Opponent Outlook

No. 4 UCLA (7-2)

- The Bruins are ranked in the top five in three events: floor (1), bars (2) and vault (3). Additionally, they are averaging a 197.050 as a team, their highest score being a 197.675.

- Individually, UCLA has many gymnasts ranked in the top 10 in different events. Senior Kyla Ross is ranked No. 2 in the all-around, No. 6 on vault, No. 1 on bars, No. 5 on beam and No. 6 on floor. On bars, two more gymnasts are ranked in the top 10: Margzetta Frazier (4) and Madison Kocian (5). Three other Bruins are ranked in the top 10 on floor: Gracie Kramer (4), Frazier (6) and Felicia Hano (10).

- Last season, ASU took on UCLA in Los Angeles. The Sun Devils shone bright on beam, scoring a 49.325. That was the second-highest event total of 2019 for Arizona State.

Player of the Week

Fifth-year senior Morgan Wilson was awarded for her performance against Cal, earning the Pac-12 Coaches' Choice of the Week nod on Feb. 6. This is the first coaches' choice honor for a Gym Devil, with the award being a new addition to the Pac-12 this season. It is the first weekly award for Wilson and the first for ASU since Justine Callis was named the Pac-12 Specialist of the Week last season on January 23.

Cairo: 2x All-American & History-Maker

In 2019, Cairo Leonard-Baker earned Second Team All-America honors on bars after scoring a 9.900 at the NCAA Championships. She was also named a WCGA Regular Season All-American for the second-straight season, this time on bars. She garnered regular season All-America Second Team honors in 2018 in the all-around from the National Association of College Gymnastics Coaches (NACGC). She was the first Gym Devil to earn regular season honors since they started in 2013.

She was also named to the 2019 All-Pac-12 First Team in both the all-around and on bars. She is the first Gym Devil to receive both of those awards in back-to-back seasons since Ashley Kelly from 2003-04.

In the Rankings

ASU was ranked No. 21 in the Women's Collegiate Gymnastics Association (WCGA) preseason poll. The Sun Devils' highest ranking in 2019 was No. 13 in week two. They were in the top 20 in seven weeks of the regular season and in the top 25 all season.

Returners

The Sun Devils return seven gymnasts who have played key roles for ASU in past seasons. The team is led by junior Leonard-Baker, who has earned All-America honors in each of her two seasons in Tempe. She has been a staple in the all-around for Arizona State in the last two years. Other returners who have made key contributions are Morgan Wilson, Jessica Ginn Morgan Hart and Ashley Szafranski. Jasmine Gutierrez and Graycee Zaugg have also made appearances in lineups during their time here.

Three returners have earned 9.900s or better during their time at ASU. Hart scored a 9.900 on bars last year, Szafranski has earned 9.900s on bars and beam in her career and Wilson won a vault title with one of her two 9.900s in 2019. Leonard-Baker has the most 9.900s or better, earning 12 between bars and floor just last season. She also won 12 event titles last year, seven on bars and five on floor.

Newcomers

Arizona State has seven new faces on the team: six freshmen and a transfer sophomore. The Sun Devils will rely on some key underclassmen to show up big for the team in 2020. At the Maroon and Gold Scrimmage in early December, freshmen Juliette Boyer, Hannah Scharf and Gracie Reeves all competed in the all-around, with Boyer taking second behind Leonard-Baker.

Home Promotions

In 2020, the Gym Devils' home schedule is packed with promotions. For the home opener against Oklahoma, it is the Cystic Fibrosis awareness and alumni meet. On January 17, ASU will host a Beauty and the Beast meet with ASU wrestling. After the Salute to Service meet against Cal, the Sun Devils will have a Bring the Heat and camper reunion meet against UCLA. Arizona State's meet against Washington is the academic achievement meet, with a kids clinic following the competition. Finally, March 8's meet against Pittsburgh is senior day as well as the princess-themed meet.

Last Season

Jay and Jessica Santos led the Gym Devils to a successful season in 2019, the first since 2014 to have a winning record (11-10) in the regular season. The team was ranked in the top-25 on Road to Nationals all year, finishing at No. 25, and earned four wins over top-25 teams throughout the season. They scored a 196.000 or better six times and had a team RQS (Regional Qualifying Score) of 196.320 at the end of the year, the second season in a row with an RQS over 196.000.

To start off the postseason, the Sun Devils took fifth at the Pac-12 Gymnastics Championships, the best team finish since 2006. At NCAA Regionals, the team finished in seventh, but Cairo Leonard-Baker won the regional bar title with a 9.925, automatically qualifying her for nationals as an individual. At the NCAA Championships, she scored a 9.900, earning Second Team All-America honors in that event.

