ASU LACROSSE GAME NOTES

STICK-Y NOTES (UPDATED 4/19)...

The Sun Devil Lacrosse program embarks on their second season at the Division I Level. The program put together a historic campaign a season ago, reaching several significant milestones and earning unexpected accomplishments under Head Coach Courtney Martinez Connor.

Arizona State has won two consecutive games for the first time this season after picking up a 13-11 win over San Diego State in their final home contest of the season. The program's first two seniors, defenders Rachel Gregory and Sydney Bosmans were honored in a pre-game ceremony. Both seniors saw playing time in their final game at Sun Devil Soccer/Lacrosse Stadium.

ASU now has six wins this season, matching their total from last year's inaugural season. They will have two more chances left to earn a program-best seventh win, starting with a showdown with Pac-12 leading No. 16 USC, their sixth Top-25 opponent of the season.

Emily Glagolev was magnificent once again for the Sun Devils, not missing a beat after not playing in the previous game. The sophomore attacker finished with a career-best nine points (3 goals & 6 assists), helping lead her squad to their fourth home win of the season. Glagolev has been on an absolute tear as of late, producing 38 points over her last 10 games. She is one of just four players in the Pac-12 to have reached the 50-point plateau, as she currently leads the conference with 29 assists.

The consistent and reliable duo of Kylie Kroeger and Maria Villanti continue to excel in many aspects of the game. While scoring is only part of their impact, both sophomore midfielders still managed to put together multi-goal performances in the win over San Diego State. For Villanti, it is the fourth consecutive game and seventh time over the last eight games that she has registered at least one goal. Not to be outdone, Kroeger has at least one goal in six of her last eight outings, boasting five multi-goal efforts to her name in 2019. The duo has started all 16 games for the Sun Devils this season.

Goalkeeper Berkeley Bonneau was effective yet again in the cage in the win over San Diego State, making 14 saves, which represents her 11th double-digit save performance in 2019. That gives the junior 20 double-digit save efforts since arriving in Tempe. She currently sits second in the Pac-12 and ninth in the nation averaging 10.75 saves/game. Bonneau also picked up her sixth win of the season, beating her mark of five last year to capture the new school record for single-season wins.

SENIOR DAY WIN OVER THE AZTECS...

The Sun Devils were able to send their seniors out in style on Wednesday, earning a 13-11 victory over San Diego State in the final home game for defenders Rachel Gregory and Sydney Bosmans. The duo will always be remembered for having made a significant impact on Arizona State Lacrosse, helping set the foundation for the program moving forward. Both seniors saw playing time during their last game at Sun Devil Soccer/Lacrosse Stadium. Despite having little time to prepare because of a quick turnaround, the Sun Devils were locked-in and ready to play from the opening whistle. Arizona State received offense in many forms, as the squad saw four different players enjoy multi-goal performances. Emily Glagolev's nine points and Taylor Carson's four goals were just a few of the highlights as the Sun Devils earned their sixth win of the season, matching last seasons total.

SCOUTING THE TROJANS...

Riding their first two-game win streak of the season, the Sun Devils look to carry over that momentum as they face their sixth Top-25 opponent this season. USC recently came in at 16th in the latest Coaches' poll and they currently sit atop the Pac-12 Conference standings with just one game left to play. The Trojans boast a 13-3 record, including an 8-1 conference mark, with their only Pac-12 loss coming two weeks ago at the hands of No. 23 Colorado. Not only is a challenge to face a ranked team, the Sun Devils will have to overcome the fact that this will be their third game they have played over a seven-day span. USC is led by Head Coach Lindsey Munday, who enters her seventh season at the helm of the Trojans Lacrosse team. Munday is the only coach the program has ever had. The Trojans boast an extremely strong postseason resume, earning four wins over ranked teams while sitting in the Top-10 in the second edition of the NCAA Lacrosse RPI rankings.

SUN DEVILS ON THE NETWORK...

Every game of the 2019 Pac-12 Women's Lacrosse Tournament hosted by the University of Oregon in Eugene will be aired of the Pac-12 Network.

YOUTH MOVEMENT...

In just their second season at the Division I level, the Sun Devils boast a talented and young roster. So far during the 2019 season, 11 members of the freshman class have seen playing time (Buckner, McCaffrey, McGlothlin, Martel, Kroah, Hood, Anotonucci, Brodsky, Odell, Class, Payne). The freshman class has made an instant impact, starting a total of 52 games while producing a combined 55 points (32 goals & 23 assists), 95 ground balls, 46 caused turnovers, and 59 draw controls.

