SUN DEVIL LACROSSE PREVIEW

Arizona State lacrosse (7-9, 2-4) wraps up the 2024 regular season against UC Davis (9-6, 2-4) on Saturday, April 27 at Sun Devil Soccer/Lacrosse Stadium. The game is slated to start at 12 p.m. MST and will be shown on Arizona State Live Stream-3. The team will be celebrating its 12 seniors and graduates in a postgame ceremony.

The players set to be recognized in the team's postgame ceremony are: Shannon Urey, Lindsey Dean, Katie Haley, Gigi Gaspar, Bella Gaspar, Zoe Mazur, Flynn Murphy, Grace Lilla, Cate Duhig, Riley Forman, Rosie Davis, and Mina Scott.

Program History:

The two teams have faced off three times in program history, with ASU holding the 3-0 series edge. The Sun Devils have averaged 17 goals per game against the Aggies and have allowed just over 12 goals per game to UC Davis. Two of the wins have come on the road, while just one matchup has taken place in Tempe, a 19-14 win on March 21, 2021.

Sun Devil Notes:

Last week, the Sun Devils dropped a road contest to the University of Oregon by a final score of 20-12. Graduate attacker Shannon Urey led the offensive charge with three goals, while all three goalies on the defensive end saw time in net for ASU. A win on Saturday would clinch a spot in the Pac-12 Tournament next week for the Sun Devils. In the event of a loss to UC Davis, a loss by both California and SDU would send ASU to the Pac-12 Tournament.

Scouting the Opponent:

UC Davis has compiled a 9-6 record this season and is in a four-way tie with ASU, California, and Oregon for fourth place in the Pac-12. Seven of their nine wins have come at home, while the team owns a 2-2 record on the road. In a neutral site game at Sun Devil Soccer/Lacrosse Stadium against Niagara, the Aggies fell 13-9 in Tempe.

Taryn VanThof

Head Coach

SECOND Season

Loyola Maryland '15

Sun Devil Athletics hired Taryn VanThof as the new Lacrosse Head Coach, Vice President of University Athletics Ray Anderson announced on July 5, 2022

VanThof comes to Arizona State after an extremely successful six-year stint as the Assistant Coach at national power Florida. There she served as the Offensive Coordinator, Goalie Coach, Draw Specialist, and Recruiting Coordinator for the Gators.

“Thank you to Vice President for University Athletics Ray Anderson and Senior Associate AD/SWA Christina Wombacher for this opportunity to lead the Sun Devil Lacrosse program,” VanThof remarked. “I could not be more thrilled to coach at this extraordinary university.”

Under the direction of VanThof and Head Coach Amanda O’Leary, Florida has emerged as one of the nation’s premiere programs over the past six years. In 2022, the Gators made their fifth consecutive NCAA Tournament, earning a bid every year of VanThof’s tenure. She arrives in Tempe coming off two straight appearances in the NCAA Quarterfinal Round (Elite Eight) with Florida.

“Taryn VanThof is a tremendous addition to the Sun Devil Family.” Vice President of University Athletics Ray Anderson stated. “We identified her as the right person to lead this program on the rise because of her energy, passion, and desire to be at Arizona State.”

Prior to launching a budding career in coaching, VanThof was a standout All-American midfielder at Loyola Maryland from 2011-15. She competed at the professional level as recently as the 2021 season in the Athletes Unlimited League.

While she was an assistant coach at Florida, the Gators combined to go an incredible 85-24 (78%) from 2017-22. That stretch included five NCAA Tournament appearances, six NCAA Tournament victories, all five possible Conference Tournament titles, and two of the three Elite Eight appearances in program history.

As the Offensive Coordinator, Goalie Coach, Draw Specialist, and Recruiting Coordinator, VanThof had an impact on all aspects of the program for the last six years. The Gators finished the season ranked in the Top-10 all but one of those seasons, proving to be one of the most consistent and well-coached teams in the country.

She began her coaching career at Rutgers in 2016, getting a taste of Big Ten action immediately following the completion of her collegiate career. During her only season in New Brunswick, she helped orchestrate a four-win improvement, with two Scarlet Knights named to the Big Ten All-Conference Team.

Caroline Wakefield

Assistant Coach
SECOND Season
North Carolina '21

One of the winningest players in the history of the storied North Carolina Women's Lacrosse program will be patrolling the sidelines in Tempe next season. For All-American Caroline Wakefield joins Haley Warden, who accepted a role on the staff last week, to make up an extremely decorated assistant coach duo.

"We are thrilled to have Caroline Wakefield join our staff," Head Coach Taryn VanThof remarked. "She has an exceptional ability to connect and build relationships with student-athletes. I can't wait to get to work with her."

As part of her over 14 years of hands-on experience in the sport of lacrosse, Wakefield has been the Head Coach of Team91 Carolina since 2018. In this role, she developed Team91's program to reach their maximum performance. She most recently served as a Director of Operations for the travel teams she helped establish, coordinating all travel and logistics.

"Arizona State is a unique place to play lacrosse and offers an extraordinary student-athlete experience," Wakefield observed. "I am looking forward to being a part of something special in Tempe."

Haley Warden
Assistant Coach
SECOND Season
JMU '18

Warden comes to Arizona State after spending the past three seasons at James Madison, where she served as the offensive coordinator for her Alma Mater. She brings an impressive resume with her to Tempe, having found success at the highest level as both a coach and player.

"I am excited to welcome Coach Warden to the Sun Devil Lacrosse family," Head Coach Taryn VanThof exclaimed. "Haley brings international and professional playing experience, is a great leader and communicator, and continues to blossom as a coach. She understands what it takes to be the best."

Over the course of a brilliant four-year run with the Dukes, Warden established herself as one of the best to ever wear the purple and gold. She capped her playing career in the ultimate fashion, captaining the 2018 team to the NCAA Championship, the first in program history. Warden was named the Most Outstanding Player of the National Championship Game after delivering a four-goal performance in the 16-15 win over Boston College.

"I am honored and humbled to be named assistant coach at Arizona State University," Haley Warden remarked. "I would like to thank Coach VanThof and Sr. Associate AD/SWA Christina Wombacher for this amazing opportunity."
