THE GAME - Sun Devil Football opens the 2017 season at home this week, taking on New Mexico State on Thursday, August 31 at Sun Devil Stadium in Tempe, Ariz. The game, scheduled for a 7:30 p.m. PT kickoff, will be broadcast live on the Pac-12 Networks with Roxy Bernstein, Anthony Herron and Lewis Johnson providing the talent.

It is the first time the Sun Devils have faced NMSU since the 199 season. The game will give fans their first chance to witness the continued reinvention of Sun Devil Stadium, featuring a new state of the art scoreboard in the north end zone.

THE AGGIES - ASU leads the all-time series against New Mexico State, 21-7-1, though dropped the last contest between the teams in the second game of the 1999 season.

NMSU was picked to finish 10th in the Sub Belt Conference this season, receiving one first place vote after going 3-9 last season. A pair of Aggies, Larry Rose III and Jaden Wright, were named to national preseason watch lists heading into 2017. Rose III was put on the Maxwell Award and Earl Campbell Tyler Rose Award watch lists. Defensive back Jaden Wright was named to the Bronko Nagurski Watch List.

Entering the season, Rose III and redshirt senior quarterback Tyler Rogers look to etch their names further into the program's record book. The two players sit in the top-5 for a combined 10 career offensive records for the Aggies. Rose III already has his name third all-time for rushing yards (3,618) and carries (585). The running back also sits in fourth for rushing touchdowns (27) and all-purpose yards (4,253). Rogers also looks to rewrite the record books as he is second all-time in completions (564), third in passing yards (6,356), attempts (975), passing touchdowns (42), and total yards (6,978) and fourth in total touchdowns (50).

THE SUN BELT - ASU is 28-7-1 all-time in games against teams currently playing in the Sun Belt Conference, that vast majority of which have come against the Aggies. This will be the first time ASU has squared off from a team from the conference since taking on Louisiana-Monroe in 2009.

AN ASU VICTORY WOULD...

- » Improve ASU to 76-27-2 on Opening Day in history and 58-15-1 on Opening Day at home.
- » Be ASU's 16th consecutive Opening Day win when the game is at Sun Devil Stadium.
- » Be the 19th straight victory in a home opener for the Sun Devils, dating back to 1999. ASU's current 18-game active home opening win streak is the fifth-longest in the country.
- » Move the Devils to 26-8 in games played at Sun Devil Stadium since Todd Graham took the reins in 2012.
- » Improve ASU to 13-3 under Todd Graham in regular season non-conference games since 2012.
- » Move Todd Graham to 6-0 in home openers and 5-1 in the first game of the season as head coach at ASU.
- » Mark the 40th victory for Todd Graham as head coach of the Devils.
- » Improve the Devils to 22-7-1 all-time against New Mexico State and 29-7-1 against teams currently playing in the Sun Belt Conference.

General

The Sun Devil Athletics media relations staff understands the importance of assisting the media in providing coverage of the institution, its athletics programs, administrators, coaches and student-athletes. We pride ourselves in being able to disseminate information as widely, uniformly and fairly as possible using normally accepted media standards. To this end, the best attempt will be made to fill reasonable requests by recognized media outlets. Members of the media are encouraged to work with the Sun Devil Football media relations staff to assist in that endeavor. It is not permissible for media members to contact any athletics department administrator, associate, coach or student-athlete directly without working through the media relations department.

Practice Policies

Due to the nature of Arizona State game dates this season, practices schedules each week will vary dependent upon that week's game. The ASU media relations office will provide a practice schedule prior to each game week for the media. Viewing periods will operate under the same procedures as in 2016 for practices that occur at ASU's indoor facility, The Dickey Dome. Only members of the media will be allowed to view the open portions of those practices in the facility. Members of the media will enter the facility once the team has completely entered.

For those wishing to shoot still photography or video tape practices, ASU will allow you to shoot approximately 30 minutes of each practice, unless the drill is team-related and as long as the footage does not include play signals. This is the same policy that used in Spring drills, 2017 and Fall practices, 2016. This period will begin at approximately 9:35 a.m. and end at approximately 10:05 a.m.

