anniversary of ASU's first ever appearance in the NCAA Elite Eight. Led by senior forwards Aubree Johnson and Emily Westerberg who were both named to the All-Pac-10 Team, ASU set school records for overall wins (31), most Pac-10 wins (16 - tied in 2016) and most road wins (10 - broken in 2016) With the honor, Westerberg became the first Sun Devil to be named to the All-Pac-10 Team three times. In addition to Johnson and Westerberg's accolades, sophomore guard Briann January was named All-Pac-10 Honorable Mention and guard Dymond Simon was named to the Pac-10 All-Freshman Team.

Members of the 2006-07 Elite Eight team were recognized at halftime of ASU's game vs. Arizona on Feb. 19.

INJURY NOTES

Kelsey Moos suffered a foot injury late in the second overtime of ASU's win over Cal on Jan. 1 and has 12 games (team was 6-6 in those games/12-4 record when Moos has played) before returning for ASU's game at Arizona on Feb. 17. Freshman guard Kiara Russell started the first seven games of the season at point guard before sustaining an injury (quad) in practice on Dec. 5. She missed six games and returned to action at Utah on Jan. 6. Freshman post Jamie Ruden suffered a foot injury in practice on Dec. 28 and is likely to miss the remainder of the season. Freshman Reili Richardson (team-high 11 points, career-high seven rebounds, career-high-tying seven assists) was forced to leave ASU's game vs. Washington (Jan. 15) after suffering an ankle injury with 7:37 remaining in the fourth quarter (game was tied at 48-48 at the time). By the time Richardson returned after being treated on the bench the Sun Devils were down 59-50 with 2:54 left.

FORMER VALLEY STANDOUT/UCONN TRANSFER COURTNEY EKMARK AWAITS OPPORTUNITY TO PLAY NEXT SEASON

Last summer Charli Turner Thorne announced that former UConn guard Courtney Ekmark would be transferring into the Sun Devil women's basketball program. Ekmark, who completed her sophomore season for the Huskies in 2015-16, will have to sit out this season per NCAA transfer rules and then will have two years of eligibility beginning with the 2017-18 season.

"I've known Courtney since she was nine years old and it is so exciting to welcome her home. She was one of the greatest high school players ever to come out of the state of Arizona and we are ecstatic beyond words that she is joining our program," Turner Thorne said. "Courtney is a player who can do it all and she will have an incredible impact in every part of the game. For those that don't know Courtney, her competitive spirit and work ethic are simply in the 99th percentile among college basketball players. Complementing her exceptional talent and toughness is Courtney's giving and passionate nature that will fit perfectly into our culture. She comes from an amazing family that we are very grateful is now part of our Sun Devil family."

Ekmark will be returning to the Valley where she helped lead St. Mary's High School to an 87-3 record (included a 49-game winning streak), three straight Division I State Titles, a No. 1 ranking in the USA Today Super 25 in 2012 and a No. 2 ranking in 2013. Ekmark was named the state of Arizona's Gatorade Player of the Year following a junior season in which she averaged 19.6 points, 5.0 rebounds and 4.0 steals. In the 2013 state tournament, she averaged 21.5 points in helping lead the Knights to the title. In the 49-37 championship game win over Pinnacle, Ekmark had a game-high 14 points, becoming the first Arizona player to be the top scorer in three consecutive championship games. In addition to her outstanding play on the hardwood, Ekmark also excelled on the tennis court for St. Mary's, earning the top singles spot on the team.

As a member of UConn's two most recent NCAA championship teams, Ekmark played in 61 games, including 10 of the Huskies' 12 NCAA Tournament games. She averaged 9.3 minutes per game during those two seasons and connected on 38 percent of her field goal attempts.

2016-17 SUN DEVIL WBB GAME NOTES

SUN DEVIL WBB ANNOUNCES THE SIGNING OF EVA RUBIN AND BRE'YANNA SANDERS

On Nov. 9, 2016, Arizona State University head women's basketball coach Charli Turner Thorne announced that student-athletes Eva Rubin and Bre'yanna Sanders signed national letters of intent to join the Sun Devil women's basketball program.

"We are excited to announce that Eva and Bre will be joining our Sun Devil women's basketball family," Turner Thorne said. "Both of these young women come from great families and will not only excel on the court but in the classroom and our community."