More Than An Athlete

The Gym Devils continued their tradition of incredible work in and out of the classroom. Tying last year's record, nine student-athletes were placed on Pac-12 All-Academic Teams.

There were six on the first team, which is a program record. The six on the first team are Corinne Belkoff, Jessica Ginn, Anne Kuhm, Kaitlyn Szafranski, Ashley Szafranski and Heather Udowitch. On the second team, the Gym Devils represented are Morgan Hart and Morgan Wilson. Justine Callis is the Sun Devil receiving an honorable mention.

JAY SANTOS

Head Coach

Hometown Brockton, Mass.
Education Massachusetts '95
Bachelor's Business Administration

Vice President for University Athletics and Athletics Director Ray Anderson named Jay Santos the head women's gymnastics coach on May 27, 2016.

Jay Santos led the Gym Devils to another successful season in 2019, the first since 2014 to have a winning record (11-10) in the regular season. The team was ranked in the top-25 on Road to Nationals all year and earned four wins over top-25 teams throughout the season. They scored a 196.000 or better six times and had a team RQS (Regional Qualifying Score) of 196.320 at the end of the year. To start off the postseason, the Sun Devils took fifth at the Pac-12 Gymnastics Championships, the best team finish since 2006. The team qualified for their second-straight trip to NCAA Regionals. Cairo Leonard-Baker qualified for nationals as an individual on bars, earning Second Team All-America honors.

Santos has led ASU to arguably one of the most substantial turnarounds in recent collegiate gymnastics history. In his first season as head coach in 2017, Santos quickly elevated the program. The Gym Devils scored 195 in four separate meets, the first time that has happened since the 2014 season. Santos' 2018 squad improved 18 spots from their 2017 national finish of 41, capping the season ranked at No. 23 nationally (highest finish since 2007). Ranking in the top-20 of the national standings for 12 consecutive weeks, Arizona State made its first team NCAA regional appearance since 2014 while sending individual all-around qualifier and regular season All-American Cairo Leonard-Baker to nationals. Courtesy of his efforts at the helm of the program, Santos was named the 2018 Pac-12 Coach of the Year.

Santos coached Eastern Michigan to the 2016 Mid-American Conference Championship, the program's first-ever NCAA Regional appearance, and finished the season ranked 17th in the nation – the highest national ranking in the history of the program. He earned NCAA Central Regional Head Coach of the Year honors.

Prior to leading Eastern Michigan, Santos coached at the University of Illinois-Champaign where he served as assistant coach, then associate head coach in his four-year tenure. At Illinois, Santos coached the team to three NCAA Championship appearances in 2011, 2013, and 2014, finishing 11th in the nation each year. Santos also coached eight Illini gymnasts to All-American honors.

Santos was assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at Iowa State from 2006-10, and also spent time as an assistant at Ohio State. Santos also spent eight years coaching at Somersault Gymnastics Center in Stoughton, Mass., serving as the women's team director and head coach for his last four years. Santos served as a nationally-rated men's gymnastics judge from 1997-2001, working numerous college dual meets as well as Junior Olympic state and regional championships.

Santos earned a bachelor's degree in Business Administration in Operations Management from the University of Massachusetts at Amherst in 1995, and was a member of the Minutemen's gymnastics team from 1990-95. At Amherst, he was a three-time co-captain and founding member of the department's Student-Athlete Advisory Committee (SAAC).

Santos' wife, Jessica Santos, serves as the Sun Devil gymnastics program's associate head coach. They have two sons, Mason and Cooper.

The team was ranked in the top-25 on Road to Nationals all year and earned four wins over top-25 teams throughout the season. In 2018, the team improved 18 spots from their 2017 national finish of 41, finishing the season at No. 23 nationally (highest finish since 2007). All-American Cairo Leonard-Baker has qualified for nationals in each of her two seasons. In 2017, they had the best season since 2014, capping it off by scoring the best Pac-12 team total since 2004.

Santos helped coach Eastern Michigan to the 2016 Mid-American Conference Championship, the program's first-ever NCAA Regional appearance, and finished the season ranked 17th in the nation – the highest national ranking in the history of the program.

Prior to her time at Eastern Michigan, Santos served as a volunteer assistant at the University of Illinois-Champaign for three seasons. There, Santos helped the Fighting Illini to their first back-to-back NCAA Championships appearances in program history. Santos was also an assistant at Iowa State from 2009-11, where the Cyclones' saw the team's highest national ranking since 2007 at No. 13.