Viewing periods are always subject to the discretion of the Sun Devil Football coaching staff and may change suddenly. Following that open viewing period, the members of the media will be escorted out of the facility and reconvene near the end of the practice period at southeast entrance of Sun Devil Stadium for post-practice interviews. Under no circumstances will Periscope technology be permitted.

Interview Policies

All interviews will be conducted post-practice at the new Student-Athlete Facility, located at the north end of Sun Devil Stadium. Additional information on this will come at a later date. Due to high demand, several players and members of the coaching staff might only be available on a limited basis each week. A full availability schedule will be provided to the media each week.

Special in-season interview policies for Head Coach Todd Graham, coordinators Billy Napier and Phil Bennett and selected players will follow at a later date.

All other interviews must be arranged through the Media Relations office. Under no circumstances are members of the media allowed to contact a student-athlete or member of the coaching staff without first contacting a member of the Media Relations staff. All coaches and student-athletes have been encouraged to check in with the Media Relations staff and not indulge any interview requests that have not been arranged through the proper channels. Every possible attempt will be made to accommodate all media requests.

Following home contests, Arizona State will bring several student-athletes to the media room at the new Student-Athlete Facility in the North end zone for a post-game press conference. Head Coach Todd Graham will follow the student-athletes.

Any members who wish to contact a student-athlete or coach outside of the aforementioned interview periods should contact the Media Relations staff as follows:

Offensive/ST Player Interviews – Jeremy Hawkes – 520-403-0121 – jdhawkes@asu.edu
Defensive Player Interviews – Steve Rodriguez – 480-965-9780 – steve.rodriguez@asu.edu
Coach Interviews – Mark Brand – 480-965-6592 – mark.brand@asu.edu

Please note that there is a new NCAA rule in effect for 2017-18 that states that every NCAA athletic team must take one day off per week from all team-related activities, including practice, weight training, conditioning, meetings, interviews, etc. This means that one day per week (Monday for Sun Devil football) we will not be allowed to conduct interviews as per NCAA rule. Since this is an NCAA rule and will be monitored by compliance personnel there can be no exceptions made.

Weekly Press Conferences

Head coach Todd Graham will resume his weekly press conferences each Monday prior to game week. The press conference is tentatively scheduled for 12 p.m. (Noon) Arizona Time each week. When the team practices on Mondays, Coach Graham will not be available following practice.

All press conferences will be streamed live via the Pac-12 website at <http://pac-12.com/live/arizona-state-university>.

Credentials

Media credentials for Sun Devil home games for the 2017 football season will be handled online through Sports Systems. For access to the online portal request system, please contact Doug Tammaro (tammaro@asu.edu). For road games, please contact Mark Brand (mark.brand@asu.edu) for more information.

Photography/Videography

Media wishing to document practice via photograph or video will be able to do so during this time, so long as said documentation does not record play-calling signals. On-camera interviews will be conducted at the end of each practice.

For home games, a photographer work area has been established inside the Carson Student-Athlete Center (first floor). Internet access to transmit files is available in the photography workroom. Credentials must be worn in plain view throughout the game while on the field and all photographers must adhere to painted lines and instructions given by security personnel and/or Arizona State staff members at all times.

Weekly Media Teleconference

The Pac-12 Football Coaches Weekly Media Teleconference Call will take place each Tuesday during the season. Coach Graham is scheduled to speak at 12:05 PT/1:05 MT each Tuesday. The teleconferences will be recorded and available at Pac-12.com that same afternoon of the call. Members of the media may reach out to the Pac-12 (925-932-4411) for the media-only phone number for the teleconference.

Media Highlights Policy

Highlights include Pac-12 Networks/ESPN/FOX broadcasts and all home hosted non-televised competitions, including those that are live streamed.

Live Broadcasts

It is not permissible for any non-rightsholder to broadcast over the air, stream over the internet (audio or video), or transmit in any other way, any live event without the consent of the Sun Devil Athletics Department. Live events include varsity contests, press conferences (including but not limited to weekly scheduled and postgame press conferences) and any other group media availability. Exceptions may be made for any major news-breaking event and will be communicated in the media advisory for the event.