A 6-5 post, Rubin will be coming to ASU from Homewood-Flossmoor High School in Flossmoor, Illinois, where she averaged 15 points, eight rebounds and four blocks as a junior in 2016. Ranked No. 14 at her position by ESPN.com, Rubin earned Class 3A/4A All-State recognition from the Illinois Basketball Coaches Association last season in addition to also being named to the All-Area and All-Conference teams. As a sophomore in 2015, Rubin helped lead her squad to a fourth-place finish in the IHSA 4A state tournament. During Homewood-Flossmoor's run in the tournament, Rubin tied a Class 4A single-game record with five blocked shots.

A 6-0 forward, Sanders will be joining the Sun Devils from Clovis West High School in Fresno, California, where she has earned first-team All-Valley recognition in addition to being named the team's defensive player of the year each of the last two seasons. In 2016 Sanders averaged 11.0 points, 6.4 rebounds, 2.9 steals and 2.2 blocks in helping lead her team to 30-4 record and the semifinals of the Southern California Regional Open Division. She would go on to be named the league co-player of the year. In 2015 Sanders had a big role on a team that posted a 26-5 record, its third straight Central Section Division I title and reached the second round of the Southern California Open Division regional.

SUN DEVIL WOMEN'S BASKETBALL HOSTED FIRST EVER 'GREEN GAME' SHOWCASING PROGRAM'S COMMITMENT TO SUSTAINABLE PRACTICES

The Sun Devil women's basketball program hosted its first official "Green Game," on January 15, 2017 when it played the University of Washington. The game was used as a platform to highlight and educate fans on Arizona State's desire to make the world more sustainable.

In December ASU women's basketball became the first Sun Devil Athletics team to complete the new green sports sustainability checklist and to be certified a green team.

In addition to the check sheet, the team practices at the Weatherup Center, the first athletic practice facility in the nation to become LEED-certified, earning v2+ Gold status. The facility used renewable maple wood flooring and a large portion of the construction on the building used recycled and locally manufactured materials. The solar panels installed on the roof of the Weatherup Center provide 45 percent of the building's energy and occupancy sensors and window shades help conserve the energy already in use by the facility.

ASU's games at Wells Fargo Arena are played under the first operational LED lighting installation in an NCAA Power Five arena. The LED lighting installation, furnished by Musco Sports lighting, increased the lighting levels within Wells Fargo Arena by 25 percent. The facility now exceeds the 125-vertical foot-candle measurement needed for NCAA Broadcast standards, which factors into championship selections for Arizona State. While improving lighting in the venue, the LED system uses a fraction of the energy from the previous installation. The high-efficiency system reduces energy consumption by 75 percent with a 10-year energy savings is estimated at $284,000 and combined with reduced maintenance costs the total savings estimated at $357,000 over a 10-year period.

Sustainability is one of the pillars of Arizona State University, and Sun Devil Athletics prides itself with aligning the department to minimize its carbon footprint. Athletics provides a unique opportunity to promote sustainability at our University, and Sun Devil Athletics has fully embraced the opportunity to advance sustainable practices as an institution and with our fans. In June of 2016, USG and NACDA named Arizona State the most sustainable athletics department for its innovative and creative sustainable practices. Vice President for University Athletics and Athletics Director Ray Anderson was named to the board of the Green Sports Alliance in November, adding representation of an athletics director from a leader in sustainability within the NCAA to a group with representatives from the NFL, NHL, NBA, MLB and NASCAR.

HEAD COACH CHARLI TURNER THORNE

- The winningest coach in Sun Devil women's basketball history and No. 2 in the Pac-12 in most career wins (398), Charli Turner Thorne is at the helm of an Arizona State program that has made it to the postseason 16 of the last 17 years, including a school record five consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances (2005-09), two Elite Eight appearances and a pair of Sweet 16 finishes. ASU's 11 NCAA Tournament appearances under Turner Thorne are eight more than what ASU had in the 15 years prior to her arrival in Tempe. Has also earned a pair of gold medals with USA Basketball.

- Was named the 2016 Pac-12 Coach of the Year (coaches and media), the second time she has been recognized with the honor (2001), after leading the Sun Devils to their second regular season Pac-12 championship. ASU would go on to earn its highest NCAA Tournament seed (No. 2) in program history. In 2016 ASU has also tied the program records for most conference wins (16) and consecutive wins (15) and set the program record for most road wins (11).