COURTNEY MARTINEZ CONNOR

HEAD COACH

SECOND SEASON

MARYLAND '01

Guiding the Sun Devil Lacrosse program through its inaugural Division I season, Coach Martinez Connor helped the Sun Devils enjoy one of the most successful inaugural seasons in NCAA history. In the season opener, Arizona State picked up the program's first-ever victory, an 18-8 road triumph against Kennesaw State. The Sun Devils started the season 5-1, highlighted by a come-from-behind win over Columbia, a game the Sun Devils trailed 4-0 and 7-1 at one point. The most significant result of the season came when ASU traveled to Berkeley to take on conference foe Cal. Despite trailing 6-2 in the first half, the Sun Devils would not quit, tying the game at 11 before the end of regulation to force overtime. Emily Glagolev would come through with the clutch, game-winning goal in overtime would give that would give the the program its first Pac-12 Conference victory.

Under Coach Martinez Connor's tutelage, several Sun Devil Lacrosse student-athletes enjoyed breakout seasons. Sun Devil Lacrosse co-captain Kerri Clayton nabbed Second Team All-Pac-12 honors after an outstanding first season in Tempe. Clayton finished with 59 points, compiling 44 goals and 15 assists. Her 2.59 goals per game average placed her fourth in the conference while her 3.47 points per game was good enough for fifth. She recorded two game-winning goals, tying for the team-lead with Maddy Hunter. Clayton put her name in the Sun Devil record books the very first weekend of the season, scoring a program record seven goals in the team's first win over Kennesaw State on Feb. 9. The junior added five goals and two assists the very next game against Stetson on Feb. 11 to cement her name at the top. For that weekend's performance Clayton was named Inside Lacrosse's Alpha Lacrosse Player of the Week on Feb. 14 as voted on by lacrosse fans across the country, the first National Player of the Week honor for the program.

The Sun Devils captured five non-conference victories, two of which came by double-digits (Manhattan, Presbyterian). The Arizona State offense clicked in the non-conference, scoring 103 goals in six games (17.2 goals/game). Competing as the six seed at their first-ever Pac-12 Tournament, Arizona State saw freshman midfielder Maria Vallanti be named to the 2018 Pac-12 Women's Lacrosse All-Tournament Team after scoring a pair of goals against USC. In total, 2,530 fans attended Sun Devil Lacrosse home games, for a Pac-12 best average crowd of 361 fans per game. The team got it done off the field as well as on it, as Coach Martinez Connor continues to stress the importance of academics. Arizona State placed a pair of student-athletes (Sydney Bosmans, Rachel Gregory) on the IWLCA All-Academic Team, honoring those with a cumulative GPA of 3.50 or higher. Five different Sun Devils earned Pac-12 All-Academic honors, led by Sydney Bosmans, who received Second Team honors.

Courtney Martinez Connor was named the first head coach for Arizona State's varsity women's lacrosse program, Vice President for University Athletics Ray Anderson announced in Nov. 2015. Martinez Connor, a gifted lacrosse student-athlete and standout collegiate coach, is building the foundation of Sun Devil Athletics' 25th varsity sport.

CAROLINE FITZGERALD ASSISTANT COACH FIRST SEASON FLORIDA '17

Former Drexel Assistant Coach Caroline Fitzgerald, a three-time All-American defender at the University of Florida, is joining the Arizona State Lacrosse staff as an Assistant Coach, as announced by head coach Courtney Martinez Connor on Friday.

Fitzgerald joins the Sun Devil Lacrosse staff after one season as an Assistant Coach at Drexel, where she worked primarily with the defense. Working under Dragons head coach Hannah Wszalek, Fitzgerald assisted with defensive concepts, helped implement defense schemes, and developed practice/game plans.

A four-year starter at the University of Florida, Fitzgerald made a tremendous impact in her career in Gainesville. Graduating as the program's all-time leader in ground balls (152) and caused turnovers (87), Fitzgerald will go down as one of the Gator's most productive defenders. Fitzgerald compiled several major accolades during her career at Florida. She was a two-time Tewaaraton Award Nominee (2016, 2017), an award which is recognized as the pre-eminent lacrosse award, annually honoring the top male and female college lacrosse player. Earning IWLCA All-American honors in each of her final three seasons, Fitzgerald became just the fourth Gator to be selected to three All-America teams. The two-time Big East Defender of the Year (2016, 2017) also was named to the All-Big East First Team on three occasions (2015-2017).
