- The Sun Devils are traveling to Los Angeles for a dual meet against the Bruins for the first time since 2016. ASU took second in the meet with a 192.950.

Last Season

The Gym Devils have a lot of momentum going into the 2019 schedule, which features six teams that advanced to the 2018 NCAA National Championships. They are led by head coach Jay Santos, who was named the 2018 Pac-12 Coach of the Year. Additionally, they return NACGC/W Regular Season Second Team All-American Cairo Leonard-Baker, who was also named the 2018 Pac-12 Freshman/Newcomer of the Year.

In 2018, Arizona State ended the season at No. 23, improving 18 spots ahead of the 2017 finish. The Sun Devils also improved their average team score from 195.145 to 196.545. The team qualified for NCAA regionals for the first time since 2014 and sent Leonard-Baker to NCAA nationals as an all-around.

Season Prospectus

The Sun Devils are not shying away from a challenge in 2019. They will compete against six teams that advanced to the 2018 NCAA National Championships: UCLA, Utah, California, Oklahoma, Washington and Nebraska. Additionally, six additional opponents competed in NCAA regionals: Stanford, George Washington, Penn State, Pitt, WVU and BYU.

In the Rankings

The Sun Devils were ranked No. 20 in the Women's Collegiate Gymnastics Association (WCGA) preseason poll. They moved up 11 spots from their 2018 preseason ranking of No. 31.

Home Promos

Each 2019 home meet will have its own theme for fans to experience.

Jan. 4 – "Bring the Heat", Olympic Night

Jan. 26 – Cystic Fibrosis Meet

Feb. 10 – Salute to Service

Feb. 22 – Beauty and the Beast (joint meet with wrestling)

March. 13 – Academic Achievement Night

Roster Breakdown

The 2019 roster returns 14 letterwinners and adds three freshmen. The squad is dominated by upperclassmen: seven seniors and five juniors.

The three freshmen are Jasmine Gutierrez, Kaitlin Harvey and Stephanie Tripodi. They are expected to elevate the program immediately.

Cairo: All-American

Sophomore Cairo Leonard-Baker is coming off of a spectacular freshman campaign. She garnered regular season All-America Second Team honors in the all-around from the National Association of College Gymnastics Coaches (NACGC). She was the first Gym Devil to earn regular season honors since they were instituted in 2013. She also was named the 2018 Pac-12 Freshman/Newcomer of the Year, the first Sun Devil in program history to win the award. Additionally, she is the second Gym Devil to win a conference yearly award in program history.

Olympic Flair

Senior Anne Kuhm has international competition experience to her credit. A member of the French national team since 2009, she competed in the 2012 London Olympics for Team France, which finished in 11th place. Kuhm was selected as a reserve for the all-around final. She participated in the 2012 and 2016 Olympic Test Event, helping France qualify for a full team to the Olympics on both occasions. Most recently, Kuhm was selected as an alternate for France in the 2016 Rio Olympics. She also earned international experience competing for France at the 2015 World Championships in Glasgow. Kuhm is a two-time French national all-around champion (2011 and 2012). She also finished second at the national championships on bar and floor. In 2011, Kuhm was the French Junior National Champion in the all-around.

Ranked Wins

In 2018, the Gym Devils knocked off four ranked opponents: No. 14 Auburn, No. 14 West Virginia, No. 20 Iowa and No. 20 Stanford. It was the first time since 2006 that the squad has accomplished the feat.

More Than An Athlete

Last season, the Gym Devils continued to excel not only as gymnasts, but as students. The team placed a program-best nine student-athletes on Pac-12 All-Academic teams, including a conference-best four first-team honorees.

JAY SANTOS

Head Coach

Hometown ..... Brocktown, Mass.
Education ..... Massachusetts '95
Bachelor's ..... Business Administration

Vice President for University Athletics and Athletics Director Ray Anderson named Jay Santos the head women's gymnastics coach on May 27, 2016.

Boasting arguably one of the most substantial turnarounds in recent collegiate gymnastics history, Santos' 2018 squad improved 18 spots from their 2017 national finish of 41, capping the season ranked at No. 23 nationally (highest finish since 2007). Ranking in the top-20 of the national standings for 12 consecutive weeks, Arizona State made its first team NCAA regional appearance since 2014 while sending individual all-around qualifier and regular season All-American Cairo Leonard-Baker to nationals. Courtesy of his efforts at the helm of the program, Santos was named the 2018 Pac-12 Coach of the Year.

In his first season as head coach in 2017, Santos quickly elevated the program. The Gym Devils scored 195 in four separate meets, the first time that has happened since the 2014 season. The Gym Devils also bested then-No. 23 Arizona for the program's first Pac-12 win since 2014 and the coveted Territorial Cup series point. At the Pac-12 Championship, the Gym Devils completed the season with a 195.600, their second highest team score of the season. It was the second highest team total for the program at a championship meet since 2004 when they scored a 196.775.

Santos coached Eastern Michigan to the 2016 Mid-American Conference Championship, the program's first-ever NCAA Regional appearance, and finished the season ranked 17th in the nation – the highest national ranking in the history of the program. He earned NCAA Central Regional Head Coach of the Year honors.

Prior to leading Eastern Michigan, Santos coached at the University of Illinois-Champaign where he served as assistant coach, then associate head coach in his four-year tenure. At Illinois, Santos coached the team to three NCAA Championship appearances in 2011, 2013, and 2014, finishing 11th in the nation each year. Santos also coached eight Illini gymnasts to All-American honors.

Santos was assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at Iowa State from 2006-10, and also spent time as an assistant at Ohio State. Santos also spent eight years coaching at Somersault Gymnastics Center in Stoughton, Mass., serving as the women's team director and head coach for his last four years. At Somersault Gymnastics, he was responsible for all facets of the women's program and produced several Junior Olympic national and regional qualifiers, and many state champions.

Santos served as a nationally-rated men's gymnastics judge from 1997-2001, working numerous college dual meets as well as Junior Olympic state and regional championships.

Santos earned a bachelor's degree in Business Administration in Operations Management from the University of Massachusetts at Amherst in 1995, and was a member of the Minutemen's gymnastics team from 1990-95. At Amherst, he was a three-time co-captain and founding member of the department's Student-Athlete Advisory Committee (SAAC).

Santos' wife, Jessica Santos, serves as the Sun Devil Gymnastics program's associate head coach. They have two sons, Mason and Cooper.

Prior to her time at Eastern Michigan, Santos served as a volunteer assistant at the University of Illinois-Champaign for three seasons. There, Santos helped the Fighting Illini to their first back-to-back NCAA Championships appearances in program history.

Santos was also an assistant at Iowa State from 2009-11, where the Cyclones' saw the team's highest national ranking since 2007 at No. 13.

At Pittsburgh, where Santos coached as an assistant from 2006-09, she was named the 2007 NCAA Northeast Regional Co-Assistant Coach of the year, overseeing Dani Bryan, who won the league vault title that year. Santos had four other gymnasts earn all-league recognition on vault during her tenure at Pittsburgh. She also served as the co-recruiting coordinator for the Panthers.

Jessica earned both her bachelor's and master's degrees in Athletic Coaching Education at West Virginia University in 2005 and 2007, respectively.