Third-Party Website Highlight Policy

No third party organization may post competition footage of any Pac-12 game or any non-conference home game on its website without a license to the content from the Pac-12 Networks or its licensing partner (XOS Digital), with the exception of news window privileges described below. Third parties are permitted to post video on their websites through the use of the Pac-12 Digital embeddable video player (embed code available at <http://video.pac-12.com>).

News Outlet Highlight Policy

Certified news outlets may use a maximum of 3 minutes of Pac-12 event footage on their newscasts during the 48-hour news window following the conclusion of included events. If these highlights do not contain a Pac-12 mark, the news outlet must insert "Courtesy of the Pac-12 Conference" over the footage. Highlights may also be posted to certified news providers' websites, but must be removed 48 hours after the conclusion of any included event, unless a license for that footage is obtained from the Pac-12 Conference. Highlights may not be posted to YouTube, Facebook, or other social media properties. Beyond the 48 hour news window, certified news outlets are permitted to use a maximum of 1 minute of footage – on their television newscasts only – for 14 calendar days after the conclusion of the game in question. This policy pertains to the 2013-14 academic year only and is subject to change in subsequent years.

ON THE AIR

Hear the hometown call with broadcaster Tim Healey and color analyst Jeff Van Raaphorst as well as sideline reporter Derek Hagan providing all the action for Sun Devil Football this season. The hometown broadcasts are boosted by Bonneville's powerful sports/talk lineup of Arizona Sports 98.7 FM, ESPN Phoenix 620 AM and 92.3 KTAR News FM. This week's game will broadcast on 92.3 KTAR News FM.

LIGHTS, CAMERA, ACTION

The Sun Devils will look to improve upon their impressive 15-4 all-time record when playing a game broadcasted by the Pac-12 Networks. The contest will feature Roxy Bernstein on the call alongside analyst Anthony Herron while Lewis Johnson will provide insight from the sidelines.

The Pac-12 will again provide access to Armed Forces Network for carriage of Pac-12 football games in 2016 for the benefit of the men and women in the military.

LAST TIME - NMSU - 1999

TEMPE (AP) - New Mexico State dominated the Sun Devils 35-7 Saturday night, controlling both sides of the ball.

The Aggies (3-0) ran for 363 yards, averaging 6.3 yards per carry against a defense that held Texas Tech's Ricky Williams to a career-low 33 yards just 11 days ago. Walter Taylor had 117 yards, Keon Johnson 90 and Chris Barnes 88.

Enzminger also ran for 52 yards, nearly as many as Arizona State's J.R. Redmond, leading New Mexico State to its first 3-0 start in seven years and its first triumph over a Pac-10 team. The last Aggies victory of this magnitude was a 27-24 victory over Arizona State in Tempe in 1960, two years before the Sun Devils joined the Western Athletic Conference.

Big defensive plays, including two interceptions by Corey Paul, carried the day for the Aggies.

Two of the biggest were an end-zone interception by Jason Willis that killed Arizona State's first drive in the third quarter, when it trailed just 7-0, and the special-teams work of Mike Lueckeman and Mike Wakefield.

After Redmond scored and the Sun Devils forced New Mexico State to punt, Lueckeman stripped the ball from Redmond on the return, and Wakefield recovered at midfield. Four plays later, Johnson broke loose up the middle to make it 35-7 with 8:18 remaining.

TODD GRAHAM

HEAD COACH

ASU: 39-26 (6TH SEASON) | CAREER: 88-55 (12TH SEASON)
2013 PAC-12 COACH OF THE YEAR

From the moment he was introduced as Arizona State University's head football coach on December 14, 2011, Todd Graham made it clear he was a visionary. A throwback. A teacher who truly believes in the virtues of hard work, dedication and giving back.

He had a plan to infuse the program with a culture that was about winning in all facets of a student-athlete's life. Graham referred to it simply as, 'The Sun Devil Way.'

Graham, the 2013 Pac-12 Coach of the Year, enters his sixth season at the helm of the Arizona State University football program. Under Graham's leadership, every phase of the Sun Devil football program has excelled.

