THE GAME - Sun Devil Football returns to action following its bye week with a contest against the Washington State Cougars on Saturday, Oct. 30 at Noon AZT at Sun Devil Stadium. The contest will be broadcast nationally on FS1 (Cory Provus and Mark Helfrich on the call) and available over the airwaves locally on Arizona Sports 98.7 FM (Tim Healey, Jeff Van Raaphorst, Jordan Simone, Jeff Munn).

ON WASHINGTON STATE - The Cougars have won three straight Pac-12 games and sit third in the Pac-12 North, one game back of Oregon and Oregon State. The Cougars had a hard-fought non-conference setback against BYU last weekend in a 21-19 loss in Pullman last weekend. WSU has won two of the last three in the series against the Sun Devils but ASU leads the all-time series 28-14-2.

KICKING OFF

- » The will mark ASU's first day game of the season. All seven previous Sun Devil games this season have kicked off after 7 p.m. local time, marking a new program record for consecutive "late" kicks. The 2016 season had 8 straight 5 p.m. or later local kicks, a record for consecutive "night games" (Pac-12 era).
- » ASU's secondary has combined for 151 career starts, a total that is second in the nation behind only Indiana. The group is led by Chase Lucas' 44 career starts, who needs four more starts this season to break the Sun Devil school record currently held by Dexter Davis (47).
- » ASU has 37 rushing touchdowns in its last 10 games - the most of any FBS team over their most recent 10-game stretch ahead of Air Force (36).
- » ASU has forced 46 turnovers in its last 18 games dating back to 2019, good for second-most in the nation over an 18-game span (Iowa, 45).
- » In games against FBS competition with only non-garbage time possessions included, ASU is holding opponents to a starting field position of the opponent's own 24.9 yard line - the fifth-worst starting field position for opponents in the FBS.
- » ASU has rushed for 148 or more yards in 11 straight games dating back to 2020. It is the longest such streak since a 12-game span between 1975-76.
- » Against FBS opponents in non-garbage time, ASU has a +1.75 yards per play advantage between its offensive yards gained per play and defensive yards allowed per play. The net positive is ninth-highest in the nation.
- » ASU's offense is averaging 7.03 yards per play on the season (against FBS opponents in non-garbage time) - good for 10th in the FBS.
- » ASU's offense has earned 61.5 percent of the total yards available this season - the eighth-best tally in the FBS. The team is deadly with a short field (from its own 40 inwards), gaining 86.8 percent of the total yards available - third-most in the FBS.
- » The last time ASU gave up a 50-yard play was a rush by UCLA's Britain Brown in 2020, giving ASU a streak of nine straight games without a 50-yard play allowed. It last gave up a 50-yard passing play in the 2019 Sun Bowl against Florida State, marking 11 straight games without a passing play over 50 yards.

AN ASU VICTORY WOULD...

- Keep ASU tied, record-wise, for first place in the Pac-12

50

ASU has allowed just seven plays over 50 yards to opponents since the 2018 season over 37 games. The .19 50+ yard plays per game allowed are 2nd-fewest in the FBS in that time behind only Washington (.13 per game on 5 plays over 38 games). ASU ranked in the bottom 10 nationally in 50+ yards played allowed each year from 2014-17. Since 2018, ASU has allowed just 49 30-yard plays (1.3 per game/37 games)). For perspective, from 2014-17, ASU gave up 38, 44, 40, 40 such plays, respectively ranked 116th, 124th, 117th and 119th. ASU is the only FBS team this year to not allow a 40-yard play.

46

ASU has forced 46 turnovers in its last 18 games dating back to 2019, good for the most in the nation over a 18-game span (Iowa, 45). ASU has forced 51 offensive turnovers overall since 2019, 15th among all FBS teams despite playing significantly fewer games than most schools in 2020, thus year. The team is ninth in the FBS with 10 interceptions this season. Conversely the team is tied for 13th in the FBS with just three interceptions of its own, notable as ASU entered the season having finished in the top-25 in fewest interceptions each season since 2018, only of only three teams with such a claim (triple options Army and Navy).

37

ASU's 37 rushing touchdowns over its last 10 games are the most in the FBS over a 10-game span ahead Air Force's triple option offense (36). ASU has 22 rushing touchdowns this season, good for eighth in the nation. ASU had 10-straight games dating back to 2020 with over 150 rushing yards before that streak was ended against Utah, where the team finished two yards shy at 148. It was the longest such streak since a 12-game run over 150 yards over the final nine games of 1975 and first three of 1976. ASU is 33rd nationally and third in the Pac-12 with 200.1 rushing yards per game this season.

32

All told, the ASU offensive line has allowed just 32 quarterback pressures this year - 15 fewer than any other Pac-12 school and 14th-fewest in the FBS (though triple option offenses Air Force and Army rank first and second). Only six pressures this season have come unblocked, tied for the second-lowest total in the FBS. ASU has allowed a pressure on just 22.0 percent of quarterback dropbacks this year, the seventh-lowest total in the FBS. ASU quarterbacks have been knocked down just 11 times this season - fourth-fewest in the nation behind Georgia, Army and Baylor. Kellen Diesch, LaDarius Henderson and Dohnovan West are tied for 13th among all FBS linemen with just 3 QB pressures.

26

ASU has held opponents to less than 30 points in 26 of 37 games under Herm Edwards, notable as it DID allow 30+ in 32 of 43 previous games dating back in a span from 2013-17. The Sun Devils are allowing just 1.87 points per drive against FBS opponents, good for 36th in the nation. Currently, ASU is 22nd in the FBS and first in the Pac-12 in allowing just 18.9 points per game. Even after the second-half debacle at Utah, ASU is ninth in the FBS in allowing just 7.8 second-half points per game against its FBS opponents. ASU is outscoring teams 92-54 in the second half of games this year and 47-23 in the fourth quarter.

7

ASU's offense is averaging 7.03 yards per play on the season (against FBS opponents in non-garbage time) - good for 10th in the FBS. Against FBS opponents, the Sun Devils pick up at least four yards per play on 70.9 percent of plays (3rd in the FBS) and gain at least seven yards on 45.5 percent of plays (5th in the FBS). The team is averaging 2.96 points per drive on the year against FBS opponents - 20th best in the FBS. When the team starts between its own 20-40 yard lines, it averages 3.30 points per drive against FBS teams - the seventh-best tally in the nation.

* - Indicates extra COVID-19 year utilized

^ - Indicates athlete has earned thier undergraduate degree

Please note, the Sun Devil Football staff has chosen to advance most players in eligibility that appeared in a game in 2020, just like they would have in a regular season. This also includes select freshman that technically did not appear in over four games and thus were allowed to utilize the "redshirt" clause that was installed by the NCAA a couple years ago. The COVID-19 year will only be reflected in student-athletes that return for the extra season that would have otherwise exhausted their availability.