- Turner Thorne, who is in her 20th season at ASU, recorded the 400th victory of her career (includes 40 wins at Northern Arizona) on Dec. 14, 2015 (at Hartford).

- In 2014-15 Turner Thorne led ASU to 29 wins (second-highest total in school history), a second-place finish in the Pac-12 and a berth in the Sweet 16 of the NCAA Tournament. The 2014-15 Sun Devils posted the best overall start (18-1) and conference start (7-0) in school history and reached 20 wins faster than any other squad (22 games).

- Since the 1996-97 season, Turner Thorne's first season at ASU, the Sun Devils lead the Pac-12 in the number of first-team All-Academic conference awards (19) and the combined number of first- and second-team All-Academic conference awards (40). In 2014-15 ASU's team GPA (3.558) was No. 7 on the Women's Basketball Coaches Association's 2015 Academic Honor Roll.

- In 2013-14, ASU recorded its 10th 20-win season (23) and its ninth NCAA Tournament berth since 2000-01. The Sun Devils advanced to the second round of the Tournament, the seventh time under Turner Thorne the Sun Devils have been among the final 32 teams or better.

- Earned her 300th win as ASU's head coach on Jan. 25, 2013. Turner Thorne joined current Stanford coach Tara Vanderveer and former Washington/USC head coach Chris Gobrecht as the only other coaches to earn at least 300 wins while coaching in the Pac-10/12. ASU's 63-60 triumph over No. 20 Syracuse on Dec. 30, 2013 was the 313th win at ASU for Turner Thorne, moving her into the No. 2 spot on the Pac-12's all-time wins list.

- In 2011 led ASU to its sixth NCAA Tournament appearance in seven years and a third-place finish in the Pac-10, ASU's ninth top-3 conference finish in 11 seasons.

- In 2009 guided the Sun Devils to the Elite Eight of the NCAA Tournament for the second time in three seasons. ASU's final 26-9 record in 2008-09 included a school record 15-game winning streak.

- Is one of three coaches (former Washington head coach Chris Gobrecht and current Stanford head coach Tara Vanderveer) in Pac-10/12 history (since the 1986-87 season) to have led their respective schools to five (or more) consecutive 20-win seasons.

- In 2006-07 guided the Sun Devils to a school record 31 wins, including a school record 16 Pac-10 wins, and led them to the Elite Eight of the NCAA Tournament for the first time in school history. ASU concluded the 2006-07 season ranked No. 8 in the final USA Today/ESPN coaches poll and No. 10 in the final Associated Press poll, their highest FINAL rankings in each of the respective polls in school history.

SUN DEVIL

WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

HEAD COACH CHARLI TURNER THORNE

- In 2005-06 led ASU to a 25-7 record. During the season led ASU to its first Top 10 ranking in 22 years.
- In 2004-05 directed ASU to a 24-10 overall record and its first NCAA Sweet Sixteen appearance in 22 years.
- Led her 2001-02 team to a 25-9 record, which at the time had tied the single-season school record for most wins.
- Guided ASU to a share of the Pac-10 title in 2001 and the inaugural Pac-10 Tournament title in 2002, the first league championships in school history.
- Started her head coaching career at Northern Arizona where she spent three seasons (40-40 record from 1992/93 - 1995/96) and led NAU to consecutive winning seasons in 1994-95 and 1995-96, the first coach in school history to accomplish that feat.
- As a player, lettered four years at Stanford where she played under Tara VanDerveer (for three years).
- During the summer of 2009 Turner Thorne served as the head coach of the USA Women's World University Games Team which went undefeated (7-0) and captured the gold medal at the 2009 World University Games in Belgrade, Serbia. It was Turner Thorne's second time working with USA Basketball. In the summer of 2007 Turner Thorne served as an assistant coach on USA Basketball's U21 World Championship Team which won the gold medal at the FIBA U21 World Championship in Moscow, Russia.
- Is a past president of the Women's Basketball Coaches Association's (WBCA) Executive Committee.
- Graduated from Stanford in 1988 with a bachelor's degree in psychology and later earned her master's degree in education from Washington in 1990.
- Turner Thorne and her husband, Will, have three sons – Conor (17), Liam (15) and Quinn (13).