On the field, Graham has led ASU to a Pac-12 South title, four bowl games and distinguished himself as one of three coaches in the history of the program (Frank Kush, Darryl Rogers) to have won 30 or more games (34) in his first four seasons. Individually, Sun Devil football players have accounted for 51 All-Pac-12 awards, numerous All-American awards – including a pair of consensus All-Americans in Will Sutton and 2016 Lou Groza Award winner Zane Gonzalez – and more than 30 student-athletes have either been selected in the annual NFL Draft or signed NFL free agent contracts.

In the classroom the Sun Devils have had an impressive 208 student-athletes receive academic honors, including 34 Pac-12 All-Academic citations under Graham. That total includes seven student-athletes who have garnered All-Pac-12 Academic First-Team honors. In 2015, ASU became the first school to have consecutive winners – quarterback Taylor Kelly in 2014 and quarterback Mike Bercovici in 2015 – of the Pac-12's Football Scholar-Athlete of the Year, awarded to senior student-athletes that are standouts both academically and in their sports discipline.

Graham's resolute commitment to help Sun Devil football be the best can also be seen in the recent reinvention of Sun Devil Stadium, a project which Graham has invested in both figuratively and literally. In September 2014, Graham and his wife Penni, and Vice President for University Athletics Ray Anderson and his wife Buffie, each gave $500,000 in personal funds to the Sun Devil Athletics Momentum fundraising campaign.

The three phases of the $256 million project is set to be finished in 2018. The most recent stage of the reinvention to be completed – what Graham calls a 'game-changer' for the program – is the 118,669-square-foot student-athlete facility that the Sun Devil football team moved into in July 2017. The new building, which includes a 5,750-square-foot locker room, set a new standard for such facilities in excellence and innovation in fulfilling all the daily needs of student-athletes.

Throughout his time at ASU Graham has been steadfast when stating his ultimate goal: to bring championships to Tempe. During Graham's tenure in Tempe, the Sun Devils have been close to fulfilling that vision on multiple occasions.

In 2014, Graham's Sun Devil squad posted a 10-3 record, including a 6-3 mark in Pac-12 play, a second-place finish in the Pac-12 South Division and a 36-31 victory over Duke in the Sun Bowl. Tasked with replacing nine starters on defense, Graham led a unit that ranked near the top in the nation in sacks and tackles for loss, forced 27 turnovers and scored five touchdowns during the season.

On the other side of the ball, ASU finished the season ranked 16th in the nation in scoring offense and averaged more than 440 yards per game behind record-breaking quarterback and Pac-12 Scholar-Athlete of the Year Taylor Kelly, 1,000-yard rusher D.J. Foster and 1,000-yard receiver Jaelen Strong.

In 2013 Graham's Sun Devils brushed aside the prognostications from skeptics who felt that an early-season string of games against Wisconsin, Stanford, USC and Notre Dame would be a little bit too much to overcome en route to an appearance in the Pac-12 Championship Game.

ASU outscored its opponents 146-42 on points off turnovers while posting a +15 takeaway number in 2013. ASU put points on the board following 75.8 percent of opponent turnovers (25-of-33) compared to just the 33.3 (6-of-18) percent clip ASU opponents scored off of Sun Devil turnovers.

The duo of defensive tackle Will Sutton and linebacker Carl Bradford combined to give ASU the most dynamic defensive tandem in the country as the two combined for 24.5 sacks and 44.0 tackles for loss in 2012. Their collective average of 1.92 sacks per game was the highest in the country by two players on the same team since the 2006 season. Bradford racked up 40.5 tackles for loss in two years under Graham, tied for the fourth most by any player in the nation in that time.

Sutton became ASU's sixth winner of the Morris Trophy and the 18th consensus All-American and first since 2007. Sutton also became the fifth ASU player to win the Pac-10/12 conference Defensive Player of the Year award. After accomplishing all of that as a junior, Sutton returned for his senior season and repeated as the Pac-12 Defensive Player of the Year and Morris Trophy Winner while adding numerous All-American accolades.

Although the 2013 Sun Devils would come up short of their ultimate goal of getting to and winning the annual Rose Bowl Game, they proved they had the right people on board. And leading that ship a captain in Graham, who was named the 2013 Pac-12 Coach of the Year.

In his first season at Arizona State, Graham guided the team to an 8-5 record as the program recorded its first winning regular season since going 10-2 in 2007. ASU ended the season with three straight wins for the first time since 1978 and just the 14th time in school history.

While known for leading programs that have annually been among the nation's leaders in offensive production, Graham gained national acclaim for his coaching prowess on the other side of the ball after leading defenses that helped West Virginia (2002) and Tulsa (2003) engineer two of the top single-season turnarounds in recent memory. With head-turning accomplishments like those it is easy to see why Graham believes that defense wins championships.

Employing an approach that emphasizes excellent fundamentals and hard and disciplined play, the Sun Devils' extraordinary improvement on defense played a paramount role in the team's rise improvement in 2012. After finishing at or near the bottom of the Pac-12 in several defensive categories in 2011, the Sun Devils experienced an amazing reversal in 2012 as they led the conference in tackles for loss (No. 1 in the nation), pass defense (No. 3 in the nation), and pass efficiency defense (No. 10 in the nation) and finished second in the league in sacks (No. 2 in the nation), interceptions (No. 4 in the nation) and total defense.

Graham was named the 23rd head football coach in program history on December 14, 2011, arriving in Tempe from the University of Pittsburgh.

Graham became well-known on the national scene following a four-year stint at Tulsa (2007-2010) where he led the Golden Hurricane to a 36-17 mark, which included three bowl wins and three seasons of 10-plus wins. Tulsa was one of just 11 schools to post back-to-back 10-win seasons in 2007 and 2008.

The native of Mesquite, Texas, had seasons at Tulsa which included records of 10-4 (2007), 11-3 (2008) and 10-3 (2010) and in his final season the Golden Hurricane won games at Notre Dame and then topped No. 24 Hawaii 62-35 in its own bowl game. The Notre Dame win was dubbed the biggest upset of the 2010 college football season by ESPN's Kirk Herbstreit.

One distinguishing characteristic of Graham-coached teams has been their propensity for lighting up the scoreboard. On two occasions Tulsa led the nation in total offense (2007 at 543.9 yards per game and 2008 at 569.9 yards per game) and ranked fifth in 2010. His 2010 Tulsa team also led the nation in interceptions (24) and was third in turnovers gained (36). His 2007 squad not only led the nation in total offense at 543.9 yards per game, it set 29 school records, 15 conference marks and four NCAA records. Tulsa routed Bowling Green 63-7 in the GMAC Bowl, the largest bowl margin of victory in NCAA history.

Graham's 2008 team again led the nation in total offense (569.9 yards per game) while ranking second in scoring (47.2 points per game), fifth in rushing (268 ypg) and ninth in passing (301.9 ypg). His team finished 11-3, capped by another large bowl win, a 45-13 victory over No. 22 Ball State in the GMAC Bowl.

Including ASU's 62-28 win over Navy in the 2012 Kraft Fight Hunger Bowl, Graham's offense has enabled three different teams (two at Tulsa) to score 60-plus points in a bowl game, making him the only coach to accomplish the feat multiple times.

Prior to taking the head job at Tulsa, Graham led Rice to its first bowl game in 45 seasons in 2006 and earned Conference USA Coach of the Year honors that same season.

Graham began his coaching career in 1988 as an assistant at Poteet High School/Middle School in Mesquite (1988-90) and then helped lead East Central University from a .500 program to NAIA national champions in his third year as he served as defensive coordinator from 1991-93. One year later he was at Carl Albert High School in Midwest City, Okla., and then spent time from 1995-2000 at Allen High School in Allen, Texas. While at Allen, north of Dallas, he also served as athletic director and led a program that had no district wins in the year prior to his arrival to five playoff berths in six seasons (1995-2000).

Graham was hired as the linebackers coach at West Virginia in 2001 and one year later he was promoted to defensive co-coordinator as the Mountaineers went from 3-8 to 9-4, the top turnaround in the country in 2002.

Graham was an all-state defensive back at North Mesquite High School and, after graduating in 1983, he played for East Central University in Ada, Okla., where he was a two-time NAIA All-American defensive back.

Born Dec. 5 1964, Graham earned his bachelor's and master's degrees in education from East Central University. He and his wife, Penni, have six children: Bo, Natalie, Hank, Haylee, Dakota and Michael Todd Jr.
